ONE-HALF
PRICE
SALE

Boys' & Children's Clothing.

This is a genuine bonified sale in every particular. No marking up of prices, and cutting into, nor is it a lot of cheap stuff procured for the purpose of running this sale. The fact is, we have too many Boys' and Children's Suits, we have determined to let 'em go. We would like those who bought of us in season to inspect this sale and see the genuineness of it—you will probably see some of the same patterns that you bought of us earlier.

Important News for Anyone

The time has come that every person should know how to take care of their eyes and not to buy glasses from peddlers or so-called traveling Opticians who have no right to ruin people's eyes.

To prevent this I will advise you not to wait until some peddler will come around to sell you a pair of glasses. You will do justice to your eyes by coming to Chestertown to have your EYES TESTED and GLASSES fitted to the eyes and not the eyes to the glasses.

Respectfully,
A. LEVINE.

NOTICE TO HOLDERS OF BURIAL LOTS IN CHESTER CEMETERY.

The Chester Cemetery Company by recent action of its Board is now prepared to enter into a contract with its lot owners to keep their lots in first-class order perpetually. This guarantees the owner that his lot will be taken care of, not only after his death but even after the death of all the family.

There is no sadder sight in a cemetery than to see the lot of a one time prosperous owner in weeds, briars, overgrowth, bushes, &c., and for reason that the family have either all died, removed or else forgotten their duty to the remains of their ancestor.

Those who secure a contract as above will have no apprehensions of this fate to their lots. For terms apply to

HELD ON SERIOUS CHARGE.

Elmer Hinson, Colored, held for Action of Grand Jury on Serious Charge.

Elmer Hinson, colored, who was arrested in Wilmington, Del., last week by Detective Thomas, of Baltimore, at the instigation of Fire Marshal McAfee on the charge of setting fire to the home of Mr. Wesley Cannon, near Pomona, sometime last winter, was arraigned before Police Justice Samuel Hicks on Saturday evening. Hinson pleaded not guilty. After hearing the evidence in the case, the justice committed Hinson to jail without bail to await the action of the grand jury at the October term of court. On Tuesday morning Mr. David Ford, who had been implicated in the crime by the confession of Hinson, was arraigned before the same justice on a charge of being accessary to the crime. Mr. Ford pleaded not guilty to the charge and through his attorney, Richard D. Hynson, Esq., waived a hearing. Justice Hicks committed Mr. Ford to jail without bail for the action of the grand jury. Also his attorney, Mr. Hynson, instituted habeas corpus proceedings to secure his release from jail on bail. The case came before Chief Judge Pearce at noon. After hearing the testimony Judge Pearce held the accused in the sum of $1000 for his appearance at the October term of court. Bail was furnished by Messrs. J. Romie Byron, J. P. DeCourse and Mrs. Robert Ford, and Mr. Ford was released from custody.

OF INTEREST TO LADIES.

Hochschild, Kohn & Co. Inaugurate a Competitive Exhibition of Art Embroidery and Lacework.

Hochschild, Kohn & Co., Baltimore's best store, always progressive and ever ready to cater to the tastes of all classes of purchasers, have instituted their first annual competitive exhibition of art embroidery and lace work, to be held at their store, Lexington and Howard streets, Baltimore, October 10, 1904. Fifteen cash prizes will be given ranging from $55 to $200 for specimens of art embroidery and lace work, and any lady in the State is allowed to compete for a prize and to send one or more articles for exhibition. There are many young ladies, as well as middle aged and old, who are adapts in such work, and this reliable firm offers an excellent opportunity to any ambitious person to win a cash prize that is large enough to defray all expenses at the World's Fair at a first-class hotel, or to use for any other purpose. The advertisement of this exhibition appears on page 8 and all should read it in order to learn the rules and regulations of the exhibition. Entry cards sent on application. Hochschild, Kohn & Co., are one of the most reliable firms in the country. They enjoy an immense trade, especially in Kent county, and when they make you a proposition, you may be sure that it is all right. Look for their advertisement on page 8.

Here's Trouble.—Mosquitoes are so thick at Bivalve, Wicomico county, that people cannot get peace at night or day. George Phillips, well-known traveling salesman of Baltimore, drove from Salisbury to Bivalve, and the mosquitoes tantalized his two horses until they ran like mad, throwing Mr. Phillips out and seriously injuring him. One leg and two ribs were broken. Horses and cattle suffer terribly, and are driven far out into the salt water to escape the pests. The oldest inhabitants say they never saw mosquitoes so thick at Bivalve before. The people of Chestertown are fortunate in more ways than one.

*†*The Canning & Mercantile Company is canning a considerable quantity of corn this week.
