LOCAL MATTERS.

Farm Sold.—Mr. Thomas Ellis has sold his farm near Edesville to Mr. Wm. T. Wilkins, of Rock Hall. The farm contains 115 acres and sold for $2.500. The deal was negotiated by J. Waters Russell, real estate.

Slight Fire.—A shock of wheat on the Dodd farm, tenanted by Mr. William Y. Burke, caught fire from an unknown cause one evening last week and was destroyed. Had it not been for the timely discovery of the blaze by Mr. Burke, his fine field of wheat might have been destroyed. Mr. Burke has one of the best crops of wheat in this section this year.

Fine Residence Sold.—Mr. Thomas G. Wroth, the shoe man, has sold his beautiful home on Washington avenue, to Dr. S. E. Ford for $4,000. This is one of the finest properties in town and will make Dr. Ford and his family a charming home. The deal was made through J. Waters Russell, real estate. Mr. Wroth will begin at once to make plans for the erection of a handsome home on the lot on Front street recently purchased by him of Hon. Charles T. Westcott, of Baltimore.

Shoot ends at Betterton.—Captain Malone's shoot at Betterton ended Friday. Nearly 15.000 targets were used in the four days. Storr led the list, breaking a total of 480 out of 500. Thursday he missed but 7 out of 200. Lester German headed the amateurs, breaking 466 out of 500. The professionals finished in the following order: Storr, Hawkins, Squier and Sampson. Amateurs finished as follows: German, Foard, Lupus, J. H. Miller, J. R. Malone, Silver King and Dixson.

Violated the Fish Law.—Deputy Game Wardens Oregon M. Dennis and Mr. Wm. R. Armstrong have been on a cruise in the upper bay during the past week on the police boat, May Brown, looking after violators of the fish law. The party has made two arrests for violations of the law by fishing with purse nets. The captains of the vessels arrested, according to a despatch to the American from Annapolis, are Frank Davis, of the schooner Rebecca, and G. E. Sewell, of the Mary E. Crockett, both of which hail from Rock Hall. They were paroled, but warrants for their arrest will be issued on the return of the official party to Baltimore.

Galena Bank Officers.—At the annual meeting of the directors of the Galena Bank last week the following directors and officers were elected: President, Dr. E. A. Scott; vice-president, Henry Parr, Esq.; secretary, Rev. A. P. Prettyman. Directors—E. Thomas Massey, A. H. Malsberger, Dr. E. A. Scott, A. P. Prettyman, J. F. Willson, Wills Lusby, Wm. A. Whitaker, L. H. Dreka, John Quinn, J. T. Pennington. The bank is doing a flourishing business. They have recently purchased a lot upon which they are erecting a handsome new bank building and they may employ an assistant cashier to assist Mr. Wallis who is doing most excellent work.

Mr. Chapman's Narrow Escape.—Mr. James W. Chapman made a narrow escape from serious and possibly fatal injury Thursday morning while returning from his farm near Lynch's. Mr. Chapman was driving along slowly because of the heat and when opposite the road gate on the Dodd farm his horse stumbled and fell, throwing Mr. Chapman into the ditch about 10 feet in front of the carriage. Messrs. John N. Dodd and Wm. Y. Burke saw Mr. Chapman's predicament and went to his assistance. They assisted him to get his horse upon his feet and adjusted the harness. Investigation proved that Mr. Chapman had sustained only slight bruises on the arm and limb. Not far from where Mr. Chapman fell is a large stone and had he struck that, the injury might have been fatal. The horse was slightly injured.

Married at Rock Hall.—Miss Lottye M. Rodenhi left the home of her mother, Mrs. Louise Rodenhi, 534 West Barre street, Baltimore, some weeks ago to visit a friend, Mrs. Samuel Armstrong, at Rock Hall. Last Saturday afternoon Mrs. Rodenhi received a letter from her daughter telling her that she had been married to Mr. George F. Akers, of Rock Hall, last Wednesday week by Rev. Henry B. Martin, M. D., rector of Emmanuel Protestant Episcopal Church, of Chestertown. The marriage license was secured in Chestertown from Clerk of the Court Dixon. Mrs. Rodenhi expressed surprise at her daughter's marriage, saying that while she expected the wedding to take place in the fall, she was somewhat surprised at the action of her daughter. She also stated that she was perfectly reconciled to the match, and she thought a great deal of the young man who is now her son-in-law.

For a long number of years the deceased had resided in Chestertown, and was one of the most generous and kindhearted women in the community. No task was too difficult for Mrs. Green to perform if it was for the benefit of some other than herself. She was a most loving wife and devoted mother, and her entire life work was given up to the welfare of her family. She was a devoted member of Sacred Heart Catholic Church, and labored earnestly for the success of its interests.

HOTTEST WEATHER FOR YEARS.

The first three days of this week were the hottest days for many years in nearly all parts of the country. In many of our largest cities there were many deaths due to the intense heat and even the rural districts have had an excellent sufficiency of the sweltering rays of old Sol. Philadelphia was the hottest city in the country on Monday, while Baltimore held the palm for Tuesday. Chicago and New York and even Atlantic City, where old Ocean's breezes usually get the best of the pranks of old Sol, came in for a decided share of the honors. In Philadelphia on Monday the temperature reached a maximum of 96° and there were many prostrations. The mercury reached 98° in Baltimore on Tuesday and this was the highwater mark for the country. Little relief came from the excessive heat during the night, and life was made very uncomfortable for man and beast. In Chestertown the thermometer registered 96 degrees on Monday and 94 on Tuesday with about 63 degrees of humidity in the atmosphere. Some of our residents say the mercury reached 99 degrees in places, but their thermometers were more or less exposed to the sun. Monday and Tuesday nights were exceedingly uncomfortable nights, and there were many who left their beds and spread their blankets upon the floor hoping to catch a breeze. There were no prostrations from the heat, and a sigh of relief went up from thousands of people hereabouts when the storm of Wednesday afternoon cooled the atmosphere and made life pleasant. There were warmer days in Chestertown last summer, but Monday and Tuesday were plenty warm enough on the Eastern Shore.
