LOCAL MATTERS.

Marriage Licenses.— The following marriage licenses have been issued by Clerk of the Court Dixon this week: Martin Taylor and Anna Shriver, both of Quaker Neck; Mahlon P. Lee and Ida Morse Hudson, both of Worton.

Rumored Removal of Railroad Offices.—A special correspondent of the Wilmington Every Evening says: "The fact that the Dover residence of R. L. Holiday, Superintendent of the Delaware Division of the Pennsylvania railroad is offered for sale, has given rise to the rumor that the railroad offices at Clayton will be moved to Wilmington. Among those who are bidding for Mr. Holiday's residence, is Mr. Harry A. Richardson, who it is said, wishes to obtain it for his son, Albert B. Richardson."

M. W. of A. Elects New Officers.— The Modern Woodmen of America at their meeting in Fraternal Hall on Thursday evening elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Consul, J. H. Sides; worthy advisor, S. R. Matthews; clerk, J. W. Barnes; escort, C. L. Dodd; watchman, S. E. Cooper; managers, Walter U. Lusby, 3 years; F. E. Dayer, 2 years; C. J. Reiche, 1 year; chief forester, W. H. Lambert, Jr.; forester, M. W. Thomas.

Mr. Massey Takes a Prize.—Among the Maryland farmers who have been awarded prizes for their products at the St. Louis Exposition by the Maryland World's Fair Commission, of which Mr. W. L. Amos, State Farmers' Institute Director, was in charge, is Mr. E. Thomas Massey, one of our enterprising and progressive up-the-county farmers. Mr. Massey was awarded a bronze medal for his exhibit of grass seed. This is quite a compliment to Kent county, as Mr. Massey's exhibit came into competition with exhibits from Cecil and other hay and grass producing sections.

A Narrow Escape.— Mr. Harvey Freeman made rather a narrow escape from serious injury one day last week. Mr. Freeman was on his traction engine enroute to a farm near Galena. He was stoking the fire in the engine while it was in motion, and the handle of the poker got caught in the wheel, throwing Mr. Freeman backward to the ground. The wheels of the corn sheller attached to the engine struck Mr. Freeman, but instead of passing over his body he was pushed along the road for some distance before the engine could be stopped. Mr. Freeman escaped with a slight shaking up, but it was a most fortunate escape from a painful injury.

A Valuable Contribution.—Mr. G. Hines Thomas, who is superintendent of a large nursery at Mitchellsville, Prince George's county, has contributed to the public squares of his native town, Chestertown, two splendid specimens of the Grande Flora Magnolia. These trees are valuable not only because of their rarity, but also because of the magnificence of their bloom when it matures. The Ladies' Town Improvement Society appreciates the gift of Mr. Thomas very much, and the ladies will see that they are properly cared for. Officer Hudson planted the trees on Monday morning in the square near the TRANSCRIPT office. Others who are interested in the beautifying of the public squares have promised rare plants, and it is the object of the ladies to place as many rare plants as possible in the square instead of flowers.

Sheriff Keyser Captures Prisioners.

Sheriff Lionel J. Keyser figured very conspicuously in the arrest of two prisoners on Thursday, one of whom was Emory Sewell, arrested at Kennedyville for violating the local option law, but who "skipped" while trying to secure bail, and the other, Thomas Wright, who escaped from the Easton jail some nights ago. Sheriff Keyser was notified by the authorities at Kennedyville that Sewell had "skipped bail," and while talking over the 'phone to the authorities at Townsend, whither he thought Sewell had gone, he learned that the authorities there had two suspects. He was asked to call up Easton. He got a description from the sheriff at Easton of the jail-bird and forwarded it to Townsend, with instructions to hold both until his arrival on the afternoon train Thursday. When the Sheriff reached Townsend he found that both suspects were the men wanted. He telegraphed to Easton to the sheriff to come on and get his man, and he brought Sewell to Chestertown and lodged him in jail. Wright was taken to Easton later.

*†*It is said that there will be more money invested in fishing outfits this season by the fishermen of Rock Hall than ever before. Mr. E. E. Leary alone has received orders for about 2,500 lbs. of thread and cotton net, while others have bought their rigs in Baltimore and Penn's Grove, N. J.

LITTLE LOCALS.

*†*Jarrell is paying 34 cents per dozen for eggs to-day.

*†*Roland Bros. have had on sale this week venison, which they retailed at 30 cents per pound.

*†*Snow No. 2 came on Monday. The weather man says there are to be eleven more before the winter is over.

*†*Mr. W. E. Crew, of near town, has purchased of Mrs. A. M. Startt a dwelling and lot in the village of Worton.

*†*State Veterinarian G. Allen Jarman has sold his fine bay stallion, Alcantell, record 2.45, to Mr. Walter T. Morris.

*†*William C. Sutton, the plumber, is installing a vapor heating plant in Dr. H. Benge Simmons' new residence on Spring avenue.

*†*Master Henry Lambert says Old Kris is coming to Chestertown this year in a "flying machine." He says he will stop at his house first.

*†*Master Murrel Dunbracco has accepted a position as assistant secretary and typewriter in the law offices of Hope H. Barroll, Esq.

*†*The young men of Chestertown are preparing to hold their annual Christmas dance in Stam's Hall Thursday evening, Dec. 29.

*†*The Emma A. Ford landed about 45 head of fine beef cattle on Tuesday at her Chestertown wharf for Mr. J. Walter Skirven.

*†*The usual rush of Christmas express matter is on now, but expressman John Matthews is equal to the emergency and is giving excellent service.

*†*The teachers and pupils of the public school are preparing to give a fine entertainment in the Assembly Hall of the school on Friday next, December 16.

*†*A jury at Easton awarded Robert J. Allen $10,000 damages for injuries received by being thrown from a train of the P., B. & W. Railroad at Seaford, Del. The suit was for $20,000.

*†*The close of this week finds our town and county merchants well prepared with a most excellent assortment of Christmas goods. A perusal of the TRANSCRIPT'S advertising columns this morning will let you know where to make your purchases.

*†*Boys and girls, do not forget your letters to Old Kriss. They are coming in from all over the county, but there is room for more. The letters will appear in the issue of Dec. 17th. Letters received until Thursday evening, December 15.

*†*The Ladies Town Improvement Association are complaining very much about the injury to the drinking fountain on the public square due to children playing on and around it. They offer a reward of $25 for information as to who broke the urns off the basin.

*†*Eggs have reached the 35-cent mark in Baltimore, and are reported very scarce. They will probably go above 50 cents before Christmas. Oysters were selling for $1.10 a bushel on Monday. The holiday rush is almost due, and then down will go the prices.

*†*The small boy and girl have enjoyed rare sport this week coasting on Eliason's hill and down the new pavement leading from Washington College to town. The latter place was especially fine, and the sport was enjoyed by many of the college young ladies.

*†*Mr. Jas. A. Coleman and Geo. Gardner have caught together in two days this week four dozen terrapins and 10 turtles. The terrapins have found ready sale at $2 per dozen, and not a few of our citizens have enjoyed turtle soup during the week. Capt. Jim is the champion turtle catcher on de Sho.

*†*Wild geese are making their appearance in the wheat fields and along the shores of the creeks and salt water streams of the county. Capt. W. C. A. Thompson is keeping his weather eye on the wily birds, and he will no doubt bring down more than one goose this winter.

*†*The consolidation of several of the public schools in Talbot county is proving successful. A large wagon is being used to carry the children to and from school, and the plan is so successful that many children who have not heretofore attended school are now availing themselves of the opportunity.

*†*Why not arrange a series of class races to be run off the first good sleighing snow we have? It has been suggested that the merchants offer prizes for these races on the supposition that the sport would be a drawing card for them. We are sure that arrangements could be made for an afternoon of fine sport, and the TRANSCRIPT will assist any movement in this direction.

*†*Quite a number of Kent county people are seeking employment for the winter in the South. Messrs. R. Shriver, Richard and Eugene Neal and Perry Benny have gone to Boloxi, Miss., where they will engage in oyster packing until spring. Capt. W. J. Henry and Mr. George A. Urie and families have gone to Alabama to engage in the same employment.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Dora Estelle Crew, of Centreville, formerly of Betterton, to Mr. Alfred Trickett McDormon, of Baltimore. The coremony will take place at the M. E. Church, Betterton, at hign noon, on Wednesday, Dec. 21st. Miss Crew is well known in the upper section of the county. Mr. McDorman is a graduate of Washington college.

OBITUARY.

HORACE CONSTABLE.

News of the death of Horace Constable, Esq., formerly a prominent lawyer of Chestertown, reached here on Wednesday evening from Wyoming, where Mr. Constable had gone some months ago for the benefit of his health. Mr. Constable died on Tuesday of heart failure, aged 31 years. He was the son of the late Stevenson and Alice Constable, of this county, and was a member of one of the oldest and most prominent families in Kent. He studied law in the office of State's Attorney William W. Beck, a relative, and was admitted to the bar April 25, 1903. Shortly after entering upon the duties of his profession Mr. Constable's health failed, and he sought the climate of the West in the hope that he would be benefitted. Having reached Wyoming he began the practice of law, and was building up a splendid practice, but the fangs of the dread disease had been so firmly fastened to his system that he was compelled to relinquish his work. The death of Mr. Constable is particularly sad. To those who know him best he was a young man of most excellent character, and his attainments were such that had he enjoyed good health he would have risen to prominence and usefulness in his chosen profession. He was one of our young men whose personality was so strong that he made and retained friends wherever he went, and his death coming in the prime of his manhood is mourned by the host of friends he made while in Kent.

The remains left the East on Wednesday morning and are expected to reach Chestertown by the Kent train Monday noon, when they will be taken to St. Paul's, where funeral services will be held. Interment will be made in St. Paul's, services conducted by Rev. C. T. Denroche and Rev. H. B. Martin. The pall-bearers will be Richard D. Hynson, Lewin W. Wickes and Wm. W. Beck, Esqs., and Messrs. Charles Jessup, James G. Beck and Stirling Jones. The deceased is survived by two sisters —Mrs. Percy Skirven, of Chicago, and Miss Blanche Constable, of Chestertown, and one brother, Mr. Stevenson Constable, of Baltimore. Undertaker John N. Dodd will have charge of the funeral arrangements.

MARY D. URIE.

Mary D., the interesting little year old daughter of Dr. and Mr. J. W. Urie, died at her parents' home, 1512 Madison Ave., Baltimore, on Sunday afternoon last of meningitis. The body was brought to Kent by the way of Betterton on Monday and taken in charge by Undertaker W. H. Krusen and transferred to the home of her uncle, William Parr. Funeral and interment took place Tuesday at 2 P. M. Rev. T. F. Beauchamp officiating.

EFFIE MABEL CROSSLEY.

Effie Mabel, the two year and seven-months old daughter of Nathan B. and Anona Crossley, died Sunday afternoon, after an illness of only twenty-four hours, of membraneous croup. She was an only child of a happy and loving young father and mother. All efforts to save the bright and cheerful little one were without avail. After a short service at the home Tuesday afternoon by Rev. D. L. Greenfield, the corpse was taken to Double Creek, Queen Anne's county, where services were held in the Meth. Prot. Church by Rev. Ewing, interment being at that place. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson had charge of the funeral arrangements.

EDWARD ATWELL.

After an illness of only a few days, Edward Atwell died at the residence of his son, ex-county commissioner, Lewis P. Atwell, near Sassafras, Thursday evening, Thanksgiving Day, of last week at 9.30 o'clock, aged 89 years. Mr. Atwell was a remarkable man, and considering his age was most active and vigorous. He leaves a devoted wife and three sons to mourn his death: L. P. Atwell, near Sassafras; John Atwell, of Townsend, and George Atwell, of Still Pond. He is also survived by 22 grandchildren and 7 great-grand-children. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock, Rev. A. P. Prettyman officiating. Interment was made in Townsend cemetery. Six of his grandsons acted as pall bearers.

MRS. LAURA B. COLE.

Mrs. Laura. B. Cole, wife of Nathan B. Cole, a respected resident of Chestertown, died at her home on Cannon street, on Thursday morning at 3.30 o'clock, of pneumonia, aged 48 years. This family has been severely afflicted recently, the husband having but recently recovered from a spell of pneumonia, and at present the child is afflicted with the disease. Funeral services will be held from the late residence this (Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. D. L. Greenfield officiating. Interment will be made in Chester cemetery. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson in charge of funeral arrangements.

New Advertisements.

Our supplement this morning is devoted exclusively to the big Christmas advertisement of Wm. Medders & Co., Still Pond. Mr. Medders is a hustler, and he conducts a hustling business. Splendid assortment of goods, attractive prices, and one of the largest displays on the Eastern Shore. Mr. Medders is a firm believer in the use of printer's ink and this is one of the secrets of his large business success. Keep the supplement for reference.

J. H. Sides, the jeweler, is already for the Christmas trade. His display windows are beautiful in their rich assortment of jewelery, Silverware and handsome ornmanents, and the interior of his store is stocked with a splendid assortment of everything carried in a well equipped jewelery store.

A. Blum is already for the Christmas trade with a splendid assortment of clothing, shoes, millinery, etc. Mr. Blum is one of our busy merchants but always finds time to wait on his many customers. Call to see him.

The Peruna Lucky Day Almanac has become a fixture in over eight million homes. It can be obtained from all druggists free. Be sure to inquire early. The 1905 Almanac is already published, and the supply will soon be exhausted. Do not put it off. See advertisement in this issue. Get one today.

The auction sales of the Canning & Mercantile Company at their Chestertown Store have been discontinued. They give notice this morning that the remainder of their stock will be sold from now until Jan. 1 below cost for cash. See their add in another column.

Abe Cohen, the Sandy Bottem merchant, has a large adv. in this morning's paper telling of his prices on Christmas bargains. Mr. Cohen has the confidence of the people of the county, and he enjoys a large trade because he sells excellent goods. See his adv. elsewhere and note his goods and prices.

Mr. N. Lieberman, the hustling Melitota merchant has a large advertisement in this morning's paper, in which he offers special prices on his goods for the Christmas trade. Mr. Lieberman is offering half price on his goods, and his assortment is such as to please every one. See his advertisement and then go see him.

Mr. J. D. Bacchus, the coal dealer, has recently purchased of Dr. W. F. Hines his woods near town and has installed therein a sawmill. He advertises this morning lumber for frames and wheelwrights. He'll give you a good job for cheap rates if you will see him. His advertisement is on page 1.

A SPLENDID RECITAL.

Peabody Artists Delight a Select and Representative Audience.

Lovers of music could scarcely be anything else than delighted with the splendid recital given in Stam's Hall on Thursday evening by members of the Peabody Conservatory, Baltimore, under the auspices of the Epworth League department of the M. E. Church. A select and representative audience was present to enjoy a well-balanced and finely rendered programme, by artists who have made enviable reputations for themselves in Baltimore city and throughout the State. There were just a sufficient number of classical and popular selections to please the musical ear of those who love to hear either class well-played and sung. Miss Ascherfeld is a pianist of rare skill. Indeed she belongs to a musical family. Her father, though now grown old in years, is still vivacious or sympathetic as an author of songs and instrumental music. Miss Ascherfeld's playing displayed her power as a musician to most excellent advantage and evidences how accurate is the training which students at the Peabody may receive, though at present she is a member of the teaching staff. Her selections both classical and popular were enthusiastically received by the audience.

Mr. Moses, the violinist, has few superiors as an artist in this country. His interpretation of his themes is so accurate, the accuracy of his fingering so precise, and the purity of the tones produced are all so marked, that indeed the artist seems to loose himself to all save the divine harmony of his sweet violin, and with the skill which few violinists possess, he draws the bow across the strings and music almost divine is produced. It is not the first time we have heard Mr. Moses play. But wherever he may be, in city or town, before audiences large or small, he is always the same delightfully skillful player. This is so much more than can be said of many violinists, and to be able to make the statement regarding Mr. Moses' playing is the secret of his success and popularity all over the State as a violinist. He simply delights his audience every time he plays.

Miss Nelson, the soprano, has a sweet voice of fine range, and while her singing was of a very high character and her selections were more popular than classical, yet she gave her audience the impression that she has not yet become accustomed to the stage, and her manner was not quite so pleasing as it will be when she becomes more accustomed to singing before critical audiences. Her manner affected her singing but little, however, as her voice was just the kind that appeals to the sympathy of her audience. Altogether the recital was a marked success, and sustained the high reputation which the Peabody artists enjoy throughout the State. An audience of about 150 greeted the performers.

CHARITY HOSPITALS AND NURSES

RELY ON PE-RU-NA TO CURE COUGHS, COLDS, GRIP, CATARRH.

Charitable Institutions All Over the United States and Canada are Curing their Patients of Catarrhal Ailments With Pe-ru-na.

WONDERFUL RESULTS EXPERIENCED—PE-RU-NA A FAVORITE MEDICINE.

From a Catholic institution in Ohio comes the following recommend from the Sister Superior:

"Some years ago a friend of our institution recommended to us Dr. Hartman's Peruna as an excellent remedy for the influenza of which we then had several cases which threatened to be of a serious character.

"We began to use it and experienced such wonderful results that since then Peruna has become our favorite medicine for influenza, catarrh, cold, cough and bronchitis."—Sister Superior.

A Letter From Detroit.

Dr. S. B. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio:

Dear Sir:—"The young girl who used the Peruna was suffering from laryngitis, and loss of voice. The result of the treatment was most satisfactory. She found great relief, and after further use of the medicine we hope to be able to say she is entirely cured."—Sisters of Charity.

This young girl was under the care of the Sisters of Charity and used Peruna for catarrh of the throat, with good results as the above letter testifies.

Pe-ru-na of Great Service.

Another recommend from a Catholic institution in one of the Central States reads as follows:

"A number of years ago our attention was called to Dr. Hartman's Peruna, and since then we have used it with wonderful results for grip, coughs, colds and catarrhal diseases.

"For grip and winter catarrh especially it has been of great service to the inmates of this institution."—Sister Superior.

These are samples of letters received by Dr. Hartman from the various orders of Catholic Sisters throughout the United States and Canada.

The names and addresses have been withheld from respect to the Sisters, but will be furnished upon request.

In every country of the civilized world the Sisters of Charity are known.

Not only do they minister to the spiritual and intellectual needs of those with whom they come in contact, but they minister to their bodily needs.

They are as skilled as trained nurses in their treatment of diseases and are looked upon as messengers of good cheer by countless patient sufferers.

Praise From Canada.

Another prominent Canadian institution writes:

"We are happy to tell you that Peruna has given us satisfaction.

"Three patients have tried it, one sixty-eight years old, Renoui Dupuis, afflicted with catarrh, is much relieved, more than he has been for a number of years.

"A young girl, fifteen years old, had an obstinate cough, which half a bottle of Peruna caused to disappear.

"As to myself, two bottles have convinced me that Peruna is magnificent as a tonic. Before the treatment I could not walk for a quarter of an hour without experiencing much fatigue. Now I can walk a mile easily.

"Through these three cases we desire to make known to the public the efficiency of your remedy."

Another letter received from the same institution reads as follows:

"Three weeks ago I wrote to tell you how satisfactory we found Peruna. We recommend it highly for colds, coughs, catarrh and neuralgia.

"I have used it myself as a tonic with the best results, taken as directed half a teaspoonful every half hour."

A remedy that would act immediately upon the congested mucous membrane, restoring it to its normal state, would consequently cure all these diseases.

Pe-ru-na Contains No Narcotics.

One reason why Peruna has found permanent use in so many homes is that it contains no narcotics of any kind. Peruna is perfectly harmless. It can be used any length of time without acquiring a drug habit. Peruna does not produce temporary results. It is permanent in its effect.

It has no bad effect upon the system, and gradually eliminates catarrh by removing the cause of catarrh. There are a multitude of homes where Peruna has been used off and on for twenty years. Such a thing could not be possible if Peruna contained any drugs of a narcotic nature.

JEWELRY STORE.

Things for Xmas.

Almost everybody desires to make somebody else presents, but the puzzling questions are, what shall I get? and where can I find something suitable and appropriate? in other words, you are "at sea" about your Xmas buying. We are ready and waiting to help you out with our which includes something for every person, something for every purse. We acknowledge a more than common pride in our holiday display this season. Never before have we shown such a variety of desirable goods. Our store is packed with about five times as many goods as any other jewelry store in this section of the country, and all we ask is a comparison of prices with others, and you will see you can save money by dealing with us, and when you buy an article from us you can rest assured it will be as requested. We mark everything in plain figures, and do not take advantage of your confidence on things you know nothing about. We would like to enumerate some of the things we have in stock, but space will not permit. Don't buy until you have made a visit to our store. One look will convince you that we are headquarters.

Articles bought here will be engraved free of charge.
