ROCK HALL LOCALS

Those 100 Who Didn't Vote.—M. E. Church Rally—Local Bank—Local Notes.

The carelessness of a small boy in Alexander's Department Store, on Saturday night, caused a heavy roll of oil cloth to fall against the large display case, and smash with a tremendous crash, the heavy plate glass of the end. Mrs. Alexander, some distance from the scene and who was greatly fatigued from the week's rush in her millinery department, received such a shock that she nearly collapsed and was for the remainder of the evening unwell.

That "strange indifference of more than 100 oystermen" mentioned in the News' editorials of last week, the oystermen say is the result in large part of the "tom-fool" pursuit for fish law, and they are laying low for the next local fight.

Nov.—What has a local fish law got to do with a Presidential election? Certainly this is a very contracted view of the greatest privilege of an American freeman.

Rural Carrier Clayton has re-opened his fresh meat store for the winter. Will is a hustler and if there is money to be made by honest toil, he will get his share.

Mr. Samuel Jewell, of Queen Anne's, is visiting among old acquaintances in this section. He is 63 years young, full of life and happy met, as ever of yore.

The large chestnut tree at Crew's store, which has for many years been a notable landmark, has been removed by order of Dr. Sharp and son. Janitor Satterfield did the job. Workmen are preparing posts for the street lamps which will be in operation soon. Signs showing the town limits have been placed in proper positions so that all may know where they are as they journey.

Mrs. Lawrence Davis is quite ill at this writing. Mr. James Davis is also on the sick list.

The proposed local bank is the principal talk hereabout.

Mr. O. P. Leary, these days, is wearing a smile that wont come off. All because he is a grandfather. When the trembling limbs and wrinkled brow fasten on him, Og will wish he hadn't reached the grandfather's age.

The Methodist Rally here on Sunday was a brilliant and happy affair. Dr. W. F. Corkran preached the morning sermon to a more than average congregation. His theme was the "New Life," its source, its nature, its growth and development. His text being: "For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them."

The sermon was forceful, edifying, and one of the best the congregation gentleman ever delivered here. The choir service was splendid. The afternoon service consisted of the regular Sunday School session. Dr. Corkran was present and delightfully entertained the Bible Class No. 1. His application of the day's lesson. At the evening service, Dr. A. H. Covey preached a packed house, strong heart-searching sermon, brim full of love and inspiration.

The financial feature of the day was skillfully engineered by Dr. Corkran and resulted in wiping out the church debt. For the first time in eight years, the church is now free of debt. Preacher and people are grateful for the splendid service of Revs. Corkran and Covey and the choir.

Rev. M. V. Harris, of Pine Neck, and Lt. E. L. Usilton, of Philadelphia, were interested observers of the day's service.

The Moving Picture Show at Amusee Hall, under the management of Shallcross & Co., opens on Sunday evening and is proving very attractive.

Don't miss this chance of seeing the great cooking wonder. To the lady who guesses the nearest to the number of biscuits baked during the demonstration week they will present a handsome carving set absolutely free. Don't miss the chance of seeing the demonstration and guessing on the carving set free.

The young ladies at the Central telephone exchange were the recipients of a basket of fruit from the Republican campaign committee. This was the proper thing to do as all the news received outside of Maryland was for them and not for the Democrats.

Live Local Notes.

Mr. A. L. Sparks has installed in his dry goods department, Chestertown, a button machine with which he can make buttons of any size or color desired. If you wish buttons made to match your suit all you have to do is to send him a few small pieces of your material.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Virginia H. Tate, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Humfrey Tate, of Bedford, Pa., to Judge Edwin R. Cochran, of Delaware. Miss Tate is prominent in social circles, both in Bedford and Bedford Springs. Judge Cochran is a son of the late Clerk of the Peace Edwin R. Cochran, of Middletown.

Accidents.—William and Arthur Taylor aged 5 and 7 years respectively, sons of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Taylor, residing on Riverside farm, near town, were painfully injured Saturday afternoon. The boys were riding on a masure spreader and accidentally set the machinery in motion. William, the youngest, was cut and bruised about the face and head and Arthur sustained severe and painful laceration of both arms. The wounds were attended to by Dr. H. Bengt Simons.

Rotten and Soft Corn.—A certain landlord drove out to his farm in Kent county a few days ago and inquired of his tenant about his corn crop. He saw a large pile of corn and inquired about it when the following conversation took place:

Farmer—This corn that I am hauling is the soft and short corn, while the merchantable corn is the crib.

Landlord—Well, I tell you what you do. You give me one-half of this pile and I will keep the merchantable corn!

House Burned.—The dwelling on College avenue, near Prospect street, owned by Annie Blake Jones, colored, was totally destroyed by fire on Saturday morning. Annie had left an oak log burning in the fire place that morning when she went out to work, and in some way the rug took fire resulting in the loss of everything. The fire company responded promptly but the blaze had too much headway to subdue anything. The loss will amount to $200 besides a sum of money which Annie had stored in her trunk.

A Big Fish Story.—When in the vicinity of Diamond Shoal lightship the steamer Ligonia, which arrived, was hoisted by a huge wave. This great sea was alive with fish of all kinds which it had scooped up and carried along, and it deluged the forward deck of the vessel with a evening with a splash. When the sea passed over the side it left behind it thousands of fish and the officers and crew were busy picking up the fish. The crew attacked the mass of fish with shovels, putting aside food fish such as herring, cod, and pollock. A porpoise 7 feet long was rolled to the side and overboard through a port which was opened.

A Pretty Tea.—A delightful tea was held at the elegant home of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Allen in Washington, Md., on Wednesday evening for benefit of the Foreign Missionary Society of the Chestertown M. E. Church. The reception committee comprised Mrs. James Brice, Mrs. Marion DeK. Smith, Mrs. W. B. Carey, Mrs. Wm. Carey and Mrs. E. P. White. In the dining room were the following ladies: Mrs. S. L. Thomas, Mrs. Joel Clements, Mrs. T. S. Bordley, Mrs. E. Russell, Misses Corine, Fannie and Bessie Stuart. The table and parlors were decorated with lovely chrysanthemums and the whole affair was a success.

School Notes.—Miss Linda Morris has been appointed teacher at Fairlee school, vice Miss Julia Nicholson, who goes to Fancy School in place of Miss Crawford, resigned. Miss Etta Cooper, daughter of Mr. Samuel Cooper, has been appointed teacher at Pine Neck school.

The School Commissioners, of Talbot, have adopted a regular color system for painting schools in that county. Each school is to have its distinctive color and number displayed in large roman type on the front of the building. The color scheme is strong for body work, with shutters and white trimmings.

An additional teacher will likely be appointed at Betterton as the school is growing rapidly.

Election of Officers.—The annual election of directors of the Chestertown Bank of Maryland was held Wednesday and the following members were elected: Alday Clements, Charles T. Westcott, Marion DeK. Smith, James S. Harris, Charles H. Price, Samuel G. Edmon, Edwin S. Valliant, James W. Chapman, Tilghman Shafer, Wm. W. Beck, Curtis E. Faney School in place of Miss Crawford, resigned. Miss Etta Cooper, daughter of Mr. Samuel Cooper, has been appointed teacher at Pine Neck school.

Foot Ball.—Saturday was a red-letter day at Washington College when St. John's met the home team on the football field. Each side had a band of music and the game was especially interesting. Jump was hurt early in the game as was Maddox. Although the score does not show it, the game was closely contested throughout. In the first half Washington received the ball and carried it to St. John's seven-yard line, but lost it in three attempts to carry it over. St. John's punned and received the ball and on a forward pass to McAlpine scored the first touchdown. This was followed by two more in this half, being scored by flukes. In the second half Washington, by consecutive line plunging and two forward passes to Turley, scored two touchdowns. The third was made by Voss, who blocked one of Bosley's kicks and fell on the ball behind the goal line. St. John's scored two touchdowns in this half, and Bosley made a place kick from the 15-yard line. For St. John's Ruhl and McAlpine played pretty much the whole game, and Bosley's punting also featured. For Washington Johnson, Voss, Hayes-Maddox and Turner played a strong game. The score ended 34 to 16 in favor of the visitors. H. W. Vickers, Jr., refereed a good game to the satisfaction of both sides.

Good Pickers.—Thomas Stanickson, Jr., and son during this season, picked in the swamps near the Cream station, 1,117 quarts of huckleberries, which they sold at Middletown, receiving 8 cents per quart.

A Fine Pen.—Mr. William Hendrix killed a pen of 22 hogs on Monday which averaged about 200 pounds.

Leased More Ground.—Messrs. H. S. and V. M. Harnet have leased of Mr. W. W. Hubbard the lot on College avenue on which the old apple tree house is located. They will use the clay for making brick.

The Fulcher Entertainers.—The next entertainment in the series will be given in Stann's Hall, Friday evening, Nov. 27th. It will be given by the Fulcher entertainers, which have a splendid reputation. Mrs. Cornelia Fulcher is unquestionably one of the foremost contemporary readers. She is a post-graduate in the School of Naturalness. As an exponent of negro dialect it is doubtful if Mrs. Fulcher has really ever been equalled. Miss Evangeline Fulcher is a singer. She possesses a beautiful soprano and has killed 40 rabbits one day last week and 50 the next day on the farm of Mr. C. C. Strong, near Rock Hall.

Mr. Eugene Gooding has been visiting home folks on a grand trip and succeeded in killing a rabbit, a squirrel, a duck and a bird!

A dispatch from Pennsylvania where considerable cattle are shipped to Kent and in fact the whole State says:

An epidemic of hog cholera, on foot and mouth disease, which has developed among cattle in Montour and Columbia counties, has caused the state and federal authorities to quarantine four farms and one large cattle pen in the affected district.

The disease, which wrought havoc among cattle in the Transvaal sometime ago, is extremely contagious, and live state veterinaries and several government officers and several of the malady.
