MISSIONARY ANNIVERSARY.

Christ M. P. Sunday School Renders a Pleasing Programme and Raises the Largest Collection in its History.

The 23rd anniversary of the Juvenile Home Missionary Society of Christ M. P. Church was held last Sunday evening. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion by a committee composed of Mrs. J. D. Bacchus, Mrs. J. E. Ferguson and Miss DeCorse, with potted plants, ferns, etc. The following programme was rendered in fine style, under the direction of assistant superintendent, Wm. A. Wheatley.

Song 141, "On With Step Triumphant."
Prayer, Prof. Douglas.
Song 34, "Let the Gospel Light Shine Out."
Reading in concert 23rd Psalm.
President's Address.
Song 68, "Somebody Needs You."
Recitation, "Thy Kingdom Come, Norman Crouch
"A Sunshine Maker," Ida Smith.
"Jesus' Little Lights," 5 little girls.
Song 80, "The Blessed Story."

A pleasant surprise—The presentation of a beautiful silk banner to the school as a memorial to the late Mrs. Josephine Hubbard by class number 8, which was Mrs. Hubbard's class during her great work in the Sunday School. The presentation speech was made by Mr. Thos. Bowers, substitute teacher of the class.

Song 92, "He Rules the World in Love."
Collection Speech, Roy Barnett.
Class reports for the month.
Song 108, "Hark! Hark! My Soul."
Presentation of Banner, Prof. Robert Clark.
Report for the year.
Award of premiums, Wm. B. Usilton.
Song 64, "As we March Beneath His Banner."
Remarks by Prof. Douglass.
Benediction.

The most important feature of the anniversary was the collection which proved to be the largest in the history of the school. Class No. 8, composed of twelve ladies, and taught by Mrs. Wm. J. Vannort, reported the magnificent collection of $135 for the night. This is one of the best classes in the Sunday school, and the ladies deserve the greatest credit for the sacrifices they made to do so much for their school and church. They have the honor of having contributed the largest amount ever given by one class in Chestertown for the benefit of the school and missions and their efforts were rewarded by being the first class to receive the beautiful new banner, which this class also presented to the school as a memorial to their beloved teacher, Mrs. Hubbard. The collection for the evening amounted to more than $315, and for the year to $530.72. The five highest classes for the night were Mrs. Wm. J. Vannort's class, $135 ; Mr. J. D. Baccahus, $50.01 ; Miss Nettie Russell, $19.30 ; Mrs. Ralph Barnett, $19.25 ; Infant class, $12.87. The five highest classes for the year were Mrs. Wm. J. Vannort, $141.90; Mr. J. D. Bacchus, $76.15; Mr. Wilbur W. Hubbard, $50.87; Mr. Fred G. Usilton, $35.06; Miss Nettie Russell, $23.32. Little Miss Ida Smith sang very beautfully during the programme "Saved by Grace." Miss Ida has a beautiful voice, and her singing was a feature of the evening. Prof. Robt. Clark, of the college, presented the banner in a splendid speech.

WEDDING BELLS.

BODINE—PERKINS.

On Wedneday evening at half after six o'clock, in the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Germantown, Miss Ethel Perkins, daughter of the late Dr. James Alfred Perkins and Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Blackiston Perkins, formerly of Chestertown, was married to Mr. Franklin Imlay Bodine, son of Mr. George I. Bodine, of Chestnut Hill, Pa. The Church was beautifully decorated for the happy occasion, and promptly at the appointed hour the bridal procession entered the church led by the ushers: Messrs. Cornelius Bodine, of Chestnut Hill, Pa.; Clarence Cornelius, of Riverton, N. J.; Paxon Deeter, of Reading, Pa.; H. Norman Perkins, Howard Foster Perkins and Reaumur Winston, of Philadelphia, all wearing evening suits. Then followed the bridesmaids, Miss Florence Bodine, sister of the groom, and Miss Helen Browne, of Washington, D. C., both attired in beautiful gowns of Paris muslin, trimmed with lace and white satin girdles. They carried pink bridesmaids' roses. They were followed by the maid of honor, Miss Irma Briscoe Eliason, of Chestertown, who wore a handsome costume of pink silk net over chiffon trimmed with cream lace, carrying pink roses. Next came the two little ribbon boys, Master Mifflin and Alfred Perkins, nephews of the bride, dressed in white. The bride attired in a rich costume of ivory messaline silk, trimmed with chiffon, wearing a tulle veil, and carrying brides roses and lillies of the valley, entered the church on the arm of her brother, Mr. David Blackiston Perkins, of Germantown, by whom she was given away. She was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. George Imlay Bodine, Jr. The ceremony was impressively performed by Rev. Willis P. O'Dell, pastor of First Church, Germantown. The bridal party and immediate families only were given a reception by the brothers of the bride at their home in Germantown after the ceremony. Immediately after the reception Mr. and Mrs. Bodine left for an extended tour of the North. They will be at home 504 Westview street, Pelham, Philadelphia, after May 15th. They were the recipients of many handsome and useful presents. Those attending the wedding from a distance were Herbert E. Perkins, Esq., Mrs. Thos. W. Eliason, Miss Grace Wilkins, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. W. Perkins and Mr. Eben F. Perkins, of Chestertown, and Mr. Charles Cox Hopper, Senator and Mrs. Clarence W. Perkins, of Baltimore. The bride is well known and very popular in Chestertown, her former home, and her many friends here extend congratulations.

BASE BALL NOTES.

The Chestestown Athletic Club will play its first game of the season with the second team of Washington College on the campus this afternoon at 3 o'clock. The C. A. C. has recently purchased a set of fine new uniforms, and they will make a fine appearance on the diamond. A good game is expected. The members of the team with their positions are as follows : C. Coleman, c ; J. Rolph, p ; J. Barnes, (capt), 1b ; W. McIntire, 2b ; J. White, ss , W. Burk, 3b ; P. Rolph, lf ; Alvin Brown, cf ; A. Simpler, rf.

The strong Millington team will cross bats with the regular Washington College team on the College campus next Saturday afternoon, April 15.

The Lynch's base ball team organized Saturday, April 1st., with the following players: P. Jones, c ; E. Jones, p ; L. Mann, 1b ; C. Jones, 2b ; H. Stavely, ss ; W. Stavely, 3b ; J. Melvin, cf ; C. O'Neil, lf; H. Jones, rf. The team will play its first game Saturday, April 8th, on its own grounds with the "American Boys," of Still Pond. They would like to hear from all teams from 10 to 18 years of age. Send challenges to W. Stavely, manager.

The Uptowners and Church Hillers started the first game of the season on the diamond near the old depot last Saturday afternoon. One inning was played, a boy got hit in the head with a ball, a row was started, the umpire gave the game to the Uptowners by the score of 9 to 0, and the Uptowners gave the Church Hillers 50 cents guarantee and sent them home.

The Kennedyville team played their first game of the season last Saturday afternoon with the Washington College team on the College campus and defeated that team by the score of 14 to 12. Moore and Dawson were the battery for W. C. and did good work, but their support was not of the best. Kennedyville has a strong team, and we should like to see these two teams get together when the season is a little more advanced.

W. C. BASEBALL SCHEDULE.

The following schedule of games has been arranged by Manager R. F. Gill, of the Washington College team :

May 6th, St. John's College, at Chestertown.
May 12th, Western Md. College, at Chestertown.
May 20th, Wilmington Con. Academy at Dover.
May 30th, Chesterfield A. C., at Chestertown.
June 3rd, Mt. St. Joseph's, at Chestertown.
June 10th, Md. Agricultural, at Chestertown.
June 17th, Lafayette B. B. C., at Chestertown.
June 21st, Alumni.

A National Institution.

President Roosevelt, in his message opening Congress in December, pointed out that the business of insurance had attained national proportions, and his words will be remembered by those who read and examined the Annual Statement for the year 1904 of the Prudential Insurance Company.

This company wrote and issued during 1904 over $312,000,000 of paid-for life insurance, increasing the number of policies in force to nearly six millions, and bringing the amount of insurance in force to a sum exceeding one billion dollars.

This Company, whose agencies extend to every State in the Union, is a truly national institution, not only in size, but in the position which it occupies as a trustee for the funds of the millions in all parts of the country, thus furnishing the means of making provision for the future for themselves and their dependents.

That this trust is well placed is shown by the fact that the Company has accumulated assets of over $88,000,000, and a surplus exceeding $13,000,000, the liabilities being $75,000,000. The exhibit this year gives a very plain and convincing statement of the character of these assests and of the security which is afforded on its loans, on bonds and mortgages, and collateral securities.

One very interesting item of the statement is the amount paid to its policyholders. Over $13,000,000 were paid to policyholders during 1904. The Company has paid to policyholders to date a total of over $92,000,000. It is certainly impossible to estimate the amount of good which the distribution of this vast sum of money has accomplished for the American people who have been its recipients.

The Company has at different times made changes and concessions in its policies, which resulted in giving additional benefits to those insured. Wherever practicable these concessoins are made retroactive; and up to the present time the Company has distributed in cash dividends and other concessions, not stipulated in orginal contracts, and voluntarily given to holders of old policies, over five million dollars.

The Company will furnish any information concerning it policies to those who write to the Home Office, at Newark, N. J. For fuller particulars see their advertisement on page 2 of this issue.

Real Estate Sales.

Mr. Richard H. Collins, of the TRANSCRIPT, has purchased of Wm. W. Beck the John Wesley Anderson lot, on east Front street, and the two-thirds interest of Wm. W. Beck and Allen A. Harris in the Benj. and James H. Ringgold lots adjoining. The houses will be removed and the lots held for sale. The boat House at the end of the lot will also be removed.

Mr. J. Walter Skirven has purchased of the Lusby heirs, the fine farm near town now occupied by Mr. Edward Lusby for $18,500. The farm contains 300 acres, more or less, and is one the finest tracts of land in Kent county. Mr. Skirven, the purchaser, is one of our most prominent agriculturalists and stock raisers, and owns some of the finest land in the county.

M. P. Conference.

The 77th session of the Maryland annaul conference M. P. Church, convened in Salisbury on Wednesday. The conference was called to order by the President, Rev. F. T. Little, who read his annual report showing marked increase in membership and improvements to church property. $45,600 has been bequeathed to the church during the year and there has been an awakening of religious zeal all over the district. Rev. Dr. Little was elected President of the Conference by a vote of 131. Dr. W. R. Graham received 37 votes. This is Dr. Little's fourth year as President, and the indications are that he will serve the five year term. Rev. W. S. Phillips, of Crisfield, was elected conference secretary and named as his assistants Revs. J. H. Ewell and J. H. Straughn. Rev. W. N. Sherwood, of Wilmington, was elected conference steward, and Rev. W. A. Melvin, forgein mission steward. Rev. J. W. Balderson preached the conference sermon, which was ordered to be published in pamphlet form. 300 ministers and laymen are in attendance, and they are being royally entertained. The session will continue until Tuesday when President Little will read his plan of appoinments. James W. Lambert, delegate from Chestertown, is on the committee on church enterprise.

P. T. F. H. C. Supper.

The Pine Tree Fox Hunt Club gave their annual supper at Hotel Voshell on Wendesday evening and about one hundred guests were present to enjoy a magnificent supper prepared in most excellent style by the proprietress, Mrs. George E. Lambert. The menu consisted of roast turkey, chicken salad, oysters in various styles, fish, Maryland biscuit, pickles, celery, jellies with refreshments of ice cream, cake, coffee, etc., and all present declared that a supper of that kind, served in such excellent style was fully equal to the delight of chasing Sir Reynard over the fields of Queen Anne's and Kent. The medal which is usually awarded at the banquet to the owner of the best hounds, was not awarded because of the inability of the judges to make a decision on the run last Saturday. There will be another run to-day in Wilmer's Neck, Queen Anne's county, when a decision will likely be made. Among the guests present from Chestertown were: Messrs. George Brice, David Kendall, L. J. Keyser, W. T. Maslin, William E. Moody, D. B. McMenamin Charles J. Reiche, R. F. Prrks and Samuel Hicks. Many toasts were given, and a royal good time was socially enjoyed. The TRANSCRIPT is indebted to the club for an invitation, and regrets that business prevented its acceptance.

SOCIAL NOTES.

Miss Mae Hurlock entertained a few of her friends at her home near Kennedyville, on Friday last, at a party given in honor of her friend, Miss Lola Hubbard, a student of Washington College. The evening was spent very pleasantly in playing games and several other amusements were indulged in. Music was furnished by Messrs. Bramble and Medders on piano and violin. At eleven o'clock refreshments consisting of ice cream, cake, bananas, oranges and apples were served in abundance. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. James Archibald, Mr. and Mrs. John Archibald, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hurlock, Mrs. Rachel Hill, Messrs. White, Gibson, Langsall, Brittingham, Tyler, Usilton, of Washington College; Edward Bramble, Andrew Medders, Walter Hill, Ralph Vandyke Misses Hettie Hill, Erma Medders, of Locust Grove; Messrs.
