

WHEN

ARE YOU GOING TO START YOUR REDUCTION SALES?

This question has been asked us a good many times the past week and to those interested, we say:

Our Semi-Annual Get-Rid-of-Winter Goods Sale Begins To-day

Comment as to correct FORMER prices, and NOW bona fide reduced prices, is unnecessary, as you all know the genuineness of same. No better evidence of this can be offered than the fact we have conducted them for the past fifteen years and the LARGE percentage of trade that avail themselves of the same.

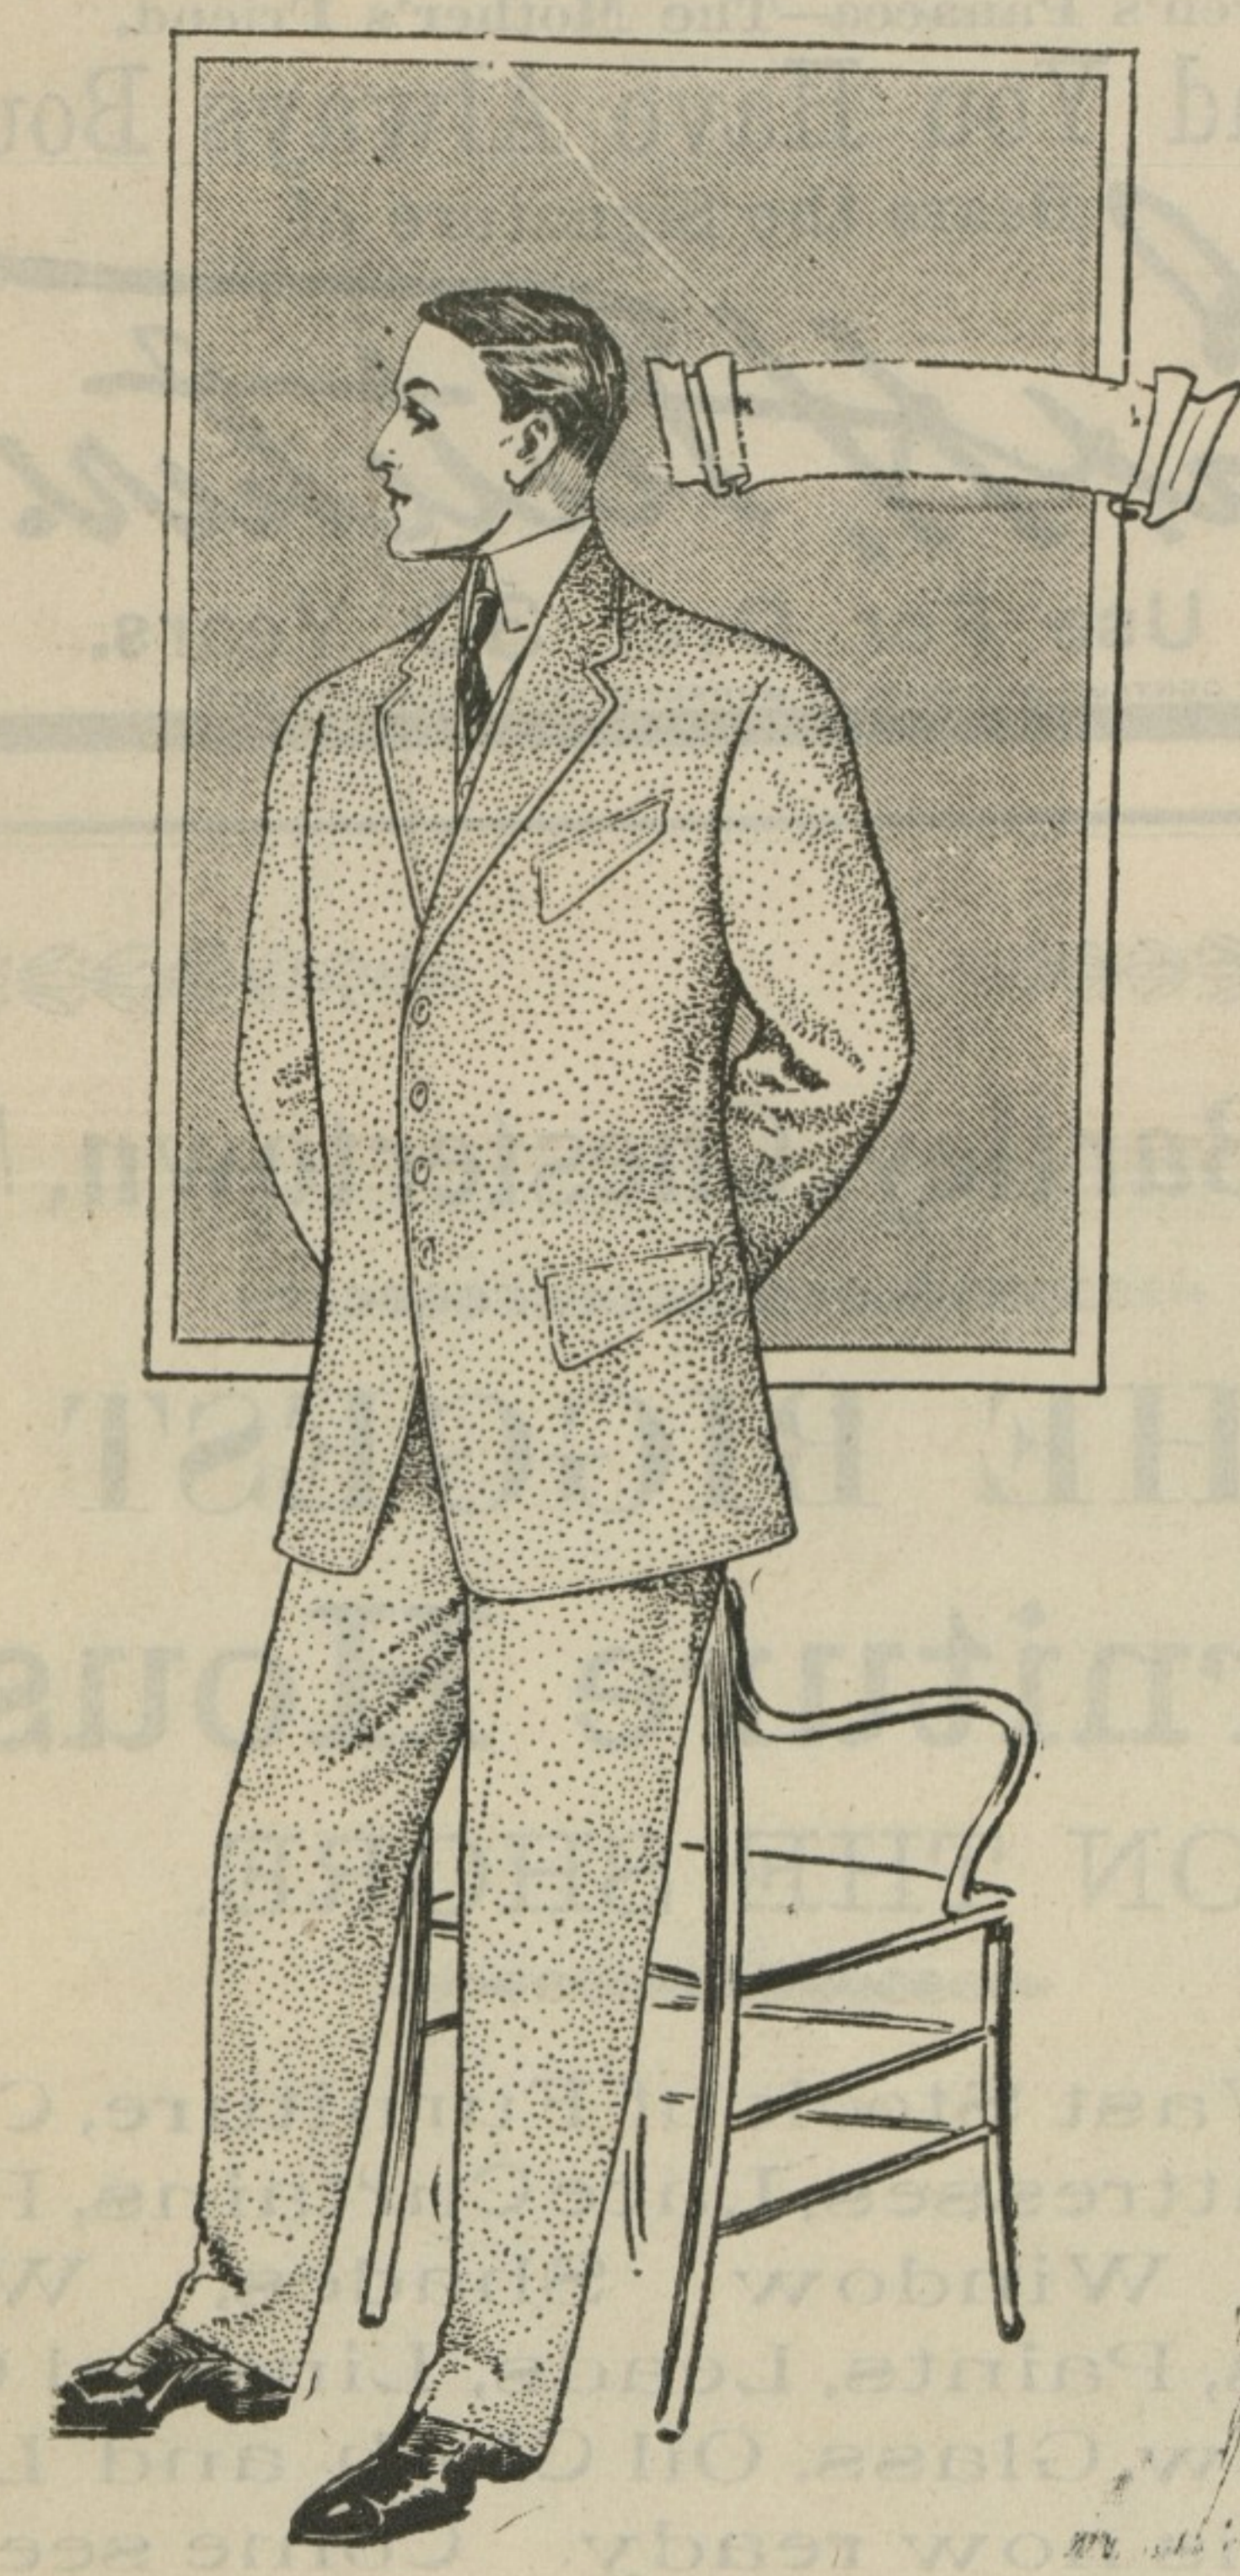

DON'T WAIT

until ALL the best things are gone, because the choice patterns go first. No reserves. All winter goods will be sold correctly.

Respectfully,

MOODY & LUSBY

NEWSY KERNELS

It is reported that Mr. Chris. Conner has sold his farm at Chestertown to Mrs. Pearly Moffett for $11,500.

ROBERT J. McWHORTER has been awarded the contract for carrying the mail Sunday evening from the Chestertown depot to the postoffice here.

WEDNESDAY was warm enough to allow some of Chestertown's citizens to appear on the streets without coats.

Miss MARTHA FINLEY, the author of the widely read and popular "Elsie Books," died at her home in Elkton, Cecil county, last Friday. She has written over a hundred books—all for children.

R. A. DeHABELL, for thirty years postmaster of the Easternville, has resigned, and Isaac Taylor has been appointed to succeed him.

THE annual Kent, Cecil and Queen Annes County Fair at Telechester, will be held this year on August 31, September 1, 2 and 3.

SENATOR W. M. SLAY, of Kent, chairman of the committee to revise the hanging laws of the State, presided over that committee on Monday. This is a very important matter and the commission will likely be compelled to meet quite frequently.

Who Can Beat It?—Alfred Coleman, Rock Hall, has just lost a hen which lived to be 17 years old last spring; last year she laid thirty-six eggs. It seems as if Piney Neck is a healthy place to live, even for poultry.

Petition for Night Boat.—A petition is being circulated in Chestertown for the inauguration of a night line of steamers out of Chester river. Leaving Chestertown about 7 o'clock at night and Baltimore about midnight.

Automobiles.—Dr. H. B. Simmons, J. H. Sides and Elwood Whaley returned from the big auto show greatly pleased with the exhibition. They each placed an order for a Maxwell machine. Dr. Simmons presented his father with the machine he first bought.

Loss of Poultry.—Dogs visited the henery of Mr. Thos. S. Bordley Sunday night and killed four big hens leaving the fowls on the yard. The same night turkeys were killed belonging to Dr. H. B. Simmons.

Cow Killed.—A valuable cow belonging to H. W. Vickers, Esq., was found to have calved last Friday by G. A. Jarman, and was promptly killed. The cow was bitten about two weeks ago by the dog which had the rabies as mentioned heretofore in the News.

Contract Awarded.—Mr. Walter T. Pippin, the Chestertown contractor and builder, has contracted with Mr. W. B. Usilton, Jr., for the erection of a home on Front street, near Riverside Terrace, Chestertown. The building will be of brick and work will begin as soon as weather permits.

Justices of the Peace.—Governor Austin L. Crothers has made the following appointments in Kent: James M. Severn, justice of the peace for the Second district in place of Mr. Wm. Parr, resigned.

James M. Sutton, justice of the peace for the Third district, in place of Thos. J. Shalleross, deceased.

Sporting Notes.—On another page of the News will be found an interesting article on furs written for the News by Fur King Asher.

Mr. Wm. Ivens, of Worton, killed five minks last week for which he received $22.50. He also bagged two wild geese.

Mr. Walter Frew, of Pocomoke, saw a fox making his way across his wheat field last week carrying with him a muskrat trap on his hind leg.

Nets Burned.—Between two and three hundred dollars worth of nets, belonging to Mr. W. H. Glenn, of Broad Neck, were burned on the shore of the Hadenway farm on one day last week. Mr. W. E. Davis the tenant was burning some sedge along the shore bank and did not know the nets were on the shore. The nets were insured in the Kent Mutual Fire Insurance Co.

Stopped The Train.—The "grip" held the Kent train at Chestertown depot for a half hour Tuesday morning. Conductor Welch and Baggage Master Cyrus G. Howard were both sick so that there was no one to take the train out. Mr. Wm. S. Culp, agent and operator, sent word to the freight train to hurry on and they arrived soon after. Freight Conductor Williamson and Mr. Culp then took charge of the passenger train and reached Townsend within three minutes of the arrival of connecting train. They failed to make connection at Maseys so kept on to Townsend. This was the first experience of the kind on this road. We are glad to report the officers all right now.

Excellent Lecture.—The first lecture of the Winter Course of Lectures at Washington College was delivered last Friday night. E. J. Phillips, Ph. D. in Charge of Agriculture, Bureau of Entomology, Washington, D. C. was the lecturer and his subject was "The Honey Bee: its habits and usefulness to man." It was a most entertaining and instructive lecture. All present were surprised that the Honey Bee was such a wonderful animal and so very interesting.

The next lecture of the course will be given next Monday night by Edmund Otis Hovey, Ph. D., Associate Curator, American Museum of Natural History, New York City. The subject will be "Mr. Pele and the Destruction of St. Pierre, Martinique." This lecture will be illustrated with handsome slides of that country.

Real Estate Deals.—Dr. James P. Merritt, of Easton has sold his farm in Kent county, near Coleman, to Mr. Walter T. Scarf, of Baltimore; consideration $4000.

Mr. Thomas F. Bradley, of Still Pond, has purchased a building lot at Betterton from the Betterton Bayside Land Co.

Mrs. Mary E. Sutton has purchased a building lot at Betterton from Capt. Benj. Wheeler.

Mr. W. W. Goodman has purchased from Mr. E. W. Emory a house and lot at Quaker Neck wharf; consideration $400.

H. H. BENNEMAN, Millington Md., has cut the prices on clothing and all winter goods. Now is your chance for bargains.
