"Necessities"

The comforts of life make us think of ourselves; and necessities are needs with the word must implied.

Yes! sometimes this means sacrifice, but it will bring us up to the full measure of ourselves.

What are some of our necessities? Shoes, Hats, Hosiery, Furnishings.

Our Shoes as to quality, style and comfort have the approval of good taste; our Hats have the snap and beauty that youth and old age desire; our Hosiery the best; our Furnishings staple, neat and attractive.

CHESTERTOWN BONDS SELL AT PREMIUM.

The Chestertown Commissioners on Thursday at noon opened bids for the $28,000 bonds for purchase of water works and improvement of same. The bids were as follows: Hambleton & Co. and Baker, Watts & Co., bankers of Baltimore, $29,125.60; Second National Bank, $28,420; Kent County Savings Bank, $28,100. After a careful consideration of the bids the Commissioners unanimously awarded the bonds to the Baltimore firms. These bonds bear interest at 5 per cent. and are free from all county and municipal taxation. The successful bidders proposal was at 4 1-5 per cent.

The fact that Chestertown's bonds sold at a premium of $1125.60 evidences the fact that the town has good credit and a high standing in financial circles. It is a very gratifying result to every citizen.

REAL ESTATE SALES.

Thomas G. Wroth Buys The Jump-Archibald Farm, Near Fairlee, For $15,500.

School Commissioner Purnell Jump on Tuesday sold his farm, near Fairlee, to Mr. Thomas G. Wroth, of Chestertown, for $15,500. This track of land contains 290 acres, finely located, has a good dwelling on it and is well tilled by Mr. Frank Leaverton who will continue on same. The wheat crop is reserved but Mr. Wroth gets all other crops. With the purchase of this farm Mr. T. G. Wroth moves up into the thousand acre list, although the Reybold farm is owned in part by his brother, Mr. Clinton W. Wroth.

The Warren house in Fairlee opposite Salem M. E. Church was sold at public sale Tuesday by Lewin W. Wickes, Esq., trustee, Mr. H. P. Jones being the purchaser at $1,000.

The town lot 150 feet frontage opposite Chester Cemetery was sold at public sale Tuesday, Fred. G. Usilton being the purchaser at $100.

J. Waters Russell has sold the L. H. P. Vansant property at Betterton to Miss Julia E. Clark, of Church Hill.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Mrs. Mary Boyer Deford died in Baltimore Tuesday and her body was brought to Rock Hall Wednesday for interment. She was aged 21 years and 9 months. She was the daughter of Wm. Boyer. Her death was especially sad.

Thomas Kendall, son of the late Jacob Kendall, died in Rock Hall Wednesday, aged about 45.

MRS. JULIA A. HOSSINGER.

Mrs. Julia A. Hossinger, relict of the late Joseph H. Hossinger, died at her home in Lynch, Wednesday afternoon of the infirmities of age in her 83rd year. The deceased was a Miss Biddle, who came from an old Kent family. Her husband died in 1887 since which time she has lived at Lynch. She was a woman of good business mind, an industrious worker and a great help to the needy. She leaves one son, Mr. Joseph Biddle Hossinger. The funeral took place yesterday, interment in Chester cemetery.

THE auditor's account filed in Circuit Court No. 2 in the case of the defunct Farmers' Trust Banking and Deposit Company shows that the creditors of the company will receive a dividend of 40 per cent on their claims. Since October 9, 1907, when receivers were appointed for the company, they have collected $111,485 and expended $21,407. The number of claimants is 1,161, and their claims aggregate $229,719.

THE following marriage licenses have been issued recently by Clerk Dixon: Phineas Chambers and Thresa Ella McCarthy; James P. Hickey and Sallie A. Joiner; George W. Davis and Blanche E. Bishop.

THE repairs to Chester bridge were begun Monday. The ferry, under the management of Messrs. Armstrong and Coleman, has been giving perfect satisfaction while the "independent" ferries have been doing a thriving business. Duyer Bros. estimate it will require at least a month to complete improvements. Foot passengers using the bridge are cautioned to exercise care in crossing as they use it at their own risk.

A NEW CANNERY has been erected on the Wilmer farm opposite "Riverside" and a large acreage of tomatoes contracted for.
