LOCAL MATTERS.

Who Can Beat This.—Mr. Wm. H. French, living on the J. Rees Beck home farm, near Hanesville, has 14 ewes who have given birth to 25 lambs, 22 of w h ich are living, the other 3 died during the severe winter weather.

Senator Foxwell Robbed.—Senator Foxwell, Mr. John M. Comegys, and Mr. James Robinson, all of Kent, were robbed of $200 in all on Monday night while they slept in their room at the Maryland Hotel, Annapolis. The door of the room was left unlocked. The thief has not been caught, and it is likely that he never will be.

State Teachers Association.—The executive committee of the State Teachers' Association met Saturday afternoon at the State Normal School. The date for the meeting was fixed for July 13-15, at Ocean City, Md. An interesting program is being arranged. The members of the executive committee are Arthur G. Smith, chairman, Lonaconing; Irving L. Twilley, J. Newton Wickes, Baltimore; Dr. J. W. Cain, Chestertown; Miss Edna March, Solomons.

LITTLE LOCALS.

† Farmers report wheat looking well.

† Several of our carpenters struck for a 9 hours labor day this week.

† The crocus and the daffodil, spring-time's first flowers, have made their appearance.

† The Chestertown W. C. T. U. will meet at Mrs. H. B. Simmons Wednesday, April 13, at 3 o'clock.

† A case of scarlet fever is reported in town. Every precaution should be taken to prevent the spread of the disease.

† The election for town commissioner to succeed Mr. Wm. B. Coleman, whose term expires this year, will be held on Monday, April 25th.

*†*The ther mometer registered 26 degrees on Monday morning, but we have heard no reports that fruit buds are injured.

† A well eight feet in diameter is being dug at the Chestertown Electric Light plant to insure an abundant supply of water.

† The first shad of the season was caught last week by Mr. George Gardner. Herring are becoming quite plentiful and prices have dropped in consequence.

*†*The first base ball game of the season will be played on the college campus on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock between the crack Syracuse University team and Washington College. A fine game is expected.

*†*Mr. George E. Lambert, Jr., is not only an up-to-date hotel man, but he has proven his skill as a painter. He has been beautifying the interior of the hotel this week with appropriate coats of paint.

† Messrs. Usilton and Bacchus have received a boatload of debris from the Baltimore fire which will be used in filling in their wharf property at the foot of Cannon street. The debris has created a great deal of interest and quite a number have taken souvenirs therefrom.

*†*The office of the Kent Mutual Fire Insurance Company has been moved to the company's room over the store of Mr. J. B. Burchinal. Mr. George B. Westcott is ready to attend to all business purtaining to the company's interest there.

*†*Mr. Wm. G. Evans who has leased "Kentmere" the fine summer residence of Mrs. Helen Kent Shaw, of New York, has purchased from the Cambridge Boat Works, a fine 7-horse power Naptha launch which will undoubtedly afford his family much pleasure during the summer upon the waters of the Chester river.

CHURCH NOTES.

At a meeting of the vestry of St. Mary Anne's Parish in Cecil county on Monday afternoon, a call was extended to Rev. Dr. Gantt, of Berlin, Md., to become rector of the parish which includes St. Mary's Church, North East, and St. Mark's Church, Perryville, to succeed Rev. Giles B. Cooke, who resigned some months ago to accept a call to a church in Kentucky.

Rev. W. L. White, the new pastor of the Chestertown M. E. Church, preached to large congregations both morning and evening last Sunday, and created a most favorable impression.

There will be no preachihg service morning or evening in Christ M. P. Church tomorrow (Sunday.)

Rev. K. M. Bull was called to Kennett Square, Pa., last Thursday to attend the funeral of his much lamented mother. He expects to return in time to hold his usual Sunday services to-morrow, April 10th.

At the annual session of the Baltimore Conference M. E. Church, held in Fayette Street Church, Baltimore, last week, a resolution was adopted making overtures to the Maryland Annual Conference now in session in Baltimore, for a union between the two denominations. Bishop Bowman, the senior bishop of the M. E. Church, Revs. J. P. Wright, J. St. Clair Neal, W. G. Herbert, S. Reese Murray and E. L. Watson were appointed a committee to present the matter to the Conference. The M. P. Conference will discuss the matter of proposed union with the United Brethern and Congregational denominations at this session and will prepare memorials to be submitted to their General Conference which meets in Washington in May.

Rev. I. Rider, who has very acceptably filled the pulpit of Kent Charge (Chesterville) Southern M. E. Church for the past several years, has been transferred to Charles and St. Mary's. He will be succeeded by Rev. J. H. Kuhlman.

The following vestrymen were re-elected on Easter Monday for Emmanuel P. E. Church, Chestertown: Judge James A. Pearce, Dr. W. Frank Hines, Richard D. Hynson, George B. Westcott, Lewin W. Wickes, Allen A. Harris, Hiram M. Brown and William W. Beck.

A SUCCESSFUL ANNIVERSARY.

Christ M. P. Sabbath School Renders a Beautiful Programme and Raises a Large Sum for Home Missions.

The anniversary exercises of the Juvenile Home Missionary Society of Christ M.P. Church last Sunday evening were a success in every respect. From the recitation of the tiniest tot to the beautiful symbolic exercise "The First Easter Morn," every part of the programme showed careful study and perfect direction. Much credit is due the committee in charge of the arrangements for the splendid manner in which each number was rendered. The primary exercises of the little folks are always very interesting but on this occasion the singing of the little Misses Russell, and the "speeching" of Masters Wilbur Hubbard and Henry Gill, and of little Misses Emily Lusby, Katherine Fowler, Helen Kendall and Mary Maslin would have done credit to older folks, and showed how deeply interesting little children can be when properly trained. Scarcely any of these little tots are six years old and yet the ease and grace with which they rendered their parts captured the large audience present. The symbolic exercise enacted by Misses Edith Fallowfield as "Angel," and Addie Hurlock, Bessie Wheatley, Ellen Bacon and Flora Wheatley as the women at the tomb on the "First Easter Morn" was particularly beautiful and impressive. Easter carols entitled "The Gates of Gold" were sung by the school under the direction of Mr. A. M. Culp, with orchestral accompaniment. One of the most interesting features of the evening, however, was the collection, which proved to be one of the largest in the history of the church. A spirit of friendly rivalry pervaded the entire school and each class made a noble effort to win the banner. The collection for the evening amounted to $183.14, the banner class being the one taught by Mr. J. D. Bacchus whose collection was $21.10. The next four classes were so close that there were only a few pennies difference in their amounts—Miss Clara Usilton $19.41, Miss Nettie Russell $19.07, Mrs. Ralph Barnett, $19.05, and Miss Fannie Baker $18.40. These classes deserve special mention for the efforts they made to secure a large contribution. The total collection for the year, including the plate collection, amounted to $395.26, one of the largest collections in the history of the society. Master Earle Latham, as president of the society, delivered an appropriate address on the subject of "Cheerfulness," and the banner was presented to the successful class by T. D. Bowers. The superintendent of the school, Mr. Wm. B. Usilton, presented the premiums—five in number—to the five classes contributing the highest amounts during the year. These prizes consisted of five handsome and appropriate books—one, a handsome Oxford bible, the gift of the pastor, Dr. Greenfield, as the first prize, being given to Mr. Fred G. Usilton's class, it having contributed for the year $58.36; second prize was won by W. W. Hubbard's class, amount $47.42; third prize, J. D. Bacchus' class, $30.43; fourth prize, Miss Clara B. Usilton, $29.66; fifth prize, Miss Nettie Russell, $23.71.

We were in error last week in stating that Mr. John E. Morris' limb is not mending as sucessfully as was hoped. We misunderstood our informant. Mr. Morris' condition is very much improved, his present slight indisposition being caused by another trouble. We make this correction out of deference to Mr. Morris as well as to his physician Dr. W. Frank Hines, of whose surgical ability we can personally testify.

Miss Mary Gooding has resigned as assistant teacher in Betterton public school. Miss Gooding has accepted a lucrative position elsewhere.

Mrs. A. Blum is in the city this week selecting new millinery.

Mr. J. Raymond Simpers, bookkeeper in the Kent County Saving Bank, spent a few days of this week in Wilmington.

Misses Ida and Mary Smith, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Smith, delightfully entertained a number of their little friends on Monday evening. Among those present were: Misses Gladys and Rebecca Aldridge, Marguerite and Martha Skipper, Rebecca and Sophia Levine, Jesse Anthony, Reba Davis, Helen Gale, Josephine Wheatley, Ethel Hines, Carmeta Russell, Mary and Francis Miller, Marguerite Howard, Rebecca Toulson, Ruth Lambert, Elizabeth Russell, Hallie Kelley, and Masters Walter Simmons, Roberts Greenfield, James Bacchus, Russell Wheatley, Joseph Wheatley, Frazier Russell, Lewin Howard, Irving Sparks, Arthur Skipper, Townsend Anthony, Laurence Russell, and Charles Smith. "Never had such a nice time time in all my life" was the exclamation of all present.

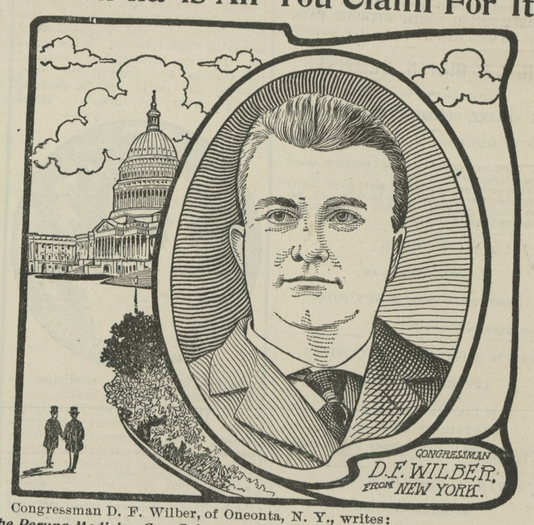

A check for five hundred and forty-seven dollars and forty-one cents ($547.41) a few days ago was sent to a policy holder in the Mutual Fire Insurance Company, it being the amount due him on several cancelled policies of insurance in the company. A clear net saving of this sum of money by holding policies in the "Kent Mutual." A wise man puts his insurance in a company where such savings are secured.

House-cleaning time is coming. You'll need mattings. Go to Bartley's. He is displaying a splendid line. He keeps furniture, wall paper, paints and oils, too.

CONGRESSMAN WILBER SAYS

[To The Pe-ru-na Medicine Co., of Columbus, O.]

"Pe-ru-na is All You Claim For It."

Congressman D. F. Wilber, of Oneonta, N. Y., writes:

The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, Ohio,:

Gentlemen---"Persuaded by a friend I have tried your remedy and I have almost fully recovered after the use of a few bottles. I am fully convinced that Peruna is all you claim for it, and I cheerfully recommend your medicine to all who are afflicted with catarrhal trouble."—David F. Wilber.

Peruna a Preventive and Cure for Colds.

Mr. C. F. Given, Sussex, N. B., Vice President of "The Past-time Boating Club," writes:

"Whenever the cold weather sets in I have for years past been very sure to catch a severe cold which was hard to throw off, and which would leave after-effects on my constitution the most of the winter.

"Last winter I was advised to try Peruna, and within five days the cold was broken up and in five days more I was a well man. I recommended it to several of my friends and all speak the highest praise for it. There is nothing like Peruna for catarrhal afflictions. It is well nigh infallible as a cure, and I gladly endorse it."---C. F. Given.

A Prominent Singer Saved From Loss of Voice.

Mr. Julian Weisslitz, 175 Seneca street, Buffalo, N. Y., is corresponding secretary of The Sangerlust, of New York; is the leading second bass of the Sangerlust, the largest German singing society of New York and also the oldest.

In 1899 The Sangerlust celebrated its fiftieth anniversary with a large celebration in New York City. The following is his testimony:

"About two years ago I caught a severe cold while traveling and which settled into catarrh of the bronchial tubes, and so affected my voice that I was obliged to cancel my engagements. In distress I was advised to try Peruna, and althongh I had never used a patent medicine before, I sent for a bottle.

"Words but illy describe my surprise to find that within a few days I was greatly relieved, and within three weeks I was entirely recovered. I am never without it now, and take an occasional dose when I feel run down."—Julian Weisslitz.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.
