MILLINGTON MATTERS.

Children's Day services will be held in Trinity M. E. Church (South) Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. The committee in charge is working diligently preparing an interesting program. The public is invited.

Children's Day services were held in Asbury M. E. Church last Sunday evening. A very interesting program was rendered, consisting of solos, duets and full chorus, also resitations by scholars of the Sunday school. The pastor's address was much enjoyed. The congregation was very large and a good collection was realized.

Services will be held in Trinity M. E. Church (South) by Rector of North Kent Parish next Sunday morning at 10.30 A. M.

Quite a number of young folks from our town attended the Children's Day service at Blackiston Church, at Blackiston, Del., last Sunday evening.

There are few towns the size of Millington which can boast of a finer hotel than our town can. The hotel Bailey is situated on the corner of Cypress and Sassafras streets, and presents a most pleasing appearance upon entering the town. Mr. Bailey has had it painted recently, and it is indeed a beautiful building. It is a three story structure with mansard roof and large double porch full across the front. He also has livery attached.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Spayd have returned from Lebanon, Pa., to their farm near town where they will remain during the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Spayd spent the winter months at their winter residence at Lebanon, and drive down to their farm every summer. They were accompanied by Mrs. Spayd's two cousins, Misses Amelia and Emma Bamberger, also of Lebanon, who drove also, and will visit them for several weeks. They all drove the entire distance.

Miss Bessie Hurlock has returned from Frederick City where she has been a student of the Woman's College for the past year, and will spend her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hurlock,

Mrs. E. Power and daughter, Miss Angeline, of Philadelphia, were the guests of the former's sisters-in-law several days this week.

Mrs. Harry French and daughter, of Philadelphia, are the guests of Miss Gertie Turner, near town.

Miss Helen Rasin is spending an indefinite period with her sister, Mrs. B. Hackett, at Newport News, Va.

Miss May Green, of Holmesburg, Pa., spent last Sunday with Miss Gertie Turner, near town.

Miss Agnes Clark, of Middletown, Del., was the guest of the Misses Jones several days last week.

Miss Margaret Smith, of Smyrna, Del., spent last Sunday with friends in town.

Miss Julia Ferguson, of Baltimore, is visiting her mother, Mrs. C. P. Gowman on Cypress St.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Smith spent last Sunday with Mr. Smith's uncle, Mr. James Lamb, near Leipsic, Del.

Mrs. E. E Gambrill, of Havre de Grace, Md., is the guest of Mrs. James R. Jones.

Mr. James Wright, of Smyrna, Del., was in town last Sunday.

Miss Gertrude Smith, of Lebanon, Pa., spent last Sunday with her sister, Miss Ada Smith, at "Vansant's Hotel."

The Millington baseball club defeated the strong Hartly, Del., team here last Saturday afternoon by a score of 18 to 9. Our club will play the Kennedyville team here Saturday of this week.

KENNEDYVILLE ITEMS

The Misses Dill from Chesterville spent last Saturday and Sunday with the Misses Wiltbanks.

Mr. Wm. Archibald and Mr. Bramble spent Wednesday and Thursday in Baltimore witnessing the races.

Mrs. J. E. Merriken and daughter, Ethel, spent Sunday and Monday with relatives in New Castle, Del.

Miss Hayes, from Georgetown, Md., is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. H. Weer.

Rev. Albert Chandler, from Smyrna, Del., lectured for the W. C. T. U. Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Burris from Middletown, Del. are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Godwin.

Children's Day at the M. P. Church was held Sunday evening and a great many were present to hear the children's well rendered selections.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cleaver gave a birthday party Thursday evening in in honor of Mrs Cleaver's niece, Miss Bessie Webb.

Mr. and Mrs. Jarrell, from Rochester, N. Y., visited Mr. Jarrell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Jarrell the first of this week.

Mr. J. R. Jarrell and daughter, Mrs. Oscar Jarrell, spent Wednesday and Thursday with relatives at Goldsboro, Md.

Mr. Chas. Smith while practicing before the game with Worton Tuesday broke his nose and was unable to pitch the game, which resulted in defeat by Worton.

CECILTON ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Price and son, Lewis, of Still Pond, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Deshane.

Miss Blanche VanBuskirk has returned to her home in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Morris, of Wilmington, spent Friday in town.

Miss Eliza Biggs is spending this week, in Baltimore.

Mrs. Eric Astrom is visiting relatives in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. John Shelton and daughter spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Alderson.

Mr. James Lusby took his pacer, "Mattie Mills," to Philadelphia this week.

Several from here attended the teachers examination in Elkton this week.

Messrs. Austin Crothers, Wm. S. Evans and Albert Constable, of Elkton, organized a Democratic Club here on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Jones and daughter, Mary, spent Friday with Mrs. Thos. P. Jones.

Mrs. Logan and children, of Chester, are visiting Mrs. Robert Blackway.

Miss Josephine Hayes visited Miss Lydia Milliken this week.

C. E. CONVENTION.

The great International Christian Endeavor Convention, which meets in Baltimore from July 5 to 10, is but a few days off, and it will doubtless prove to be the most successful and largest session ever held. Every convenience has been provided for the entertainment of the thousands of delegates who are expected to attend from all parts of the world. Marylanders are expected to be represented to the tune of at least 8,000 delegates, and their headquaters in Northminister Presbyterian Church, on the corner of North Avenue and St. Paul Street, will be attractively decorated and equipped with every convenience.

Accommodations are being obtained for at least 40,000 delegates. Arrangments are now being made to supply every evangelical church pulpit in the city with a visiting minister on the Sunday of the convention. The Saturday of the convention week, will be devoted to excursions to such places as Washington, Tolchester, Gettysburg and Annapolis.

Friday of the convention week, will practically be "Maryland Day," for the state and denominational rallies are to be held on that day. The state rallies will be held in the morning from 10.30 to 12.30 P. M. while the denominational rallies are to be held in the afternoon. The Marylanders will assemble in the Lyric, and at least 8,000 Endeavorers of the state are expected to be present. An interesting program has been provided, and it will doubtless be one of the best features of the convention. Addresses are to be made by Rev. John Timothy Stone and Oliver Huckel. The mammoth choir of 2400 voices, under Mr. Richard A. Harris, will be present, and render some grand music. This chorus alone will be worth hearing. Every one of the 280 societies in the state are expected to be represented. A number of delegates will attend from this county.

The finance committee, which has in charge the distribution of the convention stock at the rate of $1 per share, is extremely anxious that every Endeavorer in the state should be a contributor. The purchase of even one share of the stock, entitles the holder to the privileges of the convention, an official badge, official program, map of the city, printed report of the convention proceedings, official guide and souvenir book, and a beautifully engraved certificate of the stock signed by the general committee of 1905. An auxiliary committee, of over 2000 members, has been appointed for the counties as well as the city, who are to solicit subscriptions in their respective localities. The members of this committee from this county, are as follows: Kent County—Miss Bessie Nicholson and Mr. Wm. A. Wheatley, of Chestertown; Mr. Marian T. Miller, of Rock Hall.

WARWICK ITEMS.

Mr. Wm. J. Lofland, who has been indisposed for the past week, we are glad to state, is rapidly improving at this writing.

Mr. Samuel Wilson lost a valuable mare last Thursday night from the effects of colic. We feel sure he has the sympathy of the community in his loss.

Mrs. Martha Cain returned to her home in Baltimore county after a month's visit to her son, Rev. Frank S. Cain on Wednesday. She was accompanied to Baltimore by her son.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Wilson visited Delaware City recently.

Misses Emma and Ethel Vineyard spent Monday and Tuesday in Elkton taking the teachers enamination. We wish them success.

The re-opening of Rehoboth M. P. Church at Sassafras has been postponed until June 25, at which time Rev. F. T. Tagg, D. D., editor of the Methodist Protestant, Baltimore, will be with us, and preach at 10.30 A. M. Other ministers of note will be present. We cordially invite all to be present.

The school closed here last Friday to give the children a much enjoyed vacation.

Mrs. Lynch, of Elkton, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Wilson this week.

Preaching at Warwick M. P. Church next Sunday evening at 8 P. M. C. E. meeting at 7.30 P. M. to which all are invited.

Miss Clara Blackburne, of Wilmington, visited Mrs. R. B. Merritt on Thursday of last week. We are always glad to have Miss Clara in our midst.

WORTON ITEMS.

Worton base ball nine crossed bats with the Kennedyville boy's last Tuesday, score 9 to 8 in favor of Worton.

Mr. John Sutton is at home for his summer vacation.

Mrs. N. B. Gears is at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jack Hackett, who has been quite sick.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sheats have been spending sometime at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Sheats, of Worton.

Mrs. Hepburn, of Baltimore, is visiting her mother, Mrs. J. B. Merritt.

Just What Everyone Should do.

Mr. J.T. Barber of Irwinville, Ga., always keeps a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy at hand ready for instant use. Attacks of colic, cholera morbus and diarrhoea come on so suddenly that there is no time to hunt a doctor or go to the store for medicine. Mr. Barber says: "I have tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which is one of the best medicines I ever saw. I keep a bottle of it in my room as I have had several attacks of colic and it has proved to be the best medicine I ever used." Sold by M. A. Toulson, Druggest.

Order of Publication.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County in Equity.

No. 1552.

Augusta M. Bowers, John S. Bowers, Lucy Bowers, Thos. D. Bowers, Mary R. Aldridge, Wm. R. Aldridge, vs.
John N. Dodd, Charles L. Dodd, Harry L. Dodd, Thomas S. Dodd, Mary H. Dodd, Richard D. Hynson, Jefferson D. Bacchus, The Second National Bank of Chestertown, Md., H. Clay Lusby, The Kent County Savings Bank, Whitely Johnson, Frederick Humbert, Andrew J. Hackett and Publishing Clearing House.

THE object of this bill is to procure a decree for the sale of certain Real Estate of which John T. Dodd died, seized and possessed and to have the proceeds thereof divided among the persons entitled according to their respective interests.

The bill states that a certain John T. Dodd, late of Kent county, deceased, by his last will and testament dated the 15th day of September, 1874, duly probated and recorded in Wills Records of Kent county in Liber E. C. No. 1, folios 130, etc., among other things gave and devised unto John N. Dodd a certain farm or tract or tracts of land, situate and lying in the Fourth Election District of Kent county and near Chestertown, commonly called the Dodd farm, to him and his heirs forever, provided nevertheless, that if the said John N. Dodd should die without issue surviving him then he devised the said farm over to his daughter, Augusta M. Bowers, for life, and at her death he gave and devised the said farm to his six grandchildren, Thos. S., Charles L. and Harry L. Dodd, John S., Thomas D. and Mary R. Bowers, (the said Mary R. Bowers has since intermarried with William R. Aldridge,) in fee simple, share and share alike, subject to six legacies of five hundred dollars each to the said Thos. S., Charles L. and Harry L. Dodd, John S., Thomas D. Bowers and Mary R. Aldridge, formerly Mary R. Bowers, and whereas the said John T. Dodd, by his last will and testament, directed that certain other real estate to wit, a lot of land with the improvements thereon, situated on High street in Chestertown, and another lot of land with improvements thereon situated on Calvert street in said town should be sold by his executrix, and the proceeds of the sale, together with the personalty, should be used for the payment of his debts, but the last mentioned parcels of real estate were not sold, and the said John T. Dodd was seized and possessed, at the time of his death of two other lots or parcels of land, not devised and not mentioned in his last will and testament to wit : a lot of land situated on High St., and commonly called the "Shop lot", and another lot of land commonly called the "Lumberyard lot."

And the bill further states that Mary J. Dodd, duly qualified as executrix of the said John T. Dodd, but has since departed this life.

And the bill further states that there are certain judgments against the interest of Harry L. Dodd and Thomas S. Dodd, in the real estate which said judgments liens will affect the title of any purchaser who may bid at the sale of the real estate, and the parties holding the said liens are hereby made party defendants hereto, as will appear by copies of liens filed as exhibits in this case.

And the bill further states that Charles L. Dodd has applied for the benefit of the bankrupt law, and his interest in the said real estate has been sold and those who purchased same and now hold interest therein are parties to this cause.

And the bill further states the plaintiffs are anxious to have the said real estate sold for the purpose of partition among the several persons who are interested therein and entitled to share in the proceeds of the sale of the said real estate.

It is thereupon, this 1st day of June, 1905, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County, as a court of equity, the plaintiff's by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper printed and published in Kent county, once a week for four successive weeks before the 3rd of July giving to the non-resident defendants Thomas S Dood and The Publishing Clearing House of the object and substance of the bill and warning said non-resident defendants to apper in person or by solicitor on or before the 17th day of July next to show cause if any they have why a decree should not be passed as prayed.

2ND ANNUAL EXHIBITION OF
Art Embroidery and Lace Work

FIFTEEN CASH PRIZES

The Competitive Exhibition of Art Embroideay and Lace Work held last autumn was so successful that we have decided to hold another exhibition in October of this year.

The only conditions of the competition are that pieces shown must have been worked by their exhibitors, and that no piece shown last year can be entered again. The transportation charges on all pieces must be prepaid.

Fifteen cash prizes will be given—one of $25.00, one of $15.00, two of $10.00, four of $5.00, and seven of $2.00.

All pieces will remain the property of those who worked them. Pieces shown will be marked "For Sale," if desired, at prices named by their owners.

The counties were well represented in last years's exhibition, some very handsome pieces coming from them. We hope that, this year, the entries from outside of Baltimore will at least equal in number—as well as in excellence—those from the city.

Entry cards, to be attached to exhibits, will be mailed on request. Kindly state the number of cards wanted.

Our Mail Order Department is equipped to give prompt and accurate service.

The McCall Bazar of Fashions will be mailed free every month on request.

Samples of Silks, Dress Goods, Wash Fabrics and so on will be cheerfully sent if you will write for them.
