A CHANGE.

Beginning with to-day's issue, the TRANSCRIPT will be enlarged to a seven-column paper instead of six, as formerly. The additional column to each page has been made necessary on account of our constantly increasing business, as well as by a desire on the part of the editors to give to our patrons and readers all the news as it comes into our possession without the necessity of omitting one or more columns of advertisements and reading matter every week as for some months past. Many of our advertisers have been very kind in permitting us to omit their advertisements on several occasions, but our enlarged space will permit us to give our readers the news, and to protect the interests of our patrons without the use of a supplement. So long, therefore, as our business justifies it, the paper will be published in its present form.

THE statement of county expenses appears in this issue on page 2. It will be of much interest to the tax-payers.

SENATOR HOAR, of Massachusetts, is said to be nearing the end of his long and distinguished public career in the United States Senate. He is reported to be extremely ill at his home in his native state.

WILLIAM T. DIXON, ESQ., one of the most prominent bankers and financiers in the State, and brother of State Senator Robert B. Dixon, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. C. Crawford, Hyannisport, Mass., Tuesday night.

STATE SENATOR JOSEPH S. WILSON, of Prince George's county, author of the present ballot law died at the home of his sister Mrs. Paul Iglehart, Baltimore, Thursday afternoon. Senator Wilson was very prominent both as a lawyer and politician, and had he lived and ...n in good health, he would have ...minated for congress by the ... of the Fifth Congressional

This is quite an honor ...llow townsman, and we are ... will wear the honor with ...delity to the agricultural ... of Kent county.

WE REGRET VERY MUCH the refusal of ex-Governor Jackson to accept the nomination for Congress from the First District. Had he consented to be a candidate there would have been no doubt of his election, as he is one of the most popular men on the Shore and his many friends in the district would have worked assiduously to give him an unprecedented majority. The ex-Governor's letter declining the nomination appears in full in another column. Chairman Lewis will call the convention as soon as possible to nominate a candidate for the place.

SENATOR HENRY G. DAVIS was formerly notified of his nomination for Vice-President by the Democrats at White Sulphur Springs on Wednesday. A brilliant and forcible speech notifying the candidate was made by Hon. John Sharp Williams, chairman of the notification committee. Senator Davis replied in a clear and forcible speech of acceptance in which he made known his position on the important phases of the St. Louis platform. Senator Davis will make one of the strongest candidates the country has had in many years for the vice-presidency, and will add strength and vitality to the Democratic ...use, if he is 81 years old.

Violent Attack of Diarrhoea Cured by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and Perhaps a Life Saved.

"A short time ago I was taken with a violent attack of diarrhoea and believe I would have died if I had not gotton relief," says John J. Patton, a leading citizen of Patton, Ala. "A friend recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I bought a twenty-five cent bottle and after taking three doses of it was entirely cured. I consider it is the best remedy in the world for bowel complaints. For sale by M. A. Toulson, Chestertown Md.

EX-GOVERNOR JACKSON DECLINES.

Ex-Governor E. E. Jackson who was nominated for Congress by the First Congressional District Democrats in Convention assembled last week at Ocean City has declined the nomination for reasons given in the following letter to chairman Henry R. Lewis.

"BALTIMORE, MD, Aug. 17, 1904.

"Hon. Henry R. Lewis, Denton, Md.:

My Dear Sir—I be to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 13th instant referring to the action of the Democratic convention which convened at Ocean City August 10 in nominating me to represent the First Congressional district of Maryland in the Fifty-ninth Congress of the United States and asking me to name a time and place where the notification committee, of which you are chairman, may formally notify me of my nomination. I beg to call your attention to the fact that prior to the assembling of the convention I repeatedly by stated through the press and to everyone with whom I had occasion to discuss the subject that I was not a candidate and that I did not want the convention to nominate me.

"While the honor which the convention has conferred upon me is a great one, and while I appreciate the action of the delegates to that convention in thus honoring me, for personal reasons I have no ambition to serve a term in Congress. The only question, therefore, which I feel called upon to consider is whether, notwithstanding my own personal disinclination and wishes, I should accept a nomination coming to me as this one did and make the fight for my party.

"Unofficial information which I have received leads me to believe that I was not primarily the choice of the convention and that my nomination was not made in response to a public sentiment reflected by the delegation to the convention.

"I have never failed to serve my party when I have been called upon in such a manner as to convince me that it was my duty to do so consistently with my own self-respect, and had I been so impressed by the action of your convention I should have found it very difficult to decline.

"For the reason herein stated I do not conceive it to be my duty to ignore my own personal comfort and the comfort of my family, and I must therefore, decline the nomination. I adopt this method of declining the nomination and giving my reasons therefor without waiting for a more formal notification by your committee, because I think the convention should not be delayed in taking such further action as it may deem necessary. In conclusion I want to express my very great appreciation of your complimentary reference to me in your letter and through you to assure the delegates to the convention that I shall give to the Democratic nominee, whoever he may be, my cordial support. Yours very truly,

"E. E. JACKSON."

WASHINGTON COLLEGE,

Chestertown, Md.

One Hundred and Twenty-Third Session begins September 21st., 1904.

During the past year many changes and improvements have been introduced, all looking to the intellectual and physical welfare of the students. The curriculum has been revised and extended; the Faculty increased, buildings heated by new steam plant, students quarters remodeled and a new administration building begun.

The college offers three courses of study—Classical, Latin-Scientific and Scientific—each leading to the Bachelor's Degree. The elective system, introduced in the new cirriculum, enables each student to select those branches he especially needs. Two sub-freshman classes are maintained for the benefit of those who desire a thorough preparation for college. The Normal Department is now recognized by the State as a part of the public system of education, and stands on the same footing as the other Normal Schools of the State.

Here students may pursue their work in a highly moral community, amid beautiful and healthful surroundings, under careful supervision of health and habits, in comfortable quarters, at very low rates.
