PUBLISHERS AND EDITORS.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 22, 1908.

THE New York World came out in a strong editorial this week in favor of Bryan.

KENT Democrats will not be converted to Taft by anything the Sun can say. It is in no sense a safe Democratic guide.

THE Philadelphia Record is being substituted for the Baltimore Sun with many Kent readers since that luminary flopped to Taft.

AND now the Baltimore American sees snakes in Bryan's yard. Never mind, Bro. Agnus, the Sun will now help to protect you.

HOW the Baltimore Sun can support Taft and the Republican protection policy—after all its good work against that imperialistic cause—is one of the mysterious incidents of the campaign.

THE efforts of the Sun to carry Taft on one shoulder and Crothers on the other is a wobbly business to say the least of it. Our noble State Executive will not feel flattered with the association certain.

THE "lay-down" of the Baltimore Sun has cost that paper many thousands of readers. Democrats who have read it for years are now either taking a pure Republican paper or some out-of-the-State papers.

THE INCOME TAX policy, favored by Bryan and the masses of the people generally, is the moving cause for the opposition of many to Mr. Bryan. It gives the Baltimore Sun a death thrill to whisper it, and the American and News see snakes!

THE Commission on Public Health and Hygiene met in Gov. Crothers' office in Baltimore last week. Senator Wm. M. Slay, chairman, presided. The Commission will meet later to hear a report which is being prepared by Dr. Marshall L. Price.

HON. GEORGE L. WELLINGTON, Republican ex-Senator of Western Maryland, has taken the trouble to publish his purpose to support Taft, because he did vote for Bryan once. As everybody knew the reason for that "flop" and as he has been a straight Republican ever since, his support of Taft is not at all surprising.

"FOUR HUNDRED THOUSAND MEN out of work." This is the report from a railroad center, and the loss in traffic over twenty-five millions per month! Yet the Republicans are appealing to the country to keep them in power. Their prosperity is a myth. Better try Bryan. He is not only a great statesman but he is a man of the highest ideals of civil duty—he is a Christian man.

A MAN in Nebraska fired four times at his wife, with no serious results, and then attempted suicide, in which he also failed, because madam would not talk to him as often or as much as he desired. Thus are we once more reminded that truth is stranger than fiction, and the jokesmiths who have wives driving their husbands crazy with their loquacity are put to shame, as they richly deserve.

A NEW evening paper has made its appearance in Baltimore. It is called the American Star, and, having the American as its godfather, will of course support the Republican cause. This will make four dailies devoted to Taft. Bryan has none. But the people will get hold of the facts and the time is not distant when a good straight Democratic daily will fill the great need of our Monumental City.

THE BLUSHING PEACH.

Despite the fact that many "Eastern Sho" orchards have been depleted by infection during the past year, the peach crop of this section is larger than it has been for some years. The season is now at its height and the captains of steamboats which touch the shores of both Maryland and Virginia say that the boats are carrying almost their capacities of the luscious fruit.

The steamer Corsica perhaps holds the record for the present year, having brought to Baltimore in two trips 10,000 baskets of fruit. The B. S. Ford has been bringing up from 1,800 to 2,000 baskets on each trip within the past week, while the Kitty Knight has been doing likewise. The fruit is all reported to be of a fine quality.

Delaware's peach crop threatens to fall far below the estimate sometime ago prepared by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, and buyers and growers alike are much discouraged.

Bridgeville is one of the largest if not the largest shipping point on the peninsula, and before the season opened it was estimated that 179,000 baskets would be shipped from this point. This week one of the leading buyers stated that he did not anticipate the yield would be over 100,000 baskets and probably not that large.

"The future of the Delaware peach looks bad to me, and it looks bad to others as well," said J. E. Layton, one of the principal buyers. "The peaches are rotting badly, and the result is that growers are shipping them in a green state in order that they will reach the markets in as good a condition as possible. The Delaware peach this season is not up to the standard in size, flavor or quality."

ORGANIZE CLUBS.

Every district in Kent County should have a Bryan, Kern and Covington Club. The Democrats of Chestertown will organize a club on Monday, Sept. 14. The plan of the Democratic National Committee to organize clubs in every State and every county and town in each State has been taken up by the Progressive Democratic League of Maryland. The movement is being called to the attention of voters by Secretary W. E. Beveridge, who is sending broadcast a letter stating the aims of the League. The fact that there is now no newspaper in the State supporting Bryan has made it necessary to take up the work in correspondence form.

WHAT does it signify? There are today no less than four accused murderers—on separate charges—in our county jail! This is a startling fact and most extraordinary in a community of such high moral culture and intelligence. The prisoners in question are all negroes and mostly foreigners. Our home colored population as a rule are law-abiding and orderly—as much so probably as in any section of the State. Our courts are effective and our civil officers efficient. What is our remedy?

ONE of the Republican organs scoffs at the small contributions to the Democratic campaign fund. The masses of the people in this year of Republican prosperity, who are going to contribute their votes to Bryan, are too poor to give money for his election. On the other hand the organ cannot conceal its gratification over the fact that the Party of Great Moral Ideas can draw upon the predatory Trusts for unlimited supplies of corruption money to carry the election. But this corruption money beats out very thin when it is spread over this vast country, with its 16,000,000 voters.

FARM NOTES.

J. Thos. Blackiston, on New Tolchester, is said to have the best field of corn in the county. This is saying a good deal. The field just happened to strike the season, and this, added to good farming gave the result.

Ninety cents for corn! This is the quotation in Baltimore this week. When did this cereal ever reach such a price? Wheat in Baltimore at same time is quoted at 98c. Seed wheat is sold here this week at $1.20 per bushel. Mr. Guest has disposed of all his new variety at $1.25 per pound.

Farmers will be busy cutting off corn next week. Two-thirds of a crop in Kent is a liberal estimate. Mr. H. P. Skipper thinks it will be a little better in Queen Anne's because of more frequent rains.

Grass has improved wonderfully under recent fine rains.

Mr. Albert Story, in Queen Anne's, is putting up a 115 ton silo. He is steadily improving his fine herd of cattle.

One farmer stated yesterday that he had never known farm labor so plentiful as at the present season. The hard times in the city no doubt force many into the country for work.

One dollar a day and board will be the ruling price for corn cutting.

Now is the ideal time to sow alfalfa for best results. It is sold at 15c per pound f.o.b. Baltimore for best grade.

Mr. Owen Cranor, of Worton, will tenant Mr. H. L. Boyd's Broad Neck farm next year.

Mr. Joseph R. Usilton, in Worton, shipped 600 baskets of peaches on Monday last, most of them Elbertas. He expects about 1200 baskets of Elbertas from 300 trees.

Twenty-two carloads of peaches were shipped from Wyoming, Del., last Saturday.

Queen Anne Prohibitionists.—The Prohibitionists of Queen Anne county met in convention in the courthouse, Centreville, William F. Wiggins, chairman, presiding. The following delegates were chosen:

Congressional Convention—S. G. Nolls, Ivanhoe Willis, Edwin Know, R. E. Baynard, W. V. Bryan, M. Coursey, Joseph H. Richardson, J. T. Anthony. Alternates—B. F. Nickerson, E. R. Anthony, R. F. Eaton, James Price, W. H. Fields, John P. Hartley, W. H. Denney and Dr. W. H. Fenby.

State Convention—Jas. Mullikin, Jas. E. DeFord, Richard L. Skinner, Joseph H. Richardson. Alternates—Ralph Baynard, James Wallace, Spencer Walls and Levi Pippin.

W. F. Wiggins, the present chairman, was endorsed, and his name will be recommended to the state convention for reappointment as chairman in this county.

Dr. W. H. Fenby was elected Secretary-treasurer, vice Edwin Knox, resigned.

RELIGIOUS NOTES.

Rev. Dr. H. C. Cushing, of Westminster, Md., one of the most prominent ministers of the Methodist Protestant Church in this state, is seriously ill at his farm near Manassas, Va. He has been ill for sometime. Dr. Cushing retired from the active ministry several several years ago, but he is regarded as the nestor of the Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church. He has served some of the most important charges in the conference and is known from one end of the state to the other.

Rev. Leonard White, of Fairlee, has returned from his vacation and will occupy the pulpits of Fairlee and Worton churches at the regular services on Sunday. A cordial invitation is extended to members and friends to be present at these services.

The Holiness camp in Klinefelter's grove, began last night.

FIFTY-THREE new telephones have recently been installed south of Kennedyville. All of these are on the Chestertown division and enables patrons in Chestertown use of these phones without extra cost. Rock Hall, Tolchester and other points will soon be on Chestertown central.

DR. FRANK B. HINES has rented the house on corner of Princess and Cannon Sts., formerly occupied by Mr. Charles Estes. Extensive improvements are being made after which the Dr. will make this his future home.
