LOCAL MATTERS.

Big Blaze at Rehoboth.—The pretty little summer resort of Rehoboth was visited by a fire on Tuesday morning which threatened to destroy the entire resort. The flames were checked, however, after a loss of about $20,000 worth of property.

Work Completed.—The Auditing Committee for Kent county has finished the examination of the books and accounts in the office of the county commissioners and treasurer's office and their report will be made public shortly. The committee has worked faithfully and well and their report will no doubt prove of interest to the taxpayers.

Meeting of Tolchester Directors.—The directors of the Tolchester Steamboat Company met on Saturday at the office of the company, at Pier 16 Light street, in order to discuss the business of the year just past. Although there were many things that tended to detract from the excursion business during the summer, such as the Slocum disaster, the fire of February 7 last and the general rainy weather that prevailed for nearly three months, yet the directors expressed themselves as very much satisfied with the work accomplished.

Our Omissions.—On account of the registration list today we are compelled to omit much intererting matter, including our communications, an interesting account of the Kennedyville W. C. T. U. meeting, and much editorial matter. But these communications, etc., will appear next week, and the Democrats of the county will be just as active for the support of the great principles of government as if this were a paper loaded with campaign arguments. We beg the indulgence of our correspondents and patrons this week under the stress of the occasion.

Third District Meeting.—The Parker, Davis and Smith League, of the Third district, held a very interesting meeting in Gears and Sheets' hall last Saturday evening. Three young Democrats, Messrs. Scott Beck, J. Waters Russell and Thomas D. Bowers, were present and addressed an audience of sixty members of the League. The unanimous opinion of all present was that if Parker, Davis and Smith are not elected after the maiden efforts of these Young Americas, it will not be because of their backwardness in presenting the issues. Mr. Wm. F. Russell will address the League this evening and a good speech may be expected.

Serious Accident.—A serious accident occurred at Kennedyville on Monday morning, resulting in the fracture of the leg of Mr. W. M. Strong, a gentleman about 60 years of age. A little boy was rolling a wheelbarrow up the street when Mr. Walter Spry, of near Galena, drove along on his way to Chestertown. The horse became frightened at the wheelbarrow and shied from the road, running into Mr. Strong, whose right leg became entangled in the wheel and was broken. He was taken to the home of Mr. Wm. A. Pote, where he has been visiting, where Dr. Irvin Barwick very skilfully set the limb. He was taken to the hospital in Wilmington on the afternoont rain, the fracture being quite serious.

State Bankers' Association.—The three banks of the town have elected the following delegates to attend the annual meeting of the State Bankers' Association, which will assemble in Annapolis for a three days session on Wednesday next: Second National—Wilbur W. Hubbard and W. Bradford Copper. Chestertown National—Alday Clements, Samuel Vannort and Wm. Walter Chapman. Kent County Savings—J. K. Aldridge, James H. Baker and Wm. F. Russell. Some of the most distinguished financiers in the country will be present to deliver addresses on important financial subjects. One of the principal features of the session will be a reception given to the bankers by Governor and Mrs. Warfield.

W. C. T. U. State Convention.—The 29th annual State Convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union has been in session at Centreville during the week and has been attended by more than 150 delegates, all interested in the noble work of temperance. Quite a number of delegates from Chestertown attended the convention, among them being Rev. and Mrs. A. L. White, Mrs. S. A. Hurlock, Miss Ida Hudson, Mr. J. T. Anthony. Among the principal speakers was Miss Tyndall, of England. One of the features of the convention was the oratorical contest for the Demarest Medal. The contest was won by Miss Rhoda Scarborough, of Harford county, a former student of Washington College, who delivered an eloquent speech on "The Modern Cain." The other speakers were Miss Mabel French, of Montgomery county; Miss Ida Hudson, of Kent; Miss Mabel Powell, of Worcester; Miss Ella Baker, of Talbot, and Miss Kitty Spielman, of Washington.

LITTLE LOCALS.

*†*Rabbits are fattening.

*†*Our county parsons are busy with revival services.

*†*Next Saturday night is Hallowe'en. Look out for the ghost.

*†*The Tabard Inn Library has been removed from Stam's to M. A. Toulson's drug store.

*†*The dredging season opened last Saturday. Oysters are said to be in prime condition.

*†*Thos. B. Elliott & Son, are giving Mr. George W. Hatcherson's residence on High street an attractive coat of paint.

*†*Bedworth, Jr., won the free-for-all race in straight heats at Frederick on Wednesday. Time, 2.15½, 2.13, 2.12¼. Purse $500.

*†*The street sprinkler has gone into winter quarters, rather prematurely we think, for such balmy days and exceedingly dusty weather.

*†*Mr. Ralph W. Barnett has sold the small dwelling on Kent street, in the rear of Copper's butcher shop, to Mr. James P. DeCourse, of Chestertown, for $200.

*†*At Johnstown last Friday, Bedworth, Jr., took second place in the free-for all pace, purse $400. Chestnut was first in straight heats, time 2.10, 2.12¼ and 2.14¼.

*†*To-day at 3 P. M., Washington College football team will line up againt the strong Villanova football team for a tussle for honors. This promises to be a great game.

*†*Auctioneer John H. Greenwood sold on Tuesday at public sale for John D. Urie, Esq., assignee, the Hayward Middleton property, situated at Rock Hall. It was bid in by Mr. Urie for $766.

*†*Mr. Hyland P. Jones, the painter, is showing his skill as an artist upon the new residence of Dr. H. Benge Simmons. Mr. Jones is a skilfull painter and his work on this residence, both exterior and interior, is characteristic of a very skillful wielding of the brush.

*†*Some of our citizens have been very much annoyed during the week by a colored man, well known to all the residents of the town. He entered one of our homes this week while the family was at supper and created some excitement. His actions are regarded as so suspicious that the town authorities should investigate the matter before any harm is done.

*†*Mr. Samuel L. Wright, of Riverside, near town, went fishing somewhere in Queen Anne's one day this week and caught 17 large pike. Mr. Wright has been keeping the place of his successful catch a secret from the local Isaac Waltons. Mr. Daniel Cox, in Queen Anne's, near Chester bridge, one night last week caught two peach baskets full of fine white catfish.

Prang's special course as prescribed in book No. 5.

The teachers at a recent meeting decided to organize a local reading society. The books prescribed in the State course will be read and discussed. These meetings will be held on the first Tuesday in November and will continue weekly. The meeting will last one hour.

The manual training instructor will probably visit the county schools next Thursday and Friday.

Miss Anna S. Matthews, teacher at Locust Grove school, enjoyed a delightful chestnut hunt on Thursday. Quite a crowd of pupils accompanied the popular teacher and the woods rang with the merriment of the happy hunters.

A BRILLIANT WEDDING.

TOULSON—RINGGOLD.

One of the most beautiful weddings of the year was solemnized on Thursday evening at 8 P. M., in Emmanuel Protestant Episcopal Church, when Maude Cox, eldest daughter of Mrs. M. C. Ringgold, and niece of Chief Judge James Alfred Peace, became the bride of Mr. John M. Toulson, son of Mr. M. A. Toulson, of Chestertown. The sacred edifice was beautifully decorated with evergreen, ferns and chrysanthemums and the soft light flickering from the tips of many candles, gave an expression to the scene that was both dignified and beautiful. Promptly on the hour, indeed just as the old town bell was pealing the glad tidings to the world in eight deep-toned strokes, the strains of Mendelsshon's wedding march, played by Miss LaRoche, of Washington, D.C., announced the entrance of the bridal party, led by the two ribbon boys, Masters Stephen R. Collins and Allan Harris, clad in white, followed by the ushers and bridesmaids, who passed to the centre of the church and formed an aisle through which the little flower girls, Elizabeth and Isabelle Brice, in dainty little dresses of white with flowered ribbons and carrying baskets of chrysanthemums, led to the altar the maid of honor, Miss Eloise Ringgold, sister of the bride, gowned in a becoming costume of pink mousseline de soie, carrying pink chrysanthemums, and the bride, leaning on the arm of her uncle, Chief Judge Pearce, by whom she was given away. She was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Dr. Ewings, of Pennsylvania, both in evening suits. The ushers and bridesmaids followed the bride to the altar and stood in a graceful group about the chancel, where Rev. Dr. Henry B. Martin, rector of the church performed the ceremony in the presence of the many friends and relatives of the happy couple. The bride's gown was a beautiful creation of aeolian chiffon cloth (hand embroidered with chrysanthemums) over taffeta with Mexican yoke and chiffon puffings, with tulle veil drapped gracefully over the back of the costume. The only ornaments worn were a handsome pearl brooch, the gift of the groom, and a bracelet, worn by both the bride's mother and grandmother at their marriages. She carried a large bouquet of white chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids, Misses Ethelinde Ringgold, Hallie and Mabel Toulson, Susie LaRoche, of Washington, D. C., Hallie Westcott, and Wheeler Peterson, of Chestertown, were becomingly attired in white organdie, with nile green girdles, and carried bouquets of green; while the ushers, Messrs. Hubard Ringgold, of the Law Library, Baltimore, brother of the bride, Houston Toulson, Louis Hertz, of Hazleton, Pa., Thomas Massey, Henry Deaver and Wm. Walter Chapman wore evening suits with white vests and gloves, and bouttonieres of white chrysanthemums.

Immediately following the ceremony a wedding supper was served at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. M. C. Ringgold, on Front street, to the bridal party and immediate families, after which Mr. and Mrs. Toulson were driven to Betterton, where they took the late boat for Baltimore and an extended wedding tour. The presents were both numerous and beautiful, among tnem being a beautiful silver service, the gift of the bride's mother.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. R. S. Eastman, from Torresdale, Pa., Misses Mollye LaRoche, from Beltsville, Md., and Hannah Ware, of Massey; Mrs. Irving Nichols, Baltimore; Mrs. Emmet Robinson, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Edmund Draper and Miss Charlotte Smith, of Baltimore, and Miss Margie VanSchuyler, of Philadelphia.

ANDERSON—YOUNG.

Mr. Thos. S. Anderson, of Baltimore, formerly of Kent county, and Miss Lola Young, Yellow Springs, Frederick county, were married at her home, "Montongue," on Wednesday, Oct. 19, 1904, at noon, in the presence of only the members of the immediate families. Miss Price Young, a sister of the bride, acting as maid of honor, and Miss Margaret Young, another sister, played the wedding march. Rev. F. H. Lewis, of Mt. Royal Avenue M. P. Church, Baltimore, performed the ceremony. After a luncheon, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson took a 3 o'clock train for New York and points north, and on their return to Baltimore, will reside at 425 E. Lafayette avenue. Many handsome and useful presents were received.

COCHRAN—COCHRAN.

"Mount Airy," the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Cochran, of Middletown, Delaware, was the scene of a very pretty, but quiet wedding at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, when their daughter, Miss Mary Patten, became the wife of Mr. John P. Cochran, of near Galena, Maryland. The bride was gowned in white crepe de chene, Duchess lace, chiffon trimmings and veil and carried white chrysanthemums. The house was very tastefully and prettily decorated with asparagus cosmos and potted plants, and as the bride and groom entered the parlor Miss Bradfield, of Wilmington, rendered Lohengrin's wedding march in such a beautiful manner that it could not fail to impress those present. In the absence of Rev. W. J. Wilkie, the ceremony was performed by Rev. Albert Ware, of St. Clements Church, Massey, Md. The bride was the recipient of many handsome and useful presents. Immediately after the ceremony and congratulations, a luncheon was served, after which the happy couple were driven to the 4.17 train for a trip south. Mr. and Mrs. Cochran will reside near Galena, Md.

COLLEGE NOTES.

The Villanova football team will "pull wool" with the local boys on Saturday and an interesting game is expected. Villanova was defeated on Saturday last by a score of 17 to 0 by Georgetown.

Chestnut parties are the source of much pleasure to the college girls.

The steam heating plant has been completed and the "insects" may well crawl out of their cocoons.

Inventories of the furniture have been taken and the "Damage Fee" will be correctly manipulated in the future.

The College paper, "The Washington Collegian," will be ready for publication in about a week. The efforts of Mr. Howard, the editor, and Mr. Robinson, the business manager, are sure to be rewarded by an excellent paper.

The second baseball team met on Wednesday and discussed their prospects for the coming season.

It has been decided as an appropriate thing for the out-going senior class each year to present to the "senior table" some article of silver. The gift last year was a silver spoon holder.

Mr. Massey has left College for a few weeks' trip to St. Louis. He will take in the sights of the Fair and will return to college as an experienced man of travel.

The improvements that have thus far been added to the college can be summed up as follows: An excellent brick walk up the whole length of the campus; rooms thoroughly renovated, papered and painted; steam heat in all buildings; new home for janitor.

Mr. A. S. Brice was called home the past week by the death of his grandfather. Mr. Brice has the sympathy of the student body.

Students on the hill are diligent students of "bug-ology." Faithful searchers of crickets and grasshoppers.

Mr. Garey is acting as captain of the foot ball team now while Capt. Brice is waiting for his side to get well.

Many of the students attended the mass meeting of the Democrats on Tuesday night.

*†*Mr. Frank Jarrell, of Chesterville, has rented the J. H. Sides house, on Queen street, now occupied by Mr. Harry R. Graham. Mr. Jarrell will remove there January 1. Mr. Sides' advertisement was inserted in the TRANSCRIPT only once. So much for its good work.

MRS. HENRIETTA A. S. MARSH.

Woman's Benevolent Association of Chicago.

Mrs. Henrietta A. S. Marsh, President Woman's Benevolent Association, of 827 Jackson Park Terrace, Woodlawn, Chicago, Ill., says:

"I suffered with la grippe for seven weeks and nothing helped me until I tried Peruna. I felt at once that I had at last secured the right medicine and kept steadily improving. Within three weeks I was fully restored."—Henrietta A. S. Marsh.

Independent Order of Good Templars, of Washington.

Mrs. T. W. Collins, Treasurer I. O. G. T., of Everett, Wash., has used the great catarrhal tonic, Peruna, for an aggravated case of dyspepsia. She writes:

"After having a severe attack of la grippe, I also suffered with dyspepsia. After taking Peruna I could eat my regular meals with relish, my system was built up, my health returned, and I have remained in excellent strength and vigor now for over a year."—Mrs. T. W. Collins.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.
