DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT:

JUDGE ALTON B. PARKER,

OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT:

HON. HENRY G. DAVIS,

OF WEST VIRGINIA.

FOR CONGRESS FROM THE FIRST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT:

HON. THOMAS A. SMITH,

of Caroline County.

NOTWITHSTANDING the boasts of the Republican party, the Democrats are confident of the election of the noble standard bearers, Parker and Davis and of a Democratic Congress. It is not always those who do the most boasting that accomplish the best results.

HON. THOMAS A. SMITH, Democratic candidate for Congress in the First Congressional District, created a very favorable impression during his visit to Kent on Tuesday and Wednesday. He met many of the prominent leaders of the party, and all were confident that Kent will give a substantial Democratic majority.

ON NEXT TUESDAY two weeks the great battle of the ballots will be fought. Let the Democrats of the county and State put on the whole armor of true Democracy and strike one united blow at the enemies of our constitution, the foe of the white man's government and the vicious system of protection that is prospering the classes and ruining the masses.

UNITED STATES SENATOR ARTHUR P. GORMAN, when asked the other day concerning the political outlook, said: "No man can tell at present who will be the next President of the United States. The people of the country are doing their own thinking and it is impossible to feel the pulse of public opinion. But there will be some surprises for our Republican friends on the morning after the election."

OBITUARY.

The infant child of Rev. and Mrs. Milton McCann died at the home of its parents on Monday. The remains were taken to Pennsylvania, the former home of Mr. McCann, for burial on Tuesday in charge of undertaker J. E. Ferguson.

CAPT. JAMES T. BRICE.

Capt. James T. Brice, the oldest resident in Betterton and one of the most highly respected citizens of the county, died very suddenly on Monday night of stomach trouble, aged about 77 years. There is scarcely a man in the county who enjoyed a wider circle of friends than did the deceased. His knowledge of the waters of the Chesapeake on which for years he was a sailor, and his information regarding all the sports that pertain to the water made him a useful man in his calling, and gave him rank among the best pilots on the Chesapeake. He was a man interested in all affairs that pertain to the welfare of his county and State. Throughout his manhood he was an ardent advocate of Democratic principles, and though never having been a candidate for office he exerted his efforts in behalf of good government and law and order. The deceased's death was very sudden. On Monday morning he was about the town engaging in social intercourse with friends, and two weeks ago was in Chestertown and spent a pleasant day with old acquaintances here. In the evening he was taken with a severe pain in his left side from which his sudden demise resulted. He was one of the old landmarks of the pretty little town of Betterton, and was popular with all classes of people because of his genial disposition and fine character. The deceased leaves four sons and one daughter, Capt. Harvey Brice and Mr. John Brice, of Betterton, Messrs. Wilbur and Walter Brice, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. George W. Moore, of Betterton. Funeral services were held on Thursday morning, conducted by Rev. Mr. Jones, of Betterton M. E. Church. Interment was made in Still Pond cemetery. The pall-bearers were his four sons and two nephews. Undertaker Wm. Krusen was in charge of funeral arrangements.

THOMAS SMITH.

Mr. Thomas Smith, at one time a prominent resident of Chestertown died suddenly on Sunday evening at his home in Newport News, Va., of Bright's disease, aged 57 years. Mr. Smith was born and raised in Chestertown, and was a brother of Mrs. John N. Dodd, of Chestertown, Mrs. Walter R. Graham, of Easton, Marion deK. Smith, Esq., of Chestertown, Carroll Smith, of Toledo, Ohio, Jury Smith, of Illinois, and a half brother of the late Jesse K. and John W. Hines. The deceased was twice married and leaves four children one by his first wife and three by the second. He was the son of the late James and Anne Smith. Prior to his removal to Newport News, the deceased was a resident of Baltimore, where for some years he was actively engaged in business and in politics. The remains were interred in Newport News cemetery.

MISS MARY FRANCES WILKINS.

Miss Mary Frances Wilkins a prominent lady in the lower section of the county, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Robert Wickes, near Rock Hall, on Monday last of Brights disease, in the 49th year of her age. The deceased was the daughter of the late Edward Wilkins, and for years had made her home with Mr. Robert Wickes and family, where her assistance was invaluable. Funeral services were held on Thursday afternoon at 10 o'clock in St. Paul's P. E. Church, conducted by the rector, Rev. C. T. Denroche. Interment was made in St. Paul's cemetery. The pallbears were Messrs. Thomas Smith, Elwood Strong, Jas. Moffett, Albert Morrell, Washington, D. C., Eugene Smith, and Harry Kimble of Baltimore. The funeral was largely attended and the floral tributes were handsome and profuse, requiring a separate conveyauce to take them to the grave. Among them were an arm chair, a crescent and a cross of roses, carnations and chrysanthemums. Undertaker John N. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements.

If troubled with a weak digestion try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They will do you good. For sale by M. A. Toulson, Druggist, Chestertown, Md.
