Brown, now upon the confines of time and will soon be summoned to the place of blessedness, prepared the people of God, I have many useful things which I am too old to make use of and will be of much use to others after I am gone to rest which will be soon. Many useful indoors and outdoors, too. Many articles and things you never used and saw. Over $100 worth of real useful and good books; cost about $50. Many of them I will give away to help others on, in both soul and body. Also a lot of good winter clothing, such as overcoats at half the value. I mean to sell to the poor.
