SATURDAY, AUGUST 29, 1908.

THIS has been Fair week, but the unfair weather made all who attended fare very badly. The plucky managers, however, did all in their power to give the visitors good racing and make them comfortable.

BALTIMORE has lost a faithful official in the resignation of City Solicitor W. Cabell Bruce. He will be succeeded by Edgar Allan Poe, son of John P. Poe, Esq., a very able young man.

FLOODS have swept the South this week. Augusta, Ga., is covered by water in central part of city, and all business is suspended. The flood is due to the long continued and heavy rains.

THOUSANDS of laboring men are out of employment and the Republican campaign cry of a full dinner pail fails to arouse any sympathy.

THE laboring man and farmer should stand shoulder to shoulder in this fight against the Trusts. A reduction of the tariff would mean better times for the farmer and for the man who works for wages.

ATTORNEY-GENERAL STRAUS has given an opinion that two marks only will be required to vote for the Congressman and the Presidential electors. It was the contention that there would have to be a mark opposite every elector.

THE National Negro American Political League, formed with the purpose of defeating Mr. Taft for President, has issued an appeal to all the negroes of the country to vote for William J. Bryan. Indications are that the league will use every effort to elect Mr. Bryan and to deliver the negro vote to him. With the negro vote Mr. Bryan will carry Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Maryland and Delaware. The fold is open to all and none will be turned away because of race, color or previous condition. The Bryan party is the party of the people and not of the trusts and capitalists.

The campaign is young yet, but the feeling of success for the Democracy is so much stronger at this stage than it has been at any time within the past twelve years, that Democrats all over the country feel great hopes of success. Very few Democrats have gone over to Taft, while hundreds of Republicans have left their party for the first time, some because of the religious beliefs of the candidate, many more because he is the creature of the erratic Roosevelt and has announced himself in favor of the Roosevelt policies. The American people are tired of Roosevelt and his policies, and they want to settle down once more to business.
