NOTICE TO HOLDERS OF BURIAL LOTS IN CHESTER CEMETERY.

The Chester Cemetery Company by recent action of its Board is now prepared to enter into a contract with its lot owners to keep their lots in first-class order perpetually. This guarantees the owner that his lot will be taken care of, not only after his death but even after the death of all the family.

There is no sadder sight in a cemetery than to see the lot of a one time prosperous owner in weeds, briars, overgrown bushes, &c., and for reason that the family have either all died, removed or else forgotten their duty to the remains of their ancestors.

Those who secure a contract as above will have no apprehensions of this fate to their lots. For terms apply to

SHERIFF'S NOTICE

—TO—

Delinquent Tax-Payers!

THIS is to give notice to all delinquent taxpayers, that the Tax Book for the county have been placed in my hands for the collection of taxes, which are now due and MUST BE PAID AT ONCE. Don't ask me to wait.

The Law Allows No Delay, therefore, I must proceed at once to advertise and sell the property of all delinquents.

Extract from Chapter 211, Section 68, Code Public Local Laws of 1892, says:

All tax bills unpaid on the 1st of April in each year shall be placed in the hands of the Sheriff of the county, who shall forthwith proceed to seize, levy upon, advertise and sell the property of such delinquents, or so much thereof as is necessary to pay said taxes, interests, charges and costs of sale, and for this purpose the said Sheriff is hereby clothed with all the powers possessed by collectors of taxes under the Code of Public General Laws and the Sheriff shall report and pay over to the Treasurer before the 1st day of June in each year all the taxes collected by him.

☞Don't wait for me to levy on your property, and advertise it, but make prompt settlement and avoid extra costs.

COURT COMMENCES MONDAY.

Dockets Small and Short Term Expected.

The April term of the circuit court for Kent county will convene Monday. The term will probably not last longer than one week. There are no cases docketed of any special interest, and the term is looked upon as disinteresting.

Sheriff Keyser has in his keeping at the jail six prisoners. Two are there charged with larceny, two for assault, one for insanity and one charged with burning the barn of Mr. Vandyke, near Lynch's. George Thomas White by his father Thomas H. White, has brought suit through Lewin W. Wickes, Esq., counsel, against Mr. James Brice for $3,000 for injuires sustained by the plaintiff last summer by being bitten by Mr. Brice's dog. M. deK. Smith, Esq., will appear as counsel for Mr. Brice.

H. W. Vickers, Esq., through his counsel Richard D. Hynson, Esq., has brought suit against Mr. Jefferson D. Bacchus for $2500 damages for cutting wood out of plaintiff's woods on the Carville farm. Mr. Bacchus will be represented by M. deK. Smith, Esq.

Messrs. Fred C. Numbers, Wm. K. Judefind, W. W. Hubbard, S. C. Willis, Charles P. Norris and Wm. T. Nicholson who were drawn as jurymen by Judge Jas. A. Pearce on the regular jury have been excused by the Judge from serving and Messrs. Wm. R. Price, Wilbur Eliason, Cornelius G. Haddaway, James B. Wilson, Thomas W. Trew and Richard M. Bryan have been drawn by Judge Pearce to serve in the place of the gentlemen excused.

The Queen Anne's Electric Light and Transportation Companies Charter.

A bill was passed at the recent session of the Legislature granting a charter to the "Queen Anne's Electric Light and Transportation Company." We understand that the parties interested in the above charter contemplate the building of an Electric road from Centreville to Chestertown via Church Hill, and Crumpton, and the establishing of an electric plant at Centreville for lighting that town. The power house, if the plans as outlined are carried out, will be located at Centreville. Should the scheme be carried through it will prove a great convenience to the people living along the route and would give them accommodation such as they probably little dreamed of or realized. The conveniences to Chestertown, by the establishment of such a route, would likewise be many. It would make accessable for shoppers a large territory of desirable purchasers of merchandise who rarely ever come here to do their purchasing, because of the inconveniences of long drives which at present is the only means of reaching here.

OBITUARY.

HON. STEPHEN BOYER.

Hon. Stephen Boyer, an honored and highly esteemed former citizen of this county, died at his residence in Middletown, Del., Tuesday evening, April 12th, 1904, aged 76 years. Funeral services were held at St. Anne's Protestant Episcopal Church, Middletown, yesterday afternoon, April 15th, at one o'clock, interment at the family burying ground, Homestead, near Masseys, this county.

Mr. Boyer was born in the upper part of Kent county in 1828, where he resided until a few years ago, when he moved to Middletown. He was for many years a vestryman and member of St. Clements Protestant Episcopal Church, Masseys, and at the time of his death was a vestryman of St. Anne's P. E. Church, Middletown. Mr. Boyer was a liberal contributor to the church and some years ago gave as a glebe to St. Clements Church a fine and valuable farm located in the upper part of this county. He was twice elected as a Democratic member to the Maryland Legislature from this county, which position he filled with honor and credit to himself and constituents. Mr. Boyer leaves no immediate family, his wife having died a short time ago. Mrs. Mary O. Cacy, Miss Julia Cacy and Mr. Wm. O. Cacy, of Millington, are cousins of the deceased.

MR. FRANKLIN PLATT.

Mr. Franklin Platt, of Wilmington, Del., was struck and almost instantly killed by an electric car near that city on Sunday last. Mr. Platt, who was 63 years old, was deaf and did not hear the car approaching. He had been walking along the side of the track coming towards Wilmington which was the same direction in which the car was going. As it was muddy at the bottom of the hill the unfortunate man stepped from the path into the car track directly in front of the car. He was then so close that the motorman could not have a chance to stop the car. Mr. Platt was knocked down and the wheels on one side of the car passed over him, causing his death.

Mr. Platt was engaged in the hard ware business in Chestertown for many years, leaving here in 1888. His remains were buried at St. Augustine, Cecil county.

MRS. LYDIA A. DUYER.

Mrs. Lydia A. Duyer died at the home of her daughter in Worton, April the 11th, 1904. She was the widow of the late John Duyer, who was well and favorably known in Kent. Mr. Duyer was a large land owner and farmer. Mrs. Duyer was born in Cecil county in 1822. She was affectionately known in Worton for her warm and motherly heart. No child but whose tears were wiped away, no neighbor or friend in trouble but upon whom consolation was bestowed. She was a member of Worton Presbyterian church and a christian who was no stranger to that place that "passeth understanding." She leaves six children, Isaac and Thomas J. Parsons, John A., and Joseph Duyer, Mrs. Laura R. Crew and Mrs. Sallie A. Carter. Rev. J. B. Merritt, assisted by Rev. K. M. Bull and W. E. Habbert, conducted the services. Ieterment in old Still Pond burying ground. W. H. Krusen undertaker.

JOSEPH B. HADAWAY.

Mr. Joseph B. Hadaway, a well-known, highly respected and aged citizen of Broad Neck, died at his home Monday morning of inflammation of the stomach, aged 72 years. Funeral was held Tuesday afternoon, interment in the Kesley Chapel cemetery, Rev. Mr. McCann officiating. The pall bearers were: Henry Taylor, Samuel J. Vickers, James Kilbourne, Pearson Jewell, Henry Thompson and T. J. Fletcher. J. E. Ferguson funeral director.

Art Notes.

Mrs. Rosalie M. Schuyler has returned from a trip to New Castle and Wilmington, Del.

Mrs. Schuyler has just completed a large oil painting of an old colonial mansion in Sharon, Connecticut. It is the home of the Sedgwicks, of literary fame, and whose ancestors came over in the Mayflower.

Mr. Claude H. Schuyler is painting a scene from the great fire in Baltimore. The picture is ten feet in height by twenty in length, and is so realistic that the outdoor studio, in which it is being painted has had to be insured.

W. C. T. U.

The Chestertown W. C. T. U. held an interesting meeting with Mrs. H. B. Simmons on Wednesday. It was voted to invite the county convention to hold its next session here in September. Arrangements were made to hold the annual Willard meeting in the M. E. church in the near future. Mrs. Simmons was elected to serve as recording secretary for the unexpired term.

The County Executive of the W. C. T. U. will meet on Thursday, April 19, at 2 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. H. B. Simmons. All county officers and officers of local unions as well as superintendents of departments are urged to attend. Time and place of holding our county convention to be determined.

A Little Fishy, But True.—Mr. Dan Haddaway some days ago set two perch nets overnight along the Queen Anne's shore, near Indiantown wharf, and the next morning the nets were literally full of fish, scarcely a mesh left vacant. So thick were the perch along the shore near the mouth of a small stream which makes up in the field below the wharf that a gentleman who was in the boat with Mr. Haddaway dipped up two dip-nets full right out of the river before they disappeared. The above is vouched for by a reputable citizen of this county.
