MILLINGTON MATTERS.

A Fourth of July or Flag service was held in Asbury M. E. Church Sunday evening. Rev. Edwin Gardner, pastor, made an interesting address on the significance and meaning of the colors of the flag, which was very instructive. Miss Annie Talbott read "The First American Flag," and Miss Bessie Hurlock read "E Pluribus Unum." Fifteen children stood in front of the altar and sang America, alternating with the choir and congregation. The pulpit was decorated with a large flag swinging full length at the rear of the speakers. The church was nearly filled.

The pastor of Asbury M. E. Church is arranging for a service of song and address on a timely topic next Sunday evening, to which all are invited.

Mr. Clyde Reed, of this county, and Miss Emma, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Crossley, of near Blackiston, Del., were quietly married at the residence of the groom's mother, Mrs. Jas. C. Moore, on Cypress street, last Sunday morning at 10 o'clock by Rev. Edwin Gardner, pastor of Asbury M. E. Church.

Fourth of July passed very quietly in our town. A game of baseball was played in the morning by the amatures of Millington, and Unicorns, of Unicorn Mills. The game was progressing in favor of Unicorn when a dispute arose which caused the players to abandon the grounds before the game was finished. In the afternoon two very interesting games were played with the Galena nine and Millington nine. The grandstand and grounds were packed, hardly standing room could be found where the game could be seen to good advantage. Only one accident occurred during both games. Mr. Leonard Willson, one of the Millington nine, met with a painful accident while making a run. A member of the Galena nine ran into him, knocking him down. The fall broke his collarbone, which disabled him from filling his position, as he suffered much pain with it. Dr. N. Comegys set the bone which will take some time to knit. The first game, score 10 to 4, and the second 9 to 6, (seven innings) both in favor of Millington.

It would be well for the Town and County Commissioners to come in town Sunday evenings and stand near Trinity M. E. Church, South, and witness the racing which takes place on the county roads near the entrance of town on the Galena and Massey road, which is extremely annoying to the residents in that section of the town, as the teams drive in and turn in front of some of the houses on the north end of Sassafras St., making so much dust that it is unpleasant to sit on their front porches. The residents would suggest a stop to be put to it as soon as possible, as it is becoming a nuisance to have the crowds congregate at the bridge and come in at the Galena road.

Quite a number of young folks from our town went to Sudlersville last Monday night to witness the fine display of fireworks.

Cured of Chronic Diarrhoea After Ten Years of Suffering.

"I wish to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mrs. Mattie Burge, of Martinsville, Va. "I suffered from chronic diarrhoea for ten years and during that time tried various medicines without obtaining any permanent releif. Last summer one of my children was taken with cholera morbus, and I produced a bottle of this remedy. Only two doses were required to give her entire relief. I then decided to try the medicine myself, and did not use all of one bottle before I was well and I have never since been troubled with that complaint. One cannot say too much in favor of that wonderful medicine." This remedy is for sale by M. A. Toulson, druggist, Chestertown, Md.

WORTON ITEMS.

The members of Union M. E. Church, Worton, arranged a delightful strawride the other evening to the home of their pastor, Rev. W. E. Habbart, in Fairlee. The "ride" was arranged by Mr. B. F. Rash, who provided a fine wagon for the accommodation of the members. It was the first visit of the members of the church to their pastor since his marriage, and they left some substantial "forgetmenots" of their visit in the shape of a handsome china tea set, and very useful articles for the home. At the home of the pastor and wife, refreshments consisting of ice cream and cake were served, and the occasion was one of much pleasure and joy.
