SENATOR THOMAS C. PLATT, of New York, has a breach of promise case on his hands.

TWO MORE NEW STATES, New Mexico and Oklahoma, embracing Indian Territory, have been added to the noble galaxy of States by an Act of Congress this week. Arizona was left out, poor thing.

THE FIRST ISSUE of the Baltimore American from its magnificent new home on the site of the building destroyed just one year ago in the great fire, was made on Tuesday, the anniversary day. The Baltimore American is one of the most progressive dailies in the country, and has done much towards stimulating a spirit of progress in the rehabilitation of the burned district. We congratulate the American on its first issue from its new home. It is brim full of interesting reminiscences of the great fire, as well as hope for the future of the great city, and secure in the possession of its handsome $1,000,000 home, we trust that it will fulfill its great mission in the world of journalism.

TUESDAY LAST was the anniversary of the great conflagration which laid in ruins the business section of Baltimore city. Gigantic strides toward rebuilding a greater and more beautiful Baltimore have been made in one year, and the people of the city deserve the greatest commendation for their pluck and enterprise. Keep it up, over there, until your city shall not only be the pride of all Maryland, but with her imposing structures, broad thoroughfares, beautiful plazzas, splendid and commendable business sagacity, she shall be the envy of the Eastern coast. It is said that improvements costing $100,000,000 are contemplated in the next twelve months. May this be a jubilee year for our great metropolis.

WE HAD NO IDEA THAT our editorial in regard to the present status of the political situation in Kent, as outlined in an editorial in the TRANSCRIPT of a recent date, would call forth such an underhanded attack upon us or such an insult to the people of the county as appeared in the Kent News of last Saturday. We do not believe that any Democratic who has the interests of his party at heart will sanction such politics as the News is trying to play, nor do we think that such statements as appeared in that paper will have a tendency to inspire confidence or win votes. The people like an open, honest and straightforward statement of facts, and a clear and definite understanding of a man or paper's position in politics as well as in religion, and instead of pouring oil upon troubled waters these statements in the News have simply added feul to the fire and disgusted some of their own political adherents. It not only shows a very unjust and unkind spirit toward those who endeavor to be honest and upright in their political dealings, but manifests the greatest ignorance of what constitutes good politics.

A PARTY styling themselves the "People's Party" has been launched in Kent county.—Kent News.

The fact that the people of Kent county are interested in politics, and have been manipulating the political affairs of the county for the past two years is certainly a "galler" to the editors of the Kent News. It is something so unnatural in the past politics of the county that it has taken two years for them to learn that it is the people who have the right to name their candidates and to conduct the affairs of the Democratic party as they should be conducted. Up until two years ago the people of the county were not allowed a voice in the naming of a ticket, or of participating in the planning of a campaign. This was done by a select few, in a select place, and the people were scarcely considered. But the day for that kind of politics is past, and now the people are taking a hand in politics to the success of the Democratic party.

It is said that the leader and his followers expect to draw most of their strength from the Democratic party.—Kent Nent.

Such a statement as this is a direct insult to the people of the county, who have always had the interests of the Democratic party at heart, who have always been genuine Democrats and who have never been guilty of forming combinations with Republicans, or any one else to defeat the wishes of the people. It was this same wing of the Democratic party, who choose to style themselves the People's Party, that, last fall one year ago, carried the Democratic party to success in the county by a majority of nearly 200, and who carried the county in the Presidential election last fall by a majority of 89, although the correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, who is one of the editors of the Kent News, had such interest in the success of the Democratic ticket as to telegraph to the Sun at 10 o'clock on the night of the election that the county had gone 175 Republican. And yet the Kent News chooses to thrust in the teeth of the people of the county who labored so honestly for the success of the ticket and won a signal victory, the insult that they expect to draw most of their strength from the Democratic party. Never but once since 1893, up until the fall of 1903, have the Democrats been able to elect a full ticket in Kent county, and if we argue conversely, the strength of the leaders of the party prior to 1903 must have been loaned to the Republican party, or else it was mighty poor management on the part of the leaders. The people are opposed to trusts and combinations, and naturally work to the interests of their constituents. It is natural therefore that the People's Party should draw all of its strength from the Democratic party.

The News, which feels a deep interest in the success of the Democratic ticket THIS FALL, would here repeat the caution, "a house divided against itself must fall."—Kent News.

Now, don't that make you laugh? How about other falls, the fall of 1899, for instance, when everybody knows what interest the News had in the success of the Democratic ticket then? Well, after the primaries everybody will expect to see the News nail the Democratic ticket at the head of its editorial column, it makes no difference which side wins, pull off its coat and go to work for the election of the ticket. The people will then have more confidence in the interest the News is taking. The people have distinct recollections of the past, but they look to the future. Speaking of a house divided against itself, etc., it is well understood that the People's party is not the aggressor in this primary fight. They won the last primary, named the State Central and Executive committees and assumed control of the party machinery. They have named nearly their entire ticket, only one candidate from each district, named by the people in each district months ago. Every one of these men are worthy of the support of every Democrat in the county. They are men of affairs and occupy high places in the business and social life of the county, and with such candidates in the field as have been named there is no necessity for a primary fight. But if candidates are named in opposition to them, then it would seem that a fight is inevitable. But as the candidates of the People's wing of the party were in the field first, they are not the aggressors, and must defend the positions they have taken.

The Republicans are well organized and perching high ready to pounce down upon its rivals and devour the spoils. Don't stir up strife but pour oil on the fermented waters and let all Democrats look to the success of the Democratic ticket next Fall rather than to the nomination of his people's or any other candidate in the primary. Don't pave the way for a Republican victory by stirring up strife in the party.—Kent News.

In other words, let's return to the old way of doing things, and let everybody keep quiet while it is being done. The Republican party in Kent county is utterly hopeless of victory when the Democratic party is united and all are working in harmony, and it cannot be laid at the door of the People's wing of the party that strife is being stirred up. Nobody knows this better than the editors of the News, and yet they want to create strife in the Democratic party by launching a fight against the wishes of the people. We learn from constant reports from various parts of the county that certain Republicans are endeavoring to form a combination with certain Democrats to defeat the People's party, and if such be the case it does not look much like the Republican party is "well organized and perching high ready to pounce down upon its rivals and devour the spoils," unless they have been guaranteed some strength from the Democratic party. The above statement looks more like a threat than a general statement of facts. Let's wait and see.

PEOPLE'S COLUMN.

☞ The columns of the TRANSCRIPT are open to the proper discussion of all topics of public interest or importance. Whether the editors agree with the sentiment expressed or not, the people should and may be heard through the TRANSCRIPT's columns—the paper will be the People's Forum from which they may be heard on all subjects—purely personal matter excepted. The Editors are not responsible in any manner for articles that appear in this column.

The Sixth District.

February 7th, 1905.

The Kent News last Saturday in an editorial attempted to state that a party distinct from the Democratic party, would be in the field this fall. It does not come out openly and say so, but seeks, as usual, to make such impression by giving in words so jumbled and in ideas so cloudy this hazy thought. It can then hereafter state, it said anything or nothing. The editorial in the TRANSCRIPT of January 28th last shows clearly that many Democrats are determined that those who style themselves the old organization, or the Usilton-Smith-Hynson faction (as distinguished from the mass of Democratic voters) can no longer control the party without a protest. The old cry of a contest or a fight being injurious to the party was proven in the last nomination and election to be the usual cry raised by self-appointed leaders to frighten the mass of our voters into subjection to their will. The Kent News is nothing if it cannot control. It can hardly expect Mr. William B. Usilton to run Kent county Democratic politics in the future as he has done in the past. And the sooner it awakens to this fact the better it will be for the party, the better it will be for Mr. Wm. B. Usilton, and the better it will be for the Kent News. It commences with the assertion of the astonishing fact (astonishing as coming from the lips of the three who edit the Kent News), that it has a feeling of deep interest in the success this fall of the Democratic party, and that "a house divided against itself must surely fall." If they do not know it, then they must be incredible fools to be so blind, and that so long, to the fact that hundreds of Democratic voters in Kent county believe that in the past those who have controlled the News have more than once not voted their tickets straight. Notably, in 1899, and at other times when it suited their views and convenience. While this may or may not be the fact, this belief is as strongly fixed in the minds of the Democratic voters as are their finger nails and toe nails imbedded in their bodies. You may as well try to blot out and extinguish this belief as to deny their sense of sight or feeling. This may be a great injustice to the editors of the Kent News, to the Kent News itself and to their friends. But those who read the editorials of the Kent News during the years preceeding 1904, especially just after an election, or nomination, have not been able at times, to tell whether it was a Democratic or Republican paper. Who has been able to tell whether it was politics or "pap" which then controlled the directions in which it sailed? Who can tell which party it belonged to at critical moments in the past? Does not every one know that this is the reason why the Kent News has dropped the name it so well earned when the late James H. Plummer was at its head, as the Kent County Bible? Now this name is thrown at it as a term of reproach. Have you forgotten one time when the Republicans were in power, Mr. L. Bates Russell, the editor of the Enterprise, had to go before the Republican Board of County Commissioners and protest that he was the only Republican who edited the only genuine Republican organ in Kent county? That the Kent News was a wolf in sheep's clothing and trying to climb into the Republican sheep fold! That at that time it was getting the bulk of the patronage from a Republican board when the county was Republican! All those who are interested in an effort to prevent our politics and our finances from again falling into the hands of those who so ran the Democratic party that they ran it into the ground and subjected Kent county to the control of the Republicans for nearly ten years, are probably as good and sound in their Democracy as are the editors of the News. We will if defeated in the Democratic primaries this summer, submit to the rule of the majority. There will afterwards be no People's Party nor Independent Party' nor Factional Party to antagonize the Democracy. But those who oppose the lead of Mr. William B. Usilton will show that if they are defeated they are able to take their medicine and renew the battle within party lines next time. But there is at the present time no indications that the bosses of the Old Organization can defeat the people. The editorial of the News truly indicates it sees ghosts and has unquiet hours!

DEMOCRAT FROM THE SIXTH DISTRICT.

MESSRS. EDITORS OF THE TRANSCRIPT:—It is a matter of daily complaint with all the housekeepers in Chestertown that our water supply is muddy and dirty, unfit for drinking and especially often unfit for washing purposes. This is a condition of things which has existed for over a year past and there is no prospect for relief unless the people of the town take hold of the matter and insist upon a remedy being applied by the present water company or else by the organization of a new water company. A stand-pipe is what the people of this town need for fire protection and a good artesian well driven, if necessary 1500 feet instead of 600 feet, until a good supply of water be found, pure and clear. If a company should receive proper encouragement at the hands of the citizens of the town and from the town authorities, as to the use of the streets, etc., there ought to be no difficulty in securing sufficient capital to build a new water plant. The estimates show that everything new and complete could be constructed for less than $18,000. In order that some steps looking to a definite conclusion may be made, the writer suggests that everyone interested in the projected company leave his name and address at the office of the CHESTERTOWN TRANSCRIPT so that a meeting may be called and an organization affected. It is more than likely that the banks in Chestertown will gladly subscribe to at least two-thirds of the bonds which will be necessary to float such a company; and the citizens and those interested need only carry one-third or possibly one-fourth of the required amount.

Let there be a provision in the charter of the water company, that no surplus larger than the capital stock or bonded indebtedness shall be accumulated and that all dividends in excess of 6% shall be paid into the town treasury for the purchase of fire apparatus and maintenance of a fire company, and improvements of streets.

Then, as the present water company has so frequently and persistently violated its contract with the town, let the town commissioners rescind this contract on the ground of the failure of the water company to carry out its agreement to furnish sufficient water for fire protection, and let the contract to be entered into between the new water company and the town in every respect thoroughly safegard the interests of the town.

Yours respectfully,
GOOD WATER SUPPLY.

James O. Robinson, administrator of Anne Rebecca Robinson, colored, vs.
Sarah Elizabeth Knight, William Knight, Henry Jeffres, Hester Jeffres, John Jeffers, Rose Jeffers, Delia Jeffers, defendants, all colored.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, Maryland, in Equity.

No. 1543.

THE object of this bill is to procure a decree for the sale of the real estate of Jacob Jeffers alias Jake Jeff, colored, deceased, and to distribute the proceeds thereof after the payment of his debts, to the respective heirs at law.

The bill states that a certain Jacob Jeffers alias Jake Jeff, colored, late of Kent county, deceased, was in his lifetime indebted unto Anne R. Robinson in the sum of $29.08 upon a certain judgment entered by Ben N. S. Wilkins, a late Justice of the Peace for Kent county, as will appear by a certified copy filed in said case.

And the bill further states that subsequent to the rendition of said judgment the said Anne Rebecca Robinson died and letters of administration were granted on her estate to the said James O. Robinson.

And the bill further states that the said Jacob Jeffers alias Jake Jeff being indebted unto your orator and unto divers other persons, died intestate, leaving no personal estate out of which your orators claim could be paid, and that no letters of administration have been granted on his estate, and that the said Jacob Jeffers alias Jake Jeff left real estate consisting of a house and lot of land situated in that part of Chestertown known as Lynchburg.

And the bill further states that the said Jacob Jeffers alias Jake Jeff left a widow, Delia Jeffers, surviving him, and the following children, viz.: Sarah Elizabeth Knight and her husband, William Knight, both of whom reside in the State of New York; Henry Jeffers, who resides in Chestertown, and whose wife's name is Hester Jeffers, but she resides in Wilmington, Delaware; John Jeffers, whose wife's name is Rose Jeffers, both of whom reside near Chesterville, Kent county, and these your orator is advised are the only heirs at law of the said Jacob Jeffers alias Jake Jeff.

To the end therefore that the real estate of Jacob Jeffers alias Jake Jeff, colored, may be sold or so much thereof as may be necessary for the payment of the claims of your orator and those of the other unsatisfied creditors of the said Jacob Jeffers alias Jake Jeff.

It is therefore ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent county, as a Court of Equity, this 31st day of January, 1905, that the plaintiff by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Kent county once in each of four successive weeks before the 16th day of March, giving notice to the said Sarah Elizabeth Knight, William Knight, Henry Jeffers, Hester Jeffers, John Jeffers, Rose Jeffers and Delia Jeffers, who are said to be non-residents of this State or who may not be at present residing therein of the object and substance of this bill and warning them to appear in this court in person or by solicitor on or before the 23rd day of March next, to answer the premises and show cause if any they have, why a decree ought not to pass as prayed.
