Consumption

The only kind of consumption to fear is "neglected consumption."

People are learning that consumption is a curable disease. It is neglected consumption that is so often incurable.

At the faintest suspicion of consumption get a bottle of Scott's Emulsion and begin regular doses.

The use of Scott's Emulsion at once, has, in thousands of cases, turned the balance in favor of health.

Neglected consumption does not exist where Scott's Emulsion is.

Prompt use of Scott's Emulsion checks the disease while it can be checked.

GOV. WARFIELD'S MESSAGE.

Disapproves of the Poe Disfranchisement Amendment.

"To the Senate of Maryland :

"On the 25th day of March our honorable body passed a resolution directing the Secretary of the Senate to deliver to the clerk of the Court of Appeals a bill, duly passed by both houses of the Legislature, three-fifths of the members of each House concurring, whice provides for the submission to the voters of Maryland of an amendment to Article 1, Section 1, of the Constitution, regulating the franchise.

"This bill has not been presented to me for my approval. I am officially advised by the Attorney-General that this bill cannot be lawfully submitted to the qualified voters of the State for adoption or rejection unless it is signed by me, if I appove it, or passed over my veto, in accordance with Article 2, Section 17, of the Constitution. Article 8 of the Bill of Rights declares 'that, the legislative, executive and judical powers of government ought to be forever separate and distinct from each other, and no person exercising the functions of one of said departments shall assume or discharge the duties of any other.'

"I would not be faithful to the duties of the high executive office to which I have been elected by the people if I permitted, without protest, any of its constitutional powers and prerogatives to be impaired. It is with regret that I am compelled by a sense of duty and in obedience to my deep-seated convictions as to what is best for the people, to officially declare that the said bill designated as Chapter 97, entitled 'An Act to amend Section 1 of Article 1 of the Constitution of this State, and to provide for the submission of said amendment to the qualified voters of this State for adoption or rejection,' has not my approval.

"To thus refuse my sanction a measure which has received the vote of every Democratic member of the Senate and House of Delegates has caused me deep concern. With every disposition to to defer to the judgment of the Democratic members of the Legislature on a subject where I am fully persuaded their action is the result of a sincere desire upon their part to discharge their obligation to the people and to redeem the pledges of their party, I find, after careful consideration, that I can not agree with their conclusions.

HIS VIEW OF PLATFORM.

"The platform of the Democratic party, upon which I was electad, contains this reference to what has been designated as 'The Race Problem :'

"We believe that the poltical destinies of Maryland should be shaped and controlled by the white people of the State, and while we disclaim any purpose to do any injustice whatever to our colored population, we daclare without reserve our resolute purpose to preserve in every conservative and constitutional way the political ascendancy of our race.'

"In my acceptance of the nomination for Governor I defined my position upon this plank, and in my inaugural address I referred to the same, in these words :

" 'Of all planks in the platform, that which became paramount in the campaign demanded the elimination of the ignorant, unreflecting, irresponsible voter. The result of the election demonstrates that a large majority of our best citizens favor such election reform. They demand that the State shall be governed by those citizens, who, because of their intelligence, their heredity and their interest in the material welfare of the Commonwealth, are best fitted to properly, patriotically exercise the high duties of citizenship. This result can only be attained by an amendment to the Constitution fixing a higher standard of qualification for the exercise of the elective franchise. I believe that an amendment to the Constitution upon the lines which I have suggested, expressed in clear, definite, simple terms, should be submitted to the people of Maryland.'

"I have not changed my views on this question since I became Governor; but have become more earnestly in favor of an amendment which will accomplish the results so generally desired.

LAXITY OF METHODS.

"The amendment proposed by the bill passed does not, in my judgment, do this. The educational requiremeut therein is not conservative or definite, but is vague and uncertain, and is liable to cause grave abuses through the prejudices, the whims and the partisan zeal of the registration officers. Any educational requirement or qualification adopted should be defined in precise terms in the amendment and thus be placed beyond the power of any election officer to do injustice by partisan or unfair action.

"The fundamental right of a citizen to exercise the privilege of suffrage should not depend upon the opinion of any set of election officers as to the reasonableness of his interpretation of any clause of the Constitution.

"Another class of persons should be given the right of suffrage—those who have a material interest in the welfare of the Commonwealth, who pay taxes and thus aid in defraying the expenses of the State and local governments, and whose thrift means so much for the prosperity of the State. The man who, by his industry, frugality and business judgment, accumulates property and acquires his home, should have a voice in the management of public affairs. He can be counted upon as a good, law-abiding citizen.

"This property right to register will encourage thrift, industry and the making of good citizens, and will hold out to the uneducated, who now have no property and who could not qualify as voters under the amendment proposed, a hope of future enfranchisement.

"If the reasons I have given appeal to your judgment, sufficient time remains in which to pass a bill embodying the principles above set forth.

"Referring to the other proposed amendment to the Constitution, providing for funds for good roads, I wish to say that if it is duly presented to me it will receive my approval.
