SATURDAY, JANUARY 21, 1905.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY JEROME, who has been waging an active campaign against gambling houses in New York City has succeeded in closing every house in the City and has ordered the arrest of several well-known owners of gambling joints.

FORMER SENATOR HENRY G. DAVIS, of West Virginia, recently Democratic candidate for the vice-presidency, called upon President Roosevelt last week to pay his respects. The President greeted Mr. Davis very cordially, saying: "I am glad to see you, Mr. Davis. Walk right into my office. You are entitled to precedence over all others."

GOVERNOR PRESTON LEA was inaugurated Governor of Delaware on Tuesday with imposing ceremonies. He has appointed Joseph L. Cahall, Secretary of State. This appointment is regarded as a slap at the Addicks people, and it is likely that Gov. Lea will make strenuous efforts to harmonize the warring factions in his party in Delaware.

THE COURT OF APPEALS, it is understood, will reach the case of Vandiver versus Warfield, which involves the validity of the Poe disfranchising amendment, proposed by the Legislature last winter, about Tuesday, Jan 31. It is expected that the arguments of the counsel will be completed in two days, and the court, it is believed, will render its decision by February 1. The case is number 37 on the docket.

JUDGE RICHARD A. ALVEY, who on January 1 retired as Chief Judge of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia has applied to the proper authorities for a pension of $2,400 per annum under an act passed by the last General Assembly of Maryland. Judge Alvey has given to the State of Maryland and to the District of Columbia, distinguished service, and is clearly entitled to the pension provided for in the Maryland Act.

HON. ROBERT B. DIXON, State Senator from Talbot county in the last Legislature, is prominently mentioned for the nomination for Comptroller by the Republicans. Senator Dixon is a man of wealth and influence, and has made a good record in the State Senate, but Comptroller Atkinson will be renominated by the Democrats, and his present administration of the affairs of the office is a sufficient justification for his re-election.

SEVERAL State Legislatures have elected United States Senators during the week. Among them are Neidringhans, Rep., to succeed Francis M. Cockrell, Dem., from Missouri; Beveridge and Hemenway, both Republicans from Indiana; Burkett, Rep., from Nebraska; Kean, Rep., from New Jersey; Knox, Rep., re-elected from Pennsylvania; Depew, Rep., for New York. Senator-elect Isidor Rayner will take his seat as junior Senator from Maryland March 5.

JACKSON-SMITH CONTEST.

It is really amusing to see how the Republican lawyers and newspapers who are championing the cause of Congressman Jackson in the Jackson-Smith contest, are hedging. At the beginning of the contest it was the "trick ballot" and the fradulent methods used in the recent election that were alledged as sufficient grounds for contesting the election of Mr. Smith. But since Gov. Warfield has received replies to questions asked election officials and supervisors of election, concerning the conduct of the election from sixteen of the counties, nearly every one of which is from the Eastern Shore, which replies were signed by both Democratic and Republican supervisors, and which stated in every instance that the election was fairly conducted, the ballots uniform and legal and there were no complaints from the opposing party, they have shifted the cause of the contest and say now that it is the present election law that furnishes the ground for the contest.

It is no such thing. It is simply due to the fact that the National Congress is overwhelmingly Republican, and Congressman Jackson believes Smith will be counted out regardless of any just and sufficient reason for a contest. It seems like a shame that any man who loves the institutions of his government, and who has any State pride should desire to place either his State or the National Congress in such an undignified position. There is absolutely no foundation for a contest in the First District, and no one knows it any better than Congressman Jackson. It is simply a case of a man and his boodle being pooh-poohed by the intelligence of the Eastern Shore electorate.

WILL OF Ex-GOV. LOWNDES.

The Will of ex-Gov. Lloyd Lowndes was admitted to probate on Friday last in the Orphan's Court, at Cumberland. The will does not indicate the value of the estate, which, however, amounts to more than $1,000,000. The will is dated April 21, 1904, and is in Mr. Lowndes' own handwriting. Mrs. Lowndes is made sole executrix, without bond. It provides for the following distribution of property after any debts that may be outstanding are paid:

To the widow, Elizabeth Tasker Lowndes, is given $250,000 of property of her own selection.

To his daughter, Elizabeth Lloyd Lowndes, $50,000 in trust during lifetime, said amount to go to her issue at death, if there is any, otherwise the sum is to revert to the residuary legatees.

To the vestry of Emmanuel Protestant Episcopal Church, $2,500, to be paid in a lump sum, or in five annual installment, at the discretion of the executrix.

To John Brown, colored, the ex-Governor's faithful valet, who was with him when he died, $300.

The residuary legatees of the estate in trust for whom the remainder of the property is to be held are Lloyd Lowndes, Richard Tasker Lowndes, Charles Thomas Lowndes, William Balden Lowndes, Tasker Grant Lowndes, sons, and Elizabeth Lloyd Lowndes, daughter.

MESSRS. EDITORS—Sirs:—I enclose you the following laws which we of the Second District think will meet the requirements as they are at present. If any one in the county has a better one we would like to hear from them through the county press, or we will meet them in a public meeting and discuss the different points. Yours,

JOHN MEDDERS.

I was prescribed for by physicians with no noticeable results. A friend gave me part of a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with instructions to closely follow the directions, and I wish to state that after the first day I could notice a decided change for the better, and at this time after using it for two weeks, have no hesitation in saying I realize that I am entirely cured."
