CLIFF CITY ITEMS.

Mr. Stratton, the wharf agent, will now be enabled to take a long needed rest from his arduous labors and give more time to his incubator of which by the way he and Mrs. Stratton are making a success. He has built a nice house 12 by 16 cement floor, lath and plastered, nearly a glass front to the south, all nicely enclosed with wire netting. They have had several successful hatchings of fine stock, the eggs from registered barred Plymouth Rock.

One of the greatest events of the day in lower Quaker Neck is that J.D. Carter is smearing his old shack with a coat of lead-colored paint, and not only the Lord, but all the people who have seen it, knows it needed it badly.

I have to modify my ideas of the Kieffer pear. Last year I wrote that you couldn't kill them with an axe. This year the few that are on the trees are giggling at me. The Le Conte, another bold bearer, is a pearless tree this year. As for peaches, I will say that the good wife who has any canned stuff left over is fortunate, but our people take everything in the right spirit and contend that if we had a crop of peaches every year there would be no sale for them, as the canners would soon be overstocked, forasmuch as the markets expand new peach growing territory is added.

Our fishermen and oystermen see nothing before them but a chance to rob a bank or over the hills to the poorhouse. Never has it been known that fish were so scarce, even the despised eel and catfish are non est comfortable, as our colored preacher says about Rockafellow tribe getting to glory. One oysterman went out for a mess on Saturday and hunted two hours and caught 27 little oysters. Still we must keep all this ground idle and wait till the Lord has mercy on the heathen and restocks the bars and even there is no chance. Several times in the last ten years the bars in general have been plentifully supplied with spat, and before the oysters were 1½ inches long they were mixed in and sent to Baltimore. The law allows five per cent. of small stock to be taken, and of course that is not the limit. A planting law is needed and one that will give the tongers a chance to take up a few acres each and then when they steal all the little oysters off the natural bars they can plant them on their beds and when they get big enough some other oystermen will come in the night and steal them from the stealer.

For sometime past it has been virtually promised that the rural route 3 would be extended down the Cliff road where the people live, and one man wrote a letter to mail that way and is still keeping it and his faith in Republican politicians. He is very easy, for he has written several other letters to the party telling them he has written and will mail the letter when the route is extended. HIVER.

Order of Publication.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County in Equity.

No. 1552.

Augusta M. Bowers, John S. Bowers, Lucy Bowers, Thos. D. Bowers, Mary R. Aldridge, Wm. R. Aldridge, vs.

John N. Dodd, Charles L. Dodd, Harry L. Dodd, Thomas S. Dodd, Mary H. Dodd, Richard D. Hynson, Jefferson D. Bacchus, The Second National Bank of Chestertown, Md., H. Clay Lusby, The Kent County Savings Bank, Whitely Johnson, Frederick Humbert, Andrew J. Hackett and Publishing Clearing House.

THE object of this bill is to procure a decree for the sale of certain Real Estate of which John T. Dodd died, seized and possessed and to have the proceeds thereof divided among the persons entitled according to their respective interests.

The bill states that a certain John T. Dodd, late of Kent county, deceased, by his last will and testament dated the 15th day of September, 1874, duly probated and recorded in Wills Records of Kent county in Liber E. C. No. 1, folios 130, etc., among other things gave and devised unto John N. Dodd a certain farm or tract or tracts of land, situate and lying in the Fourth Election District of Kent county and near Chestertown, commonly called the Dodd farm, to him and his heirs forever, provided nevertheless, that if the said John N. Dodd should die without issue surviving him then he devised the said farm over to his daughter, Augusta M. Bowers, for life, and at her death he gave and devised the said farm to his six grandchildren, Thos. S., Charles L. and Harry L. Dodd, John S., Thomas D. and Mary R. Bowers, (the said Mary R. Bowers has since intermarried with William R. Aldridge,) in fee simple, share and share alike, subject to six legacies of five hundred dollars each to the said Thos. S., Charles L. and Harry L. Dodd, John S., Thomas D. Bowers and Mary R. Aldridge, formerly Mary R. Bowers, and whereas the said John T. Dodd, by his last will and testament, directed that certain other real estate to wit, a lot of land with the improvements thereon, situated on High street in Chestertown, and another lot of land with improvements thereon situated on Calvert street in said town should be sold by his executrix, and the proceeds of the sale, together with the personalty, should be used for the payment of his debts, but the last mentioned parcels of real estate were not sold, and the said John T. Dodd was seized and possessed, at the time of his death of two other lots or parcels of land, not devised and not mentioned in his last will and testament to wit : a lot of land situated on High St., and commonly called the "Shop lot", and another lot of land commonly called the "Lumberyard lot."

And the bill further states that Mary J. Dodd, duly qualified as executrix of the said John T. Dodd, but has since departed this life.

And the bill further states that there are certain judgments against the interest of Harry L. Dodd and Thomas S. Dodd, in the real estate which said judgments liens will affect the title of any purchaser who may bid at the sale of the real estate, and the parties holding the said liens are hereby made party defendants hereto, as will appear by copies of liens filed as exhibits in this case.

And the bill further states that Charles L. Dodd has applied for the benefit of the bankrupt law, and his interest in the said real estate has been sold and those who purchased same and now hold interest therein are parties to this cause.

And the bill further states the plaintiffs are anxious to have the said real estate sold for the purpose of partition among the several persons who are interested therein and entitled to share in the proceeds of the sale of the said real estate.

It is thereupon, this 1st day of June, 1905, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County, as a court of equity, the plaintiff's by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper printed and published in Kent county, once a week for four successive weeks before the 3rd of July giving to the non-resident defendants Thomas S Dood and The Publishing Clearing House of the object and substance of the bill and warning said non-resident defendants to appear in person or by solicitor on or before the 17th day of July next to show cause if any they have why a decree should not be passed as prayed.
