FOR PRESIDENT:

HON. ARTHUR P. GORMAN,

OF MARYLAND.

THE HAMAN OYSTER BILL was vetoed by Gov. Warfield on Tuesday. The vetoeing of the bill by the Governor it is said was at the request of Mr. Haman, father of the bill.

GOVERNOR WARFIELD has signed the "Wilson Election Bill," which abolishes the placing of the party designation on the tickets to be voted in several of the counties in the State. Kent county is included in this list.

AT THE ANNUAL MEETING of the Peninsular Press Association, held in Wilmington, Del., Saturday last, the following officers were elected: W. Scott Roberts, of Centreville, was chosen president; W. M. Tyler, of Easton, vice-president, and Fred G. Usilton, of Chestertown, secretary and treasurer.

MR. GEORGE R. ASH has purchased the Cecil Democrat from the stock-holders of the company, and will continue the publication of the paper as editor and proprietor. Brother Ash is one of the best newspaper men in Eastern Maryland, and we are glad to know he will conduct the Democrat in the future.

CHAIRMAN MURRAY VANDIVER, of the Democratic State Central Committee, on Wednesday issued a formal call for a meeting of the committee at headquarters in the Eutaw House, Baltimore, noon, Wednesday next, for the purpose of selecting a date for holding the State Convention at which delegates to the National Convention in St. Louis in July will be elected.

PRESTO, CHANGE.

Some of the Republican papers of the country some time ago made much-a-do over the reported offer of a Democratic candidate for office to put up a large campaign fund, but their piety seems to have suddenly changed to high glee at the reported offer of Mr. Carnegie to put up a million dollars to help their party buy the presidency of the United States this fall. Here it what the Philadelphia Press has to say about it:

"Andrew Carnegie will probably be the largest individual subscriber to the Roosevelt campaign fund. He is ready to give a half million dollars, or even a million, if that much is needed to re-elect the present occupant of the White House.

"Before he sailed for Europe a few weeks ago Mr. Carnegie said to one of President Roosevelt's intimate personal friends that he had no patience with the crusade against Mr. Roosevelt which a few rich men in New York were carrying on. He added that those men thought they could beat the President with money. But in his opinion they could not do anything of the sort. He then made the statement that he could be depended upon for any sum Mr. Roosevelt or his managers want. 'If there is any trouble about raising a fund for all the proper purposes of a campaign,' said Mr. Carnegie, 'come to me. The President shall not be beaten by a conspiracy of rich men to defeat him if I can help it.'"

THE M. P. CONFERENCE.

An Interesting Meeting at Which Church Union Was Discussed.

PLAN OF APPOINTMENTS.

The following are the delegates and alternates selected to the General Conference which meets in May:

Ministerial—Rev. F. T. Little, president of the conference; Rev. T. H. Lewis, president of Western Maryland College; Rev. H. L. Elderdice, president of the Westminster Theological Seminary; Rev. F. T. Tagg, editor of the Methodist Protestant; Rev. J. D. Kinzer, pastor of Georgetown Church; Rev. W. R. Graham, pastor of Easton Church; Rev. J. M. Holmes, Rev. W. M. Strayer, Rev. J. M. Gill, Rev. J. W. Kirk, pastor of the conference church; Rev. J. L. Mills and Rev. S. B. Tredway.

Laymen—Mr. T. Pliny Fisher, Dr. Joshua W. Hering, former Comptroller of the State; Mr. T. A. Murray, Mr. Daniel Baker, Mr. Gordon T. Atkinson, Comptroller of the State; J. H. Roberts, E. S. Adkins, C. A. Benjamin, E. B. Fenby, J. G. Coleman, Joshua N. Warfield and Dr. R. M. Price.

The following were elected as alternates: Revs. J. M. Sheridan, F. C. Klein and J. S. Bowers; laymen, J. G. Rockwood, Samuel Vannort and J. D. Cathell.

AGAINST CHURCH UNION.

Rev Dr. S. B. Southerland, the president of the faculty of instruction and the senior member of the conference offered a resolution disapproving of any union of the Methodist Protestant Church with other churches by which the identity principles, doctrine and economy of the denomination would sooner or later be destroyed, Dr. Southerland said in presenting his paper that he had prepared it some weeks before the conference assembled and before he had known of the overtures that have since been presented by the Methodist Episcopal Church looking toward the union of those two branches of Methodism. He had had in mind, he explained, the negotiations under way concerning the proposed union of the Methodist Protestant with the United Brethren and Congregational Churches.

The following resolution, which was introduced by President Lewis, of Western Maryland College, was adopted:

"Since no proposition for denominational union can properly come before an annual conference until submitted as an overture from the General Conference,

"Resolved, That while freely according to our venerable father, Rev. Dr. Southerland, the right to express his view on this important matter, we yet deem it inadvisable to open the question to general disscussion at this time, and direct that the paper of Dr. Southerland be published in our minutes with this explanation."

The seventy-sixth annnual session of the Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church was concluded at Alnutt Memorial Church Tuesday night by the announcement by President Little of the appointments.

The return of Dr. Greenfield to Chestertown for the fourth year is very gratifying to his congregation and the community as well. Dr. Greenfield is undoubtedly one of the county's greatest preachers, and Chestertown is fortunate in having the services of such an eloquent man. He is enjoying the honor of having received a call to Lafayette Avenue M. P. Church, Baltimore, for a second pastorate, but preferred to return to his people in Chestertown.

Sciatic Rheumatism Cured.

"I have been subject to sciatic rheumatism for years," says E. H. Waldron, of Wilton Junction, Iowa. "My joints were stiff and gave me much pain and discomfort. My joints would crack when I straightened up. I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm and have been thoroughly cured. Have not had a pain or ache from the old trouble for many months. It is certainly a most wonderful liniment." For sale by M A. Toulson, Druggist Chestertown, Md
