MILLINGTON ITEMS.

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Stevens, in Queen Anne's county near town, Wednesday evening, April 6th, when their eldest daughter, Miss Mary Emma and Mr. Alphonso H. Pearson, were married in the presence of about one hundred guests. At 8.15 P. M. the bride and groom entered the parlor preceded by Miss Amanda Hilda Fisher, of Smyrna, Del., as maid of honor, and Mr. James Moore as best man, to the beautiful strains of "The Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin, which was beautifully rendered by Miss Lizzie Stevens, the little sister of the bride. The bride and maid of honor were dressed alike in handsome dresses of white persian mull trimmed in white satin ribbon. The bridegroom and best man wore the conventional black. The bride carried a large shower bouquet of bride's roses while the maid of honor carried white carnations. Rev. E. R. Sidell read the marriage service. While the happy couple were receiving the congratulations of their friends, Master Freddie Numbers skillfully rendered a very appropriate selection on the organ. The house was beautifully festooned with white satin ribbon, ferns and cut flowers. After congratulations had been received the guests were invited to the dining room, where ice cream, cakes, fruits and nuts were served in abundance. During the evening several selections were rendered by Mr. Fred C. Numbers on his violin, accompanied by his son, Freddie, on the organ. Mr. and Mrs. Pearson were the recipients of many handsome presents. They will reside in Queen Anne's county.

Easter services were held in Asbury M. E. Church and Holy Cross P. E. Chapel last Sunday morning and evening. Both churches were beautifully trimmed with flowers and potted plants. Appropriate music was rendered at all the services.

Best Cough Medicine for Children.

When you buy a cough medicine for small children you want one in which you can place implicit confidence. You want one that not only relieves but cures. You want one that is unquestionably harmless. You want one that is pleasant to take. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy meets all of these conditions. There is nothing so good for the coughs and colds incident to childhood. It is also a certain preventive and cure for croup, and there is no danger whatever from whooping cough when it is given. It has been used in many epidemics of that disease with perfect success.
