

MOODY & LUSBY

MOODY & LUSBY.

WE have on exhibition at our establishment the largest, best selected and most economical line of Men's Suits ever displayed in Chestertown. This means considerable to all prospective buyers when you stop and think that we have always been recognized leaders when the question of LARGE ASSORTMENT and MINIMUM PRICES are considered. Now we modestly assert that we have outdone all our previous records, and in order to FULLY convince yourselves that our claims are correct—

Compare

our $8.50 Suits with the $10.00 ones you see; our $10.00 ones with the $12.00 some ask you; the $12.50 ones beside same we see sold for $15.00, &c., and the verdict we'll leave to you.

Boys and Children's

SUITS in like Proportion, Sold precisely the same way.

Hats AND Caps and Furnishings all complete

Respectfully,

Moody & Lusby

CHESTERTOWN, . . . MARYLAND

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.

The many friends of Mr. Geo. W. Hatcherson were glad to see him visit the polling room of the second precinct in Chestertown last Tuesday. He seemed to take his usual pleasure in casting a full Democratic ticket. He took a short ride in the country afterwards.

Mr. David Clements was among the ninety-year patriots who cast his vote for Bryan and Covington in the Kennedyville district. Mr. Wm. H. Watts, now in his 82nd year, voted in Chestertown. All who saw these honored citizens were pleased.

Misses Emma and Mary Knight entertained the Christian Endeavor Society of Christ Church at their home on Queen street Friday evening. Miss Marguerita Dodd recited a Halloween address, after which various games were played and an enjoyable evening spent.

Misses Adele and Emma France gave a tea between 4 and 6 p. m. Saturday afternoon in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Staunton Brown, of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Kent Lambert and daughter, and Mr. George E. Lambert, Jr., of Panama, arrived home Saturday in response to a letter telling them of the death of their father. They did not know of the death of their father until they reached Massery. The young men take interestingly of conditions at the canal, but insist that there's no place like Kent.

Mr. W. Ambrose Carroll, of Baltimore, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Carroll.

Mr. Clarence Newcomb and Mr. Harold Matthews who are attending a business college in Baltimore spent Saturday and Sunday at their respective homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Cacy, of Sudlersville, spent Saturday and Sunday the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Howard.

Mrs. Frank Miller has been visiting friends in Baltimore.

Miss Mary Miller who is a student at the Maryland Institute Baltimore, spent Sunday the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Miller.

Miss Anna Bryan, of Baltimore, has been visiting Mrs. M. E. Watts on Princess street.

Miss Daisy Nicholson attended a birthday dinner given to Mrs. Edith Sprigg Waddington by her husband at Hotel Caswell, Baltimore, last Friday evening.

Misses Edna Copper and Erna Medders are visiting friends near Galena.

Dr. Mansfield, of Baltimore, was the guest of friends in town over Sunday.

Miss Adams, of Howard county, is the guest of Miss Josephine R. Wickes.

Mr. Mowbray, son of Presiding Elder Mowbray, of Wilmington, has been visiting Chestertown during the week.

Mr. Russell, of Frederica, Del. is the guest of his nephew, Mr. Vernon Barnett, on Mt. Vernon Place.

We are glad to state that Mr. Akers who has been quite ill for some time, is somewhat improved.

Mr. LeRoy White, of Baltimore, is visiting his parents, Rev. and Mrs. W. L. White, at the R. Howard county, White is recuperating from a recent severe cold.

Miss Sue Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller, has been appointed to a scholarship in Washington College.

Mrs. Wm. J. Vannort is visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. S. Rayner in Baltimore.

We are very glad to state that Dr. John W. Lowe, of Baltimore, who has been quite ill for some time, is much improved. Dr. Lowe is a brother-in-law of Mr. Charles R. Twilley.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hickman, of Chestertown, spent Sunday and Monday with relatives near St. Pond.

The Worton school, taught by Miss Susie Dunbrack gave an entertainment last Friday evening. A wagon load of young people went for the occasion.

Capt. C. R. Atkinson is in Seattle on business.

Miss Fannie Baker is visiting friends in Queen Anne's.

Prof. E. J. Clarke has been confined to his home by sickness for a week but was able to get out Tuesday.

Mr. Wm. A. Wheatley, Jr., the faithful assistant operator at the Chestertown depot returned Saturday from a well-earned holiday of a week.

We are very glad to state that reports from Mr. Wm. Watts Clendaniel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. M. Clendaniel, of near Kennedyville, who sustained a bad fracture of the arm and leg, by a fall from a chestnut tree several weeks ago, who is now in the Union Protestant Infirmary, is getting along nicely.

Mr. Howard Bowers, who has been tending the Richard Smith farm of near Fairlee, will discontinue farming at the end of the year, and will engage in the carpentering business with his uncle, Mr. E. C. Bowers, of the well-known firm of Staveley & Bowers, Lynch.

Mr. Howard Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Jones, will tenant the Jones farm near Fairlee next year while the parents will remove to Fairlee.

Dr. John M. Toulson and family moved Saturday to "Mill Grove," the former home of the late Senator Thomas Humphreys, on South Division street.

Mr. W. F. Messick and family are moving into the residence on Walnut street, vacated by Dr. Toulson and family—Wicomico News.

Mrs. Kay, nee Miss Eunice Gemmill, of Baltimore, visited friends in town this week.

Miss Mildred Crawford has resigned as teacher of Fancy school near Fairlee. Miss Julia Nicholson has been appointed to the position.

Mrs. J. W. Hines and little son, Sam, of Arlington, Baltimore county, and Mrs. Nan Munroe, of Pikeville, Baltimore county, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. John N. Dodd. Mrs. Munroe is better known in Chestertown as Miss Nan Smith.

Mrs. Dr. W. E. Hines left yesterday for Baltimore to make her future home. The Doctor will leave Monday. All their friends wish for them much happiness and regret very much their departure.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Watkins, of Baltimore, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Brice on Washington avenue.

Miss Caddie Nickerson and her assistants at the central telephone exchange did excellent work election night. Their patience was something remarkable.

Little Miss Helen Boyd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Boyd, fell and injured her weak knee while in school Tuesday and has been in bed since.

HIS NAME IS TAFT

Ohio, Indiana and Minnesota Elect Democratic Governors But Fail To Go For Bryan.

Large Corruption Fund Poured Into Doubtful States — New York Flunked — Hughes Elected.

The general result throughout the United States at the election Tuesday indicates that Judge Taft was elected. The pivotal States like New York, Ohio, Illinois and Indiana cast their electoral votes for Judge Taft. One of the biggest surprises was the State of New York, where not only Judge Taft received a big majority, but where Governor Hughes was also elected by large pluralities. In the Tammany strongholds in New York City, where it was expected that Bryan would run much ahead, Judge Taft gained many votes.

Illinois is claimed by the Republicans by 150,000; Indiana is close, but is thought to give a slight margin to Taft. Following are the estimated pluralities on the Presidential tickets:

FOR TAFT.
New York	150,000
Ohio	50,000
Pennsylvania	30,000
Illinois	150,000
Michigan	100,000
South Dakota	30,000
Indiana	15,000
Minnesota	60,000
Wisconsin	25,000
Vermont	28,000
New Hampshire	20,000
Kansas	20,000
Iowa	40,000
New Jersey	20,000
Wisconsin	75,000
Delaware	2,000
Maine	30,000
West Virginia	30,000
Connecticut	30,000
North Dakota	30,000
Idaho	20,000
Montana	20,000
Wyoming	5,000

FOR BRYAN.
South Carolina	40,000
Florida	18,000
Alabama	40,000
Mississippi	20,000
Virginia	25,000
North Carolina	40,000
Tennessee	25,000
Missouri	10,000
Maryland	20,000
Arkansas	20,000
Georgia	20,000
Kentucky	12,000
Louisiana	10,000
Oklahoma	25,000
Nevada	2,000

These States give Taft 317 electoral votes and Bryan 166.

Electoral vote, 1904: Roosevelt, 336; Parker, 140. McKinley, 292; Bryan, 150.

Governor Johnson was re-elected Governor of Minnesota by a plurality which will reach at least 30,000, which is considered a great victory for the Democrats.

The Southern States cast their votes for Bryan in a solid body, thus defeating the claims of the Republicans that they would break the "solid south."

In Delaware the result is mixed. Pennington, the Republican candidate for Governor, is elected, while Gray, the Democratic candidate for Attorney General, wins. The Legislature here is also Democratic by a 4 on joint ballot.

Reports from all over the country are to the effect that the Republicans had a tremendous corruption fund gathered in Wall Street which was used in the doubtful States on Tuesday and that bribery was rampant in some of these States.

Mr. Bryan has not as yet made any statement regarding the result, but he said he will issue a general statement within a few days giving his opinion of the result in the several doubtful States.

Sporting News.—Mr. John Lane, of Broad Neck, with his two sons, John D. and Norman, and son-in-law, Wright Hill, and Robt. East, went rabbit hunting on Monday and got thirty-nine rabbits, two squirrels and one opossum. They only had one dog, but she was wonderful.

Mr. Grant Alexander, of St. Paul, Miss., went out and killed 4 rabbits before breakfast Monday morning.

Mr. Edward Robinson with Messrs. James and Harry Bright spent Wednesday day in rabbit hunting. Mr. R. got nine rabbits the first day.

Revs. J. C. McCoy, W. E. Habbert and B. E. Rash visited Mr. C. G. Hadaway Wednesday and had a fine day's hunt. They got one rabbit!

Gone Out of Business.—Messrs. Frank Jarman and Hope Barroll, two young speculators, have been giving considerable attention to raising squabs for a year or more. They succeeded in buying one hundred red pigeons but because the birds would not lay they shipped the whole lot yesterday and will give their attention to other pursuits. Mr. J. E. Ferguson who went into the business on a large scale has also concluded to sell out and made a large shipment yesterday to Baltimore.

HAND OF DEATH.

The community was greatly shocked to learn of the death Lydia P. George youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas R. George at her home near Lynch on Monday Oct. 26. She was stricken about three weeks ago with typhoid and pneumonia Lydia was twenty years of age, she was a young lady of exemplary character and was held in bright esteem by all who knew her, she was a kind and dutiful daughter and a loving and thoughtful sister, she seemed to think that she could not get well and told her mother she was going to a better land where sorrows are unknown. She leaves besides her parents one sister and one brother, Mrs. John L. Comegys, of Kennedyville and Harry George of Lynch to mourn her loss. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at Galena M. E. Church half past two o'clock and were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Michell interment was made in Galena Cemetery. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful. The pall bearers were Messrs. Elsworth Newcomb, Henry Halley, Samuel Everett, Benjamin Shelton, Clifton Beck, Howard Newnam.

Asleep in Jesus peaceful rest
Whose waking is supremely blest.

JOHN F. HENNEY.
Mr. John F. Benney, formerly of Kent, died in Buffalo, Illinois, Nov. 2, 1908, aged 58. He was a bachelor and leaves a sister, Mrs. John Usilton, Poole's Island.

THE WATER DEPARTMENT.

A new 60 H. P. Coatesville upright boiler has arrived and was put in place yesterday. This gives two effective boilers to provide for emergencies. The new artesian well is not yet completed but the contractors have gotten a depth of 30 feet and find a thirty-foot bed of beautiful white sand. Here the water is to be tested as to quality and quantity.
