LOCAL MATTERS.

Marriags Licenses.—The following marriage licenses have been issued during the week: Alfred Trickett McDorman and Dora Estelle Crew; Howard M. Rasin and Grace G. Rasin; Frank Everett and Willie Moffett.

New Rural Route.— The following rural delivery route has been established to commence Jan. 16. Millington, route No. 3, length of route 26 miles, area covered 13 square miles. Population served, 502; number of houses on route, 118. If any of the patrons of the TRANSCRIPT desire the paper forwarded by the new route, we shall be glad to make the change upon notice.

Purchased New Home.—State's Attorney Wm. W. Beck has purchased of Mrs. Helen Kent Shaw her fine suburban home and 50 acres of land fronting on Chester River for $6,500. Mr. Beck, we understand, will occupy his new home after March 1st, 1905, and Mr. Wm. G. Evans and family, who have occupied the mansion since Mrs. Shaw's removal to New York, will move to the residence on Front street now occupied by Mr. Beck and family.

Mrs. Startt Gets Serious Fall.—Mrs. John W. Startt, an estimable lady of Chestertown, while returning from the home of a friend, where she had been to call on Sunday night, fell on the icy pavement in front of the P. E. Church, High street, and broke her arm in two places. Dr. H. L. Dodd was called and set the wounded member. To one of Mrs. Startt's age the wound is very serious, as it will require some time for it to heal. We understand that she is getting along nicely.

Of Interest to Teachers.—The Southern Educational Association will meet this year in Jacksonville, Florida, December 29-31. Many of the most prominent educators of the country will take part in the meetings and deliver addresses upon important educational subjects. Harlan Updegrafft, principal of the Girls' Latin School, Baltimore, is the director for Maryland. He will be glad to furnish plans of the trip. The round trip from Baltimore costs $24.90.

Dr. Corkran Turns Tables.—The case of Zell & Merceret, brokers, against Rev. Dr. Wilbur F. Corkran to recover $3,385.68, which they allege is due them as the result of dealing in stocks by the clergyman, was continued Friday in the superior Court at Wilmington, Del., until the February term. Counsel for the preacher was granted leave to amend his plea, and he will now file a bill of recoupment alleging damages against the brokers of $3500. This is equivalent to a counteer-suit and it is said to be based on the allegation that the firm failed to sell stocks at his direction.

A Seedless Apple.—The Spencer Seedless Apple Company of Baltimore, was incorporated recently. These seedless apples grow as large as the ordinary winter apples, and contain much juice. They are one of the latest varieties to mature in Colorado: in fact, are not thoroughly ripened before the fifteenth of October. But the lateness of the season affects this extraordinary apple not at all; late frosts leave the seedles trees still bearing when all its neighbors with seed are barren and forlorn. The meat is very firm and hard, and they are one of the longest keepers that grow in Grand Valley, Colorda.—In color the apples are red when fully matured.

To Share in Proceeds of a Large Estate.—By tne death of her brother in the City of Albany last week, Mrs. Mary Colby, of Chestertown, will come into possession of some very valuable property in that city. Mrs. Colby's brother left an estate valued at several million dollars, it is said, and one of the provisions in his will is that Mrs. Colby, his sister, be given three three-story houses in a desirable section of the City of Albany. A copy of the will was forwardad to Mrs. Colby last week. It is not known what money value the houses represent, but the income from the renting of them will be more than sufficient to keep Mrs. Colby in comfort and ease during her lifetime.

Fine Mare Injured.—Mr. John Brock's fine driving mare Alice, was painfully injured on Monday while out on the speedway. A black horse driven by a gentleman who lives up the county became unmanageable on the thoroughfare, and as Mr. Brock was driving down Main street the black horse dashed across towards Mr. Bramble's harness store. The shaft of the sleigh to which the black horse was hitched struck the mare on the right shoulder penetrating the flesh some inches, and inflicting rather an ugly wound. Dr. W. Frank Hines was summoned, and he and Mr. Brock hurried the mare to the stable where the wound was carefully dressed and bandaged. If no complications arise, the mare will recover without any trouble. Alice is one of the finest roadsters and drivers in the county, and both Mr. and Mrs. Brock prize her very highly.

C. & O. Canal Sold.—At a meeting of the Board of Public Works, composed of Governor Warfield, State Comptroller Atkinson and State Treasurer Murray Vandiver, held in Annapolis on Thursday, the State's controlling interest in the Chesapeake and Ohio canal was sold to Mr. Fairfax S. Landstreet, representing the Wabash Railroad Company, and vice-president of the Western Maryland Railroad Company, for $155,000. Governor Warfield and Comptroll Atkinson voted together on the proposition to sell, and General Vandiver dissented. This is regarded as a victory for the Wabash railroad.

To Be Tried January 3.—"Not guilty," declared John Holland and William Hopps, both colored, on Monday morning when arraigned before the Elkton Court on the charge of murdering Albert Constable, the well known Elkton lawyer, on Red Hill, on the evening of August 18 last. Both of the accused spoke without the slightest sign of emotion. Asked how they would be tried, before the Court or a jury, each selected the Court. Tuesday, January 3rd, was set by the Court as the day for the trial. Ex-State's Attorney Austin L. Crothers, who has been connected with seven former murder trials, will assist State's Attorney Squire in the prosecution. State Senator Henry M. McCullough and L. Marshall Haines have been assigned as counsel for the prisoners.

LITTLE LOCALS.

† Moving time is near at hand and there will be a great deal of it during the coming week.

† Mr. George Brice has rented his mill property for next year to J. W. Beauchamp & Son.

† Our physicians report the health of the people of the county unusually good at this season of the year.

† The wife of a prominent farmer in Worton sold 20 turkeys one day this week and received $47 for them.

† The dam at the Urieville mill broke on Saturday last, causing considerable damage and inconvenience to travel.

† Coasting on Eliason's hill has been fine during the moonlight nights this week. A crowd of young people have enjoyed the sport each evening.

† Christmas eve, pretty shop windows, fine assortment of goods, and all the merchants of the county and town doing a fine business.

† Oysters are selling for 55 and 60 cts. per bushel, on the bars this week. The Christmas demand is almost unprecedented.

† The Tolchester Company's steamer made her trips to Tolchester on Saturday carrying a crowd of passengers both ways.

† Sleighing continued to be good during the early part of the week, and many were out exercising their fast horses or enjoying the sport.

† "Feed the birds" is the message from the State Game Warden. If you will do so food will be furnished you by your nearest deputy game warden.

† The banks and public offices of the town will be closed on Monday following Christmas and New Year's. See notices by advertisement on front page.

† Sleighing is reported fine in Still Pond and Millington. Many fast horses have been seen on the streets, but we have not learned who has the fastest horse.

† The Christmas number of the "Washington Collegian," the official organ of Washington College, is very interesting. Get a copy and see how well it is edited.

† Rock Hall public school has now enrolled 247 pupils with an average attendance of 200. Prof. Greenwood and his efficient corp of teachers are kept busy with this large attendance.

† Mr. Samuel Latham, manager of the Electric Light plant, had his left arm very painfully injured on Thursday by the blowing out of one of the valves. Dr. H. G. Simpers is rendering medical aid.

† The steamer Emma A. Ford made her first trip to Chestertown on Tuesday under the new schedule. She made excellent time, arriving in Chestertown at exactly seven o'clock.

† Turkeys, geese and ducks have been so scarce in locals markets during the week that it is doubtful if many of us will get a bite of these toothsome morsels at our Christmas dinner.

† Old Kris will likely visit the homes of some of the little boys and girls of the county and town tonight. If he does not get around to see all, he will rest during the Sabbath day and will call to see you early Monday morning.

† Col. Albert Story took Schley Russell over to Sudlersville on Tuesday and cleaned the whole crowd up. Col. Story votes in Queen Anne's, but in most other respects he is a Kent countian.

† George A. Millington, proprietor of the Capitol Hotel, and mayor of Dover during the trolley excitement of 1899, died in his appartments at the hotel on Sunday night. Mr. Millington was well known in Kent County.

† One of our prominent bridge fisherman pulled up his shrimp box the other day, and notwithstanding the river has been covered with two inches of ice, he found a quantity of live shrimp in the box, something unusual for this season.

† Chestertown poultry market revived somewhat yesterday, and a fair supply was on hand. Prices for the local market range as follows: Turkeys, 20 cents; geese, 14 cents; ducks, 14 cents; chickens, 14 cents. Eggs are selling at 34 cents per dozen.

† Master Howard Schofield, of Still Pond, had a very narrow escape from being badly burned at his home Saturday morning. He was standing by the stove while his mother was attending her household duties. His screams brought Mrs. Schofield to his assistance. When she reached his side his clothing was ablaze. Mrs. Schofield is suffering with badly burned hands.

† During the racing on High street on Saturday afternoon the teams driven by Messrs. McGinnes and Jesse H. Usilton collided, damaging Mr. McGinnes' sleigh considerably. Another sleigher had too much speed on in turning the corner at Front and High streets. The sleigh was upset, occupants thrown in a snow bank, but the driver held on to the reins and brought his steed to a standstill in front of the residence of Mr. Hiram M. Brown, on Front St.

† A well-known gentleman in Baltimore, purchased an old rusty hair trunk at the "Old Hoss" sale at Union Station last week. He paid $4 for it at auction. He took it to his home, opened it and found that among other things it contained a package in which were securely wrapped 100 $500 bonds of a prosperous Electric Light plant in one of the largest cities of Georgia. He was offered $250 apiece for the bonds within an hour after the purchase, but at last reports he had refused to sell. This is a case of buying $50,000 for $4.

WEDDING BELLS.

M'DORMAN—CREW.

A beautiful church wedding was solemnized at high noon on Wednesday in Betterton Methodist Episcopal Church, when Dora Estelle, the popular and accomplished daughter of Mr. James T. Crew, of Betterton, became the bride of Mr. Alfred Trickett McDorman, of Baltimore. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with evergreen, holly and mistletoe, and the auditorium was filled with the many friends and relatives of the happy couple. Promptly at the appointed hour to the response of Mendelsshon's wedding march, very skillfully played by Miss Emma Hughes, of Cape Charles City, Va., the bride, attired in a beautiful costume of brown broadcloth, with hat and gloves to match, entered the church on the arm of her brother, Mr. Littleton Crew, by whom she was given away.

She was preceded by the ushers, Mr. Wm. Trickett Giles, of Baltimore, and Mr. Howard Owens, of Betterton, and the maid of honor, Miss Elva Reese, of Harrington, Del., whose gown was also of brown broadcloth. The bridal party was met at the altar by the groom where the impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. T. F. Beauchamp, pastor of Still Pond M. E. Church. Immediately following the ceremony the bridal party was driven to the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. D. C. Crewe, where luncheon was served. Later Mr. and Mrs. McDorman left for a wedding trip to Atlantic City and other points of interest. They will reside on North Broadway, Baltimore. The couple were the recipients of numerous useful and handsome presents.

Mrs. Anna Harvey Lodge and Mr. Edgar Ford, of Wilmington, formerly a popular resident of Chestertown, were married Wednesday night of last week, the ceremony being performed at the home of the bride's mother, 509 West Eighteenth street, Wilmington. The Rev. W. L. S. Murray officiated, and Mr. Wm. H. Jones played the wedding march. A reception followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Ford will reside at 509 West 18th street.

OBITUARY.

ISAAC DUYER.

Mr. Isaac Duyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Duyer, died at his home near Worton Station on Sunday afternoon of consumption aged 22 years. The deceased leaves a widow, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ivens, to whom he was married about one year ago. Funeral services were held on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

In the Police Court.

Tommie Matthews, colored, was arrested on Tuesday by officer Cooper on the charge of assaulting and shooting with intent to kill Alex. Barroll, Jr., also colored, on Sunday afternoon last. The boys were snow balling and Matthews ordered Barroll to stop, if not he would "burn him." Barroll paid no attention to the threat, whereupon Matthews fired, striking Barroll in the jaw, breaking it, the ball lodging in the head. Dr. H. L. Dodd probed for the ball, but has been unable to locate it. Matthews was arraigned before Police Justice Hicks, who held him on the above charge without bail to await developments in Barroll's condition. Matthews is now in jail.

John Gizer was before Police Justice Hicks this week on the charge of killing a fox and muskrat and selling their hides. This is unlawful in Kent. Justice Hicks fined Gizer $10 and costs for the foxhide, and $5 and costs for the muskrat hide, making the two hides cost Gizer something over $21.

Status of Navigation.

The weather has somewhat moderated during the week, and the strong south winds have weakened the ice in the bay and river as to afford but little trouble to navigation. This condition applies to the Chestertown and Tolchester routes. So far as the conditions in Corscia and up the bay tributaries are concerned the ice is still sufficiently strong to block navigation and neither the Sassafras river nor the canal steamers are running. The B. S. Ford has also been discontinued on the Corisca river. Two sailing vessels succeeded in making their way to Chestertown from Baltimore this week under sail, and if south winds continue to prevail there will be no further trouble to mariners. The Tolchester Company will send one of its boats to Tolchester for the double trip to-day. The Emma A. Ford is making excellent time on her new schedule.

Officers Elected.

Chester Lodge 115 A. F. and A. M., at its meeting on Wednesday evening elected the following officers for the term: worshipful master, Wm. A. Wheatley; senior warden, Dr. H. G. Simpers; junior Warden, Prof. A. B. Burris; secretary, Wm. G. Russell; treasurer, J. H. Simpers; tylor, Harry Hodgkin.

Chestertown Council No. 58, Daughters of America at it meeting on Monday night elected the following officers: councilor, Mary Vandergrift; associate councilor, Ada Dwyer; vice-councilor, George Burke; asso. vice-councilor, Ella Alcutt; conductor, Etta Edwards; Warden, A. P. Matthews; inside sentinel, Stewart Matthews; outside sentinel, Etta Nelson.

Meeting of Horticultural Society.

The seventh annual meeting of the Maryland State Horticultural Society will be held in the Maryland Agricultural College on Wednesday and Thursday, Dec. 28-29. A program of much interest to fruit growers and farmers has been arranged. Among those who will deliver addresses upon important subjects are Governor Edwin Warfield and Hon. James Wilson, Secretary of Agriculture. Special reduced railroad rates are provided, board can be had at the rate of $1.75 at the College, and all those interested in the meeting are urged to send exhibits of fruits and vegetables. Among other meetings to be held at the same time and place are the State Corn Breeders Association, Wednesday morning, Dec. 28. The State Grange on the evening of Dec. 29. The exhibit of fruit and vegetables will be one of the largest in the history of the society. Mr. Frank P. Cochran, of Galena, is among the vice presidents.

Senior Orations.

The Christmas orations of the Senior Class of Washington College were delivered in the chapel on Tuesday morning. The orations displayed much originality of thought and care in composition and reflected credit upon the speakers. The subjects and speakers were as follows: Struggle for existence, E. A. Howard; Character, Simmons Jester; Westward Trend of Civilization, H. P. Porter; Singleness of purpose, Louis C. Robinson; Perseverance, H. O. Stephens.

HER PHYSICIANS DESPAIRED. ADVISED CHANGE OF CLIMATE.

Pe-ru-na, Used as a Last Resort, Cured Her of a Severe Attack of Catarrh of the Lungs.

MRS. IDA CALDWELL.

The Sensational Cure of Mrs. Caldwell is the Talk of Her Acquaintances.

Mrs. Ida Caldwell, 506 Pearl street, Sioux City, Ia., Vice-President Order of Washington, writes:

"I suffered with catarrh of the respiratory organs off and on for the last three years until I thought it was chronic. My chest and lungs were irritated and I had to use the greatest care not to expose myself to chilly air or dampness as it increased my troubles.

"My physician advised me to try a change of climate, but I was unable to leave my family. Reading of the wonderful cures performed by Peruna, I bought a bottle.

"It was with the greatest satisfaction that I found it the one medicine among them all which cured me. I was relieved within three days and after two months and a half the irritation was gone, my lungs perfectly healed and my health restored."—Ida Caldwell.

Thousands of women owe their lives to Peruna. Hundreds of thousands owe their health to Peruna. Hundreds of thousands are praising Peruna in every state of the Union.

We have many thousands of letters from grateful women, with permission to use them in public print, which can never be used for want of space.

Catarrh would not be such a curse in this country if the people thoroughly understand its nature. It must be treated at once to prevent it from making inroads upon vital organs.

If you suffer from catarrh, buy Peruna to-day, for a day gained on the enemy, catarrh, means a day nearer recovery.

We have on file many thousand testimonials like the one given here. We can only give our readers a slight glimpse of the vast array of unsolicited endorsements we are receiving. No other physician in the world has received such a volume of enthusiastic letters of thanks as Dr. Hartman for Peruna.
