MILLINGTON MATTERS.

The 25th anniversary of Asbury M. E. Church will be held next Sunday. An all-day service will be held, with several former pastors of the church to take part in the services. Special music is being prepared by the choir.

Rev. J. H. Kuhlmann, pastor of Trinity M. E. Church South, started revival services here last Monday evening, and will continue them for a few weeks.

Holy communion will be celebrated in Trinity M. E. Church South next Sunday morning at 10.30 o'clock A.M., by the rector, Rev. Albert Ware.

New Millington is indeed rising to surpass the section destroyed by fire on July 12th. The beautiful new bank is completed, and is now occupied by the bank officials, while the back room of the bank is being used for the present by the Building and Loan Association to transact business in until further arrangements can be made for accommodations for the association. Quite a number of houses are nearing completion and will soon be ready for occupancy, and are a great improvement to the streets; but while the buildings are improving the appearance of the streets, we are sorry to say the sidewalks are in a deplorable condition. On Sassafras street, from the corner of Mr. F. A. Emory's lot to Mr. J. T. Powers' lot, where his house formerly stood, the debris from the follen walls and chimneys the day after the fire are still on the sidewalks, making it impossible for more than one person to walk on a five-foot pavement. Then they are in danger of stumbling over the bricks on the inside of the sidewalk, while along the curb the weeds have grown and overspread the sidewalk on the outer edge, leaving about one foot space for ladies to walk, which is extremely annoying to have the weeds brush their skirts. It is also very unhealthy to have weeds growing from three to four feet high, and it would be advisable for the commissioners to look into the sanitary condition of the town and see that the dying vegetation is removed, as it is causing much sickness. There have been some cases of typhoid fever and several threatened cases.

Mr. W. J. Tolson, section foreman of subdivision No. 18 of the Delaware Railroad, has been retired on part pay from active service by the Pennsylvania Company, having reached the age limit, 70 years. Mr. Tolson has been foreman of the section running through Millington for 33 years, and has stood at his post in all kinds of weather. He has removed with his family to near Sudlersville, where he will reside for the present with his son-in-law, Mr. E. Stevens. Mr. Tolson's home was burned during the fire, and since then he has been living in a car on a switch near the station. His many friends miss him and hope he will move back to town as soon as he can procure a house. Mr. A. A. Lockerman, of Blackbird, Del., succeeded him

Miss Julia Cacy has returned from a delightful trip to Boston, Mass., where she attended the General Convention of the Episcopal Church.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Stafford spent several days with friends in Wilmington, Del.

Mr. George Mallalieu, of Paterson, N. J., spent part of this week with his mother, Mrs. Julia Mallalieu.

Mr. Elmer Stafford, of Middletown, Del., spent several days this week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Stafford.

Mrs. Hill, of Blacks, spent last week with Miss Evelyn Cochran.

Miss Charlotte Rose, of Baltimore, spent this week with her uncle, Dr. N. Comegys.

SASSAFRAS ITEMS.

The pound net fishermen have quit for the winter.

Mrs. John Clothier is visiting her sisters in Wilmington.

Jacob T. Shallcross and Alexander T. Laws visited Chestertown on Tuesday.

Mrs. Caroline Johns, of near Sassafras, is entertaining Philadelphia relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sylvester visited Mr. Smith Burris, of near Kennedyville, on Tuesday.

Miss Bessie Gunkel, of Warwick, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. John F. Ernest, on Wednesday.

Rev. J. W. Arters, of Odessa, has been elected President of the Epworth League of the Easton district.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Hodson, of near Massey's are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. Hodson, near Sassafras.

Mrs. Elwood Robinson and little daughter are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Slaughter, of Dovel, Del.

Capt. Andrew Woodall, of Georgetown, delivered last week the lumber for rebuilding the barn, stables, etc., on the farm where J. Hodson lives, near Sassafras. Amos Wilson has the contract and will begin work as soon as the weather permits.

Shortly after 9 o'clock Sunday morning a snow storm in the nature of a blizzard started and raged all day with no abatement and in the evening the wind blew a gale. It had the appearance of mid-winter and on account of the severity of the storm all church services were abandoned.

Rev. F. S. Cain, of Warwick, began revival services in Rehoboth M. P. Church on Monday evening. Rev. W. N. Sherwood and other learned ministers will assist Mr. Cain.

Rev. W. N. Sherwood, of Wilmington, formerly of Sassafras, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sylvester. He will assist with the revival services in the M. P. Church here.

Mrs. Oliver Smith, formerly of Kent county, has presented to Emmanuel Church, of Belair, a handsome silver flagon for eucharistic purposes, as a memorial to her late husband.

Miss Ella Kirkman, who has been making an extended visit to her aunt, Mrs Robert S. Griffith, left on Saturday evening to visit Wilmington relatives, after which, in company with her mother, she will leave for her home in California.

The Best Liniment.

"Chamberlain's Pain Balm is considered the best liniment on the market," write Post & Bliss, of Georgia, Vt. No other liniment will heal a cut or bruise so promptly. No other affords such relief from rheumatic pains. No other is so valuable for deep seated pains like lame back and pains in the chest. Give this liniment a trial and you will never wish to be without it. Sold by M. A. Toulson, Chestertown.

Subscription to the Transcript $1.00 per annum.

CECILTON ITEMS.

Mrs. E. E. Strong spent last Sunday with her son, Mr. J. E. Strong, in Wilmington, Del.

Mrs. S. E. Barwick is visiting relatives in Odessa, Del.

Dr. G. T. Barwick made a business trip to Wilmington this week.

Mrs. Jennie Wallis is visiting at East New Market, Md.

Mr. R. S. Dwyer, from Harrisburg, Va., was in town this week.

Some of our gunners have been down on the river for ducks and report fine sport.

Mr. J. H. Clendaniel's traction engine was upset in a bridge near Chestervi lle Wednesday.

Mr. Wm. Janvier is having a well drilled at his home near Turner's Creek.

Mr. G. A. McDaniel, from Denton, is doing the work.

Nearly all the farmers are done husking corn and a great many are shelling and delivering it. All report a good crop.

Mr. J. H. Clendaniel received another carload of calves Tuesday and they were soon disposed of at moderate prices.

Mr. A. S. Macklin is in town loading white potatoes for the Philadelphia market.

COLLEGE NOTES.

Dr. Cain and Profs. Burris and Clark visited Princeton last week for the purpose of viewing the Yale-Princeton football game.

The handsome college walk is being further improved by removing the dead trees which are to be replaced by new ones.

Football season being about over gymnasium work has been begun under the able supervision of Prof. Burris. The class this year is unusually large and bids fair to eclipse any one within recent years.

The November issue of the "Collegian" has been issued and is a very creditable magazine. It contains several creditable articles among which are "A Manly Man," "Soliloquy on Marriage," and "The Value of a Literary Training."

Mr. L. Wethered Barroll, formerly of St. John's, has returned home. He has resumed work at Washington College.

STILL POND NEWS.

Owing to the rain their were no services held at our church Sunday. We were disappointed as Mr. Habbart, of Worton, was to preach for us.

Mrs. Charlie Severson is visiting in Baltimore.

Mr. Gus. Krusen, of Vineland, New Jersey, spent a short time with his parents last week.

Rumor has it that we are to have another wedding soon. Guess who?

Mrs. Crewe and Miss Elsie Bramble are visiting in Baltimore.

Mrs. Joseph Harper and children, after spending two weeks in Baltimore, have returned home.

Mrs. Walters has returned home after visiting her mother in Baltimore.

Mr. Harry Stanley, our fine little barber, spent Tuesday in Baltimore.

We thought winter had come sure when we saw the snow Sunday, but some of the farmers are not ready to welcome it yet, as they are not through husking corn.

Mrs. Sallie Morris and children have been visiting friends at Galena.

Mr. C. B. Krusen is visiting friends in New Jersey and Philadelphia.

Mrs. Harry Jewell, of Lynchs, spent Thursday in our village.

Miss Ruth Hoffecker and Mr. Golden Warren, both of Washington College, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. James Warren.

Misses Lizzie and Helen Jewell spent Saturday and Sunday at Locust Grove.

Misses Alyce and Ida Wood are visiting friends at Worton.

Mr. Clarence Biddle, of Crumpton, has a position in F. H. Harper's store.

Messrs. John Bolden and Willie Ford has a position in Mr. Medders' store.

Our stores are opening their Christmas goods.

Our school is getting ready for a fine Christmas entertainment.

The Epworth League held its monthly social meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Bonwell Thursday evening of last week, but owing to the rain there were but a few present.

Mr. James Robinson is visiting in Philadelphia.

Mrs. M. E. Whaley, of Chestertown, is visiting friends in our town.

Mr. William Anderson, of Baltimore, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Clark visited Baltimore this week.

Mr. Charlie Jewell, of Baltimore, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jewell.

BETTERTON BRIEFS.

The recent storm of Sunday struck Betterton with full force, and judging by the heavy snow fall it seemed as if king winter was being ushered in. There were no services in the church either in the morning or evening and very few pedestrians were seen at all, the people being loathe to leave their own firesides.

Mr. John Brice is having a new gasoline engine put in his skiff. Our people are surely up-to-date. Two years ago there was not over two or three launches on the beach, but now most all of the fishermen own one, and the sailing skiff is taking the back seat.

The board walk which was started last fall and which was only half completed is finally getting finished. It extends from the livery stable clear around the town. This is a great improvement and should not be stopped again until the work is all finished.

The ducking season seems to be very poor. The ducks are plentiful but are so very wild that a gunner cannot get near enough for a good shot.

Messrs. Arthur and James Harris left here on Tuesday for a trip to St. Louis. They will be gone several weeks.

Mr. L. Hickman and family have moved into the house vacated by Mr. Chas. Smith. Mr. Smith moves on the farm of Mr. Ireland's near Coleman.

Capt. Harvey Brice lost a valuable horse on Tuesday from the colic. He also lost a cow last week by being choked to death by eating a keifer pear.

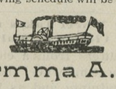

Farmers around the neighborhood are still busy shipping pears. The prices are very low as the maket is over run.
