SATURDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1908.

NEXT Tuesday is the last day for registering or getting transferred.

IT now looks as if Wm. Jennings Bryan will be the next President of these United States.

TEDDY likes to be in a scrap and when hard pressed simply puts his antagonist in the Annanias club, folds his arms and grins. He has met his match at last and is gritting his teeth with rage.

CONGRESSMAN PEARRE is being so hard pressed over in Western Maryland by that fighter, Mr. Lewis, that he has gone to the White House and asked for help. "Come over and help us," he cries.

A LEADING national Republican politician says that of 200 German papers, which are considered of significance politically, just one is supporting Taft and the others are all squarely out for Bryan.

THE big Democratic mass meeting for Kent county will he held at Chestertown Tuesday October 20. Among the speakers promised are Gov. Crothers and Senator Rayner. It will be a great meeting.

GOV. HASKELL charges President Roosevelt with receiving $206,000 from the Standard Oil Co. through Senator Depew in his campaign four years ago. The money was in return for privileges to put a pipe line through Indiana Territory and Oklahoma. Speak up, Teddy.

IF the farmers of Kent will look for a moment at this tariff question everyone of them will vote for Bryan. It is time for the farmer to vote intelligently and the NEWS today presents on another page an explanatiou of the subject.

THE labor vote is going to decide the presidential election this year and the trend is toward Bryan. New York has 60,000 idle tailors striking for higher wages. They have been getting from $3 o $6 per week under Republican prosperity, and are not satisfied.

Roosevelt says he is done answering Bryan. His friends besought him to quit as he was making votes for the Democrats every time he spoke or wrote a letter. The Baltimore American says that Roosevelt was covering Taft with a wet blanket and that the public were osing sight of the real issues!

DR. W. F. HINES returned to Chestertown this week from a protracted visit to the West and is enthusiastic in his report of conditions there. He says the laborers and farmers are united for Bryan and that Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and other States are leaning to Bryan and are likely to give him their electoral votes. The Middle West is for Bryan.

THE New York Herald, which is considered the most certain political prognosticator in the United States, is swinging state after state into the Bryan column and is warning the Republicans that something must be done quick or Bryan will certainly be elected. All these signs are encouraging to the Democrats and is putting life in to their campaign. Let the good work go on.

GOOD SPEAKING

The Bryan, Kern and Covington Club of Chestertown Addressed by Wm. Mason Shehan and S. Scott Beck, Esqs.

The Chestertown Democratic Club met in Stam's Hall Tuesday evening. More than a hundred members being present. Mr. Charles L. Dodd, the ardent Bryan president, opened the meeting in an appropriate address and introduced S. Scott Beck, Esq. Mr. Beck made a good speech of twenty minutes, bringing before the audience the issues of the campaign in a most forcible manner. Wm. Mason Shehan, Esq., of Easton, spoke for more than an hour and made a good impression.

The New Artesian Well.—The Chestertown Water Board has employed the Messrs. Shanahan, of Easton, Md., to bore the new artesian well which has been agreed upon as the best means for the additional supply of water needed, and the work will be begun immediately. The new well will be located about one hundred feet from the present artesian well.

THE sale of Mr. A. B. Price, near Cecilton, Md., last Thursday, advertised in the NEWS, was well attended; the prices good, aggregating more than $3,000. He wishes to thank his many friends for their attendance and says that it brought friends together who had been separated for years.

Democrats, don't fail to Register next Tuesday, October 6th. If you are not registered you cannot vote for Bryan, Kern and Covington.

Sassafras items are in type and will appearnext week.

A FATAL ACCIDENT.

Little Boy Fell Off Loaded Wagon, Near Chestertown, and Instantly Killed.

Harry B. Everett, the 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Everett, was instantly killed Thursday morning by falling off a wagon. The little fellow was driving two horses to a wagon loaded with fertilizer, and when ju-t beyond Radcliff bridge, the fore-board pushed out and Harry fell beneath the horse's feet and the wagon wheel passed over his head killing him instantly. Coroner J. H. Greenwood was soon on the spot but deemed an inquest unnecessary. Mr. Wm. T Brown, of Quaker Neck, was a witness to the affair and assisted in carrying the body home. Mr. and Mrs. Everett are tenants of Mr. W. S. Collins on the Burchinal farm. Harry was an industrious boy and made a regular hand on the farm. Mr. Brown says the boy had pulled the horses down to a walk and was turning out to pass him when the phosphate pitched forward forcing the front end of the wagon out and throwing the lad headlong to the ground. The sympathy of the whole community goes out to the bereaved parents.

The funeral took place at 2 o'clock yesterday, Rev. W. L. White officiating. Bearers, Harry Steele, Kennard Burke, Clyde Copper, Wm. Davis. Interment in Crumpton cemetery, Charles L. Dodd undertaker.

Death's Doings.

GEORGE W. SMITH.

This community was very much surprised on Monday to learn of the sudden death of Mr. George W. Smith, one of the oldest citizens of Chestertown. Mr. Smith had been ailing for sometime with Bright's disease but his condition was not regarded as serious. He was in his 76th year. The deceased was a native of Queen Anne's where he owned a fine farm tenanted by Mr. Weller.

He moved to Chestertown about 20 years ago and engaged in mercantile business with Mr. Joel R. Clements, later on his individual account and more recently of the firm of Smith & Graham. He retired from business about a year ago. He was twice married and leaves a widow with one daughter. Also a son and daughter by a former marriage—Mr. Geo. Smith, of Baltimore, and Miss Anna, of Chestertown. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon from his late residence, interment private in Chester cemetery, Dr. Martin officiating. The bearers were Messrs. J. H. Simpers, R. H. Collins, H. C. Cacy, S. C. Cacy, J. T. Dixon, Jas. E. Coppage. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson had charge of funeral arrangements.

SAMUEL ROTHWELL BIGGS.

Mr. Samuel Rothwell Biggs died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Biggs, Middletown, Thursday evening, in the 50th year of his age. Deceased was born near Cecilton, Md., and attended Hackettstown, N. J., school, where he graduated, and also graduated from the School of Oratory in Philadelphia, and previous to his illness gave promise of making an able orator. Mr. Biggs was a 32d degree Mason, and Past Master of Washington Lodge, of Atchison, Kansas, and in politics a Democrat.
