LOCAL MATTERS.

No Boat to Tolchester To-day.—Owing to conditions of ice in the bay, there will not be any boat to Tolchester to-day, (Saturday.) This is an official dispatch from the Tolchester Company.

Hen Roost Robbed.—A thief or thieves entered the hen house on the farm tenanted by Mr. Charles Willis, near Radcliffe bridge, on Friday night last and stole twenty hens and three turkeys. The raid was made before the snow fell, or Mr. Willis would have been able to track the guilty parties.

New Postmaster at Locust Grove.—Mr. John W. Wright has been appointed postmaster at Locust Grove to succeed Mrs. Maria W. Sutton. The latter resigned sometime ago and will remove to Baltimore as soon as her successor qualifies. Mr. Wright's petition was signed by some of the most influential patrons of the office. He will take charge of his duties at once.

Senator Foxwell Gets a Fall.—Senator Garrett Foxwell, of near Black's, slipped on the ice in front of his granary last Saturday and sprained his back and hip. The Senator has been confined to the house since the accident. He is suffering at present with an attack of malaria and though improving, he is not able to attend to any business at this writing.

Has Spent 35 Years in Jail.—Thirty-five years spent in idleness as a prisoner in the Cecil county jail is the record of James Andrews, an ex-Union soldier. During last week he celebrated his seventieth birthday. It was a great disappointment to the man, as his request sometime ago for a pardon from the county commissioners was not acted upon at a recent meeting. Andrews, who is now partly paralyzed, asked that he be given his liberty, as thirty-five years of confinement has cost the county many thousands of dollars, and as he is growing old and has not many more years to live, he dreads the idea of dying in the county jail.

Hubbard Fertilizer Company.—The Hubbard fertilizer Co., of Baltimore city, held their regular annual election of directors on Tuesday last at their office. Mr. Wm. L. Hubbard was again elected president; Mr. Wilbur W. Hubbard vice-president; Howard Hubbard secretary and treasurer; the balance of the directors are, Robt. M. Spedden, James P. Gorter, H. A. Richardson and Henry C. Conrad. After the election the annual banquet was held. The report for the year was extremely gratifying, business being nearly doubled; the firm is now doing a business of about half a million annually and only 4 years old. They determined to increase the capital to $200,000 and further enlarge their plant and operations, as the earnings and other business justify them in this respect.

Decrease in Oyster Fund.—Comptroller Atkinson in his annual report has the following in reference to the State oyster fund. The oyster fund receipt, together with the balance from the preceeding year, aggregate $73,807.36, as against $97,475.59 for the corresponding period of last year, or the very heavy shrinkage of $23,668.23. This loss is not the result of larger expenditures, for these are small, but solely from diminution of revenue, notably from dredging licenses and excess from general measurers and inspectors of oysters, which latter amount yielded during the fiscal year 1903 the sum of $4,855.98 while this year said fund was not self-sustained by $2,367.80. The greatest loss, however, is from dredging licenses, which shows a shrinkage of $9,233.36 for the present year and of $21,776,95 over the year of 1902.

Dr. Dawson Captured.—Dr. Edward Dawson, the prominent Baltimore dentist, who is accused of feloniously assaulting four little girls of the Kelso Home, Baltimore, and who has been at large since the commission of the last crime, was caught in Hamilton, Canada, this week. The police and detectives of the city have been scouring the country for the fugitive, but until the first of the week they had failed to locate him. It seems that Dawson had been recieving letters from some of his relatives, and it was through a clever trick on the part of the landlady, with whom Dawson, under the assumed name of Edward Thompson, stopped while in Hamilton, that the fugitive was trapped and captured. He left the torn pieces of one of his letters in his room one day, and the landlady, who was suspicious of him, put the bits together and learned that he was the man wanted in Baltimore. The police were at once notified and his arrest followed. Extradition papers were gotten out, and the prisioner will shortly be behind the bars in Baltimore to await trial. The crimes of which Dawson is accused are the most hienous ever committed in the city, and the penalty is death. The prisoner moved in good society in the city, and is well known to some people who once lived in Chestertown.

Slight Fire at Worton.—Mr. William Carter's barn, near Worton, narrowly escaped destruction by fire on Tuesday morning. Mr. Carter went to the barn with a lighted lamp, which he set upon a grain fan. His dog espied a sparrow in the barn and began chasing it. When the sparrow lit upon the fan the dog jumped after it and upset the lamp, causing a dangerous blaze. Mr. Carter succeded in extinguishing the flames before more than $50 damage had been done. He lost his fan and several bushels of wheat. The barn flooring and steps were slightly damaged.

Two Boys Drowned at Smyrna.—Two boys, Hughey Wallace, aged 11 years, and William Foreaker, aged 12, were drowned on Sunday morning while sliding on the ice at Lake Como, Smyrna, Del. After a search of two hours their bodies were found beneath the ice. Wallace and Foreaker were showing a companion how far they could go, when they both fell in at once. It is said that Foreaker had gotten out, when Wallace during his struggles pulled him back. Delaney, their companion, ran to a nearby house and gave the alarm. A crowd soon gathered and grappled for their bodies. They were found and taken to their homes.

*†*Many young folks have enjoyed skating on Chester River in Barroll's Hollow, during the week. In 1891 he was sent as pastor to Crumpton and his ministry of two years in that town was successful. PENINSULA HORTICULTURIST.

Annual Meeting of the Society at Seaford, Del.

The eighteenth annual session of the Peninsula Horticulturist Society was held in Seaford, Del., this week. Rev. J. W. Balderston, pastor of Seaford M. P. Church, opened the meeting with prayer. Prof. A. C. Brewer delivered the address of welcome which was responded to by Capt. Robert S. Emory, of Chestertown. The treasurer reported the expenditures for the past year $666, leaving little balance in the treasury. Hon. Charles Wright, president of the society, delivered his annual address which was interesting and instructive. F. C. Bancroft, an up-to-date apple grower, said he found it extremely profitable and that quite a large number of fine varieties of apples could be grown on this peninsula. He said growers should grow fine quality apples as well as of fine appearance. Mr. Jas. S. Harris, of Still Pond, Md., delivered a very instructive address on pear culture. He recommended the cleaning up of old orchards and planting new ones and keep replanting. They are easier to pick and spray and bring more money. Other addresses were also made by prominent agriculturalists.

N. B. C. Exhibit.

Miss Kathrine Bedell, demonstrator for the National Biscuit Company, of New York and Chicago, gave a very interesting exhibition of that large firm's many products at the store of Mr. Jacob F. Thompson on High street on Monday and Tuesday. Many of the housekeepers and lovers of dainties inspected the exhibition during the time Miss Bedell was here, and her demonstrations proved beyond question the superior qualities of the many varieties shown. There were "Five o'clock Teas," 'Butter Thin Biscuit," "Nabiscos," "Uneeda Biscuit," —"Certainly, Uneeda Biscuit," and numerous other products which attested by their freshness and crispness that this firm has solved the problem of making splendid food products, and preparing them for the trade. The Inner Seal trade mark is a sufficient guarantee of perfect cooking and absolute purity of all goods contained in the packages so marked. A large quantity of the goods were sold, and Miss Bedell was so good as to supply the editors with several boxes of dainties gratis. Miss Bedell thoroughly understands the business of introducing the goods to the public, and she created a very favorable impression while here. Mr. Thompson will handle these up-to-date goods for the National Biscuit Co., and anyone desiring them will always find a splendid assortment in his store. Miss Bedell left here on Wednesday morning for Millington, where she will give another exhibition.

ECHOES FROM THE SOUTHLAND.

Capt. Charles R. Neal, of Cliff City, Assaulted by a Desperate Character on the Streets of a Southern City.

Capt. Charles R. Neal, as well as several other Kent countians who left their homes to go south to work on the oyster bars in the Mississippi River, has had some thrilling experiences incident to their sojourn in the Southland. One of the papers published in the South contains the following account of an assault made upon Captain Neal and a companion:

"Last night at about 7.30 o'clock a boatman by the name of Charles R. Neal, with a companion, were walking peacefully down Howard avenue between Lameusce street and the City Hall, when Arthur Delamarre approached him and threatened to 'put him out of business.' Seeing that Delamarre was drunk, the men continued on their way without any harsh reply, when, so Neal says, the drunken man pulled a pistol from his pocket and snapped it at Neal.

"Not being armed and thinking he was attacked by a crazy man, the two men got out of the way as fast as the circumstances would permit, making their way to the Sazerac saloon. Delamarre followed them into the saloon, where he again flourished his weapon. His brother, who was in the saloon at the time, quickly disarmed him and turned him over to the city authorities who placed him in the city jail. Neal and his companion were both total strangers to Delamarre, and they could not account for any motive he had to attack them. The accused man was fined $100 and costs and not having the money was remanded to jail." Our Cliff City letter this morning contains another thrilling episode in which Captain Neal and several Kent countians figure very conspiciously in the South. It will be very interesting to hear Capt. Neal and his associates relate interesting stories of their sojourn in Dixie when they return to Kent.

New Advertisements.

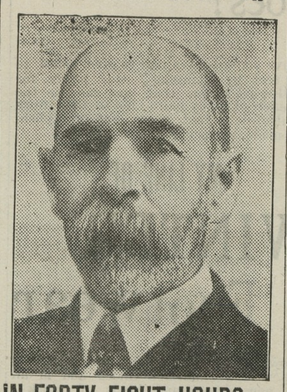

Sparks & Jefferson have a sale of remnants and odd lots now on. They are getting ready to take stock and want to relieve their shelves of these goods. Take a look.

"Down we come and out they go" is the heading of J. D. Lucas' clothing advertisement this morning. This means down comes the prices and out go the goods. Mr. Lucas has good goods at ow prices all the time, but here's your chance now. See him before it is too late.

Clifton L. Jarrel gives notice of a 20 per cent for cash reduction sale on all his goods bought before Feb. 15,—stock taking time—for cash. He has a special sale of white goods, and his large dress goods show window is rich in its display of pretty goods. Better go quickly. This is a chance to lay in a stock of white goods, or anything else he has in his store.

Read it. Young man if you have the vim, energy and a little cash, you should go to thinking after you read Chas. S. Smith's advertisement in this paper. Read his advertisement and go and see him. A gold mine for a hustler, and a better chance is seldom offered.

LIEUTENANT BOWMAN.

IN FORTY-EIGHT HOURS PE-RU-NA CURED HIM.

Cold Affected Head and Throat —Attack Was Severe.

Chas. W. Bowman, 1st Lieut. and Adjt. 4th M. S. M. Cav. Vols., writes from Lanham, Md., as follows:

"Though somewhat averse to patent medicines, and still more averse to becoming a professional affidavit man, it seems only a plain duty in the present instance to add my experience to the columns already written concerning the curative powers of Peruna.

"I have been particularly benefited by its use for colds in the head and throat. I have been able to fully cure myself of a most severe attack in forty-eight hours by its use according to directions. I use it as a preventive whenever threatened with an attack.

"Members of my family also use it for like ailments. We are recommending it to our friends."—C. W. Bowman.

Pe-ru-na Contains no Narcotics.

One reason why Peruna has found permanent use in so many homes is that it contains no narcotic of any kind. It can be used any length of time without acquiring a drug habit.

And the said William Beck, colored, at th time of his death left the following heirs at law: William Beck, a son, who lives in Norfolk, Va., Samuel Beck, who lives in the State of Pennsylvania, Isiah Beck, whose wife is Nancy Beck, who resides in Edesville, Kent county, Frank Beck, who lives in Queen Anne's county, Md., George Beck, who resides in the State of Delaware, Mamie Beck Hopkins, who intermarried with Levi Hopkins, both of whom reside in Kent county, Md., Charlotte Beck Cotton, whose husband's name is Sam'l Cotton, who is now said to live in Queen Anne's ounty, Md., and Samuel Cotton is said to reside in Kent county, Md., Mansolus Beck and Arlinda Beck, his wife, reside in Kent county, Md and these are the only heirs-at-law and persons entitled to interests in the real estate of the said William Beck.
