Plows. Plows. Plows.

The time is nearing when all farmers will begin considering the matter of Spring plowing. To the farmer using the VULCAN their comes no anxiety for he has something on which he knows he can depend. We have many well pleased customers to-day who were firm followers of the Olivers until they were induced to try a VULCAN, the result was they kept it, and to.day they are using the VULCAN exclusively. If necessary we can refer you to some of the best and most up-to date farmers in Kent county who are using the VULCAN, and who have told us, that they are far ahead of any plow they ever used. We have them in all sizes at Still Pond and Chestertown. and we will gladly put them out on trial.

W. C. T. U.

The Kennedyville W. C. T. U. held an interesting meeting on Friday evening, Feb. 5, at the M. P. Church, in commemoration of Miss Willard's heavenly birthday. With Miss Lula Van Dyke as organist, the choir and audience joined in singing "My Faith Looks up to Thee." After prayer, the 103rd psalm was read by Mrs. Emma Strong, followed by quotations from Miss Willard's writings by members. Mrs. K. M. Bull explained the meaning of "Thank Offering Day," telling of the noble work that had been done by Miss Willard and of her devotion to the reform movement. She said that in loving remembrance of those efforts and in recognition of the work still to be accomplished, each Union is asked to contribute two dollars to the memorial fund, not to build a costly monument, but to extend the work to which Miss Willard gave her life. The money is used to strengthen the cause in weak States and to send organizers into unclaimed fields. Extracts from an address by Lady Henry Somerset were read by Mr. William H. Fogwell. A duet "All Tears Shall be Wiped Away," was touchingly sung by Miss Lula Van Dyke and Mrs. Clara Reese. An interesting sketch of Miss Willard was given by Mrs. Emma Godwin. "Unanswered Yet?" was read by Mrs. Maggie Faulkner. "Miss Willard as a Reformer," was the subject of a paper by Mr. William T. Hague. A duet, "Sooner or Later the Wrong will be Righted," was sung by Miss Van Dyke and Miss Reese. An original paper, "Why I am a White Ribboner," was read by Mrs. Jesse Copper. "Her Answer" was read by Miss Florence Powell. Two members, Miss Helen Powell and Mr. Nat Johnson were received into the Union.

The announcement was repeated that Sunday, March 6, would be observed as "pledge signing" day against tobacco. Pastors, Sunday School workers and teachers were urged to make special efforts to pledge the young against the use of tobacco. Pledge cards may be obtained from Mrs. Emma Shafer, Kennedyville. Price ten cents per hundred. Two dollars were donated to the memorial fund and one dollar was contributed for literature. "Work, for the Night is Coming," was sung. The social meeting will be held the first Friday in March.

Mr. Albert Willis, of Camden, N. J., gave much pleasure by some beautiful selections upon the cornet.

GALENA NEWS.

The young ladies of Galena held an entertainment entitled "Old Maid's Convention" in the town hall last Friday evening, Feb. 5, 1904, which proved quite a success. This play is known the world over and many came to see it because of its noted character. People began to gather in town about 5 P. M. and at 7 the town hall was filled to its utmost capacity. At 7.30 the play began and the hall was in an uproar of laughter from that hour until the end. It lasted two hours and a half, and not one of the audience claimed any part of it to be tiresome. Many who saw it want it reproduced and say they wouldn't for a moment hesitate to pay the small sum of twenty-five cents to see such a play as that. The hall was somewhat of a drawing card as every one knows that the accommodations there are perfect, with its cushion back chairs and cane seats. Yet, the people hope the next time it is played in Galena it will be in a large tent instead of a small hall, so that those who were turned away this time may have an opportunity to see it.

Resolutions of Respect.

WHEREAS, On Jan. 20, 1904, our Heavenly Father, in His allwise providence, has seen fit to remove from our Order and community George McGuire, an honored and faithful brother and citizen.

Resolved, That while we bow in humble submission to the will of our Creator, we would express our deep sorrow at the loss of our esteemed brother, and shall have our charter draped in mourning.

Resolved, That as a member of our Conclave, Improved Order Heptasophs, Brother George McGuire was ever faithful and sincere in his duty toward our Conclave, doing all he could to promote the welfare and growth of our order by his own splendid example and encouraging others to do likewise.

Resolved, That we extend to his bereaved wife and children our most sincere sympathy in this, the time of their great affliction.

Resolved, That these resolutions be placed upon the Conclave minutes, be published in the county papers and sent to the wife of the deceased.

Passed by Galena Conclave No, 373, I. O. H., Feb. 1st, 1904.
