LOCAL MATTERS.

Price's Mill Sold.—Messrs. Morris and Brown, who recently purchased of Mr. Harry Moore, the Price's Mill property, situated near St. Paul's Church, have resold the same to Mr. Paul Wilson, of Rock Hall.

Marriage Licenses.—The following licenses have been issued during the week: George Clough, of Queen Anne's and Ida L. Nicholson, of Kent; John N. Thomas, and Mattie Taylor, both of Kent; J. Page Gale, of Kent, and Anna L. Jester, of Queen Annes; William A. Dadds and Daisy Knotts, of Kent.

Dogs Kill Sheep.—Dogs got into drover Grollman's sheep on the Simm's farm near town this week, and killed and wounded 27. The dogs were seen attacking the sheep, but before the man could get to the farm house and secure a gun, the dogs had killed 8 sheep and wounded the rest. Three dogs were killed.

Presented for Murder.—The grand jury of the Circuit court of Cecil county now in session at Elkton, have brought in presentments against Wm. Hopps and John Holland, the two nergroes who were arrested on Suspicion the day following the murder of the late Albert Constable. Reports from Elkton are to the effect that the negroes will be indicted and then trial will take place next week.

Change of Schedule.—The Chester River Steamboat Company has ordered a change of schedule on the Chester River route. On an after Monday, Dce. 19th, the time for leaving Baltimore will be 2. P. M. instead of at 10.30 A. M. as heretofore. No change in the time of leaving Chestertown. The change in the time of leaving Baltimore will give passengers a longer time in the city for shopping and the transaction of business.

Business Changes Hands.—The Mercantile business heretofore conducted at Worton, by Mr. A. S. Turner has been sold by Mr. Turner, to Mr. Guy Turner and Mr. Samuel Mann, Jr. Mr. A. S. Turner will hereafter devote his entire time to the purchase of grain. Mr. Guy Turner is a brother of Mr. A. S. Turner and both he and Mr. Mann are young men of experience and popular in the town and vicinity of Worton. The change will be made Jan. 1.

Letters to Santa Claus.—Parents, read the letters written by the boys and girls to Santa Cláus in this morning's paper. They will give you a most excellent idea of childish simplicity and their little wants. These letters have all been forwarded this morning by mail to dear Old Santa, and the TRANSCRIPT hopes that every boy and girl in Cecil, Kent and Queen Anne's counties will find in his stocking on Christmas morning every thing for which they have asked.

Tolchester Company Withdraws Boats.—On account of the heavy ice in the upper bay and Sassafras and Susquehanna rivers, the Tolchester Company has been compelled to discontinue running their boats on the above routes for the present. Their winter schedule will be found in another column. The ice blockade at this early time in the winter is something almost unprecedented in the history of river navigation. The Chester River boats are still running.

Accidents.—Mr. George C. Vandyke, formerly of Kent, but now employed on the steamer Anthony Groves of the Ericsson Line, had one of his fingers badly crushed while enroute from Philadelphia. The accident occured at Delaware city. The wound was dressed at the Marine Hospital, Baltimore. In his efforts to grub up a large tree, Mr. George Parks, of Rock Hall, had both legs broken below the knees by the tree falling upon him. He is resting comfortably at this writing.

"Oh Say" Behind The Bars.—The jury in the trial of Jessie Hinton, colored, who figured as "Oh, Say," the Snake Eater, in Layton's Carnival Shows, which exhibited in Chestertown, June last, who was charged with the murder Carrie Ford, a 15-year-old colored girl, of Chestertown, in Wilmington on October 1, on Saturday found a verdict of manslaughter. Hinton swore that the girl was jealous of him and attacked him with a razor, forcing him to shoot her in self-defense. He was fined $1,000 and given five years' imprisonment.

Work of Rural Routes.—Up to June 30th last, there had been established in Maryland 330 rural free-delivery routes. On these routes were delivered, during the past fiscal year, 11,920 registered letters, 3,400,000 letters, 735,000 postal cards, 5,896,000 papers, 146,000 circulars, 315,000 packages; making a total of 11,505,000 peices handled. The value of the stamps canceled on matter collected by rural carriers in Maryland was $42,717 and the money paid to these carriers for salaries was $178,663. Stamps on the matter delivered by these carriers in Maryland are valued at $111,159. In this respect Maryland makes a better showing than the average State.

LITTLE LOCALS.

*†*Do you think it will snow?

*†*Mr. Younger has been appointed assistant janitor at Washington College.

*†*Skating has been enjoyed on the ponds and docks in and near town during the week.

*†*The Baltimore Sun's marriage license column contained the following on Thursday; Samuel M. Armstrong, Rock Hall, Md., Lila L. Slinkman.

*†*The Kent train has been arriving in Chestertown late during the week, owing to heavy freight and express matter.

*†*Wild ducks seem to be taking the place of chickens and turkeys in local markets. Quite a number have been on sale this week.

*†*Treasurer Walter H. Hadaway has collected during the week $10,202.59 in county and State taxes. His collections last month amounted to $8,334.49.

*†*Mr. Ferderick Humbert has been appointed janitor of the Court House, by the Board of County Commissioners to succeed Mr. W. H. Rollison deceased.

*†*Mr. Walter T. Morris has traded his fine horse Alcantell to Mr. Wm. Baxter, for a five year-old, formerly owned by Mr. Baxter. This is one of the results of the sleighing carnival.

*†*Mr. Charles H. Crew has moved to the White House farm near Kennedyville, and Mr. Earle Nicholson will till the farm where Mr. Crew lived last year.

*†*The Christmas recess at Washington College will begin on Wendesday next, Dec. 21, and continue to Wednesday Jan. 4th, 1905. All of the students will be home for Christmas.

*†*Capt. W. W. Wheeler, of Betterton, was accidentally shot in the nose on Monday while gunning for ducks and geese. The wound is not serious, as only several shot entered the nose.

*†*Daisy, the eight year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Patrick, living near town, was severely burned about the head, face and hands on Friday night last.

*†*Dr. J. W. Cooper, County Health Office for Cecil county, reports that the diptheria patients at Sassafras have recovered and no new cases have developed.

*†*Mrs. J. Hydie Thompson has presented to the City Hospital, Baltimore, a handsome palm. Sister Superior has acknowledged the gift in an appreciative letter.

*†*One of the most popular turnouts on the snow during the week was that of Mr. George Hudson. Mr. Hudson may have been seen any afternoon this week "loaded up" with boys in his comfortable basket sleigh.

*†*Our oldest residents scarcely remember a winter when ice formed on the Chester river Dec. 10th. The Emma A. Ford broke about one-half inch ice on leaving her Chestertown wharf on Monday morning.

*†*A part of the corn crop of many of our farmers was caught out in the fields in the heavy snow storm of Saturday, and many of them have been put to considerable inconvenience on account of the early advent of winter.

*†*Little boys should be very careful about riding on the runners of sleighs up and down High street during the racing. One little boy had a very narrow escape from a very serious injury on Monday afternoon while indulging in this dangerous sport.

*†*Mr. J. K. Aldridge has sold his lot on Cannon street, opposite the Bacchus coal and wood yard to Mr. J. B. Sappington for $275. The deal was negotiated by J. Waters Russell, real estate. Mr. Sappington will erect a new residence on the lot in the spring.

*†*The Christmas entertainment to be given by the teachers and pupils of the Chestertown public school will be held in the assembly hall of the school on Friday afternoon next, Dec. 23d. A fine programme is being rehearsed for the occasion.

*†*The first of the meetings of the Worton sewing circle was held on Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Willis. As usual, a sumptuous supper was served and a royal good time socially was enjoyed by a representative company.

*†*Maxwell Lodge, I. O. O. F., Rock Hall, has elected the following officials for the ensuing term: N. G., J. A. Greenwood; V. G., J. R. Ryan; Rec. Sec., J. W. Colyer; Finan. Sec., S. B. Colyer; Treas., B. H. Coburn; Chaplain, M. L. Maslin; Representative to Grand Lodge, W. T. Harrison.

*†*The steamer Corscia had a hole stove in her hull by the ice on Wednesday, and she was hauled out and patched up that afternoon. Officials of the Chester River line say they will have to abandon their Chestertown landing if the cold continues. It is likely, however, that the Emma Ford will reach her landing here this afternoon.

*†*The Green Spring Valley Hunt Club, one of the most prominent sporting organizations of Baltimore city, will make their annual visit to Kent on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Dec. 29, 30, and 31st. The last visit of the Club was one of much social pleasure, and several fine fox hunts were enjoyed. The Club owns some of the finest horses and hounds in the State.

*†*The young men of the 5th District held a delightful dance at the K. of P. hall, Rock Hall, last Friday evening. The patronesses were Mesdames John C. Brice, A. Carroll Wilson, J. C. Ringgold, J. Walter Sutton, W. O. Selby. Reception committee was Hynson Beck, J. Raymod Walbert, J. Mack Wilson. The floor committee was Notley O. Wilson, Wm. D. Maslin, Wm. W. Camp, Charles A. Jessup.

*†*The Still Pond Farmers' Club was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. Shafer, Kennedyville, Thursday. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Pennington and Miss Lizzie Pennington, Mr. and Mrs. A. Crawford, Capt. and Mrs. Daniel Hill, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. L. Redmile, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hagan, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller, Judge F. H. Harper, Rev. T. F. Beauchamp, Mr. J. Jarrell. At five o'clock the meeting adjourned to meet at Capt. D. Hill's.

OBITUARY.

MR. JOHN BARCLAY.

Mr. John Barclay, aged about 40 years, Chief Clerk for the Delaware Railroad Co., died suddenly on Saturday about noon at Clayton. He was on his way from his house in the town to his office, when he suddenly fell, having been stricken with heart trouble. Mr. Barclay was one of the most efficient and popular railroad men in Delaware. He leaves a widow, a daughter of Mr. Isaac N. Mills, former superintendent of the Delaware road, and two children. The deceased was also a trustee of Delaware College.

HOARCE B. CONSTABLE.

The remains of Hoarce P. Constable, Esq., whose sad death was recorded in last week's TRANSCRIPT, were brought to Chestertown on Monday by the noon train and conveyed to St. Paul's Church, where funeral services were conducted by Rev. C. T. Denroche, assisted by Rev. Dr. H. B. Martin, of Chestertown. Interment was made in St. Paul's cemetery, where rest the remains of his lamented father and mother. The pall bearers were: Richard D. Hynson, Lewin W. Wickes and William W. Beck, Esqs., and Messrs. Sterling Jones, Charles Jessup and Jas. G. Beck. Undertaker John N. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements.

JOHN LYNCH.

Mr. John Lynch, a well known citizen of Chestertown, died very suddenly at his home on Calvert street, Monday evening last about 8.30 o'clock. The deceased was a pump-maker by trade. He had worked all day Monday in a well on the farm of Mr. H. H. Klinefelter, Queen Anne's county. Upon his return home he ate rather a hearty supper, after which he sat down on a lounge, and had scarcely seated himself when he gave a gasp and expired without uttering a word. He was about 57 years of age, and leaves a widow; also several children by a former marriage. Funeral services were held on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Dr. D. L. Greenfield. Intermeut was made in Chester cemetery. The pall bearers were: Capt. Pen. Jester, Messrs. Wm. F. Malin, Joseph Lewis and Wm. A. Burk.

HENRY R. CARTER.

Henry R. Carter, Esq, one of the most prominent citizens of Cecil county, died at his home, near Singerly, on Monday, after a brief illness, aged 88 years. While walking in his yard on Thursday of last week Mr. Carter suffered a stroke of paralysis, from which he never rallied. Mr. Carter was a son of Robert Carter, who built and operated the first paper mill in the State, which was known as the Cecil Paper Mill. He was an uncle of Mrs. Hiram M. Brown, of Chestertown.

MRS. ELLEN M'KEE.

The Saturday Wilmington Every Evening contained the following death notice: "The body of Mrs. Ellen McKee, widow of William McKee, of Kent county, Md., was taken to Galena yesterday morning. The death of Mrs. McKee occurred at the home of her son-in-law, Francis Sherry, 1832 McClellan street, Philadelphia.

Navigation Seriously Hampered by Early Winter Weather.

The latest reports regarding the ice in the upper part of Chesapeake bay and tributaries are that it will take but a few degrees more of cold to completely block navagation. The Anthony Groves, of the Ericsson line, struck the heaviest ice in her trip at Betterton. Officers of the boat said that the crust in the Chesapeake and Delaware canal was about three inches thick.

The Steamer Susquehanna, of the Tolchester company, failed to make her landings at Betterton and Buckneck, on Monday.

The Steamer Emma A. Ford, in command of Capt. William Taylor encountered solid ice as far down as Booker's wharf on Monday morning and had some trouble on Wednesday and yesterday in getting through her own tracks. The greatest difficulty of course was met in Queenstown, where solid ice several inches thiek has been encountered. The Ford did not fail to make any of her stops, however. It is feared by mariners that the early freeze is an indication of a long and disastrous embargo, such as played havoc with shipping interests last winter.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of Effie Mabel, daughter of Wona A. and Nathan B. Crossley, who departed this life Dec. 4, 1904.

T'was hard to give our darling up,
The flower of our heart,
The one we loved and cherished so
Must we from her depart?

Oh Mabel, little Mabel,
Your voice we loved is stilled,
A place is vacant in our home
That never can be filled.

But God in his infinite wisdom
Sent angels to bear her away,
So good-bye our darling Mabel,
We know you are happy to-day.

J. H. W.

In memory of Laura B. Cole.

In the silent graveyard softly sleeping,
Where the flowers gently wave,
Lies the one we loved so dearly,
in her lonely silent grave.
Time may come and go,
Since we were forced to part,
But time and space cannot efface
The memory from our hearts.
By her husband and children.

WEDDING BELLS.

THOMAS—TAYLOR.

Capt. John N. Thomas and Miss Mattie Taylor, both of Worton, were married at St. James Methodist Protestant parsonage at seven o'clock on Wednesday evening, by Rev. J. M. Sheridan. The bride was becomingly attired in golden brown with hat and gloves to match. They will reside in Worton.

MILLS—BAYLESS.

Dr. William Porter Mills, a son of Rev. Dr. J. L. Mills, formerly a popular pastor of St. James M. P. Church, was married on November 2 to Miss Gertrude Bayless, of Columbia, Mo. Their home will be in Las Vegas, New Mexico.

BUDD—ANDERSON.

Mr. James M. Budd, of Philadelphia, and Miss Cora B. Anderson, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anderson, in Cecilton, on Wednesday by Rev. W. A. Coale, rector of St. Stephen's Church. Mr. and Mrs. Budd left for an extened wedding trip.

TAYLOR—SHRIVER.

Mr. Martin Taylor and Miss Annie Shriver were married at Pomona parsonage by Rev. Milton McCann, Wednesday, evening Dec. 7, 1904. Mr. Taylor took his bride to his home at Cliff City, where they will reside.

CRANOR—SHEETS.

Mr. Eli P. Cranor and Mrs. Emma L. Sheets, both of Chestertown, were married at the home of the bride on Thursday evening at 7 o'clock. Rev. D. L. Greenfield, pastor of Christ M. P. Church, performed the ceremony in the presence of friends and relatives. A reception followed the ceremony. They will reside in Chestertown.

DADDS—KNOTTS.

Mr. William A. Dadds and Daisy Knotts, both of Chestertown, were married at the parsonage, in Pomona, last Wednesday evening at 7.30 o'clock by Rev. Milton McCann. The groom was attended by Mr. William E. Burk as best man, and Miss Agnes R. Knotts acted as bridesmaid.

GALE—JESTER.

The wedding of Mr. Page Gale, a popular young resident of Rock Hall, and Miss Anna L. Jester, daughter of Capt. Pen Jester, of Queen Anne's, took place on Thursday at high noon, in Union M. E. Church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. Arters. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion by the friends of the bride, and a reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Gale left for a wedding trip. They will reside at Rock Hall.

Real Estate Sales.

Auctioneer Charles H. Hurlock, sold yesterday, Tuesday, in front of the Court House, all that lot of land and dwelling situate near Sassafras, formerly owned by the late Dr. Chas. H. B. Massey, advertised in the TRANSCRIPT, to Jesse L. Shepphard, of Middletown, for the sum of $150. H. H. Barroll, at'y.

The house and lot of land situate on the south side of Water street and occupied for many years by the late Miss Josephine Redue, and formerly owned by Miss Elizabeth Comegys, advertised in the TRANSCRIPT, was offered by attorneys Hope H. Barroll and R. D. Hynson, but was held up and can be bought at private sale for $800.

A portion of the Thomas property at Still Pond was sold at public sale on Tuesday by H. H. Barroll, attorney, to Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Warren, for $300. A number of desirable lots were held up and can be purchased at private sale.

CUBAN MINISTER TO THE U. S.

Recommends Pe-ru-na.

Senor Quesada, Cuban Minister to the United States.

Senor Quesada, Cuban Minister to the United States, is an orator born. In an article in The Outlook for July, 1899, by George Kennan, who heard Quesada speak at the Esteban Theater, Mantanzas, Cuba, he said: "I have seen many audiences under the spell of eloquent speech and in the grip of strong emotional excitement; but I have rarely witnessed such a scene as at the close of Quesada's eulogy upon the dead patriot, Marti." In a letter to The Peruna Medicine Company, written from Washington, D. C., Senor Quesada says:

"Peruna I can recommend as a very good medicine. It is an excellent strengthening tonic, and it is also an efficacious cure for the almost universal complaint of catarrh."—Gonzalo De Quesada.

Congressman J. H. Bankhead, of Alabama, one of the most influential members of the House of Representatives, in a letter written from Washington, D. C., gives his endorsement to the great catarrh remedy, Peruna, in the following words:

"Your Peruna is one of the best medicines I ever tried, and no family should be without your remarkable remedy. As a tonic and catarrh cure I know of nothing better."—J. H. Bankhead.

There is but a single medicine which is a radical specific for catarrh. It is Peruna, which has stood a half century test and cured thousands of cases.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O. All correspondence strictly confidential.

Things for Xmas.

Almost everybody desires to make somebody else presents, but the puzzling questions are, what shall I get? and where can I find something suitable and appropriate? in other words, you are "at sea" about your Xmas buying. We are ready and waiting to help you out with our which includes something for every person, something for every purse. We acknowledge a more than common pride in our holiday display this season. Never before have we shown such a variety of desirable goods. Our store is packed with about five times as many goods as any other jewelry store in this section of the country, and all we ask is a comparison of prices with others, and you will see you can save money by dealing with us, and when you buy an article from us you can rest assured it will be as requested. We mark everything in plain figures, and do not take advantage of your confidence on things you know nothing about. We would like to enumerate some of the things we have in stock, but space will not permit. Don't buy until you have made a visit to our store. One look will convince you that we are headquarters.

Articles bought here will be engraved free of charge.
