NOTICE TO HOLDERS OF BURIAL LOTS IN CHESTER CEMETERY.

The Chester Cemetery Company by recent action of its Board is now prepared to enter into a contract with its lot owners to keep their lots in first-class order perpetually. This guarantees the owner that his lot will be taken care of, not only after his death but even after the death of all the family.

There is no sadder sight in a cemetery than to see the lot of a one time prosperous owner in weeds, briars, overgrown bushes, &c., and for reason that the family have either all died, removed or else forgotten their duty to the remains of their ancestors.

Those who secure a contract as above will have no apprehensions of this fate to their lots. For terms apply to

Treasurer of Chester Cemetery Co.,

OBITUARY.

MR. WILLIAM JONES.

Mr. William Jones, one of the oldest and most prominent agriculturists of Kent and Cecil counties, died at the home of his son, Julian, near Kennedyville, very suddenly on Thursday morning of paralysis, aged 76 years. The deceased was born in Sussex county, Del., where he lived until he arrived at the age of manhood, since then he had been concerned with agricultural pursuits and prior to his retirement he was one of the leading agriculturists of Kent and Cecil counties. It has scarcely been our pleasure to know a gentleman of a more social nature than the deceased possesed. He was aimiable to a fault, and loving in his duties and relations as a parent.

His children were the pride of his old age, and while each of them lovingly and tenderly ministered to his every want and did every thing to smooth his pathway down the hill of time, he was always so appreciative of all the love and affection of his children. The deceased was a lifelong democrat, and though never having held any political office, he was an ardent advocate of the truest and best principles of democracy. We shall miss him from our midst, for he never failed to visit our office for a pleasant conversation whenever he was a visitor in the homes of his daughters in Chestertown. The deceased leaves seven children, five daughters and two sons; Mrs. Lizzie Jones, of Cecilton, Mrs. Annie Hayes, Chestertown; Mrs. Mollie Simcoe, North East; Mrs. George D. Lofland, Chestertown; Mrs. Daisy Williams, of near Chesapeake City, and Messrs. Harry Jones, of the Manor, Cecil county, and Julian Jones, of near Kennedyville.

He is also survived by three brothers and one sister, Messrs. Henry Jones, of Chesapeake City; George Jones, of Kennedyville, and Charles Jones, of Talbot county, and Mrs. Conlyn, of Talbot. Funeral services will be held to-morrow (Sunday) morning at 10 o'clock from the residence of his son, Julian, conducted by Rev. R. S. Rowe, interment in Bethel cemetery, Cecil county. The pall bearers will be: Messrs. James S. Bradley, Wm. H. Ford, Jas. T. Dixon, Willard Melvin, Wm. S. Hurlock, of Kennedyville, and Harry Davis, of Still Pond. Undertaker Wilson, of Middletown, Del., by request of the deceased, will have charge of funeral arrangements.

FREDERICK C. BENNER.

Mr. Frederick C. Benner, engineer on the steamer B. S. Ford, was found unconscious about 9.45 o'clock on Monday evening on Camden street, near Light, Baltimore, by Patrolman Hughes, of the Southern district. The Southern district ambulance was called but Mr. Benner died before the wagon reached him. The body was taken to his home 231 Warren avenue, and Dr. Hammerbacher, who was called, pronounced death due to heart failure. Capt. Benner was a familiar figure on the steamers of the Chester River Company and during his period of employment had made a host of friends by his genial and affable manner. For some years prior to his employment with the above company he was in the service of the State, having been associated with the late Capt. Hedge Thompson, of Talbot County, when the latter was in command of one of the State Oyster Police steamers. He was regarded as one of the best engineers in the business, but for several years he had been unable to devote his entire attention to his work owing to rheumatism. When the eteamer Emma A. Ford left her wharf at Chestertown on Wednesday morning her flags were flying at half mast, out of respect to the dead sailor, who served as engineer on the vessel for a number of years.

Funeral services were held from his late residence in Baltimore.

MR. JEREMIAH PEACOCK.

Mr. Jeremiah Peacock, one of the most prominent and highly respected citizens of Galena, died at the home of his niece, Mrs. J. M. Pennington on Monday after a short illness due to paralysis, aged 66 years. Mr. Peacock was engaged in the mercantile business for more than forty years, in the town of Galena and during this time amassed a comfortable fortune. The deceased had long been identified with the social, business and religious life of the town of Galena, and his death romoves one of the most conspicuous and prominent men. For some years he conducted the Galena hotel but sold it and retired to private life after the death of his wife a short while ago. Funeral services were held from the residence of his niece in Galena on Wednesday, interment in Galena cemetery. The pall bearers were Messrs. F. H. Ruth, Jesse E. Ireland, H. S. Dempsey, J. R. Hicks, C. E. Lane and Dr. E. A. Scott.

MRS. MARY D. RICHARDS.

Mrs. Mary D. Richards, wife of E. S. Richard, a well-known traveling salesman, died on Sunday evening last at the residence of her husband on Market street, Smyrna. The deceased had been a resident of Smyrna for about four years, and had made many warm friends. Funeral services were held in Galena, Kent county, Catholic Church, on Thursday morning, interment in the Catholic cemetery, Galena.

W. C. T. U.

The Kennedyville W. C. T. U. held its regular monthly meeting in the M. P. Church last Friday evening. After a song service, with Mrs. Annie S. Redmile presiding at the organ, an earnest prayer was offered by Mr. Wm. J. Hurlock. Scripture quotations followed. An interesting and instructive address was given by Rev. C. R. Blades, who took for his subject "Broken Glass." A solo was sung by Miss Flora Johnston, with Miss Nellie Barwick accompanist. A letter from State officers was read by Mrs. Othoson.

WEDDING BELLS.

SIDES—FALLOWFIELD.

A very quiet but pretty home wedding took place at the residence of Mrs. Joel Fallowfield, Barclay, Queen Anne's county on Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock, the contracting parties being Miss May, the eldest daughter of the late Prof. and Mrs. William G. Fallowfield, formerly of Chestertown, and Mr. James H. Sides, one of Chestertown's well-known and popular business men. The ceremony was performed in the presence of only the immediate relatives of the bride, by Rev. Dr. D. L. Greenfield, pastor of Christ M. P. Church, Chestertown. The bride was attired in a handsome tailor made traveling costume of Scotch cheviot with hat and gloves to match, and carried a white kid prayer book, from which the ceremony was read. The groom was attired in the conventional black. Immediately after the ceremony the couple took the train at Price's Station for an extended northern tour. Upon their return they will reside in the handsome residence on Washington avenue, recently erected and furnished by the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Sides were the recipients of numerous handsome and valuable presents.

TRIPLETT—ELBURN.

Miss Muriel R. Elburn, daughter of Mr. Charles Elburn, of Rock Hall, who made her home for some years with her aunt, Miss Katie Deford, was married at 7.30 o'clock on Tuesday night, April 12th, to Mr. William Eugene Triplett, of Washington. The ceremony was performed at the parsonage of William Street Independent Methodist Church, William and Clement streets, Baltimore, by the pastor Rev. Thomas Lowe.

GOLDSBOROUGH—DAY.

In Warwick, Cecil county, at 12.30 P. M., on Thursday April 21st, 1904, by Rev. R. S. Rowe, Mr. George W. Goldsborough to Miss Hattie E. Day, both of Cecil county.

Will Place New Buoys.—Commander Henry McCrea, Inspector of the Fifth Lighthouse District, on Monday received authority from the light house board to place five buoys to mark the channel in the Sassafras river leading up to Georgetown. Five buoys will also be placed in the little Choptank river for the purpose of marking its channel approaches. These buoys will be placed as soon as possible.

FRUIT IS SAFE.

High Winds Kept the Heavy Frost off the Blooming Trees And They are not Injured.

Reports from all over the county and peninsula state that peaches are safe. Blackberries, strawberries and plums have fared badly. Keiffer pears have not been injured. The high winds that have prevailed during the cold snap have kept the frost off the blooming trees, but the freeze has injured to some extent the trailing vines and low berry bushes. Farmers throughout the county are not at all sanguine as to the outlook for grass and wheat. They say that the spring is so far advanced and the cold so unprecedented that both crops have been unable to make any growth. All signs fail sometimes, however, and there has been known to be a tremendous crop of wheat when the weather has been colder in April than it has been this month. Let us hope for the best at least.

Annual Oratorical Contest.

The Sixth Annual Contest of the Oratorical Association of Maryland Colleges, will be held this year at St. John's College, Annapolis, Md., on Friday, May 6th. This Associaoion is composed of the four colleges—St. John's, Md. Agr., Western Maryland and Washington. The annual contest by the constitution of the organization, is held the last Friday in April, but at the request of the Md. Agricultural College, was postponed until the following Friday. There are two committees of judges—one on thought and composition and the other on delivery. The former is made up of Dr. Oliver Huckel, of Baltimore; Rev. Forest J. Prettyman, of Washington, D. C., and A. S. Cooke, of Towson, Md. The latter, of Rev. Mr. Turner, of Washington, D. C.; Mr. Joseph M. Street, of Belair, Md., and Mr. Joseph Packard, of Baltimore.

Washington College will be represented this year by students Thomas F. Garey, of Denton, as principal, and Leonard B. Smith, of Cambridge, as alternate, both of class of 1904. The local college has taken part in four contests, winning two first prizes and two second—an enviable record. This year her candidates for oratorical honors are as talented as any who ever represented her, so another prize is confidently expected.

SOCIAL.

A very pleasant evening was spent last Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nichols' near town, when their daughter, Miss Bessie, entertained a number of her friends from town. The evening was pleasantly spent in dancing and games of an amusing character. Refreshments were served in elegant style, and all were more than pleased with this feature of the evening. Among those present were: Misses Bessie Westcott, Dovie Connelly, Eloise Ringgold, Augusta Aldridge, Ethel Bacchus, Eva Beauchamp, Emma France, Edith Harley, Henrietta Merritt, Hannah Bell, Mary Pennington, Mary Whaland and Mary Hines, and Messrs. Bryan, Brittingham, Coughlin, Dixon, Gill, Geary, Hopkins, Hughes, King, Long, McMaster, Moore, Rasin, Russell, Shutz, Toulson, Ward, White, Whittingham and Price. Miss Hallie Westcott chaperoned the party.

Repairing Wharves.—The work of repairing the damage done by ice during the winter to the Chester River Steamboat Company's wharf at Eastern Neck Island (Bogle's), on Chester river, will be finished next week. This is the longest wharf on Chester river, and since the destruction of about 100 feet of the wharf tramway by the ice, it has been necessary to bring all passengers and freight out to the pier head in boats. Messrs. George E. Leary & Son, of Rock Hall, are doing the work, and as soon as it is completed the wharf at Kent Island, which was even more seriously damaged than Bogle's wharf, will be repaired. No steamers have stopped at the Kent Island wharf since the opening of navigation except on signal.
