ROCK HALL ITEMS.

Charles E. McCormick, a student of Bethlehem Preparatory School, is a guest of Arthur Greenwood.

Mr. James Satterfield, of Perryville, paid a flying visit to his numerous friends. "Susquehanna air" has wrought wonderful changes in Jimmie and cupid has alienated his affections from our town.

Our sportsmen have been successful in bagging geese and ducks this week. Three members of the Box Club killed twenty-four black ducks. Watkins bagged 7 geese and John Peter, 3.

Capt. James W. Walmsley caught three shad and several herring last week. Shad netted one dollar each. He thinks if the bay remains open there will be an early run of shad.

Oystermen succeeded in plying their tongs on Saturday and Monday and were paid 60 cents for inside oysters. One day in a week and a catch of 4 to 8 bushels seems to be their average.

Our horsemen were out in force on Friday last. Our streets presented a view similar to that of our sister town when a circus parades her streets. Men, women and children thronged the sidewalks, enjoying the sport. Our county commissioner had been carrying off the laurels and causing some of our horsemen to look blue. But a new rival appeared, driven by Mrs. Wagner, and snatched the wreath from Louis' brow. Will Gale attempted to wrest them from her, but was compelled to play second fiddle. Mr. Geo. Walbert, Mr. Will Ashley, Frank Stevens and George DeFord were entered for second race, but Stevens and Ashley soon left the others in the rear, after which Stevens was compelled to look at the back of Ashley's sleigh. Our "village milkman" and "Charlie liveryman" made a one-sided contest and Bill, "like the milk he sells," came out No. 1.

Quite an interesting debate among the members of the Rock Hall High School Lyceum took place Friday afternoon on the subject: Resolved, "That the image in a picture does not do credit to the original." Much was said pro and con, but owing to the Xmas program they had to suspend without making a decision. This society meets every Friday afternoon between 2.30 and 3.30 P. M. Patrons are cordially invited to attend.

There is some talk of organizing a savings bank. Why do not our business men take the matter seriously and make a beginning? If one of the Chestertown banks would offer a suggestion, a branch office might be started in the near future.

Our merchants have made big preparations for Xmas. The windows are marvels of beauty. The Misses Downey have taken the storeroom vacated by Mr. Kramer; their windows display artistic taste and their polite attention to customers will bring purchasers. T. B. Durding, the druggist, is ready for the fray. His goods, like his smiles, are genuine. Jas. Casey is prepared to furnish the "staff of life," while Johnny the butcher deals out "rare cuts." Alexander & Son furnish the heat producing commodity for indoors, while M. Kramer has all that is necessary for outdoors.

Skating on the river and creeks by our "young people" bids fair to surpass the enjoyment of the sleighing by their elders. The style of the skates is as that of the sleighs.

The weather prevented many from attending church on Sunday morning. A few wended their way, breaking the track and listened to a discourse on Prayer and Watchfulness. At the Sunday School 270 were in attendance. Night services were well attended. Revival will begin the 1st of the year.

Our magistrate court, which during the early fall was frequently convened, seems to be suspended.

The storks, during the snowstorm of Saturday, left a fine boy at the residence of Michael Wahogisty, but the little fellow remained only for a brief time.

One of our citizens took a barrel of oysters to the express office to be shipped to Pennsylvania, but the agent refused to carry it to the boat, insisting that it was not his duty to take heavy packages, consequently the citizen had to be his own express wagon.

KENNEDYVILLE ITEMS.

Mrs. Jennie D. Wallis is spending this week with friends in Baltimore.

Mrs. T. Shafer is visiting her mother in Baltimore.

Mr. John Medders made a buisiness trip to Wilmington Thursday of last week.

MILLINGTON MATTERS.

Asbury M. E. Sunday school will hold its Christmas entertainment Monday evening in the Sunday school room at 7.30 o'clock. A special Christmas program is being prepared by the pastor and teachers, consisting of music, recitations and address by the pastor. A treat of candy, fruit, etc., will be given to all the scholars.

About thirty members of Washington Camp No. 42, P. O. S. of A. attended the service at Asbury M. E. Church last Sunday evening. The pastor, Rev. Edwin Gardner, preached a special sermon to the order, which was highly appreciated, not only by the camp, but by the entire congregation, his subject being, "The Moving in the Tops of the Mulberry Trees, or the Signs of the Times as I Read Them." He brought out the duty of every American born citizen so forcibly that no one could feel otherwise than loyal to his country and patriotic at heart. The camp met at their headquarters and clothed themsealves in the order badge and entered the church in a body.

Public school No. 4, of Queen Anne's, near Holden Church, was burned down last Monday week, Dec. 12th. The fire originated from a defective flue, and had gained much headway when discovered by the teacher, Miss Shockley, and the pupils. They at once went to work with a will. Seeing there was no hope of saving the building, they put every effort to saving the books and organ, which they did, much to their credit. Miss Shockley deserves credit for being so cool-headed at such an excitable time. New seats had been purchased for No. 4 but had not been taken from the freight depot. So, fortunately, they were saved. The school will be rebuilt as soon as the weather permits the carpenters to go to work.

Another fire visited our community last Wednesday afternoon, and destroyed the stable, fodder stacks and sheds of Mr. Augustine Hendrickson, about a mile north of Millington. The fire originated from the engine of a fodder shredder which was at work at the time. The stable was so close to the house and granary that for a time it looked as if all the buildings were doomed, as they were on fire several times, and would have been destroyed but for the timely aid of all the men and boys from town and surrounding country, who drove with all speed to Mr. Hendrickson's assistance. They formed a bucket brigade, and after working heroically for a while subsided the flames and kept them from spreading. A number worked on the roof of the house and outer buildings. Mr. Hendrickson lost all his fodder and feed for his stock, but in saving the granary they saved about two thousand bushels of corn, which he had stored in there. He will go to work at once to rebuild his stable, as he has no shelter for his stock.

Mr. Price Vansant attended the wedding of Mr, Turner and Miss Taylor at Magnolia, Del., last Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Collins attended the funeral of Miss Hallie Crane Collins, Mr. Collins' niece, last Tuesday morning at Centreville. She was a granddaughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. Crane, of our town.

Mrs. J. C. Hackett, wife of the late Dr. J. C. Hackett, of our town, left Thursday morning for her former home, Cumberland, Md., where she will reside for the present.

Mr. J. P. Ahern spent several days last week in Baltimore and Philadelphia.

Miss Julia Johnson, a student of Frostburg, Md., Normal School, is spending the Christmas holidays with her mother.

Miss Helen Rasin has returned from an extended visit with friends in Baltimore.

Misses Ruby and Clara Ahern, of Western Maryland College, are spending the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Ahern.

Miss Evelyn Rolph, of Washing College, is spending the holidays with her parents.

Miss Martha Pennington has fully recovered from the bullet wound which she received from a rifle a few weeks ago, and her Uncle, Dr. John Pennington, of Baltimore, under whose treatment she has been since the accident says she will not suffer from the effect of the bullet which the physicians were unable to extricate, as it was so close to the spinal cord. She will spend the Christmas holidays with her uncle. Her many friends will be glad to see her upon her return.

Mr. T. A. Vansant has moved into his new store, and will move into his dwelling adjoining as soon as it is completed.

Miss Elva Reese, of Baltimore, is spending the holidays with her parents.

The sleighing is fine in the vicinity of Millington, and has been for the past two weeks, we are having ideal winter weather, and just the kind Santa Claus loves when he visits the little folks on Christmas Eve. We hope he will visit all who sent their letters to the TRANSCRIPT, and all the little ones who lost all their toys in the fire last summer. Children do not forget to hang up your stockings, be real good, and go to bed early Saturday night.

The thermometer registed 6 above zero at 7 o'cock last Thursday morning.

Dr. E. G. Clark and family moved to Middletown, Del., where they will reside having sold his property in town to Mrs. Martha A. McWhorter who will occupy it next year.

STILL POND NEWS.

Master Leamont Hackett is spending his Xmas holiday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hackett.

Our merchants are now very busy selling Xmas goods.

Remember the school entertainment at the hall Monday night. Also the Sunday school entertainment at the church on Tuesday night.

A very pretty wedding took place at the parsonage Tuesday evening, at half past seven, when Miss Grace Rasin became the bride of Mr. Howard Rasin. They are a very popular couple of our village. The bride was dressed in white silk with lace trimmings. The groom wore the conventional black. They have the congratulations and best wishes from all the young and old.

Mr. Clarence Biddle has resigned his position with F. H. Harper.

Miss Alyce Wood has been visiting Miss Daisy Jones, at Lynch's.

Mr. S. H. Pippin has been visiting in Philadelphia.

Mr. John Robinson visited Baltimore this week.

Medders & Co. has eleven extra clerks for the Xmas holidays.

Robert S. Griffith and niece, Mrs. Cummings Brice, visited in Middletown on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Dreka are entertaining Mrs. E. G. Clark and daughter, of Millington, at "Water Ledge."

Irving Spry visited Still Pond on Sunday, driving the entire distance with a beautiful pair of big steppers and a new cutter.

Miss Grace Sylvester, of St. Mary's College, is spending her Christmas vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sylvester.

We are pleased to state we have no one on the sick list in our town at this writing. Harry Griffith and Harry Crockett have both entirely recovered.

Dr. E. N. Jeter left on Monday for Baltimore and took R. Colegan to the hospital for treatment. Mr. Colegan had an obstuction in his nose which necessitated an operation.

Preston Shallcross, who was in St. Louis for several months, has left for San Diego, Southern California, and is now engaged in business there. He is a nephew of Jacob T. Shallcross, of near town.

Revolutionary days were recalled on Sunday at the sixteenth annual service of the Pennsylvania Society of Sons of the Revolution which were held to commemorate the beginning of the encampment of the American Army at Valley Forge in 1777. The services were held in Christ Church, about 100 members of the Society being in attendance. Many of the schools on Monday observed the anniversary of the occupation of Valley Forge by General Washington and the Continental Army with special exercises.

GALENA ITEMS.

Mr. Arthur Hyland and Miss Bessie Whitaker, of Conference Academy, Dover, are home for the holidays.

Mr. Hanson Horsey, of Charlotte Hall College, returned home on Friday of last week for the Christmas holidays.

Since the recent snow our streets have been alive with sleighs. Among the fastest we noticed Messrs. F. P. Cochran, Keith Cochran, Holt Woodall, Edmund Hurtt and S. G. Caldwell.

Mrs. W. H. Woodall, who has been quite ill with typhoid fever is much improved at this writing.

Mr. Patrick Mullen has been quite ill during the past week.

Mr. Raymond Prettyman, who has been attending school in Wilmington, is at home on account of sickness.
