SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1905.

SENATOR-ELECT Isidor Rayner will take his seat in the United States Senate March 6.

A Municipal voters League has been formed in Baltimore city with Mr. David Hutzler as Chairman.

GEN. LEW WALLACE, the noted soldier, diplomat, and author of "Ben Hur," the greatest of all stories, is dead.

PEOPLE who set a trap to catch others may sometimes fall into it themselves. Let us make no apologies for the ruthless mistakes we make.

THERE HAS BEEN much complaint during the week of the town's drinking water. The water not only has a bad taste but in many instances an unpleasant odor can be detected. The water company should look into this matter and see that a proper analysis be made. Several of our local physicians say the water is in bad condition.

THE SENATE COMMITTE on the Judiciary intend to submit a report to the United States Senate declaring that the President's theory of constructive recesses and of the power of the President to appoint during the recess congressman whose nominations have been before the senate and have not been acted upon is entirely erroneous and in violation of the constitutional limitation of his appointing power.

SEVERAL OF THE PAPERS of the Shore have been doing a great deal of talking of late about "sticking together" on advertising rates. How can we stick together until "we get together." There is no "stick" about it. It is simply "get together" and then stick, and the best way to do it is to form a newspaper union on the Eastern Shore. Don't let's talk too much. Let's get together for the protection of the newspaper interests. The TRANSCRIPT will assist any move made in this direction.

PEOPLE'S COLUMN.

☞The columns of the TRANSCRIPT are open to the proper discussion of all topics of public interest or importance. Whether the editors agree with the sentiment expressed or not, the people should and may be heard through the TRANSCRIPT's columns—the paper will be the People's Forum from which they may be heard on all subjects—purely personal matter excepted. The Editors are not responsible in any manner for articles that appear in this column.

CHESTERTOWN, MD., Feb. 15, 1905.

DEAR SIRS:—The TRANSCRIPT of Saturday last has caused much comment as to the position taken by the editors of the Kent News for their criticism of the Democracy of those who belong to that wing of the Democratic party known as the "People's wing," as distinguished from what is called the "Ring wing," the "Organization wing," or "Usilton faction" with eleven hyphens. The question of the Democracy of other people is an unfortunate question for the Kent News to have injected into politics at this date, for it will cause its own Democracy to be ventilated, and thus the people will learn something more about the Democracy of the Kent News itself and of each of its editors.

This question has caused more talk, more scandal, and more family differences, than any other question that has been discussed in Kent county for the past ten years, namely, whether the editors of the Kent News, are honest, sterling, true Demcrats. Hundreds of people believe they are not. The editorial "we", and "our", may mean one or two or three. It is not sufficiently explicit. The writer challenges the editors of the Kent News to publish in their own paper, or in the TRANSCRIPT, a card above their signature, saying that in 1895, and in 1899, and in every year during the past ten years they have each voted the Democratic ticket; sign the card with the names, Wm. B. Usilton, Frederick G. Usilton, Wm. B. Usilton, Jr. Then we will know who makes the statement and who is responsible for it. They will then find that at least 100 good staunch Democrats will sign a letter, which will be published over their signatures, stating that they do not believe the statement, and that they still believe one or more of the editors have in the past scratched the Democratic and voted the Republican ticket.

One of the gentlemen whose name is often linked with one of those hyphens, when speaking of the Usilton faction, stated openly in that year that one of the editors in 1899 had been "caught in the act!"

One of the leading Republicans of Kent county, who was an office holder two years ago, and who does not live far from Still Pond, and perhaps in the village itself told one of the editors when he protested that he was a Democratic, "Well," he said, "you have voted the Republican ticket, and if you didn't, you told us you did." The young editor walked away with red face, bowed head and in much confusion. Either this happened or it did not happen. Such facts as these, and many more of like character, have been so talked of that they are now common property. When the Kent News again attacks the Democracy of more than half the Democratic party, and that the half which led the party to victory two years ago is it not time for us to ask what is the politics and what has been the politics of the Kent News, and of its editors? If they want any more information on the subject let them publish the card.

FOURTH DISTRICT DEMOCRAT.

The Fifth District.

Rock Hall, Feb. 15th, 1905.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—We notice that the editors of the Kent News to whom you made editorial reference very significantly in last week's TRANSCRIPT, have placed in an out-of-the-way place in their paper a "Political Card," signed by Capt. Chas. R. Kerr, of Rock Hall, who is a candidate for the Legislature from the Fifth District, on what he calls the "Old Time Democratic ticket."

The editors of the Kent News surely did not think very much of Capt. Kerr's wisdom in writing such a letter, or they would have given it a more prominent place in their paper. We have found very few people here who have seen the letter, but those who have read it think that it will not do Capt. Kerr, or his "old time Democratic ticket" any good.

In the first place we would like to ask Capt. Kerr what he means by "Old time Democratic Party," and whether or not he was asked to be a candidate by the people of the Fifth District or by some of his friends in Chestertown.

If he means by "old time Democratic" those Democrats who are in politics for what it is worth to them, we know just where to place Capt. Kerr. He asks in his letter "What has become of the Democratic party; is it defunct or is it played out?" We should like to answer this question by asking Capt. Kerr if he has always voted the straight Democratic ticket, and has always worked for the interests of the Democratic party? To be more explicit we should like to ask Capt. Kerr to make a public statement and say whether or not he voted for Gov. Lowndes in 1895, and for McKinley in one of his campaigns? There are people in the Fifth District who know very well where Capt. Kerr stood in these campaigns, but we would prefer to have him make a statement and tell the people just what he did. Capt. Kerr knows far better what has become of himself than he does of the Democratic party. And there is no wonder to us that he is seeking the nomination for the Legislature from a certain element of the Democratic party. He does not know whether the Democratic party recognizes him or he recognizes the Democratic party. He also speaks of his Democracy. How can a man be a true Democrat or true in anything else when he votes the Republican ticket one time and some other ticket another time? The best evidence of true Democracy is a desire to further the interests of the Democratic party; to be true to its candidates on all occasions, and to be so straight in your political dealings that people will know exactly where you stand every time.

People who live in glass houses ought not to throw stones, and if there are any sore heads in the Democratic party in the Fifth District we know pretty generally who they are.

He also made a plea to the watermen or oystermen of the District when he knows as well as he is living how he treated the oystermen when he was in command of the Anna B. Smith.

The people who labored so hard for the success of the entire Democratic ticket two years ago and whom Capt. Kerr in his letter chooses to call sore heads were as active in their work against the Haman Oyster Bill in the last Legislature as could be, and not a single one of our representatives in the Legislature could be induced to vote for any measure that was not to the very best interests of the oystermen of the Fifth District, and it seems to us to be a disgrace to the Democratic party that a man who is seeking the nomination at the hands of the voters of Kent county should class the Democratic party, who elected their representatives to the legislature as sore head grumblers. Capt. Kerr is also very unjust in his letter to the CHESTERTOWN TRANSCRIPT. Every one in the county knows that the TRANSCRIPT is the only paper in the Kent county that can be depended upon to fight the battles of the Democratic party, it makes no difference what faction of the party wins. There is no trouble to tell where the TRANSCRIPT will be in any fight, and be it said to its great credit that it always looks after the interests of the people of the county. Capt. Kerr may need the assistance of the TRANSCRIPT in the next fight if he is nominated, and we do not believe that its editors will refuse to support openly and honestly every man on the Democratic ticket; but Capt. Kerr will have no claim upon it whatever. Yes, the political pot boiled over two years ago and the Democats of the county elected their ticket, through the assistance of the editorials in the TRANSCRIPT, by a majority of 200, and such a victory was possibly such a great surprise to Capt. Kerr and others that he is wondering to himself whether he was in the pot when she boiled over.

The impression of many Democrats of the Fifth District is that Capt. Kerr's letter will do him an immense amount of harm, for it is considered a direct slap at the very people who have always done and who will continue to do all they can for the success of the Democratic ticket. It is very evident that Capt. Kerr's nomination will not assist the Democatic ticket after the unjust and unkind manner in which he has referred to all honest and true Democrats in the letter to the News.

DEMOCRAT FROM THE FIFTH DISTRICT.

SPRAYING ORCHARDS.

When and How to Do the Work Most Effectually.

It is of the utmost importance that the first spraying should be done before all of the bloom has fallen. Begin with the early varieties and spray when nearly all the petals have fallen, says the Bulletin of the New York Experiment Station. That the first spraying should occur at just the right time is of more importance than all other spraying. The work should be completed within six days. When the calyx closes it prevents the lodgment of poison.

The second spraying should be done the following week. Its special usefulness is to attend to such blossoms as escaped the first operation. It is not wise to spray summer varietes the third time, but winter varietes in the latitude of Denver should be sprayed again between July 1 and 10.

The first spray should be applied with power, using a fine gauge of the vermorel nozzle. To stop spraying when the leaves drip might be too soon. In later sprayings, however, apply just enough to wet the surface of the leaves, since the intent is to deposit the poison there to destroy the young larvae hatching from eggs deposited on the leaf surface. The codling moth does not travel far if there is fruit to be found near by. Your neighbor may not spray at all, but if he has an abundance of fruit the moth will make its home there instead of infesting the neighborhood.

The percentage of wormy fruit in orchards not sprayed, as compared with orchards thoroughly sprayed, is conclusive enough to clinch the argument past all question in favor of thorough spaying. Three unsprayed orchards averaged, respectively, 48 per cent., 77 per cent. and 99 per cent. of wormy apples. In another orchard sprayed three times the precentage of wormy fruit was only 6-2-3. One peculiar fact regarding the codding moth is illustrated by the fact that at Fort Collins one season they had a hailstorm which destroyed the apple crop. The next year the apple crop was remarkably free from worms, while the second year after almost no worms were found.

Very few larvae winter in weeds. They may get into some crevice at the base of the tree and winter in the surface soil, if it is cracked open, or some under scale of rough bark. Only a few larvae survive the winter, most of them being destroyed by natural causes. Practically all of the second brood, however, get in their destructive work, a fact which renders the first spraying a matter of supreme importance.

SEED CORN!

Would you like to grow 200 bushels to the acre. The only variety that will produce this amount is my

IMPROVED COLLOSAL YELLOW DENT.

After years of constant care in selection and propagation, I have produced in this variety a world beater. Single stalks frequently produce two ears of 16 to 20 rows and more than 12 inches in length each. Single ears 14 to 16 inches are common on good land. In 1903 on a 6¾ acre lot I produced 1352 bushels in the ear. Notwithstanding last year's drought it averaged 114 bushels per acre.

In a test case in Talbot county last year it produced from 20 to 70 bushels per acre more than Home Builder, Central State Despatch, Legal Tender, Yard Long and 9 other varieties.

All my Seed Corn is carefully selected and dried quickly in specially prepared cribs. All ears pipped.

Descriptions of two splendid varieties of early white corn—"White Elephant" and "Farmers Interest" sent on application.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, Maryland, in Equity.

No. 1543.

THE object of this bill is to procure a decree for the sale of the real estate of Jacob Jeffers alias Jake Jeff, colored, deceased, and to distribute the proceeds thereof after the payment of his debts, to the respective heirs at law.

The bill states that a certain Jacob Jeffers alias Jake Jeff, colored, late of Kent county, deceased, was in his lifetime indebted unto Anne R. Robinson in the sum of $29.08 upon a certain judgment entered by Ben N. S. Wilkins, a late Justice of the Peace for Kent county, as will appear by a certified copy filed in said case.

And the bill further states that subsequent to the rendition of said judgment the said Anne Rebecca Robinson died and letters of administration were granted on her estate to the said James O. Robinson.

And the bill further states that the said Jacob Jeffers alias Jake Jeff being indebted unto your orator and unto divers other persons, died intestate, leaving no personal estate out of which your orators claim could be paid, and that no letters of administration have been granted on his estate, and that the said Jacob Jeffers alias Jake Jeff left real estate consisting of a house and lot of land situated in that part of Chestertown known as Lynchburg.

And the bill further states that the said Jacob Jeffers alias Jake Jeff left a widow, Delia Jeffers, surviving him, and the following children, viz.: Sarah Elizabeth Knight and her husband, William Knight, both of whom reside in the State of New York; Henry Jeffers, who resides in Chestertown, and whose wife's name is Hester Jeffers, but she resides in Wilmington, Delaware; John Jeffers, whose wife's name is Rose Jeffers, both of whom reside near Chesterville, Kent county, and these your orator is advised are the only heirs at law of the said Jacob Jeffers alias Jake Jeff.

To the end therefore that the real estate of Jacob Jeffers alias Jake Jeff, colored, may be sold or so much thereof as may be necessary for the payment of the claims of your orator and those of the other unsatisfied creditors of the said Jacob Jeffers alias Jake Jeff.
