FOR TREASURER:

HOW WOULD YOU like to be "Scotty" with a $30,000,000,000 gold mine and a yellow dog? J. D. Rockfeller's little pile ain't in it with "Scotty," of Death Valley fame.

THE BANKS of Kent county are about the safest places in which to deposit our spare cash that we know of. Don't take any stock in these get-rich-quick investments. They can't stand and are as full of bubbles as stagnant pools.

SECRETRRY OF THE NAVY Charles J. Bonaparte, has set a high ideal for appointment to office and for the conduct of affairs in his department. Political "pull" will not go with the new secretary. A man must be worthy of his office before he will be chosen to fill it.

GOV. WARFIELD did the right thing the other day when he asked for the resignations of two of the supervisors of election for Anne Arundel county. These supervisors are avowed candidates for office, and they had to do with the appointment of judges and clerks of election. They should have resigned without being forced to do so in the interest of honesty and fairness in the next election.

THE HON. SID. MUDD delivered a great tirade against the passage of the Poe Amendment at Upper Marlborough on Tuesday. It required more than one hour for the Hon. Sid. to deliver himself of his speech and he got so hot that he had to come out of his collar, necktie and coat. It was a great effort for his own political salvation in a land where the negro rules the roost, but it was mighty poor argument against the passage of the amendment. The Hon. Sid. could not go to Congress were it not for the votes of his colored friends in his district. Hence, his strenuous efforts in their behalf.

THE BALTIMORE SUN of Wednesday contained an interesting article concerning the life work of Captain Wm. C. Eliason, president and general manager of the Tolchester Steamboat Company. Capt. Eliason is one of the few men in these parts who has made a great success of the excursion business, and during his connection with the Tolchester Company it has rapidly risen to the great prominence and popularity which it justly enjoys. Capt. Eliason knows how to handle crowds in every respect, and Tolchester is a great place, because Capt. Eliason's methods of conducting the resort are such as make it a very desirable place for Sunday schools, churches, etc., to patronize. Capt. Eliason is a hustler, and anything with which he has to do has to get a "move on," or there is not much to it.

CHESTERVILLE ITEMS.

Rev. C. D. Bulla, wife and their little daughter, Dorothy, of Winchrster, Va., and Miss Carrie Ford, of Baltimore, are visiting Mr. Sam Ford, near Chesterville.

Miss Fannie Hoskinson, of Middleburg, Va., and Miss Dayie Felton, of Queen Anne's, are visiting Mrs. J. H. Kuhlmann, Chesterville.

Matrimony is in the breeze around Chesterville. On July 4, 1905, Rev. J. H. Kuhlmann united in marriage Mr. John W. Blackiston and Miss Annie Hessner, both of Kent county, Md., and on the 12th of July, Mr. Samuel Tildon Cooper and Miss Bertha Miller, both of Kent Co., Md., were married at the parsonage in Chesterville by Rev. J. H. Kuhlmann. Another couple visited the above parsonage July 19th with serene and yet with joyful intentions and upon the arrival of Rev. J. H. Kuhlman from the District Conference Mr. William G. Woodall and Miss Elva V. Smtih, both of Crumpton, Kent County, were made one and went on their way rejoicing.

THE EASTERN SHORE.

City correspondents of one of our daily papers are waisting considerable paper and time in trying to impress upon the people of the state and country at large that the Eastern Shore farmers are a gloomly and sorry looking set of fellows because a peach crop is practically a thing of the past, and are endeavoring to serve up the notion that mosquitoes are about the only things that 'thrive on the Eastern Sho.' Some of those city fellows have an idea that the Eastern Shore of Maryland is only about a 'ten acre lot,' and it is no wonder that they have never realized that it is God's country—the Garden of Eden. Their knowledge of Geography being thus limited, their information concerning crops etc. is necessarily distorted, and while the average Eastern Shore farmer has forgotten when the peach crop was ever a profitable source of revenue, these reporters are making it appear that everything has got a grave yard look upon them because the peach crop is practically a thing of the past. The farmer has learned long since to depend upon something more substantial and certain than a peach crop, and there are few farmers in Kent or on the entire Easterm Shore who are not decidly better off without the peach than with it. Landlord and tenant are far better off growing the cereals and raising stock than they were when their expenditures were based in many instances upon a prospective peach crop, which never materialized, and the farming lands to-day are better and the farmers who till these lands are more independent than ever before. It is a wrong thing for our daily papers to convey the impression to outside purchasers that the Eastern Shore is good for nothing except to raise peaches. It is the best corn, wheat and stock raising country in the state, and you can't buy Kent county land to-day of good quality for less than from $50 to $65 per acre, and it is not a peach crop that makes farming pay on the Eastern Shore from Cecil to Worcester. Don't trifle with Eastern Shore farmers. They know their business far better than city reporters; and as for mosquitoes, we should think Baltimore people would blush every time they heard the name. They come early and stay late in Baltimore, and even at Christmas time they may be found sticking to the walls of the house, or hovering on the top of a bedpost, where the weary boarder under mosquito netting lies concealed from his vile bill. Those Baltimore mosquitoes stick worse than royal glue, and are so large that they use them for fish bait sometimes on Back river. Keep off Mr. city reporter, you're on ticklish ground.

BASE BALL NOTES.

—Chestertown Athletic Club and Still Pond baseball team played a good game Saturday on the former's diamond. Still Pond won, score 13 to 8. For seven innings Burke held the visitors down well, they making but few "clean" hits off him. Coleman pitched the last two innings. For the other side, L. Atwell was on the slab and kept the home team's hits scattered. The fielding of White was a feature. The teams were made up as follows: Still Pond—L. Atwell, p; J. Atwell, c; P. Rasin, 1b; W. Hebron, 2b; E. Hebron, ss; H. Atwell, 3b; C. Jewell, rf; J. Bolden, cf; E. Nickerson, lf. C. A. C.—W. Burke and C. Coleman, p; A. Simpler, c; Prof. Smyth, 1b; H. Toulson, 2b; H. Bramble, ss; C. Coleman and W. Burke, 3b; A. Green, rf; J. White, cf; J. Barnes, lf.

—Mr. John Rolph, a Chestertown ball player, who has been in Philadelphia for several months, is home again. He has taken part in a number of games in that city, and will be seen on the local diamond again soon.

Hitch, Wilson and McGinnis, members of last year's Washington College team, are playing excellent ball for Betterton.

Several of the young men of the town are endeavoring to organize a summer base ball team. The difficulty lies in securing suitable grounds upon which to play.

CHURCH NOTES.

Christ M. P. Sunday school enjoyed the day at Love Point last Wednesday. About 183 went on the trip and all report a very pleasant day.

GET

in the swim, and come to headquarters for

YOUR SPRING SUIT.

It's much easier and more profitable to move with ebb tide where things are moving out. There's plenty life, merchandise, etc., so much more so, than to butt up against flood tide, up stream, or slack water where things are at a standstill. Merchandise is cheaper where volume of trade predominates.
