The next quarterly meeting of the County Grange will be held in Fairlee Grange Hall on Thursday, January 8th, 1909. It is earnestly hoped that every grange in the county will send a full delegation, as it is the occasion for the annual election of officers. The lecturer has prepared a fine programme for the meeting which will appear in the News next week.

An Institute for Kent and Queen Anne's farmers will be held in Chestertown January 20 and 21st. Good speakers have been engaged for the occasion.

Sale Postponed.—The W. H. Wallis personality sale on account of the rainy day last Thursday was postponed to NEXT MONDAY. The sale will take place rain or shine and everything advertised will be sold.

A Success.—The Ladies Improvement Association of Chestertown cleared $150 on their Rummage sale which closed last Saturday. To the merchants who so liberally contributed and to all who helped in any way is extended thanks. Another sale will be held in May. Save your "rummage" and get ready for it. Because of the Fire Co. Bazaar the last week in January the Improvement Society will postpone their entertainment until Easter. Everything is giving way to the fire department.
