WHO CANNOT BE CURED.

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cures, a record such as no other remedy for the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors and makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States for any case of Leucorrhea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb, which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

"I have found Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription of inestimable value," writes Mrs. Ellen Alma Bryan (Treasurer Memphis Century Club), of 193 Vance Street, Memphis, Tenn., "as a tonic for over-wrought nerves, or when one is troubled with general lassitude and an irritable condition, hardly knowing what the trouble is. I was advised to use it by a member of our Club and the effect on me was truly wonderful. Within two weeks I was like a new woman. I could eat and sleep as I have not been able to for months, my nerves became strong and the mental equilibrium was restored as well as the physical. Your medicine has my highest endorsement."

Don't hesitate to write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N.Y., if you want good medical advice from a fully qualified physician as to your personal good health. Such letters are always answered free of charge and confidentially.

A medicine which has outsold all others for women in the past third of a century and being recommended by all those who have used it, is a good remedy to tie to. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is purely vegetable and does not contain a particle of alcohol to destroy the blood corpuscles and weaken the system. Do not permit the dealer to insult your intelligence by suggesting some other compound which he recommends as "just as good," because he makes it himself.

CHAPTER 411.

AN ACT to repeal and re enact with amendments Sections 138A and 138B of Article 15 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Kent County," sub title "Justices of the Peace and Constables," as enacted by Chapter 161 of the Acts passed January Session, 1902.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections 138A and 138B of Article 15 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title Kent County, sub-title Justices of the Peace and Constables, be and the same is hereby repealed and re enacted with amendments so as to read as follows:

138A. It shall be the duty of the Governor, after the appointment of the Justices of the Peace provided by law for the Chestertown or fourth election district and those of the first election district of Kent county, to select one from the justices so appointed for each of said districts who shall be known and designated as Police Justice. The said Police Justice shall have the same jurisdiction in criminal cases as Justices of the Peace now possess and which may hereafter be conferred upon them by and under the laws of the State but the Police Justice of the first election district shall have civil jurisdiction. The said Police Justices shall have exclusive jurisdiction of and shall be required to try and determine all violations of the criminal law which may arise in the fourth, or Chestertown election district, or the first election district of Kent county within the jurisdiction now possessed by Justices of the Peace or which may be hereafter conferred upon them by law, provided that nothing in this bill shall give the police justice of the first district any jurisdiction in the first precinct of first district; and all violations of any of the ordinances of the town of Chestertown, the first election district, subject, however, to the same right of election to be tried by jury, notice of which must be clearly given by said justices to the party before beginning trial, and subject to the same right of appeal as now exists under the law; provided, however, that nothing contained in this Act shall preclude the said Police Justices from trying criminal cases which may arise in any other district of said county, except Chestertown, or fourth election district.

138B. That the said Police Justice of Chestertown, or fourth election district, shall receive as compensation for his services the sum of $400 per annum, or the proportionate part thereof, so long as he may continue to act as such Police Justice in said fourth election district, and the sum of $200 per annum, or the proportionate part thereof, so long as he shall continue to act as such Police Justice in the said first election district; such salaries to be paid by the County Commissioners of Kent county in equal quarterly installments, and this salary shall be in full compensation for all services required of him under this act, and no Justice of the Peace so selected for Police Justice shall be permitted to charge any fee or receive any gratuity for making any commitment, granting any release, or for the performance of any duty required by the law in criminal cases.

Rogues of the Zoo

In an articlefull of tragic stories of animal ferocity, A. W. Rolker tells of "The Rogues of the Zoo," in the May McClure's In spite of the discipline of training, the dulling effect of food in plenty and the inertia of captivity many wild animals are always wild, and though to all appearances tamed, yet only await the opportunity to revert to type with startling suddenness and disastrous results. Mr. Rolker analyzes and interprets animal nature and illustrates his argument with a wealth of incident that gives it thrilling interest.

The most confirmed, incorrigible scamps of menagerie, he says, are among the felines whose every impulse and instinct seem treachery and destruction. yet almost every family has its dangerous members making, in all a formidable collection of zoo rogues. Bad elephants are described as the greatest murderers, due somewhat to popular misconception of eleshant character and to their increased opportunities for domages.

Even the peaceful looking comels, the browsing cattle and the great stolid ostriches have "black sheep" in their families who, "on the rampane," show fearful powers for destruction. Tales of their running amuck are dramatic in their intensity. The artidle really gives an inside picture of zoo and animal life which opens a new prospect and a fresh impression for the orninary reader.

President Roosevelt's Positon.

McClure,s Magazine for May prints a most interesting excerpt from a letter written by President Roosevelt to Ray Stannard Baker, commenting on his discussion of "Great Labor Conflicts," in that magazine, in which the President defines his attitude toward capital and labor as follows:

"I believe in corporations. I believe in trade unions. Both have come to stay and are necessities in our present industrial system. But where in either one or the other there develops corruption or mere brutal indifference to the rights of others, and short-sighted refusal to look beyond the moment's gain, then the offender, whether union or corporation, must be fought, and if the public sentiment is calloused to the iniquity of either, by just so much the whole public is damaged.

Mr. S. R. Bolinger, who resides at 426 South Dukes treet, bookkeeper at W. H. While trying one medicine after another my attention was attracted by an account of Doan's Kidney Pills in the papers, and of course they in turn were given a trial. I procured them at Hodnett's drug store. Before I had taken a box of them I had no backache. I could work at the desk as steadily as I liked and did not even get tired in the back."
