Democratic County Ticket

FOR THE LEGISLATURE:
ISAAC GIBBS,
CURTIS E. CRANE.

FOR SHERIFF:
ANDREW MEDDERS.

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONERS:
JOHN E. MORRIS,
WILLIAM WAGNER.

FOR TREASURER:
WILLIAM E. KEYSER.

FOR COUNTY SURVEYOR:
G. B. TAYLOR.

WE PLACE the ticket at the head of our editorial columns to-day, and begin the race to land the candidates in the respective offices in the election next November.

LET'S ALL KEEP SWEET now. We are all Democrats, and there is no use to talk about what might have been. Some of us are licked, and it does not feel as good to be licked as it does to be the victor. But what's the difference when we are all Democrats?

DR. J. H. HESSEY, the candidate of the People's faction for treasurer, proved his popularity and strength as a vote getter in the Third District in the primary, and his many friends in the county regret that he failed to secure a place on the ticket. Mr. Keyser, the opposition candidate, however, carried his district for the same office, and of course Dr. Hessey could not expect the nomination.

OUR FRIENDS in the fifth District, Messrs. Charles D. Wood, Elmer E. Leary, Walter H. Hadaway, S. J. Wickes and T. B. Durding, are to be congratulated upon the excellent showing they made in the primary contest. The People's faction organization in the Fifth District, is a Gibraltar of strength, and the handsome majority which Mr. Wood received, 65 votes, against such a popular man as Mr. Wm. Wagner, shows conclusively the effectiveness of their organization. The Old Fifth is all right.

THE ANTI-ORGANIZATION FORCES carried the day in the primary contest in Talbot county last Saturday. Gen. Joseph B. Seth and County Treasurer Joseph Harrington led the Anti-Organization forces. Gen. Seth was nominated for the State Senate, having carried three of the five districts. Mr. Harrington was renominated for County Treasurer. The organization forces were led by clerk of the court G. Frank Wrightsan and ex-Secretary of State Wilfred Bateman. Candidates of both factions compose the ticket. The convention did not endorse the Poe amendment, but preferred to stand upon the platform to be adopted by the state convention.

THE PRIMARY CONTEST.

The primaries are over and the result is well-known. The "Old Organization" secured a decisive victory. It is needless to expatiate upon the "why" and "wherefore" of the result. Many things combined made victory possible for the "Old Organization," though the popularity and good judgment of Messrs. Richard D. Hynson and Lewin W. Wickes, were powerful factors in the final result. To them alone must be ascribed the credit for the victory, and the the people will be gratified to see Mr. Hynson and Mr. Wickes assume control of the destinies of the Democratic party in Kent county. The People's faction made a splendid fight, and an analysis of the vote of the county will show that they received a majority of the solid vote in the primaries. Mr. Barroll, as leader of the People's faction, as well as his friends, worked hard to win, and they are none the less Democrats because they were defeated. The thing to do now is to elect the ticket, which is a strong one, and that will be done without fail.

Sprained Ankle, Stiff Neck, Lame Shoulder.

These are three common ailments for which Chamberlain's Pain Balm is especially valuable. If promptly applied it will save you time, money and suffering when troubled with any one of these ailments. For sale by M. A. Toulson Druggest.

A FALSE REPORT.

The rumor which has been freely circulated in Chestertown and throughout the county to the effect that the despatch published in the Baltimore Sunday Sun last Sunday stating that the "Smith-Usilton faction had won the primaries in Kent on Saturday," was sent to that paper by one or the other of the editors of the CHESTERTOWN TRANSCRIPT, Messrs. Collins or Bowers, is incorrect. Mr. Fred G. Usilton is the Baltimore Sun correspondent from Chestertown and sent the despatch in question to that journal over the Diamond State Telephone. We are perfectly willing at all times to be held responsible for what we do, but are not willing to shoulder or be held responsible for reports which are published for designed purposes by them, and then to cover up their tracks, after accomplishing their purpose, by circulating the report that some one else other than themselves is responsible for it. That despatch was sent for a purpose, and every one knows the purpose.

THE TICKET.

The ticket nominated by the Democratic County Convention on Tuesday is a strong and representative one, and should command the hearty support of every Democrat in the county. All differences, if any were made by the long and hard primary contest, should be laid aside, and every man who desires the success of the Democratic ticket in the fall election, should pull off his coat and work for every man on the ticket. The candidates nominated on Tuesday may rest assured that the TRANSCRIPT will do everything in its power to elect the ticket, and while we would have been gratified at the success of the men in the primaries, who were the representatives of the faction to which the TRANSCRIPT loaned its support, yet we are Democrats and are ready to give just as hearty support to the successful candidates. We say this not because of any desire to jump into the band wagon, or for the purpose of playing for position. Our motives are higher than such sordid intentions. We are Democrats, and it makes no difference to us, we are always true to the party. That is the proper spirit and we hope that every Democrat, our own good friends, as well as those who opposed us, will "wade in deep" and pull the good old party to victory. It is needless for us to give the biography of the various candidates.

Capt Curtis E. Crane one of the candidates for the legislature is one of the most prominent business men in the county. His large business has given him ample experience with men, and his energy and push are such as make him a valuable man on the ticket. He is a new man in politics, never having been allied particularly with any faction of the party, and this fact is sufficient of itself to make Mr. Crane a strong man. Mr. Crane's social relations are also such as to commend him to the respect of the entire county and we are sure he will make a strong fight for election.

Mr. Isaac Gibbs, Mr. Crane's associate on the ticket for the legislature, is well known to the people of the county having been elected to the legislature two years ago. His record in the legislature is well known, and should commend him to the voters of the county. He is a strong man, hard worker, and socially will make a capital representative.

Messrs. Morris and Wagner, candidates for county commissioners, are both prominent men in the county, Mr. Morris being a resident of the Sixth and Mr. Wagner of the Fifth Districts. Mr. Morris is the son of Mr. Wm. Morris, one of the most prominent agriculturalists in the county. Himself a farmer and strict business man, Mr. Morris will no doubt prove a valuble acquisition to the Board of County Commissioners. He is a brother of Mr. J. Elwood Morris, Register of Wills, and has never held office before. Mr. Wagner is a representative business man of the Fifth District, and is popular with the voters of the county. He, also, is a new man in politics, and has never held office before. Both Mr. Morris and Mr. Wagner will add strength to the ticket.

Mr. Andrew Medders is a most suitable man for the office of sheriff. Large of statue, fearless in manner, and correct in all his habits, he possesses all the qualifications necessary for the discharge of the duties of the office. He is a brother to Mr. John Medders, one of the most prominent political leaders of the Second District, and he has many friends all over the county, who will work for his election.

Mr. Wm. E. Keyser, candidate for Treasurer, has long been prominent before the public. He is a gentleman of the old school, pure in his Democracy and as staunch a citizen as there is in the county. He is prominent in all walks of life, and is so well known to the people of the county as to insure to him a large vote. He is a prominent business man in Fairlee, and possesses all the qualifications for the office which he seeks.

Prof. G. B. Taylor, candidate for surveyor, is principal of the Millington Academy, and is one of our most cultured and polished citizens. Mr. Taylor in nowise sought the nomination, but he will make a most acceptable candidate. He has a thorough knowledge of surveying, and there will be no trouble about his election.

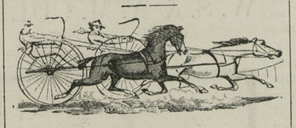

This is the Domocratic ticket. It is a strong one, and no Democrat should refuse to support it.

Chestertown, Md., June 14, 1905.

MESSRS. EDITORS OF THE TRANSCRIPT—Gentlemen: In the primary on Saturday last each Faction exerted its utmost nerve to win success. The Organization was successful and named their ticket. They did what they had the right to do and every true Democrat will bow to the will of the majority and give the ticket his most hearty and earnest support. All this talk about supporting a Republican or mixed ticket is nonsense. From now until the next Election there should be no more "Faction" in our Party, but each of us should give that untiring support which we would have demanded of the Organization if our ticket had been successful. No other course would be honorable after participating in a Primary Contest. With a united front and earnest effort there is no reason why our ticket should not receive a much larger majority than was given the Democratic ticket in 1903. The ticket as made is a strong one, and deserves the support of everyone who calls himself a Democrat.

Respectfully yours,
HOPE H. BARROLL.

GET
in the swim, and come to headquarters for
YOUR SPRING SUIT.

It's much easier and more profitable to move with ebb tide where things are moving out. There's plenty life, merchandise, etc., so much more so, than to butt up against flood tide, up stream, or slack water where things are at a standstill. Merchandise is cheaper where volume of trade predominates.

WE ARE

headquarters for Men's, Boys' and Children's CLOTHING, HATS, NECKWEAR and FURNISHINGS of all description.

WHY SO?

Because our output is larger. Come early while assortment is complete.

Paris Green and Kno Bug,

Be sure to use Kno Bug on all plants, the great exterminator of insects, for house and garden plants and small shrubs. While it is not poisonous to man, it is sure death to insects. The farmers who use Kno Bug freely on potatoes last season had a large crop of good smoot potatoes, which actually brought higher prices in the market. It does not injure the potatoes in least.
