WORTON ITEMS.

Miss Rachel and Alice Wood have returned to their home near Still Pond after a very pleasant visit to Philadelphia.

Mrs. M. J. Yhumlert, of Baltimore, has been entertaining a house party at her summer home near Worton. Among the guests are: Mr. W. H. Fowler, of Washington, Mr. and Mrs. F. Satterfield, of Baltimore, Mr. J. E. Yhumlert and daughter, Mrs. Glover, of Baltimore. Mr. J. E. Yhumlert, though past ninety-two, is still an active man and retains his faculties unimpaired. He takes great interest in public questions and reads without glasses. Mr. Yhumlert predicts that Parker and Davis will sweep the country and says if he had a thousand votes he would cast them all for them.

Rev. W. E. Habbert and wife are spending two weeks at Brandywine Summit Camp.

Mr. W. H. Coates, of Philadelphia, is buying peaches at this place. Mr. Coates has a large business in Philadelphia and has been representing his firm here for twenty years.

Mr. B. Y. Wheatman, of Roberts & Andrews, Philadelphia, is also interested in securing a portion of the peach crop for his firm. Good prices are paid but the supply is not as great as the demand.

Mr. Howard Carter has accepted a position as salesman with Mr. J. W. Ivens during vacation. Mr. Carter expects to return to Washington College in September.

The picnic of the M. E. Sunday School was held in Mr. Anderson's woods near Worton on Wednesday, August 10th, inst. Messrs. Rash and Anderson had arranged seats, tables, etc., thereby greatly adding to the comfort of the picnicers.

On Saturday 13th, inst. a jolly crowd of about thirty left Worton on a straw-ride to Betterton. Mr. B. F. Rash furniseed the team and arranged the ride and on the return trip three cheers were given for him in appreciation of his hospitality.

We understand that Mr. Harry Cooper has secured another desirable building lot in our town.

The next business and social meeting of the Epworth League will be held on Friday, Sept. 2, at the home of Mr. Jas. Sutton. A full attendance is desired as business of importance must be attended to.

BE WISE.

Sick Headache.

"For several years my wife was troubled with what physicians called sick headache of a very severe character. She doctored with several eminent physicians and at a great expense, only to grow worse until she was unable to do any kind of work. About a year ago she began taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and to-day weighs more than she ever did before and is real well," says Mr. Geo. E. Wright of New London, New York. For sale by M. A. Toulson, Druggist, Chestertown, Md.

MILLINGTON MATTERS.

Quite a number from our town attended the camp meeting near Marydel last Sunday, and as next Sunday is "big Sunday" the prospects are that a larger number from this vicinity will attend.

Services will be held in Asbury M. E. Church by the pastor, Rev. Edwin Gardner next Sunday morning and evening. In the morning, 10.30 A. M., the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered.

Divine Service will be held by the P. E. congregation in Trinity M. E. Church, (South) Sunday morning at 10.!0 A. M. Holy Communion will be served by the Rector, Rev. Albert Ware.

The packing house of Mr. W. S. Armstrong will open in the near future. Quite a number of Bohemians came from Baltimore to do the work as help of that character is very scarce here.

The debris is being slowly removed from the burnt district and several persons are preparing to rebuild. Peaches are quite plentiful now and are being shipped in refrigerator cars. The prices are high regardless of being plentiful, as they have been selling this week at from 40 cents to 60 cents per basket. Several commission merchants from the cities are here shipping.

Mrs. Gorman, widow of the late Pete Gorman, died at the residence of her son, Mr. James Gorman, in Sandtown, with whom she made her home, last Saturday morning, and was buried Monday afternoon. The funeral services were held near Blackiston's Cross Roads, Del., and interment was made in the adjoining cemetery.

The Town Commissioners have decided to adopt the county system of receiving town taxes, at least for the current year. The treasurer will sit at J. B. Hurlock's store on Tuesday, 30th inst., and give a rebate of five per cent. for August payments. All taxes not paid by Feb. 1st, next, are to be collected by law.

Miss Julla M. Johnson and Agnes Clark are spending a couple of weeks at Ocean Grove, N. J.

Mr. Woodland Hazell and family have returned to their home in Baltimore after spending the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Hazell.

Mrs. R. W. Comegys and daughter, Miss Florence, spent last week with her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Spear, near town.

Mrs. M. A. Price is staying with her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Hart, near Sudlersville, who is very ill.

Miss Ruby Ahern is visiting a school friend at Pocomoke City.

Mrs. W. J. Tolson is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Walter Hilyard, at Georgetown, Del.

Mrs. J. H. Hill, wife of the late Dr. Hill, formerly of this town, was in town Wednesday and called on several of her friends.

Mrs. Lina McGinnis and daughter, Miss Hallie, of Wilmington, Del., are visiting the former's sisters, Mrs. C. M. Hurtt and Mrs. Henry Tonkin.

CAMPMEETING LEGAL ENTANGLEMENT.

The last Sunday of Wye Camp did not pass without some interesting incidents beside those of a purely religious character. Mr. Wm. B. Roe, a constable of the Fourth district, Kent Island, was seen on the ground with a suspicious looking hand-grip. Two lynxeyed and faithful camp managers or camp committeemen, Messrs. T. Marion Wood and S. Chester Coursey, followed and overhauled Mr. Roe and demanded that the suspicious looking hand-bag be opened and the contents examined, to which Mr. Roe says he did not object, but being too slow in his efforts, was assisted and thus accelerated by Messrs. Wood and Coursey. When opened up, however, a bottle was found therein, but before its contents could be examined, Mr. Coursey of the camp committee, hurled the bottle against a carriage wheel and broke it into many pieces, thus destroying any evidence of its contents. Mr. Roe was then taken before Justice Woodford who was a co-worshiper in attendance, and ordered that he be lodged in jail. Mr. Roe offered bail but this was refused. His hands were then tied together and given in charge of Messrs. Fleetwood and Baynard and by them lodged in jail. In fact he was arrested without a writ being issued and handed over to the sheriff without the authority of a commitment. To all these proceedings Mr. Roe made no serious objection until safe in jail, when he sent for his counsel, Mr. James T. Bright, who looked into the matter and demanded his immediate release on the ground of the irregularity of the proceedings, which Sheriff Whitely did. Mr. Bright, on Tuesday last demaned a trial for his client, but as the prosecuting witnees refused to swear out a writ and bring the matter legally before a court of proper jurisdiction, the case was dropped. Mr. Roe, then in order to vindicate himself as an officer of the law and law abiding citizen, swore out writs against Messrs. Wood and Coursey charging them with assult. A hearing was had Tuesday last. It may be possible that civil suits will be instituted for false and unlawful imprisonment by Mr. Roe.—Centreville Record.

I Am Here Again!

And intend to be here, as I am needed here, at least I am told so. My thirty days' sale is over, although I have been asked to continue for three weeks longer, for the simple reason that some of my customers were not prepared to seize the opportunity.

NOW IS THE TIME,

Money is more plentiful, I will continue three more weeks on account stated above. Remember, only three weeks longer, and no longer. I still have plenty of bargains in my up-to-date stock of

Jewelry, Watches, Clocks, Silver-plated-ware,

Rogers' Tableware, Spectacles and Eye-Glasses, Sewing Machines, etc., comparatively low.

DON'T FORGET!

that I look after my Watches, Clocks and Jewelry REPAIRING and OPTICAL DEPARTMENT myself. There can be no mistakes made.
