LOCAL MATTERS.

Heavy Tax Collections.—Treasurer Jesse R. Copper collected $37,268.63 county taxes and $3,850.04 State taxes during the week of December 28 to 31, making a total of $41,118.67 as the result of four days collection. There remains a little more than $19,000 to be collected.

Marriage Licenses Issued.—Clerk James T. Dixon has issued the following marriage licenses during the week: Thomas V. Stradley and Anna May Jarvis, James E. Spear and Mary Rebecca Comegys, and Charles Herbert Kennedy and Mary Delmar Carter, all of Kent county.

Fire Near Millington.—The large dwelling on the farm of Mr. J. E. Hurlock, tenanted by Mr. Wolleyhand, near Millington, was totally destroyed by fire on Monday together with all the contents. It is not known how the fire originated but is it supposed to have caught from a defective flue. There is some insurance on the property.

High Price for Oysters.—A large cargo of oysters in a vessel in Canton Hallow, Baltimore, on Tuesday sold for 5$1.0 a bushel, a price that has not peen known in many years. It was reported that $1.20 a bushel was refused by another master for his cargo. The cold snap will likely keep the price of oysters high. They are selling for $1.20 per gallon in Chestertown.

Property Sales.—Auctioneer John H. Greenwood sold at public sale for R. D. Hynson, Esq., mortgagee, on Tuesday, the Gruber property on High street, advertised in the TRANSCRIPT. Mr. Hynson purchased the property for $2,650. Wm. W. Beck, Esq., attorney named in the mortgage, sold the Orem creamery property on Tuesday to Mr. R. R. Hatcherson, the mortgagee, for $560.

A Serious Fall.—Mrs. J. R. Vansant, of Millington, nee Miss Sue Lambert, of Chestertown, sustained a heavy fall down stairs on Monday, dislocating her shoulder and bruising her limb considerably. Mrs. Vansant was about to descend the stairway when she caught her foot in the carpeting and fell. A physician was summoned and rendered medical attention to the unfortunate lady. She is better at this writing.

New State's Attorney.—William W. Beck, Esq., the newly elected State's Attorney, took the oath of office on Monday before Chief Judge James A. Pearce, and is now ready to uphold the interests of the county and State against the violation of the law. Mr. Beck is a young man of fine legal ability, and his elevation to the dignity of the office of State's Attorney is a fitting recognition of his value to his party and his legal ability. The TRANSCRIPT wishes him success.

Preacher Pounded.—Rev. J. M. Sheridan, the popular pastor of St. James M. P. Church, as well as his estimable family, were bombarded by the loyal St. James congregation on Monday night. The invaders succeeded in forcing an entrance, and yet the tall and dignified form of the pastor could be seen above all the others, a willing party to the invaders. And who would not have been willing, when the parson was made to feel the force of the invasion? After it was all over, the parson found himself a richer man in this world's goods, a firmer believer in the hoapitality and generosity of Kent's noble people, and deeply grateful for the tokens of affection and love.

That Mysterious Bundle.—Some nights ago, when Capt. Wm. C. Eliason, the genial captain of the Tolchester Company, entered his home, at 111 West Conway street, Baltimore, he found a small bundle in the vestible. He examined the contents of the bundle, and to his great surprise found a 4-hours-old baby wrapped in raw cotton. He communicated with the Western Police Station, and Officer Philip Harrison was sent for the child. At the station the baby boy was taken charge of by the matron. An informal christening took plaoe, and the boy was given the name of Harrison Eliason Conway. Capt. Eliason handled this case just as he does a large excusion on the steamer Louise—with despatch.

Canning Record of 1903.—The American Grocer's figures upon the tomato and corn "pack" of 1903 in the United States and Canada show that in tomatoes 1903 holds the record. The packing industry has been notably expanded in Virginia and Maryland. Maryland heads the list with 4,687,224 cases of tomatoes, two dozen tins to the case, no other State having as many as a million cases. Indiana, with 989,081 cases, takes second place. Then follow New Jersey, California, Delaware, Virginia and West Virginia. Maryland's increase over 1902 was 173,842 cases, and that of the two Virginias was 497,015 cases. The total for the United States and Canada is over a million cases more than last year.

Miss Barringer, of St. Louis, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Beck.

LITTLE LOCALS.

† McIntire & Hodgkin, the grocerymen, have moved their store goods into the Wickes store room which was fitted up nicely by the owner, Mr. M. A. Toulson. The above firm conducted a very successful "Candy Kitchen" in this store room during the holidays.

† The ice embargo on the river has prevented the Chester River Company from running their boats. The Emma A. Ford left her wharf at 8 o'clock on Monday morning, and was eight hours in getting to Queenstown. The company's boats have not ventured out since.

† People around the town and county have been filling their ice houses this week with good clear ice from six to eight inches in thickness.

† The merchants of the town generally report a "good Christmas." All of them richly deserve success because of the efforts they put forth to stock their stores with goods to please the people.

† Mr. W. H. Waddell, the popular uptown merchant, has rented the storeroom vacated by McIntire & Hodgkin, and will conduct a first-class grocery store there.

† The public schools of the county and Washington College re-opened on Monday and Wednesday respectively. Some of the college students were compelled to travel quite a distance by rail owing to the ice embargo on the river.

† Mrs. Stauffer, of Morgnec, was the winner of a handsome dinner set given as a premium with a breakfast food for sale by Mr. Jacob F. Thompson.

† Town Baliff Jackson Coleman has purchased of Mr. Charles Roland his dwelling house on Cannon street for $750. Mr. Coleman is now thoroughly domiciled in his new home.

† Quite a number of pedestrians have had heavy falls this week on account of the icy pavements.

† The price of coffee has advanced recently to such an extent that our merchants are compelled to sell it for from 2 to 4 cents per pound higher than usual. The reason given for the advance in price is the shortage in the crop. The people of the United States consume between 15 and 16 million sacks per year and the supply will be only about 12 or 14 million sacks.

† Mr. Thomas Massey has entered the employ of the Beck Walker Company and will become their representative for the sale of their fertilizers.

ESCAPED IN NIGHT CLOTHES.

Home of Wesley Cannon in Quaker Neck Destroyed by Fire.

A serious fire occured on Sunday morning on the farm in Quaker Neck tenanted by Wesley Cannon. Mr. Cannon is at a hospital in Baltimore undergoing treatment. Mrs. Cannon, daughter and son were awakened about 5 o'clock by the report of a gun, and it was with difficulty that they escaped with their lives. The daughter and son made their escape by jumping from the second story window to the ground, a distance of 20 feet. A feather bed and mattress were all that was saved, and these the young lady threw out in order to jump on them. Miss Cannon sustained a severe fracture of the leg and lay unconscious on the frozen ground for some time before assistance arrived. Mr. W. F. Woodmender, who lives just across the road, after having been awakened by Mr. Cannon's son, came to the assistance of the stricken family and carried them to his home, where they were made comfortable. The house together with all of the furniture and clothing were destroyed. The house was insured in the Kent Mutual for $400. The origin of the fire is a mystery.
