SATURDAY, APRIL 29, 1905.

JOSEPH JEFFERSON, the last of the great American actors, died in Florida last Sunday evening, after a long illness.

A MAN by the name of Amen has been appointed deputy game warden in Alleghany county. That certainly is the end of political appointments on de Western Sho'.

Now that the election for town commissioner is over, the attention of the people of the town is naturally drawn towards the question of town improvement. We understand that one of the issues upon which Mr. Wm S. Carroll, the newly elected commissioner, made his campaign was a garbage system for the town. This would be a most beneficial innovation in town affairs. Such a system is badly needed in Chestertown, and we are confident that the people of the town would sanction any move the commssioners might make for the introduction of such a desirable innovation. It seems to us that Chestertown is a place of sufficient size and means as to justify the town in owning a pair of horses and two carts which could do the work of keeping the streets of the town clean and neat at a very nominal cost in proportion to its benefits. A garbage system run in connection with a street sprinkler, all owned and operated by the town, is a long-felt necessity, and we are quite sure that the commissioners would provide both if they felt that the general public were desirous of having these improvements. So far as we are informed both the garbage system and the street sprinkler could be run without increasing the tax rate, and the town could employ two men and purchase two horses with little burden to the tax-payers. Let the people of the town agitate the question, and we believe the commissioners, who are anxious to carry out the wishes of the people, will act in the matter. A well conducted garbage system would add much to the attractiveness and beauty of the town, and would be worth more to the business interests than can be imagined. Let's have the garbage system and street sprinkler. It is getting dusty now, and we all have sufficient pride in our town to desire these improvements.

JABKSON-SMITH CONTEST.

All the testimony in the Jackson-Smith contested election case in the First Congressional district was concluded Monday, when counsel representing Mr. Jackson took evidence in rebuttal at Salisbury and Snow Hill.

The next step in the case will be the publication by Congress of all the testimony which has been taken by both sides. This will be a voluminous document. The late James E. Wilkinson was the stenographer who took a large part of the testimony. While at work he was suffering from the illness which proved to be fatal. Upon the receipt of the printed records in the case counsel representing Mr. Jackson and Mr. Smith will prepare their briefs, which will be sucmitted to the Elections Committee of the House of Representatives, which will also hear arguments.

The contest will prove costly. Congress will appropriate $2,000 with which to cover the expenses incurred by Mr. Smith. He will receive this sum whether he wins or loses. Mr. Jackson will receive a like sum if the contested seat is awarded to him. If, however, he should lose the case he will receive nothing from Congress and will be called upon to pay out of his private pocket all the expense incurred in the contest. This will be a considerable sum, as it will include the fees of all witnesses, amounting to 75 cents each day, and mileage at the rate of 5 cents per mile each way, counsel and notary fees.

Mr. John C. Rose is counsel for Mr. Jackson, while Mr. Smith is represented by Messrs. Miles & Gorman.

GET

in the swim, and come to headquarters for

YOUR SPRING SUIT.

It's much easier and more profitable to move with ebb tide where things are moving out. There's plenty life, merchandise, etc., so much more so, than to butt up against flood tide, up stream, or slack water where things are at a stand-stlll. Merchandise is cheaper where volume of trade predominates.

WE ARE

headquarters for Men's, Boys' and Children's CLOTHING, HATS, NECKWEAR and FURNISHINGS of all description.

WHY SO?

Because our output is larger. Come early while assortment is complete.
