Important News for Anyone.

The time has come that every person should know how to take care of their eyes and not to buy glasses from peddlers or so-called traveling Opticians who have no right to ruin people's eyes.

To prevent this I will advise you not to wait until some peddler will come around to sell you a pair of glasses. You will do justice to your eyes by coming to Chestertown to have your EYES TESTED and GLASSES fitted to the eyes and not the eyes to the glasses.

Respectfully,
A. LEVINE.

DECEMBER 8th, 1904,

AT 8 O'CLOCK P. M.

The Peabody Conservatory has a national reputation; their concerts are unsurpassed and very popular with all classes.

An elaborate programme will be prepared for this occasion, containing a number of novelties, besides many of the most popular and widely known works of the master composers.

The following musicians, who are all members of the Peabody staff, and have made numerous appearances at the Peabody concerts and elsewhere with great success, will present the programme:

MISS CLARA ASCHERFELD, the gifted pianist, is one of the most popular players in Baltimore, and has also met with success as a composer.

MISS CLARA NELSON, has a voice of rare beauty and rich volume and has delighted large audiences in many of the large cities and important towns in the country.

MR. ABRAM MOSES, the violinist, is an admirable player with a fine feeling for his chosen instrument. His tone is pure and well-sustained, and his style characterized by refinement and breadth.

This recital will be given under the auspices of the Epworth League of the Methodist Episcopal Church, of Chestertown.

GOV. WARFIELD'S REPLY.

Answers Gen. Vandiver's Letter by Refusing to Publish Constitutional Amendments—Matter Will be Settled by Court of Appeals.

As stated in last week's TRANSCRIPT exclusively, Gen. Murray Vandiver, as a registered voter of the State of Maryland, addressed a letter to Gov. Edwin Warfield in reference to publishing the constitutional amendments adopted at the last session of the Legislature. In his letter Gen. Vandiver explains the motive for sending the note, and on behalf of the registered voters of the State made a formal appeal to the Governor to know his intention respecting the publication of the amendments. The Governor, in his characteristic style, and acting upon the advice of Attorney-General Bryan, replied thus to Gen. Vandiver's letter:

"EXECUTIVE OFFICE,
"ANNAPOLIS, MD., Nov. 22, 1904.

"Hon. Murray Vandiver, Havre de Grace, Maryland.

"My Dear Sir—In reply to your communication of the 22d instant, I respectfully state that acting upon the advice of the Attorney General of Maryland, the legal adviser of the Governor selected by the people, I will not cause to be published the proposed constitutional amendments referred to by you, because they have not been submitted to me for my approval as Governor and, hence, are not operative.

Very respectfully,
EDWIN WARFIELD,
"Governor of Maryland."

This letter of Governor Warfield shows that he has not changed his position on the question since the passage of the amendments last winter. These amendments were never submitted to the Governor for his approval or disapproval, but were given into the custody of the Clerk to the Court of Appeals to await publication. The Governor's refusal will necessitate a settlement of the matter by the Court of Appeals, and it is understood that Gen. Vandiver will take steps at once to have the matter finally decided. Eminent counsel have been retained by both sides to the contest, which will be an entirely amicable one. Attorney-General Bryan and Mr. Edgar H. Gans will represent Gov. Warfield in the suit, and Messrs. John P. Poe, Alonzo Miles and Bernard Carter will represent Gen. Vandiver.

MARYLAND'S OFFICIAL RETURNS

Totals Somewhat Different from Estimated Returns—Seven Democratic and One Republican Elector Successful.

All the official returns of the late election have been received at the executive department in Annapolis. The totals show that seven Democratic electors have been elected and one Republican elector, Charles J. Bonaparte. According to the official returns, Mr. Chas. H. Knapp was the unsuccessful Democratic elector, he having received 2 votes less than Mr. Samuel A. Mudd. The returns are as follows:

ELECTORAL VOTE.

Republicans—Charles J. Bonaparte, 109,497; Carlton L. Bretz, 106,993; R. Rastell Walker, 106,876; Edward M. Allen, Jr., 106,721; George A. Hartman, 106,994; Robert Ogle, 106,787; J. Webb Thomas, 106,709; Alfred G. Sturgiss, 106,896.

Democrats—Frank Brown, 109,446; Elihu E. Jackson, 107,477; John E. George, 107,343; T. Herbert Shriver, 107,285; James King, 107,333; Chas. H. Knapp, 107,276; Samuel A. Mudd, 107,278; Ferdinand Williams, 107,460.

FOR CONGRESS.

First District—William H. Jackson, Republican, 17,072; Thomas A. Smith, Democrat, 17,582.

Second District—Robert Garrett, Republican, 16,734; J. F. C. Talbott, Democrat, 18,922.

Third District—Frank C. Wachter, Republican, 17,405; Lee S. Meyer, Democrat, 15,373.

Fourth District—William C. Smith, Republican, 16,754; John Gill, Jr., Democrat, 18,464.

Fifth District—Sydney E. Mudd, Republican, 16,896; Richard S. Hill, Democrat, 13,762.

Sixth District—George A. Pearre, Republican, 19,131; Walter A. Johnston, Democrat, 15,077.

Lieutenant Westcott's Condition.—Senator Louis E. McComas has made application to the Secretary of War for the removal to the United States of Lieut. Charles T. Westcott, Jr., who is now confined by illness at the United States Naval Hospital at Yokohama, Japan. Lieut. Westcott is the eldest son of Hon. Charles T. Westcott, former State Senator from this county, and during his residence in Chestertown was familiarly known as Carl. The department will grant the request of Senator McComas, if Lieut. Westcott can be removed without danger to his life.

CHURCH NOTES.

Chestertown M. E. Church, Preaching at 10.30 A. M. and 7.30 P. M. Sunday school at 2.10 P. M. Epworth League meeting at 6.45 P. M. Morning subject: "All Things Working for Good to Them that Love God." Evening: "Why I am a Prohibitionist." Special temperance services in the Sunday school. All are cordially invited.

By special request of Chestertown Council, No. 58, Daughters of America, Rev. W. L. White will preach a special sermon to the fraternal orders in the M. E. Church, Chestertown, on Sunday, Dec. 4, at 7.30 P. M. All members of the fraternal orders are cordially invited to meet with us in the council chamber and proceed in a body to the church at 7.15 P. M. Seats will be reserved for the occasion.

The presiding elders of the Wilmington M. E. Conference met in Wilmington last week and accepted on behalf of the conference an invitation to hold its next session in Grace Church, Wilmington. Action regarding conference entertainment was deferred, but before conference convenes the presiding elders will attempt to devise a plan for conference entertainment which they hope will become permanent.

Quite a number of tickets have been sold for the Peabody concert to be given under the auspices of the Epworth League of the M. E. Church in Stam's Hall on Tuesday evening, Dec. 6. These entertainments are too well known to need any introduction to the community.

Rev. W. L. S. Murray, D. D., has been unanimously invited to return as pastor of St. Paul's M. E. Church, Wilmington, for the tenth consecutive year. No other Methodist minister in the country has had this honor conferred upon him. Dr. Murray is one of the ablest ministers in the Wilmington M. E. Conference.

A very interesting service was held at the Christian Workers' hour in Christ M. P. Church on Sunday evening last. Mr. J. Frank Wheatley conducted the services and gave a very interesting talk on the "Life and Character of Samuel." A duet by Miss Susie Belle Culp and Mr. Alwyn M. Culp, a solo by Miss Edith Fallowfield and a quartette by Mrs. Mamie Dodd, Miss Addie Hurlock and Messrs. Fred G. Usilton and Chas. B. Dodd were splendidly rendered, as were also the hymns by the large audience. To-morrow (Sunday) evening there will be an interesting "Harvest Home" service in charge of Mr. Fred G. Usilton.

Rev. D. L. Greenfield and wife entertained the members and friends of Christ M. P. Church on Thursday evening from 8 to 10 o'clock. The reception was a success in every respect, and during the evening many of the members and friends of the church called at the parsonage to pay their respects to the popular pastor and wife. Refreshments were served, and a social good time was enjoyed by all present.

Revival services are in progress at Lynch's M. P. Church in charge of the pastor Rev. J. M. Sheridan.

The two Methodist congregations of the town held union Thanksgiving services in Christ M. P. Church on Thursday morning. Rev. W. L. White, pastor of the M. E. Church, preached an excellent sermon to a large congregation, and the combined choirs of the two churches rendered special music.

The fourth quarterly conference of Kent circuit will be held at Chesterville M. E. Church South Saturday, Nov. 26, at 11 A. M.; love feast Nov. 27, at 10 A. M., and preaching by Dr. Bond, P. E., at 11 A. M., followed by the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. Preaching by the pastor, Rev. J. H. Kuhlmann, in Trinity M. E. Church South, Millington, at 3 P. M. Song service at 7 P. M. and preaching at 7.30 P. M. The revival services will continue next week.

Sunday, Dec. 4, 1904, at 11 A. M., the Chesterville M. E. Church South will celebrate "Missionary Day," at which time there will be an address on Foreign Missions by Mrs. A. W. Wilson, wife of Bishop Alpheus Wilson, of the Baltimore Conference; also suitable songs and recitations by the Sunday school. Those who have never heard Mrs. Wilson will do well to avail themselves of this opportunity. She is a delightful speaker, especially on Foreign Missions. Having visited the East, she is prepared to interest her hearers.

A violin solo, by Mr. Kemp Bordley, with organ accompainment, made a pleasant innovation in the interlude selection during the collection at the Chestertown M. E. Church last Sunday morning.

St. James M. P. Church: Sunday, 10.30 A. M., communion; the membership earnestly requested to be present. Lynchs: No service in the afternoon; 7 P. M., preaching and revival services. Services continued during the week at 7.30 o'clock; public cordially invited.

Kennedyville M. P. Church, Rev. R. S. Rowe, pastor. Subjects of sermons for Sunday 27th, 10.30 A. M. "Thanksgiving Sermon." 7. P. M. "Sinning as it were with a cart rope." Revival services every Sunday night.

Rev. K. M. Bull was installed as pastor of the Stewartstown Presbyterian Church on Tuesday. Rev. Carl G. H. Ettlich, as moderator, presided, preached the installation sermon and propounded the constitutional questions. Rev. K. J. Stewart delivered the charge to the people and Rev. F. B. Everitt the charge to the pastor. Rev. Mr. Bull was formerly pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Kennedyville, Md.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of Christ M. P. Church will give a "Tea" at the home of Mrs. B. F. Fleming the first Wednesday evening in December. Particulars later.

Christ Meth. Prot. Church, Rev. D. L. Greenfield, pastor: 9.30 A. M., An Hour of Prayer for Revival; 10.30 A. M., theme, "The Persuasive Life"; 2.30 P. M., Sunday School; 6.15 P. M., Junior Endeavor Meeting; 6.45 P. M., Harvest Home Service, led by Mr. Fred. G. Usilton; 7.30 P.M., theme, "The Women of Christ's Circle—the Virgin Mother."

OBITUARY.

MRS. ADDISON EMORY.

Mrs. Addison Emory, wife of Addison Emory, Esq., one of the most prominent residents of Queen Anne's county, died at her late home in Spaniards' Neck, near Centreville, Sunday afternoon last of paralysis, aged 60 years. The deceased was a sister of the late Jervis Spencer and of the late Mrs. Charlotte R. Wickes. She was also a sister of Mrs. Nathaniel Comegys, near Blacks. The death of Mrs. Emory is the third death in this prominent family within a year. She is survived by a husband and two children, her children being Mr. Frank Addison Emory and Mrs. J. M. Corkran, wife of Dr. J. M. Corkran, of Centreville. The funeral cortege passed through Chestertown on Tuesday afternoon enroute to Shrewsbury, where the remains were interred. Among the relatives of the deceased in Kent are Mrs. Hope H. Barroll and Miss Lottie Wickes, nieces, and Messrs. John and Spencer Comegys, nephews.

MRS. JOSEPH TREW.

Mrs. Joseph Trew, wife of Mr. Joseph Trew, a prominent agriculturalist of near Chestertown, died at the home of her son, Joseph S. Trew, Jr., on the Wroth farm, near town, on Friday night last, of general debility, aged 71 years. The deceased was born in Quaker Neck, and was the daughter of the late Bartus Trew. Mrs. Trew was a member of the Society of Friends and during her earlier life she was active in the work of her religious belief, and was a regular attendant at the yearly meeting of Friends in the city of Baltimore. The deceased had been in feeble health for some years but she had borne her sufferings with christian grace and fortitude. She is survived by a husband, three daughters—Mrs. Virgil Kendall, of Rock Hall, Misses Etta and May Trew, and one son, Joseph S. Trew, Jr. Funeral services were held at her late residence on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. A. H. Covey, officiating. Interment was made in the family burying ground on the farm of her brother, Mr. Bartus Trew, in Quaker Neck. The pall bearers were: Messrs. Walter S. Trew, Henry Brown, C. C. Brown, Thomas Trew, Virgil Kendall and James H. Baker.

Movement for Good Roads.

Many of the counties in the State are coming to the front in their determination to give the road question a thorough consideration. Caroline and Dorchester have recently begun to investigate the question, and on Tuesday a large public meeting was held in Denton, and another meeting is booked for Cambridge for the purpose of discussing the best methods to be employed in obtaining the share of the counties in State aid fund. Mr. A. N. Johnson, highway engineer of the Maryland Geological Survey, is attending these county meetings and explaining to the people the advantages of the State aid road law, and the method of procedure necessary to obtain the county's share of the fund. Many of the prominent citizens of the different counties are interested in the movement for good roads because they realize what good roads mean to the agricultural and industrial life of a community. Kent county should avail herself of this opportunity to secure good roads, and if our county commissioners should take the necessary steps they would receive the co-operation of the traveling public.

*†*Wild geese are reported plentiful in Cecil county. Gunners have had considerable sport during the past week bagging these wily wild birds.
