SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1904.

GEN. J. S. MCDONALD, ex-president of the Union League, and a well-known jeweler of Baltimore, is booked for the next postmastership of that city. The salary is $6,000.

EVERYBODY seems to take a philosophical view of the result of the election except the Republicans. They want to contest everything that really went Democratic, just because they think they will be backed up by a Republican administration. How can some people be so selfish?

AN AMICABLE agreement was reached on Tuesday at a conference between prominent Democratic lawyers of Baltimore city, by which it is made practically certain that the validity of the constitutional amendments passed by the last Legislature, chief of which is the Poe amendment, designed to disfranchise the illiterate negroes of the State, will be decided by the Court of Appeals in the January term. Chairman Murray Vandiver will have charge of the matter.

HAVEN'T heard anything about the Republicans contesting the election in Pennsylvania and Delaware, have you? They are such sticklers for an honest ballot and a fair election, it would be a most magnanimous thing if they would endeavor to root out some of the corruption that is a stench in the nostrils of all decent people in these two Republican states. But you'll never hear a word about it, simply because both of these states went Republican.

IN 1896 Mr. McKinley carried the State of Maryland by 22,000 plurality, in 1900 he carried the State by 14,000. This year the Democrats succeeded in wiping out these large pluralities entirely and elected seven of the eight electors and three congressmen and redeemed the First Congressional District. Now, if the Republicans find any consolation for the future in this splendid achievement of Democracy we fail to see it. It looks as though the State of Maryland is more Democratic than ever, and that the Democratic party will be more than successful in next spring and fall elections in the city and State.

ALREADY there are murmurings of the reorganization of the Democratic party. Of course these murmurings are coming from those who have tried for some years to break the ranks of the party. The Democratic party is just as much alive to-day as it ever was. What is needed by those who propose to aspire to leadership is more loyalty to Democratic principles and less affiliation with disorganizing influences. The strength of the Republican party to-day lies in the fidelity of its adherents, and the sooner the Democrats of the country learn this lesson the more thoroughly will it entrench itself in the confidence of the American people.

WE ARE constantly receiving complaints at this office from our patrons that our papers and letters are detained in transit. Last Friday we mailed a letter to a gentleman who lives only four and one-half miles from Chestertown, and the letter did not reach him until some time Monday morning. This is only one of many occurrences, and we would like to know whether it is the fault of the Postoffice Department or whether it is because the delivery cannot be made any more quickly. We shall thank our patrons if they will notify us when they fail to receive our papers and communications, in order that an investigation as to the cause may be made.

CRY OF FRAUD IS FALSE.

The Wicomico News, a Democratic organ of that county, and whose editors are close political friends of former Governor Jackson, makes the following pungent statement in reference to Congressman Wm. H. Jachson's anticipated contest in the First Congressional District:

"The charge that Mr. Jackson was defrauded out of his election is false. He failed of election because the people did not want him to represent them any longer in Congress. In every county in the First District the ballots were made up and printed in legal form. Nothing but the plainest type was used; and his failure to secure the full vote of his party was because of the preponderance of illiterate negroes who make up the bulk of the Republican party in the First Congressional District. To say that the verdict of the intelligent voters of this District is to be set aside because the horde of illiterate negroes could not master a plain ballot is enough to arouse the ire of every man who stands for honesty and fair play in politics. The people will not stand for such methods!

"It is unfortunate for Congressman Jackson that his party is composed so largely of the illiterate negroes who cannot be taught to vote or fold their ballots."

To which we say "amen!"

CHESTERTOWN, MD., Nov. 15.

MESSRS. EDITORS—

Dear Sirs:—Through the columns of your valuable paper we wish to call the attention of the public to certain facts concerning "Exhibit H, Treasurer's Report" of the Auditor's report, as published in the county papers on Oct. 29th, and to "Exhibit I," or supplemental report, as published on Nov. 5. The first report noted a shortage of county funds against the Treasurer of $170.44, which at the time we were confident was absolutely incorrect, and which the committee afterwards published so.

In the first place, we expressly told the auditors that the balance was not a true one and we were not satisfied with it, yet they told us that they intended to file that against us, which they did, despite our protest. On Friday evening, Oct. 21, prior to the filing of same on Tuesday, we found that they had deducted a check drawn on State money by J. R. Copper, collector, for fifteen dollars, from the county balance, and Mr. Wilbur Eliason, a member of the committee, was informed of this, the first error on their part, by telephone, and we requested him to meet us at the court house and rectify same. The error was acknowledged, but the change was not made. Mr. E. claims it was not his place, or the place of any member of that committee, to look us up and so correct a glaring error. Now, whose place was it? We did not make the mistake—we found it—and so notified the proper ones. Now, if the balance could not have been totally wiped out then we were shown in a false light before the public by a deficit of fifteen dollars that was known to be in error before the filing of the report. The committee actually had three different balances against the Treasurer within forty-eight hours. One balance as high as two thousand dollars, a grave error, which in our absence was detected by Mr. C. L. Dodd, the clerk to the county commissioners.

A second balance of about fourteen dollars deficiency was charged against us and the Deputy Treasurer was requested to deposit that amount to the credit of the county until the balance had been cleared satisfactorily, which he flatly refused to do. The third balance of $170.44 was brought out. Then the Treasurer himself was requested to deposit a check for that amount to the credit of the county until the balance should be satisfactorily accounted for, which he also flatly refused to do.

Now, after the first error was detected and we both had challenged the balance as being incorrect, then it was the duty of the Auditing Committee to have withheld the report until they had not only convinced themselves, but also the Treasurer, that the balance was absolutely correct. In their supplemental report of November 5, marked "Exhibit I," what do they do? Why, the whole balance fades away; the Treasurer is relieved of any shortage, and a surplus of fifteen or sixteen dollars over. But who detected the errors and accounted for every cent of the balance? Why, we did it. We were not even given the credit of doing one thing toward obviating the difference. In their supplemental report they show how the balance is accounted for, yet we made up the statements and showed where they had made errors. They acknowledge the same and publish that the errors were part theirs and part ours. Every error was theirs.

Now, it is the duty of an Auditing Committee to detect errors in a set of books and point out the same. Yet every error in that balance was detected, not by a member of that committee, but by us. The errors they charged us with are first an overcharge of $74.65 on corporations, which they should surely have discovered; and second, of a bill of $50.00, placed in the sheriff's hands for collection which we failed to enter to his account, by oversight; one which they should have detected. They should not have relied solely on our list or on the sheriff's receipt; they should have been certain as to the exact amount placed in his hands. Now, we claim that these two errors, after all, were as much theirs in not detecting them as ours in making them.

Again, in their corrected report they fail to publish why duplicate checks to the amount of $27.74 were issued. The committee ordered us to issue them, as they claimed that same amounts had never been paid, as they had gone over our checks, vouchers and bank statements and failed to find them as being paid. We proved to their satisfaction where every one had been paid. Yet the error was all ours.

Again, they asserted that a check stub amounted to nothing; yet we detected an error of $7.67, as an amount we paid on levy of 1902, and had no credit given us. Three different certificates were paid in this instance by one check. The whole amount was stipulated on the check, the stub expressly noted the different amounts and for what purpose. This is a case of numerous ones when a check stub counts for something. What is the use of a check stub unless it be for a memoradum account? The amounts paid on certificates in excess of levy book they claimed had been taken into account in the sum total of the levy book. Yet we had paid $9.40 in such a manner and same had not been noted in their totals.

Now, we claim that the committee should have been absolusely certain of the correctness of their report before they spread broadcast to the public a shortage of $170.44, when no shortage actually existed, a fact we endeavored to impress upon their minds, but in vain, as they absolutely refused to listen. And they also claim that if the Deputy Treasurer had worked half as hard to help them no shortage would have appeared. We beg to say that neither of us constituted members of the Auditing Committee, therefore it was not our duty to act in the capacity of such and do all the work for which they received a fee of $4.00 per day and we not a cent. Our work had been done; it was their place to detect any errors, and it was their duty to be absolutely certain that they were correct and absolutely certain we were incorrect. We explained everything the committee requested of us. The Deputy responded to their every call for explanation of certain entries unintelligible to them, but it was not his duty to go and do the actual work devolving upon them.

We have noted the facts in the case as they exist, and facts which cannot be refuted, and we are perfectly willing to admit any clerical error we have made; but we don't care to bear the blunt of criticism for errors made by others and attributed to us under the head of "simply errors due to accounting." We were grossly misrepresented in the committee's first report, and while the supplemental report clears us of the balance against us, yet we feel that justice had not been done us in fully explaining the nature of the errors and by whom made.

Very respectfully,
JESSE R. COPPER,
Ex-Treasurer.
WHITTIER C. COPPER,
Ex-Dep. Treasurer.

GOOD-BY "AUNT EFFIE."

Great and Game Race Mare to be Sold Out of Baltimore.

The great pacing mare Effie Powers, owned by Herman Bernheimer, race record 2.08¼, is to be sold under the hammer at Madison Square Garden, New York, in the "Old Glory" sale November 21 to December 1.

This is the greatest harness race mare ever owned in Maryland, and local horsemen look upon her consignment to a sale almost as if it was a sacrilege. The mare, here and throughtout the country, is affectionately called "Aunt Effie." She is a perennial wonder and is a queen of half mile tracks. She holds more records than any horse or mare living. She made her record of 2.08¼ in a fifth heat. She made her age records as follows: As a 3-year-old, 2.12¾; 4-year-old, 2.10¼; 5-year-old 2.13½; 6-year-old, 2.10¼; 7-year-old 2.10¼; 8-year-old, 2.10¼; 9-year-old 2.09¼; 10-year-old, 2.08½; 11-year-old: 2.09; 12-year-old, 2.08¼; record to pole 2.12¾.

She was bred by D. W. Brenneman & Bro., of Decatur, Ill. She was foaled in 1890. Her sire was Anderson Wilkes, he by Onward and he by George Wilkes. Her dam was Fanny Powers, she by Regalia and he by Jay Gould. Her sire, Anderson Wilkes, sired 41 which entered the list. Regalia, the sire of Aunt Effie's dam, Fanny Powers, sired eight which entered the list, while Jay Gould, his sire, sired 30 list horses and the dams of 77 which had progeny in the 2.30 column.

Effie Powers started her race career as a 3-year-old in 1893. She had 10 races that year and took a record of 2.12¾. She had 10 starts as a 4-year-old and lowered her to 2.10½.

"Aunt Effie" to the close 1903 won 70 races out of 155 starts. She won 213 heats, in 2.25 or better time, 171 heats in 2.15 or better, and this does not include her wins in 1904, which have not yet been compiled. At the close of the season Aunt Effie went to Gentleman's Driving Park, and her trainer, Larry Gray, said she was then capable of reducing her record if she was called upon, and, barring accidents, she would lower it in another season.

During the season just closed "Aunt Effie" and Bedworth Jr., performed on the Maryland and Virginia Circuit, generally matched in free for all purses. On one accasion only did the mare conquer Bedworth, and that was at Electric Park, Baltimore. Bedworth poked fun at her at Gentlemen's Driving Park and they began to campaign together at Wheeling, W. Va., after leaving the Driving Park. Bedworth was usually in front of "Aunt Effie" in all their speed trials. However the good old mare has many friends in Kent, who will regret to see her leave her former happy home. Her name and fame will live long in the minds and hearts of all lovers of horse flesh hereabouts.

will come, and unless you have your horse shod you will not be prepared for it. You can have him shod at our place and get comfort and safety for him. We make this line of work a specialty, and you run no risk of bringing your horses to us; our experience has taught us to take care of the foot and you save the horse from many evils caused from improper shoeing. No foot, no horse is as true today as when first uttered. Try us when you want your horse shod.
