SATURDAY, JANUARY 16, 1904.

HON. MURRAY VANDIVER was unanimously re-elected State Treasurer by the Democrats in caucus on Tuesday night.

ONE OF THE MOST beautiful tributes that has been paid to the Hon. Isidor Rayner, the undoubted choice of the people of the State of Maryland for the United States Senatorship during the Senatorial campaign, was expressed by a charming lady of Baltimore city the other day. Said she "In the silken glove of courtesy he always carries the iron grip of honor."

BEFORE ANOTHER ISSUE of the TRANSCRIPT either the friends of Governor Smith, Ex-Congressman Miles, Ex-Gov. Jackson, or those of Hon. Isidor Rayner have got to "eat crow." The balloting for U. S. Senator begins on Tuesday next; and it is not likely that it will continue until our next issue. We predict Mr. Rayner's election on the first ballot. So the other fellow will have to "eat crow."

THE PEOPLE of the State of Maryland want an open ballot in an open Democratic caucus, because every delegate in the General Assembly is given the opportunity to express the will of the people without the interference of vanishing political promises by those who would thwart the will of the people. A secret caucus is the arch enemy of an untrammelled vote such as every delegate must cast if he would be true to his constitutents.

GENERAL JOHN B. GORDON, the last of the distinguished Confederate Generals, died at Miami, Florida, on Saturday night last, after a brief illness of acute indigestion. Few Southern men have had such a notable career as has Gen. Gordon. He was distinguished in the annals of war as well as in the paths or peace, and the whole nation has frequeutly been filled with the fire of his oratory. Surely a great man has fallen.

ST. LOUIS has won the Democratic National Convention, which will assemble in the Exposition city on the 6th of July. Chicago made a desperate effort to secure the Convention, but New York city's influence was against the Windy City. The selection of St. Louis as the Convention city evidenced the power of Senator Gorman, whose chances for the Democratic nomination for the Presidency seems to be getting brighter day by day.

STATE SENATOR Garrett Foxwell will have the services of Messrs. John Comegys and James Robinson, of the second district, at Annapolis during the session of the Legislature. Delegate Gibbs has Mr. Jacob T. Shallcross. Mr. Gibbs is placed on the House Committee on Organization, which means the virtual recognition by the present State leaders of what is known as the "Organization" in Kent county. The position carries no patronage with it.

FIFTY-TWO members of the Maryland Legislature signed the caucus call for Monday night for the purpose of nominating a United States Senator. This does not in any manner presage the election of Gov. Smith, as a number of the members signed the call with the understanding that there is to be an open vote in caucus. A number of the signers are known to be opposed to the election of Gov. Smith. It is not believed that he will be elected. Rayner will win on an open ballot whether the caucus be secret or open.

THERE IS TALK of petitioning our representatives in the Legislature to introduce a bill for the renewal of the charter of Chestertown. It is argued by the promoters of this movement that the provisions of the old charter are not sufficiently broad to permit of placing in the hands of the Board of Town Commissioners the power to pass such by-laws as would promote greater corporal advancement. Possibly it would be well for some of our public spirited citizens to look into this matter. Anything to advance the best interests of our community.

A Prisoner in Her Own House.

Mrs. W. H. Layha, of 1001 Agnes Ave. Kansas City, Mo., has for several years been troubled with serve hoarseness and at times a hard cough, which she says, "Would keep me in doors for days. I was prescribed for by physicians with no noticeable results. A friend gave me part of a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with instructions to closely follow the directions, and I wish to state that after the first day I could notice a decided change for the better, and at this time after using it for two weeks, have no hesitation in saying I realize that I am entirely cured." This remedy is for sale by M. A. Toulson, Druggist.

GOV. WARFIELD'S SPEECH.

The Inaugural address of Governor Edwin Warfield was received with expressions of approbation and endorsement of those who heard it on Wednesday. It is a document full of the spirit of determination to fulfil ante-election pledges, and evidences the fact that Governor Warfield is to be the Governor of the people, by whom he was elected. One of the strongest and most significant of his utterances was: "You, (the Senators and Delegates) can make a creditable record for the State and your party if you do not put partisanship above the public weal. Strive to represent the will and the wish of the people in voting both for men and measures." This utterance of the Governor leads the people throughout the entire State to believe that he will be the Governor of the people, acting always for the very best interests of the people at large. All honor and success to Maryland's new Governor.

IN FAVOR OF RAYNER.

We, the undersigned citizens of Kent county, Maryland, living and residing in Kent county, do heartily endorse the candidacy of Hon. Isidor Rayner as Senator of the United States; and we respectfully request that this endorsement be published in the county papers.

NO CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

Caucus of the Legislature Decides Against the Poe Plan.

Suffrage Restriction to be Settled by Constitutional Amendment.

A dispatch from Annapolis to the Baltimore Sun Tuesday night says:

"The Democratic members of the Legislature in caucus here tonight decided to reach the desired end of suffrage restriction by means of a constitutional amendment and not through a constitutional convention.

"It has been expected that a convention would be decided upon and Mr. John P. Poe had drawn a bill providing for one. The bill is here, in shape to be presented, but it will be carefully laid away. It provided for a special election on the second Wednesday in March to choose delegates to a constitutional convention and that the convention should meet in Annapolis on the second Wednesday in May. Mr. Poe was in the State House tonight but he was not invited into the caucus.

"The caucus, in addition, decided to support an amendment to render State aid to public roads constitutional and unanimously nominated Gen. Murray Vandiver for re-election as State Treasurer.

RISK THOUGHT TOO GREAT.

"At one time the plan for a constitutional convention was much in favor, but upon sober second thought of the organization leaders the risk of the plan was deemed too great. The risk is, first, that the bill may be defeated and that would injure the prestige of the organization; second, Republicans might elect a majority of the delegates and put such a constitution upon the State as the Democrats would not like. It is believed that all the office-holding classes oppose a convention, and that they would be reinforced by the main body of the Republican party as well as by the most powerful corporations.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

The caucus adopted the following resolutions:

"The platform adopted by the last Democratic State Convention specifically and unequivocally pledged the party, by constitutional amendment or otherwise, to make ample and proper provision for a more perfect regulation of the suffrage in the State, and likewise declared in favor of a provision to enable the State to aid in the construction of public roads in the several counties and in the city of Baltimore.

"The Committees on Constitutional Amendments of the Senate and House of Delegats as soon as appointed be, and are hereby, instructed to act jointly and to prepare an amendment to Section 1 of Article 1 of the Constitution to provide, in addition to the present requirements as to age, length of residence in the State, county or Legislature district, such additional provisions as they may deem requisite to comply with our pledge to the people.

"The aforesaid committees, acting jointly, shall also prepare an amendment to Section 34 of Article 3 of the Constitution of this State which shall give power to the General Assembly to appropriate out of any funds in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated a sum of money, not exceeding $300,000 for any year, to be expended annually in the construction and maintenance of public roads and highways, in accordance with such regulation as the General Assembly may from time to time prescribe.

"The committees are directed to report as early as practicable the aforegoing amendments, and we hereby pledge our support to the prompt consideration of the same.

"We deem it inexpedient to offer or support any additional amendments to the Constitution at this time."

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Appointments by Committee on Organization—Delegate Gibbs Recognized by State Organization—Senate Confirms Recess Appointments of Governor Smith—Senator Robinson Chosen President Pro Tem.

The Legislature reassembled at 7.30 Tuesday night, but was in session less than an hour. The Senate elected Senator Thomas H. Robinson, of Harford, president pro tem., received the report of the comptroller of the treasury and then went into executive session to confirm a large list of recess appointments sent in by Governor Smith. This list included all the appointments made by the Governor since the last session of the Legislature, the most important being the reappointment of Judge James McSherry, of Frederick, as chief judge of the Court of Appeals. All the appointments were promptly confirmed. Judge McSherry and Judge Boyd, of the Court of Appeals, were on the floor of the Senate for a short while just previous to the assembly of the body.

President Jones rapped for order at 7.40. Rev. Father Jospeh A. Kautz, of Annapolis, made the opening prayer. Twenty-five Senators were present, Senators Dixon and Griffith being the absentees. Senator Robinson was selected as president pro tem. of the Senate on motion of Senator Perkins without opposition. The motion was seconded by Senators Gadd and Young. On motion of Senator Beasman an order was passed naming as library clerk to the Senate L. H. Diehlman, of Carroll county.

The House session was even shorter than that of the Senate.

Speaker Everhart called for order at 7.30 P. M., Rev. J. E. Maloy offered prayer. Ninety members were present. The committee on organization reported the following appointments:

Postmaster—H. W. Knoebel, Baltimore county.

Assistant Postmaster—J. Wilson Adams, St. Mary's county.

Engrossing Clerks—Harry Watson, Second district, Baltimore; C. D. Spurrier, Carroll; J. T. Amos, Harford; Jacob T. Shallcross, Kent; Lewis Etchinson, Frederick county.

Keeper of Cloakroom—H. R. Morrison, Caroline.

Assistant—Jason P. Tilghman, Wicomico.

Doorkeepers—William Hamilton, First district, Baltimore; Charles W. Waidner, Baltimore county; Thomas A. Kelley, Montgomery; Edward S. Clough, Queen Anne; William Tankersley, Somerset.

Pages—Andrew Orr and James C. McCauley

Folders—Hezekiah Linthicum, Clarence V. Lannan and James E. Fairbanks.

Policeman—Alexander Robertson.

Chaplains—J. Earle Maloy and Frank Orrick (to serve for alternate months.)

The report was adopted and the speaker was authorized to make necessary increases and changes in clerical force.

Melvin Conway and Richard Purdy, both of Annapolis, have been appointed pages of the Senate at the instance of Senator Gadd.

The Senate adjourned till 10.30 tomorrow morning and the House till 11.

Delegate Isaac Gibbs was made a member of the Committee on Organization. He named Mr. Jacob T. Shallcross as one of the engrossing clerks.

The following chaplains of the Senate were appointed on order presented by Senator Brewington on Thursday: Rev. Joseph A. Kautz, of St. Mary's Catholic Church, Annapolis; Rev. William Mumford, a retired Episcopal clergyman, of Annapolis, and Rev. Dr. J. L. Mills, of the Methodist Protestant Church, Brooklyn, Anne Arundel County.

A number of bills were introduced in the House. Legislature adjourned to meet in caucus on Monday night at 7.30 o'clock.

PEOPLE'S COLUMN.

Chestertown, Md., Jan. 14, 1904.

TO THE EDITORS OF THE TRANSCRIPT:—

Considerable indignation is expressed by those who live near "Kinnard's Point" and whose children attend what is known as "The Janvier School."

Many of the most intelligent families of Kent county live near here, the patrons consisting of such men as Messrs. Carson W. Harris, Wm. Joiner, Andrew J. Toulson, Frank H. Meeks, Nehemiah D. Clark and others. These citizens are deprived of the benefit of having their children attend a convenient public school of the county, although they have stated they have and will have a larger attendance than many schools now kept open under the law. These gentlemen will, some of them, have to send their children five miles to school if this school be not opened. Their appeals to the county commissioners and the school board have been in vain. It is proper that the facts in this case should be laid before the public and efforts made to secure to this section the benefits to which the children of that neighborhood are entitled, and which they should be afforded.

I write this letter at the request of a number of the patrons so that the public may be advised of the facts and an effort be made to induce those in authority to open this school and thus see if the people cannot keep up the required number of pupils. Last year there were not so many children of school age living there as there are now.

Very respectfully yours,
HOPE H. BARROLL.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Goldsborough, of Queenstown, to the marriage of their daughter, Carrie, to Mr. Elwood Spencer Strong, son of Hon. T. Romie Strong, of near Rock Hall. The ceremony will take place in St. Luke's Chapel, Queenstown, January 19, at noon.

J. Guion Roberts, Esq., of the New York City bar, is the guest of Mrs. Annie Stam.

Mr. J. Frank Davis, of Mullen & Sons large clothing store, Wilmington, Del., spent Saturday and Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Fannie Davis, on Mill street.

Miss Eva Hurlock, who has been confined to the house with a severe cold, is improving.

Master Ben Boston, son of Mr. Robert N. Boston, has entered the service of the United States Marine Corps. In a letter from Washington to a friend in Chestertown, Ben says that he was very homesick when he first entered the barracks but is alright now and feels right at home. He has been detached for service on the Des Moines, under command of Lieutenant Green. The Des Moines went into commission yesterday and Ben left Washington for a life on the ocean. "One thing about it," says Ben, "there is no fun in walking post a night like last night (Jan 2) for the streets were covered with sleet and it hailed and snowed all night." Ben says he doesn't think much of the city of Washington for it takes so much money to see anything of interest.

Mr. R. Bergen, of Baltimore, has been spending a few days in town, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arlington Sparks.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Blakeney are spending some time with relatives and friends in Baltimore.

Little Miss Mildred Davis, while sweeping the snow from the pavement in front of her home the other morning, fell and injured her knee cap seriously. She has been confined to the bed.

Mrs. Sidney P. Townsend has been confined to her room with a severe cold.

Mr. George Quelett, who has been quite ill, is reported improving.

Mr. Webster Lynch, of near Wilmington, Del., is the guest of his sister, Mrs. J. B. McIntyre, on Kent street.

Misses Carrie and Lelia Clothier, two accomplished and attractive young ladies, of Warrington, Va., have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Jefferson, near Catlin.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Davis, of Worton, announce the wedding of their daughter, Miss Mamie Spry Davis, to Mr. Walter Fowler, on Wednesday, Jan. 20 at 6 o'clock.

Mr. Harry H. Gresham, Jr., and Miss Aline M. Lindsay, both of Baltimore, were married in Washington, D. C., by Rev. J. M. Gill, on Dec. 31, 1903. Mr. Gresham was formerly a resident of Edesville, this county.

All of those on the sick list reported last week in the TRANSCRIPT are improving, we are glad to state.

Rumor says there are to be four weddings in Worton for as many successive weeks. This is a pretty good year for some of our ministers.

Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Whaland, of near Grey's Inn, celebrated the 10th anniversary of their marriage on Monday evening. Quite a number of relatives and friends enjoyed the happy occasion.

Mr. H. Hessey Miller, of Rock Hall, has accepted a position in the Baldwin Locomotive Works, Philadelphia, Pa.

W. Irving Walker, Esq., will deliver an address before the Peninsula Horticultural Society, which meets in Cambridge next week, upon the subject of "Our County Roads." Mr. Walker is well versed upon this important subject and will surely deliver an interesting address.

Miss Julia Burchinal entertained her Sunday School class very pleasantly at a "Leap Year" party on Tuesday evening. The little ladies, for of such is her class composed, took advantage of the occasion and selected their escorts according to the time-honored customs.

Miss Bessie Wheatley, one of Kent's popular teachers, has been confined to her room the past week suffering with a severe cold.

Master Wethered Barroll, son of Hope H. Barroll, Esq., who has been quite sick for a week or more, is improving rapidly under the skillful treatment of Dr. H. G. Simpers and the attention of a trained nurse.

Miss May Hurlock, who represents the well-known firm of Armstrong, Cator & Co., of Baltimore, in the South, is at home for a short vacation.

Mr. Richard T. Turner, Jr., of Betterton, left Monday for Southern Florida, where he will spend several weeks.

Mrs. Thomas W. Perkins, has been the guest of Mrs. Clarence W. Perkins, of Baltimore. She was also the guest of the Senator and Mrs. Perkins at the inauguration of Gov. Warfield at Annapolis on Wednesday.

Mrs. K. M. Bull has been visiting relatives and friends in Kennett Square and Nottingham, Penna.

Mr. Alonzo G. Decker and G. A. Bayder, Jr., of Baltimore, and great nephews of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Cole, of Lynch's, sailed on Jan. 13th for Liverpool thence to Edinburgh, Scotland, where A. G. Decker will have sole charge of a type machine, he being a representative of the National Composite Type Co., of Baltimore, with G. A. Bayder, Sr., as 1st. Vice-President.

Mr. Wm. A. Galloway, of Baltimore, is now making his home with his daughter.

Mr. S. W. Jewell, of Orangeville, who has been suffering with a carboncal on his neck for several weeks, is now much better.

Miss Blanche Johnson, of near Massey, has been home spending the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stonewall Johnson, but has now returned to Notre Dame College, Charles Street Avenue, Baltimore, Md.

Mr. W. H. Watkins, of Rock Hall, left town on the afternoon train yesterday for Chester, Pa., where he has secured employment.

Dr. C. P. Gilpin, who sustained quite a serious fall last week has sufficiently recovered to be able to attend to his practice.

Farmers' Institute.

A State Farmers' Institute will be held at the Court House, in Chestertown, under the direction of Mr. William L. Amoss, director, on Wednesday, January 27, 1904, from 1.30 P. M. to 4 P. M., Thursday, January 28, 10.30 A. M. to 4 P. M.

Everybody is invited. Admission free.

Ladies are invited to attend the afternoon and evening sessions.
