Nolan, Pennington, Connelly, Matthews and Hines won two games out of three and by 14 pins. The games were all very interesting and a large crowd witnessed the contest.

WEDDING NOTES.
BRADDOCK—BURNES. Mr. George F. Peacock, an employe of Mr. W. W. Hubbard, and Miss Nettie Elburn, the attractive grand daughter of Mr. William S. Elburn were married at the latter's home, near Chestertown, Wednesday evening, Dr. F. T. Little officiating. The bride was neatly dressed in white. The wedding feast was held for the present at Mrs. Watt's on Princess street.

MOORE—GREENWOOD. Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Greenwood, of Chestertown, announce the marriage of their daughter, Lillian Stephens, to Mr. Frank Himmelwetter Moore, on Thursday, Aug. 27, 1908. They will be at home after Sept. 24, 70 West State St., Trenton, N. J. The groom is a draughtsman and mechanical engineer in Trenton, while the bride is well and favorably known to the News readers.

The following marriage licenses have been issued the past week: Sterling O. Downey and Margaret L. Howard; Wm. E. Ball and Edna E. Post; Howard E. Conway and Dora T. Crouch; Robert L. Kirby, Jr., and Marcie M. Legg.

THE TOWN WATER WORKS. Our town water takers will see in another column a notice of the water board which may save many of them annoyances. Messrs. Miller and Sutton, the town plumbers, will be engaged in installing new valves on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights, and it will be necessary to shut off the water for several hours each night.

THE WATER BOARD.—Messrs. J. D. Bachous, T. D. Bowers and C. N. Satterfield held a meeting to consider the report of Engineer Quick which has just been received. The board decided to ask the town commissioners to meet with them on Tuesday evening next for definite action on the more important matters. The Water Board seem to favor a new artesian well for the additional water supply and a 60,000 gallon tank at the reservoir containing about 70 feet to give greater pressure. Mr. Quick strongly recommends this. The only question is whether the available funds will be sufficient.

The new authorities have not been idle otherwise. A decided improvement is now nearing completion in the ditching of the spring lots under the supervision of Mr. Edw. Newton. A new 60 h. p. boiler will be ordered from the Coatesville works and a practical machinist from the Deane pump works, Philadelphia, is expected next week to overhaul the present pump. Thus it is seen that substantial work is being done to improve the water supply.

This days of Registration this year are as follows: Tuesday, September 29th, and Tuesday, October 6th. These two days are for the purpose of new names and for the transfer from Precinct to Precinct. We urge upon every Democrat who has changed his residence since last election to go to his last voting Precinct and get a transfer on one of these two days and get registered in his new voting Precinct. Do not neglect this important duty.

Soon To Wed.—The engagement of Mr. Edwin H. Brown, Jr., of Centerville, and Miss Mary R. Young, of Washington, D. C., has been formally announced. The marriage will take place in the early part of October. Mr. Brown is the second son of the late Judge Edwin H. Brown and Mrs. Maggie Brown, and a prominent attorney of the Centerville bar. Miss Young is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Young, of Washington, and is prominent in social circles in her native city.

Robbed.—Charles O. Donnelly, of Rock Hall, is an easy mark, according to his own statement. Just now he is lamenting the loss of $41.75, which was among his possessions when he came to town the other day. While he was explaining his troubles to Justice Lewis at the Southern Police Station, this morning he referred to numerous previous unfortunate experiences. "I get it good every time I come to town," said he. "Why, sir, I've lost seven watches already." "And did you buy an eighth?" questioned the magistrate. "No, siree!" replied Donnelly, emphatically. "I will never buy a watch again."

Shipman Secures Employment.—Rev. S. P. Shipman, of Harlock, Dorchester county, has about recovered from the outward effects of the thrashing given him by Mr. Carew, who accused the preacher of intimacy with the latter's wife. Mr. Shipman has obtained temporary employment at Harlock, but has a permanent position in view. He will occupy the parsonage at Harlock until a supply is appointed. As has already been stated he has withdrawn from the conference and a church trial at this time does not seem likely.

John Lowery, formerly of 40 East Cross street, whose present address is the City Jail, was arraigned this morning before Justice Lewis on the charge of the larceny of Donnelly's $41.75.
