Important News for Anyone.

The time has come that every person should know how to take care of their eyes and not to buy glasses from peddlers or so-called traveling Opticians who have no right to ruin people's eyes.

To prevent this I will advise you not to wait until some peddler will come around to sell you a pair of glasses. You will do justice to your eyes by coming to Chestertown to have your EYES TESTED and GLASSES fitted to the eyes and not the eyes to the glasses.

Respectfully,
A. LEVINE.

THAT COVETED EASE

which singles out the well-dressed man among his fellows comes only from clothes designed by a trained mind, and cut by a master hand. A SUIT or OVERCOAT with our label upon it pledges correctness in both the big essentials, and the little incidents of FIT, FABRIC and FINISH, all at moderate prices, no more than you pay for the ordinary kind. Clothing is not our only strong point. We are very much into the business, too; and sell a line of the very best merchandise that can be found in an up-to-date store. Now is the time to lay in your winter wants. You have a better line to select from and avoid the rush and jam that always comes with the holiday time.

Their Fifty-First Wedding Anniversary.

Rev. and Mrs. R. S. Rowe quietly observed their fifty-first wedding anniversary at the Methodist Protestant parsonage in Kennedyville on Tuesday, December 6th, they having been married in Baltimore city by the Rev. John G. Rowe, a brother of the groom, on Tuesday, December 6th, 1853. Mrs. Rowe is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William S. Greenwood and a granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. David Arthur, and was born in Chestertown. Mr. Rowe is a native of Fredericksburg, Virginia, and a son of the late Rev. and Mrs. George Rowe. In 1864 he, in connection with the Revs. T. H. B. Austin and A. D. Dick, was an assistant pastor of Kent circuit, the late Rev. Lawrence W. Bates, D. D., being the pastor. At that time Kent circuit comprised what is now Chestertown station, St. James station, Kennedyville station and Chesapeake circuit, composed of Wesley and Kesley Chapels. The popular pastor and his good wife were kindly remembered by his loyal congregation at Kennedyville. They took the occasion to give Bro. Rowe and his good wife a good pounding in the shape of a liberal donation. The members of the church came with their congratulations and best wishes, each of them bringing some toothsome delicacy or substantial, and set a table most inviting and neat looking, at which every one present was served with most delicious cake and excellent coffee. When this had been concluded some time was spent in social concourse and blessed communion with one another, after which, with Mrs. W. M. Clendaniel at the organ, all joined in singing, "God Be With You Till We Meet Again;" then followed a prayer by the pastor for the Lord's best blessing upon the kind-hearted people; then the long-metre doxology was sung, the benediction was pronounced and the company departed, leaving the pastor's pantry much richer for their coming.

SUIT FOR $20,000.

Mrs. Augusta W. Revelle Sues the P., B. & W. Railroad Company For Causing the Death of Her Mother, Mrs. Katherine Megee of Cecilton.

A suit for $20,000 damages was docketed in the Circuit Court for Cecil county last week, by Mrs. Augusta W. Revelle, against the Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railroad Company, for the death of her mother, Mrs. Katherine Megee, late of Cecilton. It is alleged that Mrs. Megee's death was due to the injuries received by a fall from a train at the Elkton station. On the night of September 23d, 1903, Mrs. Megee boarded the train at Baltimore which is due in Elkton at 1.13 a.m. On account of the heavy traffic that night the train was an unusually long one and was late in arriving at Elkton. It made two stops, the first time the rear end of the train being at the Elkton Signal Tower, and the second time in front of the tool house, about 40 yards south of the platform. Mrs. Megee was riding next to the rear car, and when she went to get off she fell, it is alleged, because there was no platform for her to step upon. Mr. P. M. Groves, of Elkton, who got off the car ahead of the lady, assisted her when she fell.

At the September term of the Circuit Court, a suit against the Railroad Company, for injuries to Mrs. Megee, was brought by her executrix, Blanche Mc. D. Crawford. After all the testimony had been taken, Judge Brown called attention to the fact that there had been no evidence submitted showing that the plantiff was duly appointed executrix, and ruled that she had no standing before the Court. Counsel for the plaintiff immediately entered a non-suit.

WEDDING BELLS.

LEE—HUDSON.

A beautiful wedding was solemnized at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. George Hudson, near town, on Thursday evening at five o'clock, when Miss Ida Morse, their popular daughter, became the bride of Mr. Mahlon P. Lee, son of Mr. Vincent Lee, of near Fairlee. The interior of the house was beautifully decorated with holly, evergreen and mistletoe, and promptly at the appointed hour, in response to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, very skilfully rendered by Mrs. Warren, of Fairlee, the bride and groom entered the parlor, preceded by Dr. Frank Smith, of Fairlee, as best man, and Miss Eva Foxwell, of Black's, a relative of the bride, as maid of honor, where, under a magnificent triple arch of evergreen and mistletoe, from which was suspended a pure white dove, the impressive ring ceremony was performed by Rev. W. E. Habbart, pastor of Salem M. E. Church, in the presence of the immediate relatives and families of the contracting parties. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of golden brown Princess taffeta, with trimmings of point de gauze lace and chiffon over old gold satin. She carried a shower bouquet of white chrysanthemums. The bridesmaid's costume was a beautiful gown of wood color mode with trimmings to match, and she carried a shower bouquet of pink chrysanthemums. The groom and best man wore the conventional black, with bouttonieres. Immediately following the ceremony a sumptuous wedding supper was served. The happy couple left for Betterton at 7.30 o'clock, where they took passage on the steamer for a wedding trip of points North. The bride's going away gown was mode, with hat and gloves to match. The bride and groom were the recipients of numerous and handsome presents, consisting of cut glass, silver and chinaware, among them being a handsome set of Havelin china, the gift of Mr. Oscar Turner, of Philadelphia, a relative of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Lee will be "at home" on the Legg home farm after January 1.

Brilliant Dance at Betterton.

The young men of Still Pond gave a brilliant dance in the Chesapeake House, Betterton, on Friday night last. The spacious dance hall of the hotel was beautifully decorated with potted plants and evergreens, and Iula's orchestra of three pieces, violin, harp and flute, furnished inspiring music for the patrons of the terpsichorean art. Refreshments were served at twelve o'clock, in charge of the hotel caterers. The patronesses were Mrs. Harry Davis, Mrs. Harry C. Price, Mrs. A. N. Stavely and Mrs. C. H. Price. Committee on invitations—Messrs. Edward Hepbron, Edwin R. Wallis, Walter H. Davis and Harry D. Hendrickson. Among those present were: From Baltimore—Mr. and Mrs. J. Roy Roseberry, Miss Jessie Roseberry, Mr. John Thomas Morris, Mr. Rowland Parks and Mr. Seaman. Cecilton—Misses Julia Deshane and Mamie Jones. Edesville—Misses May Morgan, Mary Strong and sister, Bessie Wilson, May Sutton, Blanche Deford, Lena Jessup, and Messrs. Joe Price, Hynson Beck, George Deford, Page Strong and Charles Jessop. Warwick—Miss Julia Lockwood. Galena—Miss Fannie Woodall, and Messrs. James Woodall, Wm. Hyland and Andrew McCauley. Kennedyville—Miss Lizzie Pennington, and Messrs. Wooters for $1000; No. 11—Reversionary interest in lot on Main street to C. E. Lane, for $200. Lots Nos. 1, 4, 5, 7, 8 and 10 were not sold. The total amount of sales was $2,675. The property now occupied by Dr. J. H. Latimer, and advertised in the TRANSCRIPT was not sold.

CHURCH NOTES.

Chestertown M. E. Church, preaching at 10.30 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. Sunday school at 2.15 p. m. Epworth League meeting at 6.45 p. m. Morning subject, "Divine Supplements for Human Infirmities;" evening, "Bring him hither to me." All are cordially invited.

Kennedyville M. P. Church, Rev. R. S. Rowe, pastor. Subjects of sermons for Sunday, December 11th: 10.30 a.m., "The Lord's omniscient, omnipercipient, and omnipresent providence." 7 p. m., "Wherefore do the wicked live."

Rev. Dr. D. L. Greenfield is preaching a series of very interesting Sunday evening sermons on the prominent women of the Bible. Last Sunday evening he delivered a splendid sermon on Mary, of Magdala.

The Christian Workers Service in Christ M. P. Church last Sunday evening was led by Mrs. Ralph Barnett. An interesting address by the leader, a reading by Miss Mamie Thompson, and a quartette and duet were the features of the program.

Rev. W. L. White preached a splendid sermon in the Chestertown M. E. Church last Sunday evening to Camp No. 58 Daughters of America. The other Secret Societies of the town were invited to participate in the services, and delegations from each order met at Fraternal Hall at 7 o'clock and marched to the church in a body where they heard a very interesting and helpful sermon. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with potted plants, the stars and stripes and in the center of all was a large eagle ready for flight. Splendid music was rendered by the choir under the direction of Dr. A. S. Hall.

Fifty thousand delegates are expected to attend the twenty second International Christian Endeavor Convention in Baltimore, July 5-10, 1905. A working force of 3000 will form the various committees and a choir of 2500 voices will be led by a $5000 organ, built for the occasion in the Fifth Regiment Armory, Baltimore. The convention proper will be held in the Armory, seating 17,800, and in Lyric Hall, seating 3500, while over-flow meetings will be held in Christian Endeavor Churches. Out door sessions may also be held on Mount Royal Station grounds. A fund of $20,000 for expenses is being raised by the sale of Convention stock at $1 a share, and $1 will be charged delegates on registiation to aid the fund. "Citizenship Day," closing the Convention will have eminent speakers from all parts of the country, leaders in civic advancement. The convention will likely prove the most successful in the history of the movement.

Christ Meth. Prot. Church, Rev. D. L. Greenfield, pastor. 9.30 A. M., speciel prayer for revival; 10.30 A. M., "The Ointment of Spikenard;" 2.30 P. M., Sunday school; 6.15 P. M., Junior Endeavor meeting; 6.45 P.M., Christian Workers' Hour, Mrs. J. L. Smyth, leader; 7.30 P. M., "Women of Christ's Circle. The Sisters of Bethany."

Rev. J. Gibson Gantt, of the North East P. E. Church, delivered an interesting lecture in Cambridge, Md., on Wednesday evening on his impressions of the recent great missionary gathering in Boston.

An adjourned meeting of the New Castle Presbytery was held in Newark Church on Tuesday. The principal business was to dissolve the pastoral relations between Rev. James T. McLean and Green Hill Church and to receive Mr. Warrington, of the senior class of Delaware College, as a candidate for the ministry.

The W. H. M. S. will meet at home of Mrs. J. P. Ahern, in Millington, on Thursday, Dec. 15 at 7. p. m. A good attendance is desired.

The celebration of the 77th anniversary of St. John's, Liberty Street, and the Fourth anniversary of Clark Memorial, Independent Methodist Church, Baltimore, Rev. J.S. Bowers, pastor, will begin to-morrow, Sunday morning, at 11 o'clock and continue during the coming week. The Anniversary sermon will be preached by Rev. J. L. Mills, D. D., of South Baltimore Methodist Protestant Church, tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. Sermons will be delivered during the week by Rev. W. H. Dunbar, D. D., of St. Mark's English Lutheran Church, Rev. C. H. Richardson, D. D., Presiding Elder Baltimore Conference M. E. Church, Rev. John Timothy Stone, of Brown Memorial Presbyterian Church, Rev. J. M. Holmes, West Baltimore M. P. Church, Rev. John Baker, evangelist and by Rev T. H. Lewis, D. D., President of Western Maryland College. Daniel Baker, Esq., will deliver an address to the Sunday School tomorrow afternoon. It was in old St John's, Libert street, that Methodist Protestantism had its birth in 1828, and while the church itself has been independent in polity and work, it has always maintained a strong relation to the Methodist Protestant Church, and all of the ministers who have served it have been members of the Methodist Protestant Conference. Clark Memorial, the development of old St. John's, has been built during the pastorate of Rev. Mr. Bowers, and it is one of the strongest churches and most imposing structures in the city. It is situated on the corner of St. Paul's and 27th Streets, in a beautiful and growing section of the city.

The services at the Christian Workers hour in Christ M. P. Church will be led tomorrow (Sunday) evening by Mrs. J. L. Smyth. Everyone is welcome.

Sale Record.

Quite a number of real estate and personal property sales are advertised for the month of Decemuber and later and we publish this morning a record of the dates. They are advertised in the TRANSCRIPT as follows:

Saturday, Dec. 10—Public sale of cattle at Kennedyville, S. G. Caldwell, owner, George W. Padley, auctioneer.

Tuesday, Dec. 13—House and lot of land on Front street, occupied for many years by the late Miss Josephine Redue. Hope H. Barroll and Richard D. Hynson, Esqs., Attorneys for owner. Chas. H. Hurlock, auctioneer.

Tuesday, Dec. 13—House and lot of land near Sassafras. Hope H. Barroll, Esq., trustee, Chas. H. Hurlock, Auct.

Monday, Dec. 26—William Vansant personal sale property, on farm where he now resides near Flatland school house. Chas. H. Hurlock, auctioneer.

Wednesday, Dec. 28th—Personal property sale of Mr. George Faulkner, on his farm near Fairlee. Lewin W. Wickes, Esq., attorney; John H. Greenwood, auctioneer.

W. F. M. S. Tea.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of Christ Methodist Protestant Church gave a splendid "Tea" at the home of Mrs. Benj. F. Fleming, on Front street, Wednesday evening, from 5 to 8. The house was brilliant with light cast by beautifully shaded lamps, and the "tea table" was beautiful in its appropriate decoration of red and white, tastefully arranged by Mrs. Wilbur W. Hubbard. Mrs. Fleming was assisted in receiving the guests by the following reception committee: Mrs. W. J. Vannort, Mrs. Alice McFeely, Mrs. Wilbur W. Hubbard and Mrs. D. L. Greenfield. Miss Mary Fleming ushered the guests into the dining room, where they were served with delicious salad, Maryland biscuit, chocolate, coffee and olives, by Misses Avis Dodd, Bessie Sheppard, Nellie Nicholson, Ethel Bacchus and Augusta Aldridge, under the superintendence of Miss Margaret Plummer, Mrs. J. D. Bacchus and Mrs. Wm. R. Aldridge. Mrs. Fleming has an enviable reputation for her skill in preparing delicacies, and the chicken salad served on Wednesday evening was a most splendid endorsement of that reputation. Splendid music was furnished by Messrs. Stephens, Porter and Garrison, of Washington College, with mandolins and guitars, and by Miss Ethel Price and Master James Bacchus on the piano. Master Roberts Greenfield served as treasurer and received the guests at the door. Nearly 100 guests were present and a delightful time was spent socially. The receipts amounted to $27.

The Sleigh Bells.

Sixth of December, 1904, and the sleigh bells began to jingle for the first time this winter. Well, that is a little early, because the sun does not go into winter solstice until Dec. 21; but early as it was the snow man did not catch many of our citizens napping, and what kind nature had provided the day before was enjoyed by lovers of the carnival on Tuesday morning. The small boy and girl with their sleds coasting on hill and street were also much in evidence, and everything presented the appearance of a typical winter scene. Among the first day drivers were Hope H. Barroll, Esq., Mrs. Thomas W. Eliason and daughter, Miss Irma, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hubbard, Mrs. Annie Hayes, Miss Susie Belle Culp, Miss Jefferson, Mr. Robert McWhorter, Mr. Wm. Hendricks, Col. Josiah Massey and Mr. John Hudson. Sleighing was not very good and consequently there was no speeding. But just wait until the first good sleighing snow comes, and then you'll see the racers from town and country make rare sport for the spectators along the sidewalks.

National and State Officials in Town.—National Bank Examiner W. T. Albertsen was in town this week and examined the affairs of the Second National Bank. He found the financial affairs of the institution in excellent shape. State Auditor George R. Ash was in Chestertown on Tuesday on official business. He found the financial affairs of the offices under his jurisdiction in fine condition.
