LOCAL MATTERS.

Dwelling Burned.—The dwelling on the Winton Farm, the residence of Mr. William B. Earle, in Queen Anne's county, at the junction of the Chester and Corscia rivers, was destroyed by fire Wednesday.

Farm Sold.—Mr. Wm. H. Casy, of Massey, this county has sold to Mr. John M. Perry, of Centreville, Reidburn, the fine farm near Booker's wharf in Queen Anne's county, which he recently purchased of Mr. Richard Holliday. This is one of the finest estates in our sister county.

Bills Signed and Bill Vetoed.—Gov. Warfield on Tuesday signed the bill amending the charter of the Farmers and Merchant's Bank of Chestertown and the Auditing Committee bill for this county. He vetoed the bill changing the name of the Chestertown Water Company. The latter bill will be found in full in another column in this issue.

Smallpox in Cecil.—Dr. Fulton, of Baltimore, was summoned to Elkton last week to see Mrs. John F. Holt, who lives near that town, and who was sick with what was thought by the local physician to be smallpox. Dr. Fulton pronounced the disease to be genuine smallpox and immediately steps were taken to prevent a spread of the disease. Just how the disease was contracted by the lady is not known, but it is thought that her husband must have carried it home in his clothes, as he has been attending the Wilmington market weekly.

200,000,000 Yellow Perch.—Colonel Thomas Hughlett, Jr., deputy fish commissioner under Commissioner Clarence L. Vincent, brought to Chestertown Tuesday 200,000,000 yellow perch which he hatched at the Tuckaho hatchery, near Caward's Point. Mr. Hughlett brought a can of the fish to the TRANSCRIPT office where he exhibited several specimens of them. They were about a half inch long and about as large round as a pin. Col. Hughlett deposited the entire lot in the stream at Goose Hill. The secret in hatching yellow perch, says Col. Hughlett, is that it should be done in fresh water. After depositing the fish Col. Hughlett returned to Chestertown and visited the "Fish Hawk," the government steamer lying at the Chestertown wharf, whose officers failed in their experiment at hatching yellow perch by using salt instead of fresh water.

CHURCH NOTES.

At a meeting of the vestry of the St. Mary Anne's Parish, at Perryville, on Monday, presided over by Bishop Adams, of Easton, a call was extended to Rev. J. Gibson Gantt, of Berlin, Md., to become rector of St. Mary's Church, North East, and St. Mark's Chapel, near Perryville, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Rev. Giles B. Cooke, who accepted a call to a church in Kentucky.

A Temperance meeting, under the auspices if the C. E. Society of Wesley Chapel, will be held next Sunday night, April 17th. The program will consist of reading, recitations, solos, and musical selections, besides addresses by visitors.

Rev. R. S. Rowe having returned from Conference will (D. V.) preach in the Kennedyville M. P. Church on Sunday at 10.30 A. M., and at 7.30 P. M.

Miss M. Adele France, of Chestertown, has been the guest of Mrs. Paul Turner, Baltimore.

Mr. Charles McWhorter, who has been acting as breakesman in place of Mr. Charles King on the Kent train, has been transferred to Wilmington and Mr. King has returned to his former position on the train.

Rev. W. N. Sherwood, of Baltimore, is spending a few days with his mother, Mrs. Sherwood, on High street. Rev. Mr. Sherwood has been transferred from Christ Church, Baltimore, where he had just completed a fine new church and accomplished an excellent work, to West Wilmington.

Miss Bettie Patterson entertained her many little friends very charmingly on Thursday evening at a "Leap Year Dance," at her home on Front street. Dancing was the feature of the evening and the little lads and lassies skipped the "light fantastic" in very graceful style.

Mr. Norman Massey, of Newark, is the guest of friends in town.

The contingent of Chestertown Methodist Protestants who have been attending the session of Conference in Baltimore during the past week, returned on Thursday.

Mr. Stephen Kirby has moved from High street to Mr. T. H. Topping's dwelling at the mill.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Urie gave an Easter Party to their daughters, Misses Louisa and Helen on Friday evening. Each guest was provided with a pretty colored bag and commenced to hunt for the candy Easter eggs. The child who found the most eggs was awarded a prize. Each child had a pretty souvenir given them. The table was beautifully dressed in true Easter style, having a large rabbit in the centre and prettily decorated with different colored eggs.

Miss Louise Stam has been appointed assistant teacher in the Betterton Public School to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Gooding. Miss Stam will enter upon her duties Monday.

WEDDING BELLS.

DUYER—WALBERT.

Miss Daisy Walbert and Mr. William E. Duyer were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Walbert, near Church Hill, Wednesday evening, April 13th, at 7.30 o'clock. Rev. W. C. Poole, of Church Hill, performed the ceremony.

The ceremony was performed in the parlor which was tastefully decorated with evergreen. Miss Lida Walbert, sister of the bride, acted as maid of honor and Mr. Ollie Carter as best man. Miss Lillie Jarvis played the wedding march from Lohengrin. The bride was attired in pearl satin alamo cloth, trimmed in white satin and applique. The maid of honor wore white Persian lawn, trimmed with satin ribbon. A magnificent reception was held immediately after the ceremony, at which nearly a hundred guests were present. The future home of Mr. and Mrs. Duyer will be near Lynch's station, in Kent county.

New Advertisements.

There are many new shapes in men's low and high shows in the handsome Walk-Over shoes in the nicely dressed window of W. Ambrose Carroll's shoe store.

Steamer Annapolis is now running Port Deposit route, also Sassafras River Line. See adv. in this paper. Stops each way at Betterton and Tolchester Beach.

A check for five hundred and forty-seven dollars and forty-one cents ($547.41) a few days ago was sent to a policy holder in the Mutual Fire Insurance Company, it being the amount due him on several cancelled policies of insurance in the company. A clear net saving of this sum of money by holding policies in the "Kent Mutual." A wise man puts his insurance in a company where such savings are secured.

"POOR DIGESTION, LANGUID AND TIRED."

[An Interesting Letter Concerning Pe-ru-na.]

Miss Della Janveau, Globe Hotel, Ottawa, Ont., is from one of the oldest and best known French Canadian families in Canada. In a recent letter to The Peruna Medicine Co., of Columbus, Ohio, she says:

"Last spring my blood seemed clogged up, my digestion poor, my head ached and I felt languid and tired all the time. My physician prescribed for me, but a friend advised me to try Peruna. I tried it and am pleased to state that I found it a wonderful cleanser and purifier of the system. In three weeks I was like a new woman, my appetite had increased, I felt buoyant, light and happy and without an ache or pain. Peruna is a reliable family medicine."

Adia Brittain, of Sekitan, O., writes:

"After using your wonderful Peruna three months I have had great relief. I had continual heaviness in my stomach, was bilious, and had fainting spells, but they all have left me since using Peruna."—Adia Brittain,

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.
