MILLINGTON MATTERS.

The remains of Mrs. Nellie Peacock, wife of Mr. Edwin Peacock, of Philadelphia, were brought here Tuesday morning and interred in Millington cemetery. Mrs. Peacock was 34 years of age and was married to Mr. Peacock about five years ago. She leaves two small children, one two years old and the youngest six weeks. Her death occurred last Saturday morning of typhoid fever. Mrs. Peacock is well-known here having lived here several years ago.

Rev. Edwin Gardner has accepted the invitation to return to Asbury M. E. Church for another year. He returned from conference last week and preached his first sermon last Sunday. Rev. J. H. Kuhlmann has also accepted the invitation from Trinity and Chesterville M. E. Church, South, but has not returned yet. He will preach his first sermons in both churches next Sunday week, April 9th.

The Ushers Union of Asbury M. E. Church held a birthday social Thursday evening at the Hotel Bailey for the benefit of the church.

Dr. and Mrs. N. M. Jeter gave a birthday to their son, Master Allan, in honor of his eleventh birthday Friday evening, March 17th. Quite a number of his little friends and schoolmates were present. The evening was spent in playing, and passed so rapidly the little folks looked with regret when they realized that it was time to take their departure. Refreshments of different kinds of cake and ices were served, and Allan's friends wished him many more happy birthdays, and returned to their homes very tired but happy.

Misses Ethel Clements and Viola Woodall, of Crumpton, were the guests of Miss Bessie Weist, near town, last Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. H. S. Dulaney, of Asbury, near Crisfield, Md., spent a couple of days with friends in town.

Miss Evelyn Cochran spent several days last week with Miss Emma Gillespie, in Sudlersville.

Dr. E. G. Clark and daughter, Miss Agnes, of Middletown, Del., spent Wednesday and Thursday with friends in town. Mrs. Harry Weist, of Philadelphia, spent last Sunday with Mr. John U. Weist, near town.

Mrs. F. C. Numbers and little daughter, Mary, spent a couple of days last week with her sister, Mrs. James Orem, of Smyrna, Del.

Without any intention of distracting from the merits of other gentlemen whose friends are booming them for representative in the Legislature from this district, our people are almost unanimous in desiring that Mr. John P. Ahern, of our town, should be named for the place and given the honor this time. No doubt with a candidate as popular as Mr. Ahern the First District would fairly outdo herself and enhance the prestige she now enjoys of being the banner district of the county. Mr. Ahern can and would secure more votes than those of his own party.

CECILTON ITEMS.

WEDDING BELLS.

BENNETT—HOFFECKER.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hoffecker about one mile from Warwick was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Thursday, March 23rd when their daughter, Miss Elva, was united in marriage to Mr. Samuel Bennett, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bennett. The house was beautifully decorated with potted plants and boxwood. Promptly at 2 P. M. the bridal party entered the parlor to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march rendered by Miss Ethel Manlove. The bride and groom were preceded by Miss Alberta Stevenson, of Greensboro, Md., as bride's maid, and Mr. Clarence Maree, of Wilmington, as best man. They were met by Rev. Frank S. Cain, pastor of Warwick Methodist Protestant Church, who pronounced them man and wife. The bride was handsomely gowned in white lansdowne, and carried a boquet of white carnations. Her attendant was gowned in pink crepe de chine and carried pink carnationss. The groom and his attendant wore conventional black. After the congratulations the bride and groom led the way to the dining room, where refreshment consisting of fruits, ices confections were served in abundance. Amid showers to rice and good wishes, they left on the 4.17 train from Middletown, for Wilmington, where they will make their home. The presents were many in number as well as beautiful and useful. Friends were present from Warwick and Greensboro, Md.; Middletown, Odessa, Smyrna, St. George's, Delaware City, Townsend and Wilmington, Del.

KLINEFELTER—KOPPELMAN

Miss Elizabeth E. Koppelman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Koppelman, of Baltimore, was married at noon on Tuesday to Mr. Harry F. Klinefelter, at the residence of the bride's parents, 605 N. Carrollton Avenue. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John Timothy Stone, pastor of Brown Memorial Church, Baltimore. The home was beautifully decorated with palms and cut flowers. The bride wore a gown of white messaline and a tulle veil. After the ceremony which was exceedingly quiet, only the relatives and personal friends of the contracting parties being present. Mr. and Mrs. Klinefelter left for a bridal tour. They will reside at the St. Paul. The groom is a son of ex-City-Councilman Klinefelter and a cousin of Mr. H. H. Klinefelter, of Queen Anne's, near Chester bridge.

STILL POND ITEMS.

Mr. Walter Crowding and children, Linwoood and Laura spent Sunday with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Crowding.

Mr. Herbert Ford, of near Black's visited his cousin Mr. Chas. Ford.

Mr. and Mrs. William Money gave a party in honor of Miss Lizzie Saunders. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Sallie Norris, Misses Mary and Katie Capps, Alyce Hackett, Mabel and Laura Norris, Lizzie Sauders; Messrs. Harry Ricards, Mr. Quinn, Claude Hackett, Carl Norris and others.

Mr. Herbert Watson has returned to his home in Wilmington after visiting the Misses Rasin.

Mr. George Smith has been confined to his bed with la grippe but is much better at this writing. BE WISE.

COLLEGE NOTES.

It has been decided to hold the annual concert of the Glee and Mandolin Club in Stam's Hall on Thursday evening, April 27. After three months of practice, the people of Chestertown may expect that the club will furnish a fine musical entertainment, and judging by the demands which have been made upon the college boys for music during the past winter, it is only reasonable to infer that a large audience will greet the club at its appearance on that evening.

Rev. L. B. Smith, a graduate of last year, and now a student at Westminster Theological Seminary, spent Saturday and Sunday with friends on the hill. Mr. Smith occupied the pulpit of Christ M. P. Church on Sunday at the morning and evening services and made a favorable impression upon his congregation.

Ground back of the windmill is being broken and put into shape for tennis courts. Tennis seems to be the most popular game at the college now, and the warm days have already brought the girls court into active use.
