MR. PARKER'S COMMENT

"The governmental expenditure last year mounted up to five hundred and eighty-two millions, which is not equalled by any year since the civil war, with the exception of the year of the Spanish war. Instead of a surplus in the annual receipts of about eight millions, which the present executive found on assuming control, there is now a deficit to be found of forty-two millions. There is an inevitable result to such extravagance."—Judge Parker's speech to the democratic editors.

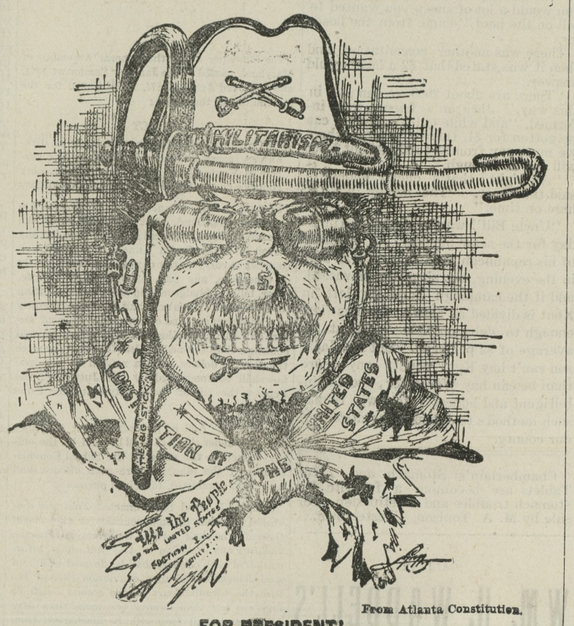

MR. ROOSEVELT'S ORDER

"By direction of the President, officials will neither discuss nor give out any information regarding the annual estimates until further orders." — Order issued yesterday by President Roosevelt to heads of departments at Washington.
