CLOTHES?

The clothes question is very easily solved at this establishment.

In the first place you will find an assortment. Next in order—variety of shapes for big men and little men. Then comes the price and this important feature is lower than you have been paying for such values. Everything is high except the price. The workmanship, material, etc., make a combination of high results that not many can equal.

AS YET

The assortment is fairly good don't wait longer than possible though

IN

connection with this regular line of well selected patterns we have placed on sale about fifty suits, odds and ends, consisting of remaining lots of this and last season, with a fair range of sizes and patterns which will be closed at the whole suit and the sizes run 35 to 44.

$4.90

ANOTHER

bunch of odds and ends in Children's Suits. Price, $1.50 to $2.50 the suit.

HATS

Underwear, Gloves, Neckwear and all the lesser perquisites to complete your toilet. Come look the line over at your earliest convenience. Respectfully

LOCAL NOTES.

In another column will be found the official card of Commander Howard in reference to purse-net fishing. The law was published in the News of June 20th.

Fine perch fishing is being enjoyed on Chester river. Messrs. Frank Greenwood, S. Q. Moody, William Lambert and others have made some excellent catches. Found netters off Hale Point sold their one day's catch last week for $450!

Messrs. H. W. Brice and T. D. Bowers caught several big rock down the river on Monday.

The stores in Chestertown will not observe today, July 4th, as a holiday but an effort is being made to give all holiday on Monday. The summer schedule of night closing goes into effect next Monday.

The Annual Pentecostal Camp-meeting will be held in Klinefelter's Grove, one-half mile from Chestertown, Md., August 21st to 30th. Rev. Arthur Greene, of North Attleboro, Mass., with a number of spirit-filled evangelists and singers, will have charge. For information apply to W. F. Wiggins, Millington, Md.

The Chestertown Bowling Alley has been doing a rushing business the past week notwithstanding the hot weather. Manager Lambert looks after the comfort of his patrons to perfection.

The Chester River bridge at Chestertown will be open to travel today and tomorrow (July 4th and 5th). But will be closed for travel on Monday for the completion of the bridge.

The Chestertown P. E. Sunday School will hold their picnic at Love Point on Thursday, July 9th, M. E. School Wednesday, July 8th and M. P. School on Thursday, July 16th.

SPREAD and Alexander variety of peaches are being shipped this week.

C. W. Lord, of Camden, shipped 100 baskets of Early Wheeler peaches, Thursday, for which he received $1.00 per basket. Mr. Lord will have about 300 baskets in all of this variety, which originated in Texas.

The Massey farm, near town, tenanted by George B. Bish has been rented by the Cooper Bros., sons of Mr. Samuel F. Cooper.

Many of our citizens, with a smoked window glass, watched the partial eclipse of the sun on Sunday. At eleven o'clock about five-sixths of the sun appeared blotted out with the exception of a narrow ring at the edge that was visible about the disk of the moon. It had the appearance of a brilliant moon in its first quarter. Sitting in the house the darkness resembled early twilight.

CLIMBING upon a chair and getting a box of strychnine pills from a sideboard, when they were left thoughtlessly by a member of the family, Irvin Garlick, the two-year-old son of Mrs. Mabel Garlick, of the Seventh district near Elkton swallowed several of the pellets before he was discovered. The little fellow died within half an hour.

The Song of the Hair

There are four verses. Verse 1. Ayer's Hair Vigor stops falling hair. Verse 2. Ayer's Hair Vigor makes the hair grow. Verse 3. Ayer's Hair Vigor cures dandruff. Verse 4. Ayer's Hair Vigor makes the scalp healthy, and keeps it so. It is a regular hair-food; this is the real secret of its wonderful success.

The best kind of a testimonial—made for over sixty years. Sarsaparilla Pills. Cherry Pectoral.
