MASSEY ITEMS.

The home of Mr. C. S. Hurlock was the scene of a brilliant social function on last Tuesday evening, the occasion being a watermelon party tendered by the young men of Massey and vicinity to their lady friends and guests. The lawn was beautifully lighted with numerous Japanese lanterns. In the center of the lawn an octagon figure was formed by connecting six poles with cord and on these were hung numerous Japanese lanterns of different colors and over this hung festooning of bunting. In this figure three large tables were set loaded with watermelons, cantaloupes, and other fruit. The first part of the evening was devoted to games, music, and tableaux. The stairway was transformed into a temporary balcony on which posed pretty Juliet, while below her posed the adorning and entreating Sir Romeo. This was one of the prettiest as well as the most interesting features of the evening. About 10.30 the guests were invited to the tables and a bountiful repast was awaiting them. After refreshments, music and dancing were resumed and continued until about 12 o'clock. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hurlock, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hurlock and son, Mrs. M. O. Spear, Mrs. I. M. Clift, Misses May and Carrie Roe, Helen and Lizzie Woodall, Blanche and Fannie Johnson, Florence and Nellie Hurlock Lena Bishop, Katie Myers, and Miss Murray. Messrs Andrew Woodall, Anthony Woodall, Andrew McCauley, Charlie Spry, Harry Malsberger, Roland Pennington, Carlton Roe, Authur Hyland, Bradford Pierce, Maston and Willie Shallcross, and Mr. Brockson.

Mr. Harry George and Steve Pearce gave the ladies of Massey a straw ride Saturday night down to Crumpton. Among the party were; Misses Martha Shaw, Bertha and Bessie Everett, Bertha and Mary Hamilton, Mattie and Ella Benson, Sera Copper, Sadie and Mrs. Bell Adam; Messrs. Sam Everett Curt Hudson, Ed. BETTERTON BRIEFS.

The Betterton base ball team played its most successful game of the season, when it shut the strong Baltimore county team, Towson, out without a run Towson came to Betterton last season and was one of the three teams to beat Betterton last year. Another game was played in the 30th of July of this season, ending with a tie between the two teams. On Saturday last, Towson arrived at Betterton with a large number of rooters, but our boys were in a playing humor and not withstanding the strong team and stronger rooting, Betterton carried off the laurels of the day with a score of 9 to 0. Winning batteries Turner and Owens. Attendance 300.

The young ladies of Betterton gave a leap year water melon party on Tuesday evening in Idle While Park, to the young men. Quite a number were present and a good time was enjoyed by all, minus the face washing.

Exhibits for the St. Louis Fair.

DEAR SIR:—Every farmer, trucker, and fruit grower of Maryland should send something to the St. Louis fair. Select a barrel or basket of potatoes white or sweet, a basket of corn or tomatoes, a bundle of timothy, millet, clover sorghum or cow peas, a crate, basket or carrier of peaches, apples, pears or any other fine fruit you may have, put the name of the fruit or vegetable on the package with your name. The express will be paid from your railroad station by the commissioners.

One of the principal features on Maryland day, September 12, will be the free distribution of fruit from Maryland soil. Maryland is second to no other state as to the quality of fruit. The best flavored peaches coming from the Eastern Shore. The high colored and well flavored apple coming from the Western Shore. The potato and corn crops of Maryland compare favorably to any other state. Maryland grows about one fourth of the tomatoes for canning purposes of the United States.

Maryland is to-day the place for the home-seeker, orchardist, farmer, mechanic, dairyman, stock-raiser, manufacturer, minor, florist. Improve your conditions at home; invite others to come with us; be more liberal; and we will have a richer state with more good people.

Select fruit, only the choicest, wrap in paper, ship in six-basket carriers or covered baskets, securely packed, and sent by express. Canned goods or corn, in the ear, potatoes and other vegetables can come by freight, not to be shipped later than September 5th.

Frieght and express charges paid by the commission. Ship to

HIS LIFE ON ROOSEVELT.

Negro Makes Queerest of Bets at St. Louis.

St. Louis. Aug. 26.—A novel wager with death as its stake has been made by two negro politicians of this city—one wagering $5 on the election of Parker, the other pledging himself to commit sucide in case Roosevelt is defeated. After one of the negroes had deposited the $5 wager the other signed an oath binding himself to leap off Eads bridge if the Republican nominee is not elected.

Here is the oath he took:

"To all who shall see these presents, greetings: Know ye that I, Amerie Pates, being in good health and in my right mind, do hereby solemny promise, with God as my witness, to end my earthly existence by leaping from the middle span of Eads bridge into the Mississippi river below, one week (seven days) after the Presidental election in November, A. D. 1904, if Theodore Roosevelt, Republican nominee, is defeated to fill the office of President of the United States of America for the coming four years."

WASHINGTON COLLEGE,

Chestertown, Md.

One Hundred and Twenty-Third Session begins September 21st., 1904.

During the past year many changes and improvements have been introduced, all looking to the intellectual and physical welfare of the students. The curriculum has been revised and extended; the Faculty increased, buildings heated by new steam plant, students quarters remodeled and a new administration building begun.

The college offers three courses of study—Classical, Latin-Scientific and Scientific—each leading to the Bachelor's Degree. The elective system, introduced in the new cirriculum, enables each student to select those branches he especially needs. Two sub-freshman classes are maintained for the benefit of those who desire a thorough preparation for college. The Normal Department is now recognized by the State as a part of the public system of education, and stands on the same footing as the other Normal Schools of the State.

Here students may pursue their workin a highly moral community, amid beautiful and healthful surroundings, under careful supervision of health and habits, in comfortable quarters, at very low rates.
